INDENTURE

Dated as of May 10, 2006

INDENTURE, dated as of May 10, 2006, among ROCKWALL CDO LTD., an exempted limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the "Company") and, together with its permitted successors and assigns, the "Issuer"), ROCKWALL CDO (DELAWARE) CORP., a Delaware corporation (the "Co-Issuer" and, together with the Issuer, the "Co-Issuers") and JPMORGAN CHASE BANK, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, as trustee (together with its permitted successors in the trusts hereunder, the "Trustee") and as Securities Intermediary.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The Co-Issuers are duly authorized to execute and deliver this Indenture to provide for the Notes issuable as provided in this Indenture. All representations, warranties, covenants and agreements made by the Co-Issuers herein are for the benefit and security of the Noteholders and the Trustee. The Co-Issuers are entering into this Indenture, and the Trustee is accepting the trusts created hereby, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged.

It is a condition of issuance of the Notes that the Class A-1LA Notes be rated "AAA" by Standard & Poor's and "Aaa" by Moody's, the Class X Notes be rated "AAA" by Standard & Poor's and "Aaa" by Moody's, the Class A-1LB Notes be rated "AAA" by Standard & Poor's and "Aaa" by Moody's, the Class A-2L Notes be rated at least "AA" by Standard & Poor's and at least "Aa2" by Moody's, the Class A-3L Notes be rated at least "A" by Standard & Poor's and at least "A2" by Moody's, the Class A-4L Notes be rated at least "A-" by Standard & Poor's and at least "A3" by Moody's and the Class B-1L Notes be rated at least "BBB" by Standard & Poor's and at least "Baa2" by Moody's. With respect to the Notes, such ratings by Standard & Poor's address solely the likelihood of the timely payment of the Periodic Interest Amount (which consists of interest accrued on the Aggregate Principal Amount of each applicable Class of Notes at the Applicable Periodic Rate) and the ultimate payment of the Aggregate Principal Amount in the case of the Class A-1LA Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes and the Class A-2L Notes, timely payment of Class X Payments and the ultimate payment of the Cumulative Interest Amount and the Aggregate Principal Amount in the case of the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes. Such ratings by Moody's address the ultimate cash receipt of all required payments as provided by the governing documents, and are based on the expected loss to the Noteholders of each Class relative to the promise of receiving the present value of such payments. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the obligation to make any Extension Bonus Payment will not be rated by the Rating Agencies.

All things necessary to make this Indenture a valid agreement of the Co-Issuers in accordance with its terms have been done.

GRANTING CLAUSES

The Issuer hereby Grants to the Trustee, for the benefit and security of the Holders of the Notes, the Trustee, the Paying and Transfer Agent, the Default Swap Counterparties, the Servicer, the Collateral Administrator and the Securities Intermediary (collectively, the "Secured Parties"), all of its right, title and interest, whether now owned or

The Trustee acknowledges such Grant, accepts the trusts hereunder and agrees to perform the duties herein in accordance with the provisions hereof.

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS

Section 1.1. Definitions

Except as otherwise specified herein or as the context may otherwise require, the following terms have the respective meanings set forth below for all purposes of this Indenture, and the definitions of such terms are equally applicable both to the singular and plural forms of such terms and, where applicable, to the masculine, feminine and neuter genders of such terms. Whenever any reference is made to an amount the determination of which is governed by Section 1.3 hereof, the provisions of Section 1.3 hereof shall be applicable to such determination or calculation, whether or not reference is specifically made to Section 1.3 hereof, unless some other method of calculation or determination is expressly specified in the particular provisions.

Section 1.2. Other Definitional Provisions.

All references in this instrument to designated "Annexes," "Articles," "Sections," "Subsections" and other subdivisions are to the designated Annexes, Articles, Sections, Subsections and other subdivisions of this instrument as originally executed. The words "herein," "hereof," "hereunder" and other words of similar import refer to this Indenture as a whole and not to any particular Annex, Article, Section, Subsection or other subdivision. Unless the context otherwise requires, terms defined in the UCC and not otherwise defined in this Indenture shall have the meanings set forth in the UCC.

Any reference herein to a "beneficial interest" in a security also shall mean, unless the context otherwise requires, a security entitlement with respect to such security, and any reference herein to a "beneficial owner" or "beneficial holder" of a security also shall mean, unless the context otherwise requires, the holder of a security entitlement with respect to such security.

Section 1.3. Assumptions as to Portfolio Collateral and Trust Estate.

Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, in connection with all calculations required to be made pursuant to this Indenture with respect to Scheduled Distributions on any Pledged Security, or any payments on any other assets included in the Trust Estate, and with respect to the income that can be earned on Scheduled Distributions on such Pledged Securities and on any other amounts that may be received for deposit in the Collection Account, the provisions set forth in this Section 1.3 shall apply.

All calculations with respect to Scheduled Distributions on the Pledged Securities shall be made on the basis of information as to the terms of each such Pledged Security and upon accounting of payments, if any, received on such Pledged Security that are furnished by or on behalf of the issuer of such Pledged Security and such information or report may be conclusively relied upon in making such calculations.

For each Due Period, the Scheduled Distributions on any Pledged Security (excluding any item of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral and Equity Portfolio Collateral, as to which Scheduled Distributions shall be assumed to be zero) shall be the amount required to be paid (including coupon payments, accrued interest, scheduled principal payments, if any, by way of sinking fund payments which are assumed to be on a pro rata basis or other scheduled amortization of principal (excluding any optional redemption), return of principal, and redemption premium, if any) that, if paid as scheduled, will be available in the Collection Account at the end of such Due Period. For purposes of calculating interest on Pledged Securities that have a rate of interest which varies with an objective index, the interest to be received thereon shall be assumed to be equal to the interest that would be received on such Pledged Security if the rate of interest accruing on such Pledged Security on the date of determination were to remain constant for each succeeding Due Period.

Each Scheduled Distribution with respect to a Pledged Security shall be assumed to be received on the applicable Due Date, and each such Scheduled Distribution shall be assumed to be immediately deposited in the Collection Account and to earn interest at the Assumed Interest Rate. All funds assumed to earn interest as provided herein shall be assumed to continue to earn interest at the applicable rate until the date on which they are required to be available in the Collection Account for application, in accordance with the terms hereof, to payment of principal of or interest on the Notes or other amounts payable or otherwise for application in accordance with the terms of this Indenture.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Indenture if the Trustee receives an Issuer Order or Issuer Request and also receives a Servicer Order or Servicer Request with respect to the same subject matter, the Issuer Order or Issuer Request, as the case may be, shall supersede any such Servicer Order or Servicer Request and be the controlling order or request hereunder.

(a) The Notes and the Trustee's certificate of authentication thereon shall be in substantially the forms required by this article with such appropriate insertions, omissions, substitutions and other variations as are required or permitted by this Indenture, and may have such letters, numbers or other marks of identification and such legends or endorsements placed thereon, as may, consistently herewith, be determined by the Authorized Officer of the Issuer executing such Notes as evidenced by such Authorized Officer's execution of such Notes. Any portion of the text of any Note may be set forth on the reverse thereof, with an appropriate reference thereto on the face of the Note.

(b) Regulation S Notes. The Class A-1L Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes, the Class B-1L Notes and the Class X Notes initially sold to Non-U.S. Persons in "offshore transactions" (within the meaning of Regulation S) shall be represented initially by single global notes (the "Temporary Regulation S Global Notes") in fully registered form without coupons, authenticated and delivered in substantially the forms attached hereto as Exhibit A-1L-1, Exhibit A-2L-1, Exhibit A-3L-1, Exhibit B-1L-1 and [Exhibit X-1], respectively. The Issuer shall deposit such Notes on behalf of the subscribers for such Notes with the Trustee as custodian (in such capacity, the "Custodian") for the Depository, registered in the name of a nominee of the Depository for the accounts of each of the Clearance Systems, for credit by the Clearance Systems to the respective accounts designated by the subscribers of such Notes (or to such other accounts as they may direct) at each of the Clearance Systems. The Temporary Regulation S Global Notes shall be exchanged for interests in the Permanent Regulation S Global Notes as set forth below. The Permanent Regulation S Global Notes shall be substantially in the form set forth as Exhibit A-1L-2, Exhibit A-2L-2, Exhibit A-3L-2, Exhibit B-1L-2 and [Exhibit X].

After the expiration of the Distribution Compliance Period beneficial interests in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note of each Class shall be exchanged for a Permanent Regulation S Global Note for such Class pursuant to and as provided below.

Without unnecessary delay but in any event prior to the termination of the Distribution Compliance Period, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent the Permanent Regulation S Global Notes executed by the Co-Issuers. Upon the termination of the Distribution Compliance Period, any Classes of Temporary Regulation S Global Notes shall be surrendered by the Custodian to the Trustee, in each case as the Issuer's agent for such purpose (or, at the Authenticating Agent's option, the Custodian shall be instructed by the Authenticating Agent or the Trustee to endorse each such Temporary Regulation S Global Note to reduce the principal amount thereof), to be exchanged, in whole or from time to time in part, for a Permanent Regulation S Global Note without charge and the Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver to the Custodian for delivery in exchange for each such Temporary Regulation S Global Note or the portions thereof to be exchanged, an equal aggregate principal amount of a Permanent Regulation S Global Note, as shall be specified by the Custodian; provided that, upon such presentation by the Custodian: (i) the Trustee receives a certificate substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit F attached hereto, and signed by the respective Clearance System as to the portions of each Temporary Regulation S Global Note held for the respective accounts of such Clearance System, that it has received from each beneficial owner of the portion of each Temporary Regulation S Global Note then to be exchanged, written certification substantially to the effect set forth in Exhibit G attached hereto, with such changes therein as shall be approved by the Issuer, (ii) none of the Trustee or any Paying Agent have actual knowledge, nor have they received notification from the Issuer with respect to the original issuance and distribution of the Global Notes that such Person has actual knowledge, that such certificate is false, and (iii) the Trustee and any Paying Agent do not have a United States address as the address for payment to any Holder of the Permanent Regulation S Global Note issuable upon such exchange. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of redemption in whole or acceleration of all or any part of the Notes prior to the termination of the Distribution Compliance Period, the Permanent Regulation S Global Notes will not be issuable in respect of the Temporary Regulation S Global Note or portion thereof, and payment thereon will be made as provided in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note. Any Class of Note in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Note presented to the Trustee for a Permanent Regulation S Global Note shall be endorsed by the Trustee to reduce the principal amount thereof by the amount so exchanged, and shall then be returned to the Custodian, pending exchange of the remaining balance thereof pursuant to the terms hereof.

On each Payment Date, if any, that falls on or prior to the date on which all Temporary Regulation S Global Notes shall have been exchanged for Permanent Regulation S Global Notes (the "Exchange Date"), interest, if any, and principal on the Temporary Regulation S Global Notes shall be paid to the Custodian acting on behalf of the Clearance System for the benefit of persons for whom the Clearance System holds the Temporary Regulation S Global Notes on each such Payment Date to the extent the Clearance System has delivered a certificate or certificates, appropriately completed and signed, in substantially the form set forth in Exhibit F attached hereto, which certificate or certificates shall be dated the relevant Payment Date and shall be delivered to the Custodian.

The Issuer will obtain from each Clearance System an agreement that it will credit principal and interest, if any, as of each Payment Date that falls on or prior to the termination of the Distribution Compliance Period, received in respect of each Temporary Regulation S Global Note to the respective accounts of the persons for whom the Clearance System holds a Temporary Regulation S Global Note on each such Payment Date, upon, and only upon, receipt of certificates from such account holders in substantially the form set forth in Exhibit G attached hereto to be dated on or before each relevant Payment Date (copies of such form being available from the offices of Clearstream at 67, Boulevard Grande-Duchesse Charlotte, Luxembourg, the offices of Euroclear at 1 Boulevard du Roi Albert II, B-1210 Brussels, Belgium, and each other Paying Agent of the Issuer).

Upon any such exchange of a portion of any Temporary Regulation S Global Note for a Permanent Regulation S Global Note, the Custodian shall endorse (or, as provided above, the Trustee shall instruct the Custodian) such Temporary Regulation S Global Note to reflect the reduction of the principal amount evidenced thereby.

(c) Rule 144A Global Notes. The Class A-1LA Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes, the Class B-1L Notes and the Class X Notes initially sold to U.S. Persons (within the meaning of Rule 144A) shall be represented by single global notes (the "Rule 144A Global Notes") in fully registered form without coupons, authenticated and delivered in substantially the forms attached hereto as Exhibit A-1L-3, Exhibit A-2L-3, Exhibit A-3L-3, Exhibit B-1L-3 and [Exhibit X-1] respectively, which the Issuer shall deposit on behalf of the subscribers for such Notes with the Custodian for the Depository and registered in the name of Cede & Co., the nominee of DTC. The Aggregate Principal Amount of each Rule 144A Global Note may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Custodian for DTC or its nominees, as the case may be.

(d) Book-Entry Provisions. This Section 2.1(d) shall apply only to Regulation S Global Notes or Rule 144A Global Notes ("Global Notes") deposited with or on behalf of the Depository. On or prior to the Closing Date, the Issuer shall provide to the Trustee or Authenticating Agent (as applicable) an Issuer Order setting forth the amount of Notes (if any) to be issued on the Closing Date in the form of Temporary Regulation S Global Notes and Rule 144A Global Notes for each Class. With respect to the Notes, a Temporary Regulation S Global Note may be initially issued for each Class with an outstanding principal balance of zero (and the same may be reduced to zero at any time during the Distribution Compliance Period without cancellation).

(e) Definitive Notes. If at any time (including without limitation during the Distribution Compliance Period) (i) the Temporary Regulation S Global Notes or the Permanent Regulation S Global Notes or any of them become immediately due and repayable pursuant to Article Five hereof or (ii) any of DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream (A) is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holiday, statutory or otherwise) or (B) announces an intention permanently to cease business and no alternative clearance system satisfactory to the Issuer is available or (iii) as a result of any amendment to, or change in, the laws or regulations of the Cayman Islands or of any authority therein or thereof having power to tax or in the interpretation or administration of such laws or regulations which becomes effective on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer or any Paying Agent is or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment in respect of the Notes which would not be required were the Notes in definitive registered form or (iv) the Issuer so elects by notice to the Noteholders and Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, does not object (as determined by the Issuer), then the Issuer will issue Definitive Notes in exchange for and to the extent of such Global Notes within 30 days of the occurrence of the relevant event set forth in (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) above.

If at any time (i) the Notes or any of them become immediately due and payable following an Event of Default hereunder or (ii) DTC notifies the Issuer or the Trustee in writing that it is unwilling or unable to discharge properly its responsibilities as a depository with respect to the Rule 144A Global Notes or it ceases to be a "clearing agency" registered under the Exchange Act, and the Issuer is unable to locate a qualified successor within 90 days after such notice, then the Issuer will issue Definitive Notes in exchange for and to the extent of such Rule 144A Global Notes within 30 days of the occurrence of the relevant event set forth in (i) or (ii) above.

The Issuer shall notify the Trustee forthwith upon the occurrence of any of the events referred to in the two immediately preceding paragraphs and the Issuer shall, unless the Trustee agrees otherwise, promptly give notice thereof and of its obligation to issue Definitive Notes to the Noteholders. Upon giving such notice, the Issuer promptly shall cause the Custodian, as the case may be, to present forthwith for exchange and surrender such Global Note to the Trustee for cancellation, together with appropriate exchange, registration, payment and delivery instructions (identifying according to its records the beneficial holders to whom, and in the amounts, the Definitive Notes are to be registered and delivered), upon which the Trustee shall be entitled to rely conclusively. The Issuer shall prepare, execute and deliver to the Trustee at its specified office a sufficient number of duly executed Definitive Notes not later than the 20th day following the date of such notice, and the Trustee shall then promptly authenticate and deliver the appropriate number and amount of such Definitive Notes in accordance with the instructions received from the Custodian.

(f) Form of Notes. The Notes shall be typed, printed, lithographed or engraved or produced by any combination of these methods or may be produced in any other manner, all as determined by the Authorized Officers of the Co-Issuers, as applicable, executing such Notes, as evidenced by the Authorized Officers' execution of such Notes.

Section 2.2. Authorized Amount.

The aggregate principal amount of Class A-1LA Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes, Class A-2L Notes, Class A-3L Notes, Class A-4L Notes, Class B-1L Notes and Class X Notes that may be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture is limited to $538,000,000, $96,000,000, $76,000,000, $36,500,000, $10,000,000, $21,000,000 and $14,000,000, respectively, except for Notes authenticated and delivered upon registration of transfer of, or in exchange for, or in lieu of, other Notes pursuant to Section 2.5, 2.6 or 8.5 hereof.

Section 2.3. Denominations; Extension of Revolving Period and Final Maturity.

(a) Each Class of the Notes shall be issuable on the Closing Date in the forms set forth herein, without coupons, in minimum denominations of $200,000 and integral multiples of $1 in excess thereof (in each case expressed in terms of the stated or principal amounts thereof, as the case may be, at the Closing Date).

(b) The Issuer, if directed by the Board Resolution of the Issuer at the request of the Servicer, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Revolving Period to the applicable Extended Revolving Period End Date up to a maximum of four times (so that the Notes can only be extended to 2037) if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date in accordance with this Section 2.3, (ii) the Extension Conditions set forth in Section 2.3(d) are satisfied, (iii) the Issuer has given written notice to the Trustee of its election to extend the Revolving Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date and (iv) no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing. If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Final Maturity Date of the Notes (other than the Class X Notes) shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Final Maturity Date and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Notes or Preferred Shares (other than as may be required pursuant to the Extension Conditions) or amendment or supplement to this Indenture or the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement (the "Maturity Extension"); provided that the Issuer will not be permitted to effect more than four Maturity Extensions. The Final Maturity Date of the Class X Notes is not subject to extension.

(c) In the case of a Maturity Extension, any Holder or Beneficial Owner of Notes (other than Class X Notes) or Preferred Shares wishing to sell such Notes or Preferred Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser pursuant to the Extension Conditions must provide the applicable Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period pursuant to Section 2.3(d) (such Notes and Preferred Shares as to which an Extension Sale Notice has been duly given, "Extension Sale Securities"). The Class X Notes are not subject to sale in connection with a Maturity Extension and the maturity of the Class X Notes is not subject to extension. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each Holder providing an Extension Sale Notice shall be deemed to agree that no Extension Sale Securities of any Holder shall be purchased unless all Extension Sale Securities of all Holders are purchased and settled at the applicable Extension Purchase Price on the applicable Extension Effective Date and the other Extension Conditions are satisfied as of such date.

(d) The Maturity Extension shall be effective only if the following conditions (the "Extension Conditions") are satisfied:

(i) the purchase of all Extension Sale Securities has been settled by the designated Extension Qualifying Purchasers at the applicable Extension Purchase Price as of the applicable Extension Effective Date;

(ii) all such purchases of Extension Sale Securities individually and in the aggregate comply with the applicable transfer restrictions herein, in the Indenture and the Preferred Share Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement immediately after such purchase and the legends on such Notes and Preferred Shares and all applicable law, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, rules, regulations and procedures of any applicable securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency);

(iii) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to S&P (so long as any Notes are then rated by S&P) and (b) either (A) the Class B-1L Overcollateralization Ratio is at least 107.5% and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied as of the related Extension Determination Date and the Interest Coverage Test was satisfied on the immediately preceding Payment Date, the rating of each Class of Notes by Moody's has not been downgraded, withdrawn or qualified from that in effect on the Closing Date (unless it subsequently has been reinstated to the rating assigned on the Closing Date) or (B) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to Moody's (so long as any Notes are then rated by Moody's); and

(iv) (A) the Holders of 100% of the Outstanding Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes have delivered the Extension Sale Notice in the Extension Sale Notice Period or (B) if the Holders of 100% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes fail to deliver an Extension Sale Notice pursuant to the preceding clause (A), either (x) the Issuer, acting through the Servicer, notifies the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes in writing not later than the last day of the Extension Sale Notice Period that such Class A-1LA Notes shall constitute "Extension Sale Securities" (as a result of which such Class A-1LA Notes must be purchased by an Extension Qualifying Purchaser) or (y) the Holders of 100% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes have consented in writing to the Maturity Extension not later than the last day of the Extension Sale Notice Period.

The Issuer, the Trustee and, by its acceptance of the Notes or Preferred Shares, each Holder or Beneficial Owner of Notes or Preferred Shares agrees that the Placement Agent shall not be responsible for causing the Extension Conditions to be satisfied and shall not be liable to any such person or Holder of Notes or Preferred Shares (whether or not such Holder gave an Extension Sale Notice with respect to its Notes or Preferred Shares) or to any other person if the Extension Conditions are not satisfied. Failure of the Extension Conditions to be satisfied shall not constitute a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture.

(e) The following procedure shall apply to effect any extension of the Revolving Period or the Maturity Date, pursuant to Section 2.3:

(i) No later than three Business Days following receipt by the Trustee of the notice given by the Issuer of its election to extend the Revolving Period (the "Extension Notice"), at the cost of the Issuer the Trustee shall deliver the Extension Notice to all Holders of Notes (other than the Class X Notes) and the Preferred Shares Paying and Transfer Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preferred Shares) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding), in the form set out in the Indenture, and shall request the Rating Condition for the Maturity Extension from S&P, if applicable. Such Extension Notice shall include a statement to the effect that (i) no Extension Sale Notice delivered after the end of the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be effective and (ii) only the Class A-1LA Notes for which an Extension Sale Notice has been delivered may be treated as Extension Sale Securities pursuant to the Extension Conditions (with the result that the Class A-1LA Notes must be purchased by an Extension Qualifying Purchaser).

(ii) Any Holder of Notes (other than the Class X Notes) or Preferred Shares may give irrevocable notice (an "Extension Sale Notice") within 30 days after the Trustee has delivered the Extension Notice (the "Extension Sale Notice Period") of its intention to sell its Notes or Preferred Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in the case of a Maturity Extension. Any Extension Sale Notice received by the Trustee after the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be disregarded and deemed not to have been given. No Holder of Notes or Preferred Shares that has not given such an Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be entitled to sell its Notes or Preferred Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in connection with the Maturity Extension.

(iii) If the Holders of 100% of the Outstanding Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes have not delivered the Extension Sale Notice to the Trustee by the 20th calendar day after the date of the Extension Notice, the Trustee shall notify the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes of the date on which the Extension Sale Notice Period shall end and include a statement to the effect that (A) no Extension Sale Notice delivered after the end of the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be effective and (B) the Class A-1LA Notes for which no Extension Sale Notice has been delivered may be treated as Extension Sale Securities pursuant to clause (iv) of the Extension Conditions (as a result of which the Class A-1LA Notes must be purchased by an Extension Qualifying Purchaser).

(iv) On the applicable Extension Determination Date, the Issuer (or its agent) shall confirm (A) whether or not Extension Qualifying Purchasers for all Extension Sale Securities have been designated to purchase such Notes or Preferred Shares in compliance with all transfer restrictions in the Indenture and the legends on such Notes or Preferred Shares and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency), (B) whether the requirements of clause (iii) of the Extension Conditions are satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination

Date and (C) whether all other Extension Conditions can be satisfied as of the applicable Extension Effective Date.

(v) On each Extension Effective Date, the Maturity Extension shall become effective under the terms of the Indenture; provided that all Extension Conditions set forth above are satisfied. No later than two Business Days after each Extension Effective Date, the Trustee based on a determination made by the Issuer, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall deliver a notice to all Holders of Notes and the Preferred Shares Paying and Transfer Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preferred Shares), the Servicer, the Initial Purchaser, each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding) and the Irish Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class of Notes is listed thereon) confirming whether or not the Maturity Extension became effective. If the Maturity Extension became effective, the Issuer shall make any required notifications thereof to the Depositary for any Notes subject to the Maturity Extension. None of the Initial Purchaser, the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates shall have any duty to act as an Extension Qualifying Purchaser.

(vi) In the case of a Maturity Extension, each Holder of Notes (other than Extension Sale Securities) shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the applicable Extension Bonus Payment to the extent of available funds and as provided in Section 11.1. Holders of the Preferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment. The obligation to make any Extension Bonus Payment shall not be rated by Rating Agencies.

(f) The Extension Bonus Payment shall be payable to any applicable qualifying Beneficial Owners who have provided the Trustee with an Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification on or before the 5th Business Day prior to the first Payment Date from and including each Extension Effective Date on which funds are available to be used for such purposes in accordance with Priority of Payments, but in any event, no later than the earlier of the Final Maturity Date and the date of redemption of the Notes (other than the Class X Notes). Extension Bonus Payments which are not available to be paid on a Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments on a Payment Date shall not be considered "due and payable" hereunder but are due and payable on the next Payment Date on which funds are due and payable. The failure to pay any such Extension Bonus Payment on such date shall not be an Event of Default, unless the Issuer shall fail to pay in full such Extension Bonus Payment on the earlier of the Final Maturity Date and the date of redemption in full of the relevant Notes (other than the Class X Notes). Unpaid Extension Bonus Payments shall not accrue interest. Such amounts shall be paid, in the case of the Notes (other than the Class X Notes), to the accounts designated in the applicable Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification or, to the extent otherwise required by the rules of any applicable securities exchange or clearing agency, in a manner determined by the Issuer.

Section 2.4. Execution, Authentication, Delivery and Dating.

as applicable. The signature of such Authorized Officers on the Notes may be manual or facsimile.

Notes bearing the manual or facsimile signature of an individual who was at any time the Authorized Officer of the Co-Issuers (as applicable) shall bind the applicable Co-Issuer, notwithstanding the fact that such individual has ceased to hold such office prior to the authentication and delivery of such Notes or did not hold such office at the date of issuance of such Notes.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Co-Issuers may deliver the Class A-1LA Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes, the Class B-1L Notes and the Class X Notes to the Trustee for authentication and the Trustee (or an Authenticating Agent on its behalf), upon Issuer Order, shall authenticate and deliver such Notes as provided in this Indenture and not otherwise.

Each Note authenticated and delivered by the Trustee (or the Authenticating Agent) to or upon Issuer Order on the Closing Date shall be dated as of the Closing Date. All other Notes that are authenticated after the Closing Date for any other purpose hereunder shall be dated the date of their authentication.

Notes issued upon transfer, exchange or replacement of other Notes shall be issued in authorized denominations reflecting the original aggregate stated or principal amount of the Notes so transferred, exchanged or replaced, but shall represent only the stated or principal amount of the Notes so transferred, exchanged or replaced. If any Note is divided into more than one Note in accordance with this Article II, the stated or original principal amount of such Note shall be proportionately divided among the Notes delivered in exchange therefor and shall be deemed to be the aggregate stated or original principal amount of such subsequently issued Notes.

No Note shall be entitled to any benefit under this Indenture or be valid or obligatory for any purpose, unless there appears on such Note a certificate of authentication, substantially in the form provided for herein, executed by the Trustee (or Authenticating Agent, as provided below) by the manual signature of one of its Authorized Officers, and such certificate upon any Note shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Note has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder.

Upon the request of the Issuer, the Trustee shall and, at the election of the Trustee, the Trustee may, appoint one or more Authenticating Agents with power to act on its behalf and subject to its direction in the authentication of Notes in connection with transfers and exchanges thereof hereunder as fully to all intents and purposes as though each such Authenticating Agent had been expressly authorized by this Indenture to authenticate the Notes; provided that any such appointment shall be upon terms and conditions reasonably acceptable to the Trustee (with respect to which the Trustee may require, among other things, appropriate indemnification for any damages, losses or reasonable costs arising from acts or omissions of such Authenticating Agent). For all purposes of this Indenture, the authentication of Notes by an Authenticating

Agent pursuant to this Section shall be deemed to be an authentication of such Notes "by the Trustee."

JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, is hereby appointed, at the request of the Issuer, as Authenticating Agent for purposes of authenticating Definitive Notes issued in exchange for beneficial interests in the Global Notes.

RSM Robson Rhodes LLP is hereby appointed, at the request of the Issuer, as the initial Irish Paying Agent with respect to the Notes.

Any corporation into which any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, consolidation or conversion to which any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to the corporate trust business of any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent, shall be the successor of such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent hereunder, without the execution or filing of any further act on the part of the parties hereto or such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent or such successor corporation.

Any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent may at any time resign by giving written notice of resignation to the Trustee and the Issuer. The Trustee may at any time terminate the agency of any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent by giving written notice of termination to such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent and the Issuer.

The Trustee shall pay to any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent reasonable compensation and shall reimburse each Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent for expenses reasonably incurred by such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent in the performance of its duties as a Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent, in each case as and to the extent agreed upon between the Trustee and such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent; provided that if the appointment of such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent is at the election or request of the Issuer, the Trustee's obligation to make such payments shall be limited to amounts for which it is entitled to be reimbursed pursuant to Section 6.7(b) or (c). The provisions of Section 6.5 shall be applicable to any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent.

Section 2.5. Registration, Registration of Transfer and Exchange.

(a) The Issuer shall cause to be kept a register (the "Note Register") in which, subject to such reasonable procedures as it may prescribe, the Issuer shall provide for the registration of the Notes and the registration of transfers of the Notes. The Trustee is hereby appointed "Note Registrar" for the purpose of registering and transferring the Notes as herein provided. The Note Registrar shall supply all relevant documents to the Share Registrar necessary for the Share Registrar to maintain the Share Register accordingly and the Share Registrar shall be able to rely upon such information provided by the Note Registrar without any liability on its part. The Issuer will notify the Trustee of any Notes owned by or pledged to the Issuer or any of its Affiliates promptly upon the acquisition thereof or the creation of such pledge. So long as an Event of Default shall be continuing, the Note Registrar shall promptly, upon the written request of a Noteholder or holder of a Preferred Share, but in no event later than five Business Days following such request, furnish such Noteholder or holder of a Preferred Share with a list of all other Noteholders, holders of Preferred Shares (as applicable); provided that the Note Registrar shall have no liability to any person for furnishing the Note Register to any Noteholder or holder of a Preferred Share. The Note Registrar shall, upon request, furnish a copy of the Note Register to the Trustee and the Servicer.

Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) and (k) of this Section 2.5, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Note, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer (as applicable) shall execute, and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Notes of the same Class, of any authorized denomination and of a like aggregate principal amount.

Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) and (k) of this Section 2.5, at the option of the Holder, Notes may be exchanged for other Notes of the same Class, in any authorized denominations and of a like aggregate stated or principal amount, upon surrender of the Notes to be exchanged at the office of the Trustee. Whenever any Notes are so surrendered for exchange, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer (as applicable) shall execute, and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver, the Notes that the Holder making the exchange is entitled to receive.

All Notes issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of Notes shall be the valid obligations of the Co-Issuers, evidencing the same debt, and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Notes, as applicable, surrendered upon such registration of transfer or exchange.

Every Note presented or surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange shall be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Co-Issuers (as applicable) and the Trustee duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge shall be made to a Holder for any registration of transfer or exchange of Notes, but the Co-Issuers or the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any registration of transfer or exchange of Notes.

(b) No Note may be sold or transferred (including, without limitation by pledge or hypothecation) unless such sale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and is exempt under applicable state securities laws. No purported transfer of any interest in any Note or any portion thereof that is not made in accordance with this Section 2.5 shall be given effect by or be binding upon the Trustee or the Co-Issuers (as applicable) and any such purported transfer shall be null and void ab initio and vest in the transferee no rights against the Trustee, the Co-Issuers (as applicable) or the Trust Estate.

By its acceptance of a Note or a beneficial interest in a Note, each owner thereof will be deemed to have represented and agreed that transfer thereof is restricted and agrees that it shall transfer such Note or beneficial interest in such Note, only in accordance with the terms of this Indenture and such Note and in compliance with applicable law.

The applicable rules, regulations and procedures utilized or imposed by any Clearance System or DTC (collectively, "Applicable Procedures") shall be applicable to the Global Notes insofar as and to the extent beneficial interests in such Global Notes are held by the agent members of or participants in Euroclear, Clearstream or DTC, respectively. Account holders or agent members of or participants in Euroclear, Clearstream and DTC shall have no rights under this Indenture with respect to such Global Notes, and DTC (or its nominee) as registered Holder of any Global Notes may be treated by the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Note Registrar, the Authenticating Agent and any other Paying Agent (and any agent of any of the foregoing) as the owner of such Global Notes for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prevent the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Note Registrar, the Authenticating Agent or any Paying Agent from giving effect to any written certification, proxy or other authorization furnished by DTC or any Clearance System or impair, as between DTC, the Clearance System and its agent members or participants, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a Holder of any Notes. Requests or directions from, or votes of, DTC or any Clearance System with respect to any matter shall not be deemed inconsistent if made with respect to (or in separate proportions corresponding to) different beneficial owners. None of the Trustee, the Transfer Agent, the Note Registrar, the Authenticating Agent, nor the Paying Agent shall have any duty to monitor, maintain records concerning (or determine compliance with any of the restrictions on transfer set forth herein with respect to) owners of beneficial interests in the Global Notes. None of the Trustee, the Transfer Agent, the Note Registrar, the Authenticating Agent, nor the Paying Agent shall have any liability for the accuracy of the records of DTC or any Clearance System, or any actions or omissions of DTC or any Clearance System (or of the agent members of or participants in any Clearance System).

A Noteholder may transfer a Note or its beneficial interest in a Note only in accordance with the following provisions:

(i) Definitive Note to Temporary Regulation S Global Note. To the extent permitted by the Applicable Procedures and subject to the provisions of Section 2.5, if a Holder of a Definitive Note of any Class wishes at any time to transfer its beneficial interest in such Definitive Note to a Non-U.S. Person during the Distribution Compliance Period, such Holder shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 2.5, transfer its interest in such Definitive Note for an equivalent beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note of the same Class. Upon (A) the surrender to the Trustee for cancellation of the Definitive Notes representing the beneficial interest to be so transferred and (B) the receipt by the Trustee and the Co-Issuers of (1) an Investor Representation Letter from such Noteholder's transferee, (2) a Regulation S Transferor Certificate from such Noteholder, and (3) a written order in accordance with the Applicable Procedures containing information regarding the Euroclear or Clearstream account to be credited with the increase in the Regulation S Global Note and the name of such account, the Trustee shall cancel such Definitive Note and, concurrently with such cancellation, instruct the Euro Transfer Agent to adjust the Common Depository's position in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note of the same Class to reflect an increase of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the same amount and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the transferee a beneficial interest in such Temporary Regulation S Global Note equal to the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Definitive Note so cancelled. In the event of any partial transfer of an interest in a Definitive Note to a Temporary Regulation S Global Note, the Co-Issuers shall execute and provide to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall authenticate and return to the Holder, a Definitive Note evidencing the remaining balance thereof. After the Distribution Compliance Period, interests in any Definitive Notes may not be transferred or exchanged for interests in a Temporary Regulation S Global Note.

(ii) Definitive Note to Permanent Regulation S Global Note. If a Holder of a Definitive Note wishes at any time after the Distribution Compliance Period to transfer its interest in such Definitive Note to a Non-U.S. Person, such Holder shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 2.5, transfer its interest in such Definitive Note for an equivalent beneficial interest in such Permanent Regulation S Global Note of the same Class. Upon (A) the surrender to the Euro Transfer Agent located in London in the case of the Class B-2L Notes, and the Trustee in the case of any other Class of Notes, of the Definitive Note representing the interest to be so transferred, for cancellation and (B) the receipt by the Trustee and the Co-Issuers of (1) an Investor Representation Letter from such Noteholder's transferee, (2) a Regulation S Transferor Certificate from such Noteholder and (3) a written order in accordance with the Applicable Procedures containing information regarding the Euroclear or Clearstream account to be credited with the increase in the Regulation S Global Note and the name of such account, the Trustee shall cancel such Definitive Note, and, concurrently with such cancellation, in the case of the Class B-2L Notes, instruct the Common Depository and in the case of any other Class of Notes, instruct the Custodian to endorse the Permanent Regulation S Global Note to reflect an increase of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the same amount and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the transferee a beneficial interest in such Permanent Regulation S Global Note equal to the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Definitive Note so cancelled. In the event of any partial transfer of an interest in a Definitive Note to a Permanent Regulation S Global Note, the Co-Issuers or the Issuer, as applicable, shall execute and provide to the Trustee (or the Euro Transfer Agent located in London), and the Trustee (or the Euro Transfer Agent located in London) shall authenticate and return to the Holder, a Definitive Note evidencing the remaining balance thereof (which Definitive Note shall be so mailed or otherwise delivered from a location outside the United States).

(iii) Temporary Regulation S Global Note to Definitive Note or Rule 144A Global Note. To the extent permitted by DTC and subject to the provisions of Section 2.5(k), if a Holder of a beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note of a particular Class wishes at any time during the Distribution Compliance Period to transfer its beneficial interest in such Temporary Regulation S Global Note to a U.S. Person, such holder shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 2.5, transfer its beneficial interest in such Temporary Regulation S Global Note for an equivalent interest in a Rule 144A Global Note. Upon receipt by the Trustee of (A) a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit G hereto and (B) a written order given in accordance with the Applicable Procedures, the Trustee shall instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note to reflect a reduction of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the Aggregate Principal Amount of the beneficial interest thereof to be so transferred and concurrently with such reduction, in the case of a Rule 144A Global Note, instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in the Rule 144A Global Note of the same Class to reflect an increase of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the same amount and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the transferee a beneficial interest in such Rule 144A Global Note equal to the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Temporary Regulation S Global Note so reduced, and, in the case of a Definitive Note, the Co-Issuers shall execute and furnish to the Trustee, and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver to such Holder, a Definitive Note in a principal amount equal to the amount of the reduction in the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Temporary Regulation S Global Note of such Class.

(iv) Transfer of Interests in a Definitive Note. A Holder of a Definitive Note may at any time transfer its interest in such Definitive Note in accordance with this Section 2.5(b)(iv). Any transfer of an interest in a Definitive Note to a Non-U.S. Person during the Distribution Compliance Period shall be made only pursuant to Section 2.5(b)(iii) above. Otherwise, the Trustee shall require, prior to any such transfer of a Definitive Note, receipt by the Trustee and the Co-Issuers of (A) an Investor Representation Letter from such Noteholder's transferee and (B) a Transferor Certificate from such Noteholder (which shall only be a Regulation S Transferor Certificate for transfers to Non-U.S. Persons during the Distribution Compliance Period). Upon receipt of such letter and certificate, and surrender to the Trustee the Definitive Note representing the interest to be so transferred, the Trustee shall cancel such Definitive Note and the Co-Issuers shall execute and provide to the Trustee, and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver, a Definitive Note to such transferee (and, in the event of a partial transfer, the Co-Issuers shall execute and provide to the Trustee, and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver, a Definitive Note evidencing the remaining balance to the transferring Holder).

(v) Transfer of Interests in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note. Transfers of beneficial interests in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note may only be made (A) in accordance with Section 2.5(b)(i) above or (B) by book-entry transfer of beneficial interests in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note within the Clearance System (and subject to the Applicable Procedures) to Non-U.S. Persons in accordance with Regulation S in "offshore transactions" (as defined in Regulation S).

(vi) Transfer of Interests in a Permanent Regulation S Global Note. If a Holder of a beneficial interest in the Permanent Regulation S Global Note wishes at any time to transfer its beneficial interest in such Permanent Regulation S Global Note to a U.S. Person, such Holder shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 2.5 and the Applicable Procedures, transfer its beneficial interest in such Permanent Regulation S Global Note for an equivalent interest in a Rule 144A Global Note. Upon receipt by the Trustee of (A) a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit G hereto and (B) a written order given in accordance with the Applicable Procedures, the Trustee shall instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in the Permanent Regulation S Global Note to reflect a reduction of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the Aggregate Principal Amount of the beneficial interest thereof to be so transferred and concurrently with such reduction, in the case of a Rule 144A Global Note, instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in the Rule 144A Global Note of the same Class to reflect an increase of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the same amount and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the transferee a beneficial interest in such Rule 144A Global Note equal to the Aggregate Amount Principal amount of the Permanent Regulation S Global Note so reduced, and, in the case of a Definitive Note, the Issuer shall execute and furnish to the Trustee (or Paying Agent, as directed by the Trustee) and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver to such Holder a Definitive Note in the Aggregate Principal Amount equal to the amount of the reduction in the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Permanent Regulation S Global Note (which Definitive Note shall be mailed or otherwise delivered to such Holder from a location outside the United States). Interests in any Permanent Regulation S Global Note shall not be exchanged for or transferred to a Definitive Note (except pursuant to the preceding sentence or Section 2.1, if applicable).

(vii) Transfer of Interest in a Rule 144A Global Note. Subject to the provisions of Section 2.5(k), transfers of beneficial interests in a Rule 144A Global Note may only be made (A) in accordance with the provisions of this Section 2.5(b)(iv) or (B) by book-entry transfer of beneficial interests in a Rule 144A Global Note within DTC (and subject to the Applicable Procedures) and in accordance with the transfer restrictions contained in the legend on such Rule 144A Global Note. If a Holder of a beneficial interest in a Rule 144A Global Note wishes to transfer its beneficial interest in such Rule 144A Global Note to a Non-U.S. Person, such holder shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 2.5 and the Applicable Procedures, transfer its beneficial interest in such Rule 144A Global Note for an equivalent interest in a Temporary Regulation S Global Note or a Permanent Regulation S Global Note, provided such transfer occurs after the Distribution Compliance Period. Upon receipt by the Trustee of (A) a Regulation S Transferor Certificate from such Noteholder and (B) a written order given in accordance with the DTC's Applicable Procedures, the Trustee shall instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in the Rule 144A Global Note to reflect a reduction of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the Aggregate Principal Amount of the beneficial interest thereof to be so transferred and concurrently with such reduction, instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in such Temporary Regulation S Global Note or the Permanent Regulation S Global Note of the same Class to reflect an increase of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the same amount and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the transferee a beneficial interest in such Temporary Regulation S Global Note or Permanent Regulation S Global Note equal to the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Rule 144A Global Note so reduced.

(viii) Initial Sale of Notes. Notwithstanding anything in clauses (i) through (v) of this Section 2.5(b) to the contrary, in connection with any sale of Bear Notes by Bear Stearns, no delivery of an Investor Representation Letter or a Transferor Certificate shall be required so long as each purchaser of Notes executes and delivers a transferee certificate acceptable to Bear Stearns (which certificate shall, in the case of any transfer of Definitive Notes, identify each transferee, including name, address, payment instructions, Taxpayer information and such other information as the Trustee may reasonably require), which transferee certificate shall be delivered to the Trustee.

(ix) Securities Act. No transfer of any Note or any beneficial interest in any Note shall be made unless such transfer (a) is made pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act and registration or qualification under applicable state securities laws or (b) is exempt from such registration or qualification requirements.

The Investor Representation Letters (and any alternative certification acceptable to Bear Stearns pursuant to clause (vi) above) and the Transferor Certificates furnished pursuant to this Section may be relied on conclusively by the Trustee in determining whether the provisions of this Section have been complied with. None of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee or any other person shall be required to register the Notes under the Securities Act or any state securities laws.

(c) Unless a prospective Holder of a Note (and each beneficial owner of an interest in a Global Note) otherwise provides another representation acceptable to each of the Trustee, the Servicer and the Issuer, each Holder of a Note (other than each beneficial owner of an interest in a Global Note), by its purchase thereof, shall be deemed to have represented to the Issuer, the Servicer and the Trustee that (a) in the case of the Class A-1LA Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes or the Class X Notes, either no part of the funds being used to pay the purchase price for such Notes constitutes an asset of any "employee benefit plan" (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA) or "plan" (as defined in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code) that is subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (each a "Plan"), including assets held in an insurance company general account, or (b) if the funds being used to pay the purchase price for such Notes include assets of any Plan, an exemption to the prohibited transaction rules applies to the purchase and holding of such Notes, and (b) in the case of the Class B-1L Notes, either (i) such Holder (or such beneficial owner) is not a Plan and is not acquiring the Class B-1L Notes with the assets of the Plan, (ii) such Holder (or beneficial owner) is an insurance company and the funds being used to pay the purchase price for such Notes includes only assets of its general account and its acquisition and holding of such Notes are eligible for exemptive relief under Section I of U.S. Department of Labor Prohibited Transaction Class Exemption ("PTCE") 95-60, or (iii) the acquisition and holding of such Notes by such Holder (or beneficial owner) are eligible for the exemptive relief under PTCE 96-23, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14.

(d) No Note shall be sold or transferred (including, without limitation, by pledge or hypothecation), except to Non-U.S. Persons in "offshore transactions" in accordance with Regulation S under the Securities Act, unless the purchaser or transferee is a Qualified Purchaser. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, no transfer of a Note may be made if such transfer would require registration of the Issuer or Co-Issuer under the Investment Company Act (subject, as regards the Trustee's duties, to Section 2.5(f) below).

(e) At any time when the Issuer is not subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, upon the request of any Noteholder, the Issuer shall promptly furnish to such Noteholder or to a prospective purchaser of any Note designated by such Noteholder, as the case may be, the information which the Issuer determines to be required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act ("Rule 144A Information") in order to permit compliance by such Noteholder with Rule 144A in connection with the resale of such Note by such Noteholder; provided that the Issuer shall not be required to provide audited financial statements more than once a year or to furnish Rule 144A Information in connection with any request made on or after the date that is three years from the later of (i) the date such Note (or any predecessor Note) was acquired from the Issuer or (ii) the date such Note (or any predecessor Note) was last acquired from an "affiliate" of the Issuer within the meaning of Rule 144A, in each case as determined by the Issuer. Upon request by the Issuer, the Trustee shall cooperate with the Issuer in mailing or otherwise distributing (at the Issuer's expense) to such Noteholders or prospective purchasers, at and pursuant to the Issuer's written direction, the foregoing materials prepared and provided by the Issuer; provided that the Trustee shall be entitled to affix thereto or enclose therewith such disclaimers as the Trustee shall deem reasonably appropriate, at its discretion (such as, for example, a disclaimer that such Rule 144A Information was assembled by the Issuer and not by the Trustee, that the Trustee has not reviewed or verified the accuracy thereof, and that it makes no representation as to the sufficiency of such information under Rule 144A or for any other purpose).

(f) The Trustee shall not be responsible for ascertaining whether any transfer complies with, or otherwise to monitor or determine compliance with, the requirements or terms of the Securities Act, applicable state securities laws, ERISA, the Code or the Investment Company Act; except that if a certificate is specifically required by the terms of this Section to be provided to the Trustee by a prospective transferee, transferor or the Issuer, the Trustee shall be under a duty to receive and examine the same to determine whether it conforms substantially on its face to the applicable requirements of this Section.

(g) If a Responsible Officer of the Trustee becomes aware that (i) a transfer or attempted or purported transfer of any Note or interest therein was consummated in compliance with the provisions of this Section 2.5 on the basis of a materially incorrect certification from the transferor or purported transferee, (ii) a transferee failed to deliver to the Trustee any certificate required to be delivered hereunder or (iii) the Holder of any Note or interest therein is in material breach of any representation or agreement set forth in any certificate or any deemed representation or agreement of such Holder, the Trustee will direct the Note Registrar not to register such attempted or purported transfer and if a transfer has been registered, such transfer shall be absolutely null and void ab initio and shall vest no rights in the purported transferee (such purported transferee, a "Disqualified Transferee") and the last preceding Holder of such Note that was not a Disqualified Transferee shall be restored to all rights as a Holder thereof retroactively to the date of transfer of such Note by such Holder.

(h) For so long as one or more Global Notes are Outstanding:

(i) the Trustee and its directors, officers, employees and agents may deal with the Depository for all purposes (including the making of distributions on, and the giving of notices with respect to, the Global Notes);

(ii) unless otherwise provided herein, the rights of beneficial owner in a Global Note shall be exercised only through the respective Depository and shall be limited to those established by law and agreements between such beneficial owners and the respective Depository;

(iii) for purposes of determining the identity of and Aggregate Principal Amount of Notes beneficially owned by a Holder, the records of the Depository shall be conclusive evidence of such identity and Aggregate Principal Amount and the Trustee may conclusively rely on such records when acting hereunder;

(iv) the Depository will make book-entry transfers among the Depository participants of the Depository and will receive and transmit distributions of principal of and interest on the Global Notes to such Depository participants; and

(v) the Depository participants of the Depository shall have no rights under this Indenture under or with respect to any of the Global Notes held on their behalf by the Depository, and the Depository may be treated by the Trustee and its agents, employees, officers and directors as the absolute owner of the Global Notes for all purposes whatsoever.

(i) Each transferee of a Note (except with respect to a transfer pursuant to Regulation S) will be deemed to represent at time of transfer that the transferee is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and that (i) it is a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) it is not formed for the purpose of investing in the Notes, unless each of its beneficial owners is a Qualified Purchaser, (iii) it is not a dealer described in paragraph (a)(1)(ii) of Rule 144A unless such transferee owns and invests on a discretionary basis at least U.S.$25 million in securities of issuers that are not affiliated persons of such dealer, (iv) it is not a plan referred to in paragraph (a)(1)(i)(D) or (E) of Rule 144A or a trust fund referred to in paragraph (a)(1)(i)(F) of Rule 144A that holds the assets of such plan, unless investment decisions are made solely by the fiduciary, trustee or sponsor of such plan, (v) it and each account for which it is purchasing is purchasing Notes in at least the minimum denomination and (vi) it will provide written notice of the foregoing and any other applicable transfer restrictions to any transferee.

(j) Any Note issued upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Notes shall bear such applicable legend set forth in the relevant Exhibit hereto unless there is delivered to the Trustee, Note Registrar and the Issuer such satisfactory evidence, which may include an Opinion of Counsel, as may be reasonably required by any of the Trustee, Note Registrar and the Issuer to the effect that (i) neither such applicable legend nor the restrictions on transfer set forth therein are required to ensure that transfers thereof comply with the provisions of Rule 144A and to ensure that neither of the Co-Issuers nor the Portfolio Collateral becomes an investment company required to be registered under the Investment Company Act, and (ii) the Co-Issuers and the Portfolio Collateral are exempt from registration under the Investment Company Act other than by reason of Section 3(c)(7) thereof. Upon provision of such satisfactory evidence, the Trustee, at the direction of the Issuer, shall authenticate and deliver Notes that do not bear such applicable legend.

(k) If, notwithstanding the restrictions set forth in this Section 2.5, either of the Co-Issuers determines that any beneficial owner or Holder of a Rule 144A Global Note (i) is a U.S. Person and (ii) is not (A) a Qualified Purchaser or (B) a company beneficially owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, the Co-Issuers may require, by notice to such beneficial owner or Holder, as the case may be, that such beneficial owner or Holder sell all of its right, title and interest to such Note (or interest therein) to a Person that is both (1) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (2) a Qualified Purchaser or a company beneficially owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, with such sale to be effected within 30 days after notice of such sale requirement is given. If such beneficial owner or Holder fails to effect the transfer required within such 30-day period, (x) upon written direction from the Issuer, the Trustee shall, and is hereby irrevocably authorized by such beneficial owner or Holder, as the case may be, to cause its interest in such Note to be transferred in a commercially reasonable sale (conducted by the Trustee or by an investment banking firm selected by the Trustee and approved by the Issuer (whose fees are to be paid exclusively from the proceeds of such sale)), in accordance with Section 9-504(3) of the UCC as applied to securities that are sold on a recognized market or that may decline speedily in value) to a Person that certifies to the Trustee and the Co-Issuers, in connection with such transfer, that such Person is both (1) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (2) a Qualified Purchaser or a company beneficially owned exclusively by one or more Qualified Purchasers and (y) pending such transfer, no further payments will be made in respect of such Note (or beneficial interest therein) held by such Holder or beneficial owner.

Section 2.6. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Notes.

If (i) any mutilated Note is surrendered to the Trustee or the Issuer or the Trustee and the Issuer receive evidence to their reasonable satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Note, and (ii) in the case of a destroyed, lost, or stolen Note, there is delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless (an unsecured indemnity agreement of an Institutional Investor organized under the laws of the United States or any State in the United States with a net worth at least equal to twice the amount of the security or indemnity being deemed sufficient to satisfy such security or indemnity requirement), then, in the absence of notice to the Co-Issuers or the Trustee that such Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the Co-Issuers shall execute and, upon a written request therefor by the Issuer, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Note, a new Note of the same Class, tenor and principal amount, bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding. If, after the delivery of such new Note, a protected purchaser of the original Note in lieu of which such new Note was issued presents such original Note for payment, the Issuer and the Trustee shall be entitled to recover such new Note from the Person to whom it was delivered or any Person taking title therefrom, except a protected purchaser, and the Issuer and the Trustee shall be entitled to recover upon the security or indemnity provided therefor to the extent of any loss, damage, cost or expense incurred by the Co-Issuers, or the Trustee, in connection therewith. If any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Note shall have become or shall be about to become due and payable in full, or shall have been called for redemption in full, instead of issuing a new Note, the Co-Issuers may pay such Note without surrender thereof, except that any mutilated Note shall be surrendered.

Upon the issuance of any new Note under this Section 2.6, the Issuer or the Trustee may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed or any other reasonable expense in relation thereto.

Every new Note issued pursuant to this Section in lieu of any mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Note shall constitute an original additional contractual obligation of the Issuer, whether or not the mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Note shall be at any time enforceable by anyone, and shall be entitled to all the benefits of this Indenture equally and proportionately with any and all other Notes of the same Class duly issued hereunder.

The provisions of this Section are exclusive and shall preclude (to the extent lawful) all other rights and remedies with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Notes.

Section 2.7. Payments on the Notes.

(a) No principal will be payable in respect of the Class A-1L Notes (and principal collections on the Portfolio Collateral will be applied as described herein) during the Revolving Period, except in the event of an Initial Deposit Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-1L Notes as described herein. On each Payment Date with respect to the Amortization Period, the principal of the Class A-1L Notes will be payable (to the extent of funds available therefor and in the order of priority described herein) first to the Class A-1LA Notes and then to the Class A-1LB Notes, until the Payment Date on which the Aggregate Principal Amount of such Class A-1L Notes have been paid in full. The unpaid principal amount of the Class A-1L Notes shall accrue interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate for such Class from the Closing Date until such unpaid principal amount is paid in full and such accrued interest shall be payable on each Payment Date. To the extent there is any shortfall in the payment of accrued interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate on any Payment Date with respect to any of the Class A-1L Notes, the Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount will be paid (to the extent of available funds therefor and as described herein) on one or more subsequent Payment Dates after payment of the Periodic Interest Amount with respect to the Class A-1L Notes, unless earlier paid upon an Initial Deposit Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-1L Notes as described herein. In addition, all payments of principal on the Class A-1LA Notes that are made in connection with an Initial Deposit Redemption, a Rating Confirmation Failure, a Tax Event Redemption or an Optional Redemption and all payments of interest will be paid on a pro rata basis with the Class X Notes as described herein. All outstanding principal of the Class A-1L Notes, together with the other amounts described herein, will be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date.

(b) No principal will be payable in respect of the Class A-2L Notes (and principal collections on the Portfolio Collateral will be applied as described herein) during the Revolving Period, except in the event of a Special Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-2L Notes, but only after the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1L Notes (other than with respect to a Special Redemption or an O/C Redemption) and the Class X Notes have been paid in full. The unpaid principal amount of the Class A-2L Notes shall accrue interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate for such Class from the Closing Date until such unpaid principal amount is paid in full and such accrued interest shall be payable on each Payment Date. To the extent there is any shortfall in the payment of accrued interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate on any Payment Date with respect to the Class A-2L Notes, the Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount will be paid (to the extent of available funds therefor and as described herein) on one or more subsequent Payment Dates after payment of the Periodic Interest Amount with respect to the Class A-2L Notes, unless earlier paid upon an Initial Deposit Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-2L Notes as described herein. All outstanding principal of the Class A-2L Notes, together with the other amounts described herein, will be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date.

(c) No principal will be payable in respect of the Class A-3L Notes (and principal collections on the Portfolio Collateral will be applied as described herein) during the Revolving Period, except in the event of a Special Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-3L Notes, but only after the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1L Notes, the Class A-2L Notes (other than with respect to a Special Redemption or an O/C Redemption) and the Class X Notes have been paid in full. The unpaid principal amount of the Class A-3L Notes shall accrue interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate for such Class from the Closing Date until such unpaid principal amount is paid in full and such accrued interest shall be payable on each Payment Date. To the extent there is any shortfall in the payment of accrued interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate on any Payment Date with respect to the Class A-3L Notes, the Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount will be paid (to the extent of available funds therefor and as described herein) on one or more subsequent Payment Dates after payment of the Periodic Interest Amount with respect to the Class A-3L Notes, unless earlier paid upon an Initial Deposit Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-3L Notes as described herein. All outstanding principal of the Class A-3L Notes, together with the other amounts described herein, will be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date.

(d) No principal will be payable in respect of the Class A-4L Notes (and principal collections on the Portfolio Collateral will be applied as described herein) during the Revolving Period, except in the event of a Special Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-4L Notes, but only after the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1L Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes (other than with respect to a Special Redemption or an O/C Redemption) and the Class X Notes have been paid in full. The unpaid principal amount of the Class A-4L Notes shall accrue interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate for such Class from the Closing Date until such unpaid principal amount is paid in full and such accrued interest shall be payable on each Payment Date. To the extent there is any shortfall in the payment of accrued interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate on any Payment Date with respect to the Class A-4L Notes, the Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount will be paid (to the extent of available funds therefor and as described herein) on one or more subsequent Payment Dates after payment of the Periodic Interest Amount with respect to the Class A-4L Notes, unless earlier paid upon an Initial Deposit Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-4L Notes as described herein. All outstanding principal of the Class A-4L Notes, together with the other amounts described herein, will be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date.

(e) Except in connection with the application of the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement as described herein, no principal will be payable in respect of the Class B-1L Notes during the Revolving Period, except in the event of a Special Redemption, an Optional

Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class B-1L Notes. The principal amount of the Class B-1L Notes shall be due and payable (to the extent of funds available therefore and in the order of priority as described herein) on each Payment Date during the Amortization Period, but only after the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1L Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L, the Class A-4L (other than with respect to a Special Redemption or an O/C Redemption) and the Class X Notes have been paid in full. The unpaid principal amount of the Class B-1L Notes shall accrue interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate for such Class from the Closing Date until such unpaid principal amount is paid in full and such accrued interest shall be payable on each Payment Date. To the extent there is any shortfall in the payment of accrued interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate on any Payment Date with respect to the Class B-1L Notes, the Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount will be paid (to the extent of available funds therefor and as described herein) on one or more subsequent Payment Dates after payment of the Periodic Interest Amount with respect to the Class B-1L Notes, unless earlier paid upon an Initial Deposit Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class B-1L Notes as described herein. All outstanding principal of the Class B-1L Notes, together with the other amounts described herein, will be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date.

(f) The Class X Notes will provide for the Class X Payment (to the extent funds are available therefore as described herein) on each Payment Date, commencing on the November 2006 Payment Date through and including the August 2013 Payment Date. The Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class X Notes will be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date of the Class X Notes. To the extent the Class X Payment will not be paid on any Payment Date, the resulting Class X Shortfall Amount will be paid (as described herein) on one or more subsequent Payment Dates after payment of the Class X Payment with respect to such Class X Notes.

(g) Holders of the Notes of each Class as of the Record Date in respect of a Payment Date or as of the Redemption Record Date with respect to the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, an Optional Redemption Date, a Special Redemption Date, a Tax Event Redemption Date or a Mandatory Redemption Date, shall be entitled, to the extent provided for herein, to the interest accrued and payable and principal payable (or Initial Deposit Redemption Price, an Optional Redemption Price, a Special Redemption Price, a Tax Event Redemption Price or a Mandatory Redemption Price payable, as applicable) on such Payment Date or Redemption Record Date with respect to the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, an Optional Redemption Date, a Special Redemption Date, a Tax Event Redemption Date or a Mandatory Redemption Date. Payments of principal to Holders entitled thereto shall be made in the proportion that the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes of such Class registered in the name of each such Holder on such Record Date or Redemption Record Date with respect to the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, an Optional Redemption Date, a Special Redemption Date, a Tax Event Redemption Date or a Mandatory Redemption Date.

(h) Interest accrued with respect to any Class of Notes shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year and the actual number of days elapsed during each Periodic Interest Accrual Period.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the obligations of the Co-Issuers' under this Indenture and the payment of principal of, interest on and all other amounts payable on or in respect of the Class A-1L Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes, Class A-4L Notes, the Class B-1L Notes and the Class X Notes will constitute nonrecourse obligations of the Co-Issuers, payable solely from the Trust Estate. Having realized the Collateral and distributed the net proceeds thereof, in each case in accordance with this Indenture, neither the Trustee nor any holders of Notes may take any further steps against the Co-Issuers to recover any sum still unpaid in respect of any claims under this Indenture or the Notes issued under this Indenture and all claims against the Co-Issuers in respect of any such sum due but still unpaid shall be extinguished and shall not revive. Neither of the Co-Issuers, nor any of their respective agents, partners, beneficiaries, officers, directors, employees or any Affiliate of any of them or any of their respective successors or assigns shall be personally liable for any amounts payable, or performance due, under the Notes or this Indenture. It is understood that the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not (A) prevent recourse to the Trust Estate for the sums due or to become due under any security, instrument or agreement which is part of the Trust Estate or (B) constitute a waiver, release or discharge of any indebtedness or obligation evidenced by the Notes or secured by this Indenture, but the same shall continue until paid or discharged or (C) constitute a waiver of an otherwise valid cause of action with respect to the performance of the Servicer's obligations as set forth in the Servicing Agreement or (D) constitute a waiver of any otherwise valid cause of action against the Co-Issuers wherein the loss complained of is directly attributable to the willful misconduct or fraud of the Co-Issuers in making their respective representations or warranties or the performance of their respective obligations under this Indenture or (E) limit the right of any person to name the Co-Issuers as parties defendant in any action, suit or in the exercise of any other remedy under the Notes or in this Indenture, so long as no judgment in the nature of a deficiency judgment or seeking personal liability shall be asked for or (if obtained) enforced against any such person or entity.

Section 2.8. Persons Deemed Owners.

The Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Note Registrar and the Servicer, and any agent of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Note Registrar and the Servicer shall treat the Person in whose name any Note is registered as it appears on the Note Register as the owner of such Note for the purpose of receiving payments on such Note, and for all other purposes whatsoever (whether or not such Note is overdue), and none of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Note Registrar or the Servicer, nor any agent of any of them, shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 2.9. Cancellation.

All Notes surrendered for payment, registration of transfer, exchange or redemption, or deemed destroyed, lost or stolen, shall, if surrendered to any Person other than the Trustee, be delivered to the Trustee and shall be promptly cancelled by it. No Notes shall be authenticated in lieu of or in exchange for any Notes cancelled as provided in this Section 2.9, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture. All cancelled Notes held by the Trustee shall be destroyed or held by the Trustee in accordance with its standard retention policy unless the Issuer shall direct by an Issuer Order that they be returned to the Issuer.

Section 2.10. Tax Purposes.

Each of the Co-Issuers shall, and each Holder by acceptance of its Note shall be deemed to have agreed to, treat the Notes as debt solely of the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes.

Section 2.11. Calculation Agent; Determination of LIBOR.

(a) The Issuer hereby agrees that for so long as any of the Notes remain Outstanding, there will at all times be an agent appointed to calculate LIBOR in respect of each Periodic Interest Accrual Period in accordance with the terms of the Notes. The Issuer has initially appointed JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as agent with respect to the determination of LIBOR (in such capacity, the "Calculation Agent"). The Calculation Agent may be removed by the Issuer at any time. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or is removed by the Issuer, or if the Calculation Agent fails to determine LIBOR for a Periodic Interest Accrual Period, the Issuer will promptly appoint as a replacement Calculation Agent a leading bank which is engaged in transactions in U.S. dollar deposits in the international U.S. dollar market and which does not control or is not controlled by or under common control with the Co-Issuers or their Affiliates. The Calculation Agent may not resign or be removed from its respective duties without a successor having been duly appointed.

(b) The Calculation Agent shall determine LIBOR for each Periodic Interest Accrual Period in accordance with the following provisions:

On each LIBOR Determination Date, LIBOR shall equal the rate, as obtained by the Calculation Agent, for three-month U.S. dollar deposits which appears on Telerate Page 3750 (as reported by Bloomberg Financial Markets Commodities News) or such other page as may replace such Page 3750, as of 11:00 a.m. (London time) on such LIBOR Determination Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, LIBOR for the initial Periodic Interest Accrual Period shall be determined through the use of straight-line interpolation by reference to two rates calculated in accordance with the provisions above, one of which shall be for five-month U.S. dollar deposits and the other of which shall be for six-month U.S. dollar deposits.

If, on any LIBOR Determination Date, such rate does not appear on Telerate Page 3750 (as reported by Bloomberg Financial Markets Commodities News) or such other page as may replace such Page 3750, the Calculation Agent shall determine the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations of the Reference Banks (as defined below) to leading banks in the London interbank market for three-month (or five-month or six-month, as applicable) U.S. dollar deposits in an amount determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to requests for quotations as of approximately 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the LIBOR Determination Date made by the Calculation Agent to the Reference Banks. If, on any LIBOR Determination Date, at least two of the Reference Banks provide such quotations, LIBOR shall equal such arithmetic mean of such quotations. If, on any LIBOR Determination Date, only one or none of the Reference Banks provide such quotations, LIBOR shall be deemed to be the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations that leading banks in The City of New York selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer) are quoting on the relevant LIBOR Determination Date for three-month (or five-month or six-month, as applicable) U.S. dollar deposits in an amount determined by the Calculation Agent that is representative of a single transaction in such market at such time by reference to the principal London offices of leading banks in the London interbank market; provided that, if the Calculation Agent is required but is unable to determine a rate in accordance with at least one of the procedures provided above, LIBOR shall be LIBOR as determined on the previous LIBOR Determination Date. As used herein, "Reference Banks" means four major banks in the London interbank market selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer).

For purposes of any calculations referred to in this paragraph (b), all percentages resulting from such calculations will be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of a percentage point.

(c) As soon as possible after 11:00 a.m. (New York time) on each LIBOR Determination Date, but in no event later than 11:00 a.m. (New York time) on the Business Day immediately following each LIBOR Determination Date, the Calculation Agent will notify the Issuer, the Trustee, the Irish Paying Agent (as long as any of the Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange) and the Servicer of LIBOR for the next Periodic Interest Accrual Period. The Calculation Agent will also specify to the Issuer the quotations upon which LIBOR is based, and in any event the Calculation Agent shall notify the Issuer before 5:00 p.m. (New York time) on each LIBOR Determination Date that either: (i) it has determined or is in the process of determining LIBOR or (ii) it has not determined and is not in the process of determining LIBOR together with its reasons therefor.

(d) Upon receipt of notice of LIBOR for each Periodic Interest Accrual Period from the Calculation Agent pursuant to subsection (c) of this Section 2.11, the Trustee shall determine the Applicable Periodic Rate with respect to the Notes for such Periodic Interest Accrual Period and notify the Irish Stock Exchange of the Applicable Periodic Rate for each Class of Note (as long as any of the Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange).

(e) The determination of LIBOR by the Calculation Agent and the Applicable Periodic Rate with respect to the Notes by the Trustee (in the absence of manifest error) shall be final and binding upon all parties.

Section 2.12. Option to Acquire Credit Enhancement.

Holders of any Class of Notes may elect to acquire bond insurance, a surety bond or similar credit enhancement supporting the payment of principal and/or interest on such Class of Notes, on terms and conditions acceptable to such Holders and at the sole expense of such Holders. Any Class of Notes subject to such enhancement will be designated pursuant to a supplemental indenture adopted pursuant to Section 8.1 as "Insured Notes" of such Class. Premiums for any such enhancement (together with any other amounts payable to the issuer of such bond insurance policy, surety bond or similar credit enhancement, including, without limitation, amounts payable to any such issuer to reimburse it for draws thereunder, together with interest thereon), and costs incurred by the Co-Issuers in connection with such enhancement will be payable from amounts otherwise payable to such Class of Insured Notes, or in such other manner chosen by such Holder (provided that any such payment does not adversely affect any other Noteholder or holder of a Preferred Share). Any Insured Notes for substantially all other purposes will be treated as Notes of such Class, except that the issuer of the bond insurance policy, surety bond or other such credit enhancement will generally be deemed to be the Holder of the Notes of such Class, enhanced by such entity and will in such capacity be entitled to exercise the rights otherwise exercisable by Holders of such Notes.

Section 2.13. Prescription.

Payment in respect of any Note will cease to be due if not paid to the Holder of such Note due to insufficient payment instructions from such Holder to the Trustee or the Paying Agent for a period of twenty years from the Relevant Date.

ARTICLE III

AUTHENTICATION AND DELIVERY OF NOTES

Section 3.1. General Provisions.

On the Closing Date, the Notes shall be executed by the Co-Issuers and delivered to the Trustee for authentication and thereupon the same shall be authenticated and delivered by the Trustee upon the Issuer's written request and upon compliance with the conditions of Section 3.2 hereof, and upon receipt by the Trustee of the following:

(a) an Officers' Certificate of the Co-Issuers evidencing the authorization of the execution, authentication and delivery of the Transaction Documents, the Notes and the Preferred Shares and specifying the Final Maturity Dates, the applicable principal or stated amounts and the interest rates and yields of each Class of the Notes to be authenticated and delivered;

(b) an Opinion or Opinions of Counsel, dated the Closing Date, substantially in the form or forms attached hereto as Schedule G.

If the remaining Deposit in the Initial Deposit Account as of the Effective Date equals or exceeds $2,000,000 and the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Original Portfolio Collateral (determined in accordance with the foregoing sentence) acquired or committed to be acquired by the Issuer is less than the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount (subject to the second paragraph of Section 3.4(a)), the Issuer shall cause an Initial Deposit Redemption to occur on the Initial Deposit Redemption Date by redeeming the Class A-1LA Notes and the Class X Notes in an aggregate amount equal to the excess of the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount over the par amount of Original Portfolio Collateral; provided that the amount applied to such Initial Deposit Redemption shall not exceed the remaining amount of the Deposit (the "Initial Deposit Redemption Amount"). No interest or other amount in excess of the Initial Deposit Redemption Amount, other than the Periodic Interest Amount with respect to the Class A-1LA Notes and the Class X Notes through the Initial Deposit Redemption Date due on the next succeeding Payment Date, shall be payable on or in respect of the Class A-1LA or the Class Notes X Notes redeemed in an Initial Deposit Redemption. If there is a Deposit in the Initial Deposit Account on the Effective Date but no Initial Deposit Redemption is required pursuant to the terms of this Section 3.3(a), the remaining Deposit in the Initial Deposit Account shall be transferred to the Collection Account on the Effective Date and shall, subject to Section 3.4(d), constitute Collateral Principal Collections. Account Income in the Initial Deposit Account shall be transferred to the Collection Account on the Effective Date and shall constitute Collateral Interest Collections.

(b) If an Initial Deposit Redemption is required, the Issuer, not later than the third Business Day immediately following the Effective Date, shall notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency in writing that an Initial Deposit Redemption is required pursuant to Section 3.3(a) hereof and the amount of the Class A-1LA Notes and the Class X Notes required to be redeemed pursuant thereto.

(c) Notice of an Initial Deposit Redemption shall be given by the Trustee by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not less than ten calendar days prior to the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, to each Holder of the Class A-1LA Notes and the Class X Notes to be redeemed at the address for such Holder in the Note Register and so long as any Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, to the Irish Paying Agent. All notices of Initial Deposit

Redemption shall state the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, the Redemption Record Date with respect thereto, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes and the Class X Notes to be redeemed, and that no interest or other amount in excess of the Initial Deposit Redemption Amount shall be payable on the amount of the Class A-1LA Notes and the Class X Notes to be redeemed.

(d) If an Initial Deposit Redemption is required, all Eligible Investments in the Initial Deposit Account representing the Deposit not applied to the purchase of Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date shall be liquidated on the Business Day immediately preceding the Initial Deposit Redemption Date and the proceeds thereof shall be held in the Initial Deposit Account. On the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Initial Deposit Account all funds therein and apply such funds to the payment of Holders of the Notes in an amount equal to the Initial Deposit Redemption Amount or to a deposit in the Collection Account, as applicable.

Section 3.4. Purchase of Portfolio Collateral between the Closing Date and the Effective Date; Effective Date Conditions.

(a) The Issuer may (i) purchase Original Portfolio Collateral on any Business Day during the period from and including the Closing Date to and including the Effective Date or (ii) enter into a commitment to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral on any Business Day during the period from and including the Closing Date to and including the Effective Date for purchase on or as soon as practicable thereafter (provided that the agreed to settlement date shall not be more than thirty (30) days after the Effective Date), in each case, for inclusion in the Trust Estate in an aggregate amount equal to the Deposit in the Initial Deposit Account. Upon receipt of a Servicer Order requesting the purchase of Original Portfolio Collateral the Trustee shall pay out of the Initial Deposit Account, during the period commencing on the Closing Date and ending on the Effective Date, all or a portion of the funds available therein for the purpose of purchasing Original Portfolio Collateral.

No Original Portfolio Collateral may be purchased prior to the Effective Date unless immediately following the purchase of such item of Portfolio Collateral (as certified by Servicer Order), the remaining Deposit in the Initial Deposit Account, after giving effect to such purchase, is sufficient as of the date of determination to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral in an Aggregate Principal Amount at least equal to the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount for delivery into the Trust Estate (taking into account the Initial Portfolio Collateral and Original Portfolio Collateral already in the Trust Estate (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any of the Original Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date)).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any other provision hereof, if the Issuer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase an item of Portfolio Collateral to be included in the Trust Estate, such commitment not to exceed thirty (30) days, and at the time of such commitment such an item of Portfolio Collateral complied with the definition of Portfolio Collateral and this Section 3.4(a), then the Issuer may consummate the purchase of such an item of Portfolio Collateral notwithstanding that such an item of Portfolio Collateral fails to comply with the definition of Portfolio Collateral and such criteria on the date of settlement.

(b) The Servicer shall cause to be delivered to the Trustee on the Effective Date an amended Schedule A to this Indenture listing all Original Portfolio Collateral (including the Initial Portfolio Collateral then in the Trust Estate) and all commitments to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral, which schedule shall supersede any prior Schedule A delivered to the Trustee.

(c) The Issuer will use its commercially reasonable efforts to purchase, or to enter into binding agreements to purchase, Original Portfolio Collateral by the Effective Date, that, including the Initial Portfolio Collateral, will satisfy, as of the Effective Date, the Collateral Quality Tests, the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 and the Overcollateralization Tests. Within 5 Business Days after the Effective Date, the Issuer or the Servicer (on behalf of the Issuer) shall request a Rating Confirmation on behalf of the Issuer and shall provide a report to the Rating Agencies identifying the Original Portfolio Collateral and the Issuer shall obtain and deliver to the Trustee and the Rating Agencies, together with the delivery of a report (and an electronic file of the Original Portfolio Collateral to S&P) substantially in the form of a Monthly Report as of the Effective Date, an Accountants' Certificate (a) confirming the maturity date, rating, spread, coupon and recovery rate for each item of Original Portfolio Collateral as of the Effective Date and the information provided by the Issuer with respect to every other asset included or to be included in the Trust Estate, by reference to such sources as shall be specified therein, (b) confirming that as of the Effective Date (1) each Overcollateralization Test is met; (2) the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Original Portfolio Collateral that the Issuer owned or committed to purchase as of the Effective Date is at least equal to the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount and (3) the Portfolio Collateral complies with all of the requirements of the Collateral Quality Tests and the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 and (c) specifying the procedures undertaken by them to review data and computations relating to the foregoing statements. If a Rating Confirmation Failure should occur, the Notes will be redeemed pursuant to Section 9.2 hereof.

(d) Notwithstanding any provision in this Indenture to the contrary, if, on the Effective Date, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Portfolio Collateral (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to the Original Portfolio Collateral on or prior to such time) exceeds the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount and there are funds remaining from the Deposit held in the Initial Deposit Account, the Servicer may direct the Trustee to transfer up to the least of (i) 25% of such funds and (iii) $1,000,000, to the Collection Account as additional Collateral Interest Collections; provided that the Overcollateralization Tests and the collateral criteria described herein are satisfied and the Interest Coverage Test for the most recent Payment Date was satisfied. The remainder of the Deposit shall be transferred by the Trustee to the Collection Account to be applied as Collateral Principal Collections on the Payment Date immediately following the date of determination.

Section 3.5. Intermediaries.

(a) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, to the extent any items of Portfolio Collateral issued by an issuer that is not the United States of America, an agency or instrumentality thereof, or some other U.S. Person (collectively, "Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities") are Granted to the Trustee, such Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities may be delivered to and held by the Trustee through one or more Foreign Sub-custodians or Foreign Clearance Systems (as those terms are defined in the Section below; collectively, "Foreign Intermediaries") if such Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities cannot be Delivered to the Trustee.

(b) The Trustee, for the purpose of receiving and holding any Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities (as defined in Section 3.5(a)), may appoint one or more banking or securities institutions located outside the United States (each a "Foreign Sub-custodian") and/or clearing agencies or systems located outside the United States (each, a "Foreign Clearance System"), including without limitation Euroclear and Clearstream. With respect to Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities (and related cash) held through Foreign Intermediaries, such Foreign Intermediaries may be authorized to hold Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities in central securities depositories or clearing agencies in which such Foreign Intermediaries participate.

(c) The Trustee's responsibility with respect to the selection or appointment of Foreign Intermediaries shall be limited to a duty to exercise reasonable care in the selection or retention of such Foreign Intermediaries in light of prevailing settlement and securities handling practices, procedures and controls in the relevant market and subject to Section 6.3 hereof; provided that the appointment of Euroclear or Clearstream to act as Foreign Intermediary shall be deemed to have been made in the exercise of due care. With respect to any costs, expenses, damages, liabilities, or claims (including, without limitation, attorneys' and accountants' fees) incurred by the Issuer as a result of the acts or the failure to act by any Foreign Intermediaries, the Trustee shall take reasonable action to recover such costs, expenses, damages, liabilities, or claims from such Foreign Intermediaries; provided that the Trustee's sole liability in that regard shall be limited to amounts actually received by it from such Foreign Intermediaries (exclusive of related costs and expenses incurred by the Trustee). The Trustee shall not be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations under this Indenture arising out of or caused, directly or indirectly, by circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including without limitation, acts of God; earthquakes or fires; floods, wars, civil or military disturbances; sabotage; epidemics; riots; interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, computer (hardware or software) or communication service; accidents; labor disputes; acts of civil or military authority; governmental actions; or inability to obtain labor, material, equipment or transportation.

(a) If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(c) or (d)) with respect to the Notes occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may, with the consent of the Requisite Noteholders, and shall, at the direction of the Requisite Noteholders, declare the principal of the Notes to be immediately due and payable, by a notice in writing to the Issuer and the Servicer. If an Event of Default as specified in Section 5.1(c) or (d) occurs and is continuing, the principal of the Notes shall be and become immediately due and payable without the necessity of notice or any other action of any Person. If the Notes are declared to be immediately due and payable or if an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(c) or (d) hereof occurs, the Holders of each Class of Notes shall be entitled to receive, as applicable, and in the order of priority set forth in Section 11.1(d), the Cumulative Interest Amount and the Aggregate Principal Amount with respect thereto (in each case as calculated and accrued through the date of

(b) At any time after such a declaration of acceleration of maturity has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee as provided in this Article, the Requisite Noteholders, by written notice to the Trustee and the Co-Issuers, may rescind and annul such declaration and its consequences if:

(i) the Issuer has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay:

Section 5.3. Proceedings.

If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and the Notes have been declared due and payable and such declaration and its consequences have not been rescinded and annulled, or at any time on or after the Final Maturity Date, the Trustee may in its discretion proceed to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Noteholders by such appropriate Proceedings, in its own name and as trustee of an express trust, as the Trustee shall deem most effective or as the Trustee may be directed by the Requisite Noteholders to protect and enforce any such rights, whether for the specific enforcement of any covenant or agreement in this Indenture or in aid of the exercise of any power granted herein, or for collection of sums due and unpaid, or to enforce any other proper remedy or legal or equitable right vested in the Trustee by this Indenture or by law, but subject, however, to the terms of Section 5.4 hereof. The reasonable compensation, costs, expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or paid by the Trustee, and its agents and counsel, in connection with any such Proceeding, including, without limitation, the exercise of any remedies pursuant to Section 5.4 hereof, shall be reimbursed to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.7 hereof.

Section 5.4. Remedies.

(a) If the Notes have been declared due and payable and such declaration and its consequences have not been rescinded or annulled, or at any time on or after the Final Maturity Date, the Trustee may, after written notice to the Noteholders, and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent, and shall, upon direction by the Requisite Noteholders, to the extent permitted by applicable law, do one or more of the following:

provided that the Trustee may not sell or liquidate the Trust Estate, or any portion thereof, or any rights or interest therein, unless (x) in the case of an acceleration resulting from an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.1(a) hereof, or a sale or liquidation of any portion of the Trust Estate at or greater than its par value (provided that Defaulted Portfolio Collateral may be liquidated without reference to, or inclusion in the calculation of, such limitation), the Requisite Noteholders have so directed the Trustee in writing to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate or any portion thereof or (y) in the case of any other Event of Default or resulting sale or liquidation, 100% of the Noteholders have so directed the Trustee in writing to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate or any portion thereof; provided further that no Default Swap or Synthetic Security may be terminated so long as a declaration of acceleration may be rescinded or annulled pursuant to Section 5.2(b). The Trustee shall send written notice to each of the Noteholders, with a copy to the Rating Agencies and so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent, of any proposed sale or liquidation of the Trust Estate together with a brief description thereof and such written notice shall be accompanied by an Accountant's Certificate (i) confirming the information with respect to such sale or liquidation (to the extent such accountants shall be able and willing to confirm such information) and (ii) specifying the procedures, if any, undertaken by them to review the data and computations relating to such sale or liquidation. The cost of such Accountant's Certificate shall be reimbursed to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.7 hereof. If the applicable Noteholders direct any sale or liquidation of the Trust Estate, or any portion thereof, the Trustee shall sell or liquidate the Trust Estate, or portion, thereof, in accordance with Section 5.18 hereof at one or more public or private sales conducted in any manner permitted by law.

(b) If an Event of Default as described in Section 5.1(b) hereof has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee may, after written notice to the Noteholders, with a copy to the Rating Agencies, and so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent, and shall, upon direction of the Requisite Noteholders, institute a Proceeding to compel performance of the covenant or to cure the representation or warranty, the breach of which gave rise to the Event of Default under such Section and enforce any decree or order arising from such Proceeding.

(c) If an Event of Default described in Sections 5.1(a)(iii) or 5.1(a)(iv) hereof has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall, upon written direction of the Requisite Noteholders, terminate the services of the Servicer in accordance with the terms of the Servicing Agreement.

Section 5.5. Preservation of Trust Estate.

(a) If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or if the Final Maturity Date has occurred and subject to Section 5.4 hereof, the Trustee shall retain the Trust Estate securing the Notes intact, collect and cause the collection of the proceeds thereof and make and apply all payments and deposits and maintain all accounts in respect of the Notes in accordance with the provisions of Sections 10.1, 10.2(a), 10.2(b) and 11.1 hereof (unless and until the Notes have been declared due and payable and the applicable Noteholders have directed the Trustee pursuant to Section 5.4(a) hereof to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate or any portion thereof). The Trustee shall give written notice of the retention of the Trust Estate to the Issuer. If the Notes have been declared due and payable pursuant to Section 5.2 hereof or if the Final Maturity Date has occurred, any such retention pursuant to this Section 5.5(a) may be rescinded at any time by written notice to the Trustee and the Co-Issuers from the applicable Noteholders directing the Trustee to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate or any portion thereof.

(b) Nothing contained in Section 5.5(a) hereof shall be construed to require the Trustee to preserve the Trust Estate securing the Notes if prohibited by applicable law.

Section 5.6. Trustee May File Proofs of Claim.

In case there shall be pending Proceedings relative to the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law, or in case a receiver, assignee or trustee in bankruptcy or reorganization, liquidator, sequestrator or similar official shall have been appointed for or taken possession of the Issuer or its property or such other obligor or its property, or in case of any other comparable Proceedings relative to the Issuer or other obligor, or in case of any voluntary dissolution, liquidation or winding-up of the Issuer, regardless of whether the principal of any Notes shall then be due and payable as therein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and regardless of whether the Trustee shall have made any demand pursuant to the provisions of Section 5.3 hereof, the Trustee is hereby entitled and empowered to, and may and at the direction of the Requisite Noteholders, shall, by intervention in such Proceedings or otherwise:

(i) file and prove a claim or claims for the whole amount of principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Notes, and to file such other papers or documents and take such other action, including participating as a member, voting or otherwise, of any committee of creditors, as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee (including any claim for reasonable compensation to the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee, and their respective agents, attorneys and counsel, and for reimbursement of all expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made by the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee or any Noteholder, except as a result of negligence or bad faith) and of the Noteholders allowed in any Proceedings relative to the Issuer or other obligor upon the Notes or this Indenture or to the creditors or property of the Issuer or such other obligor;

(ii) unless prohibited by applicable law and regulations, upon direction of the Requisite Noteholders vote on behalf of the Holders of the Notes in any election of a trustee or a standby trustee in arrangement, reorganization, liquidation or other bankruptcy or insolvency Proceedings (or person performing similar functions in comparable Proceedings); and

(iii) collect and receive any monies or other property payable to or deliverable on any such claims, and distribute in accordance with Section 5.8 hereof all amounts received with respect to the claims of the Noteholders and the Trustee on their behalf; and any trustee, receiver or liquidator, custodian or other similar official is hereby authorized by each of the Noteholders to make payments to the Trustee, and, in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of payments directly to the Noteholders, to pay to the Trustee such amounts as shall be sufficient to cover reasonable compensation to the Trustee, each predecessor Trustee and their respective agents, attorneys and counsel, and all other expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made, by the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee or any Noteholder except as a result of negligence or bad faith.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or vote for or accept or adopt on behalf of any Noteholder any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or compromise affecting the Notes or the rights of any Holder thereof, or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Noteholder in any such Proceeding except, as aforesaid, to vote for the election of a trustee in bankruptcy (or person performing similar functions in comparable Proceedings) or to participate as a member of any committee of creditors.

In any Proceedings brought by the Trustee (and also any Proceedings involving the interpretation of any provision of this Indenture to which the Trustee shall be a party) the Trustee shall be held to represent all the Holders of the Notes subject to the provisions of this Indenture, and it shall not be necessary to make any Holders of the Notes parties to any such Proceedings.

Section 5.7. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Notes.

All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or the Notes may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Notes or the production thereof in any Proceeding relating thereto, and any such Proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall be applied as set forth in Section 5.8 hereof.

Section 5.8. Application of Money Collected.

Any money collected by or on behalf of the Trustee with respect to the Notes pursuant to this Article V (including all collections from, and proceeds of the sale or liquidation of, the Trust Estate) shall be applied at the date or dates fixed by the Trustee and in the same order as specified in Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof.

Section 5.9. Limitation on Suits.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 5.10 hereof, no Holder of any Note shall have any right to institute any Proceedings, judicial or otherwise, with respect to this Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy hereunder, unless:

(a) such Holder has previously given written notice to the Trustee of a continuing Event of Default;

(b) the Requisite Noteholders shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute Proceedings in respect of such Event of Default in its own name as Trustee hereunder;

(c) such Holder or Holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee against the costs, expenses and liabilities to be incurred by the Trustee in compliance with such request;

(d) the Trustee for 30 days after its receipt of such notice, request and offer of such indemnity has failed to institute any such Proceedings; and

(e) no direction inconsistent with such written request has been given to the Trustee during such 30-day period by the Requisite Noteholders; it being understood and intended that no one or more Holders of Notes shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of, or by availing of, any provision of this Indenture to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of any other Holders of Notes of the same Class or to obtain or to seek to obtain priority or preference over any other Holders of Notes of the same Class or to enforce any right under this Indenture, except in the manner herein provided and for the equal and ratable benefit of all the Holders of Notes of the same Class.

Section 5.10. Unconditional Rights of Noteholders to Receive Principal and Interest.

Notwithstanding any other provision in this Indenture, but subject to the provisions of Sections 2.7 and 11.1 hereof, (a) the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive an aggregate amount equal to the unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount, if any, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes and the Class X Notes, as applicable, and accrued and unpaid interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate, as any such amounts become due and payable, (b) the Holders of the Class A-1LB Notes shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive an aggregate amount equal to the unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount, if any, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LB Notes and accrued and unpaid interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate, as any such amounts become due and payable, (c) the Holders of the Class A-2L Notes shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive an aggregate amount equal to the unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount, if any, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-2L Notes and accrued and unpaid interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate, as any such amounts become due and payable, (d) the Holders of the Class A-3L Notes shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive an aggregate amount equal to the unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount, if any, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-3L Notes and accrued and unpaid interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate, as any such amounts become due and payable, (e) the Holders of the Class A-4L Notes shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive an aggregate amount equal to the unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount, if any, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-4L Notes and accrued and unpaid interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate, as any such amounts become due and payable, and (f) the Holders of the Class B-1L Notes shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive an aggregate amount equal to the unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount, if any, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class B-1L Notes and the accrued and unpaid interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate as any such amounts become due and payable. Furthermore, the Holder of any Note shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to institute Proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment, and such right shall not be impaired without the consent of such Holder. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Section 5.10 or otherwise in this Indenture to the contrary, (i) Holders of the Class A-3L Notes shall have no right to institute Proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment until such time as no Senior Class A Notes remain Outstanding, (ii) Holders of the Class A-4L Notes shall have no right to institute Proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment until such time as no Senior Class A Notes remain Outstanding, and (iii) Holders of the Class B-1L Notes shall have no right to institute Proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment until such time as no Class A Notes remain Outstanding, and, in each case, any such right to institute Proceedings shall be subject to the provisions of Section 5.9 hereof.

Section 5.11. Restoration of Rights and Remedies.

If the Trustee or any Noteholder has instituted any Proceeding to enforce any right or remedy under this Indenture and such Proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee or to such Noteholder, then and in every such case the Issuer, the Trustee and the Noteholder shall, subject to any determination in such Proceeding, be restored severally and respectively to their former positions hereunder, and thereafter all rights and remedies of the Trustee and the Noteholders shall continue as though no such Proceeding had been instituted.

Section 5.12. Rights and Remedies Cumulative.

No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or to the Holders of the Notes is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every right and remedy shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing by law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

Section 5.13. Delay or Omission Not Waiver.

No delay or omission of the Trustee or of any Holder of any Note to exercise any right or remedy occurring upon any Event of Default shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every right and remedy given by this Article V or by law to the Trustee or to the Noteholders may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by the Trustee or by the Noteholders, as the case may be.

Section 5.14. Control by Noteholders.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the Requisite Noteholders, on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes, shall have the right (a) to cause the institution of and direct the time, method and place of conducting any Proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or (b) subject to Section 6.3(e) hereof, to direct the Trustee with respect to its exercise of any right, remedy, trust or power conferred on the Trustee; provided that:

(i) such direction shall not be in conflict with any rule of law or with any express provision of this Indenture (including, without limitation, any provision hereof providing express personal protection to the Trustee or a limitation on the liability of the Co-Issuers as set forth in Section 2.7(i) hereof), and

(ii) the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee that is not inconsistent with such direction; provided that, subject to Section 6.1 hereof, the Trustee need not take any action that it reasonably determines might involve it in liability.

Section 5.15. Waiver of Past Defaults.

Prior to the time a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee, the Requisite Noteholders may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes waive any past Default and its consequences, with notice to the Rating Agencies, except a Default:

(a) in the payment of the principal of or interest on any Note, or

(b) in respect of a covenant or provision hereof that under Section 8.2 hereof cannot be modified or amended without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected.

In the case of any such waiver, the Issuer, the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder, respectively; but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any right consequent thereto. Upon such waiver, such Default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom shall be deemed to have been cured, for every purpose of this Indenture; but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

Section 5.16. Undertaking for Costs.

All parties to this Indenture agree, and each Holder of any Note by his acceptance thereof shall be deemed to have agreed, that any court may in its discretion require, in any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture, or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken, or omitted by it as Trustee, the filing by any party litigant in such suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of such suit, and that such court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in such suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by such party litigant; but the provisions of this Section 5.16 shall not apply to any suit instituted by the Trustee, to any suit instituted by any Noteholder, or group of Noteholders, holding in the aggregate more than 10% in Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes, or to any suit instituted by any Noteholder for the enforcement of the payment of the principal of or interest on any Note on or after the Final Maturity Date expressed in such Note.

Section 5.17. Waiver of Stay or Execution Laws.

Each of the Co-Issuers covenants (to the extent that it may lawfully do so) that it will not at any time insist upon, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or execution law wherever enacted, including, but not limited to, filing a voluntary petition under the Bankruptcy Code now or at any time hereafter in force, which may affect the covenants or the performance of or the exercise of any remedies under this Indenture; and each of the Co-Issuers (to the extent that they may lawfully do so) hereby expressly waives all benefit or advantage of any such law, and covenants that it will not hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted to the Trustee or any Noteholder, but will suffer and permit the execution of every such power as though no such law had been enacted.

Section 5.18. Sale of Trust Estate.

(a) The power to effect any sale (a "Sale") of any portion of the Trust Estate pursuant to Section 5.4 and Section 5.5 hereof shall not be exhausted by any one or more Sales as to any portion of such Trust Estate remaining unsold, but shall continue unimpaired until the entire Trust Estate securing the Notes shall have been sold or all amounts payable on the Notes under this Indenture with respect thereto shall have been paid. The costs of any such sale of the Trust Estate shall be reimbursable to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.7 hereof. The Trustee may, upon notice to the Noteholders, and so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent, and shall, upon direction of the Requisite Noteholders, postpone any Sale by public announcement made at the time of and place of such Sale. The Trustee hereby expressly waives its right to any amount fixed by law as compensation for any Sale.

(b) The Trustee may bid for and acquire any portion of the Trust Estate in connection with a Sale thereof on an arm's length basis to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, and may pay all or part of the purchase price by crediting against amounts owing on the Notes or other amounts secured by this Indenture, all or part of the net proceeds of such Sale after deducting the reasonable costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Trustee in connection with such Sale notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.7 hereof. The Notes need not be produced in order to complete any such Sale, or in order for the net proceeds of such Sale to be credited against amounts owing on the Notes. The Trustee may hold, lease, operate, manage or otherwise deal with any property so acquired in any manner permitted by law in accordance with this Indenture.

(c) If any portion of the Trust Estate consists of securities issued without registration under the Securities Act ("Unregistered Securities"), the Trustee may seek an Opinion of Counsel, or, if no such Opinion of Counsel can be obtained and with the consent of the Requisite Noteholders, seek a no-action position from the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other relevant Federal or state regulatory authorities, regarding the legality of a public or private sale of such Unregistered Securities (the costs of which in each case, shall be reimbursable to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.7 hereof).

(d) The Trustee shall execute and deliver an appropriate instrument of conveyance transferring its interest in any portion of the Trust Estate in connection with a Sale thereof. In addition, the Trustee is hereby irrevocably appointed the agent and attorney-in-fact of the Issuer to transfer and convey its interest in any portion of the Trust Estate in connection with a Sale thereof and to take all action necessary to effect such Sale. No purchaser or transferee at such a Sale shall be bound to ascertain the Trustee's authority, inquire into the satisfaction of any conditions precedent or see to the application of any monies.

Section 5.19. Action on Notes.

The Trustee's right to seek and recover judgment on the Notes or under this Indenture shall not be affected by the seeking or obtaining of or application for any other relief under or with respect to this Indenture. Neither the lien of this Indenture nor any rights or remedies of the Trustee or the Noteholders hereunder shall be impaired by the recovery of any judgment by the Trustee.

ARTICLE VI

THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.1. Certain Duties and Responsibilities.

(a) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default (other than a Trustee Payment-Related Event of Default):

(1) the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; and requirements of this Indenture; provided that in the case of any such certificates or opinions which by any provision hereof are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee, the Trustee shall be under a duty to examine the same to determine whether or not they conform on their face to the requirements of this Indenture and shall promptly notify the party delivering the same if such certificate or opinion does not so conform. If a corrected certificate or opinion shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 15 days after such notice from the Trustee, the Trustee shall so notify the Noteholders.

(b) In case an Event of Default (other than a Trustee Payment-Related Event of Default) of which the Trustee has actual knowledge has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall, prior to the receipt of directions, if any, from the Requisite Noteholders, exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture, and use the same degree of care and skill in its exercise as a prudent person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of such person's own affairs.

(c) No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act, or its own willful misconduct, except that:

(1) this subsection shall not be construed to limit the effect of subsection (a) of this Section;

(2) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Responsible Officer, unless it shall be proven that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(3) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in accordance with this Indenture and/or the Requisite Noteholders (or Holders with such larger percentage as may be required by the terms hereof) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any Proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee, under this Indenture;

(4) no provision of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or incur any extraordinary financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it (provided that the unsecured agreement of any Noteholder that is an Institutional Investor organized under the laws of the United States or any State in the United States shall constitute adequate assurance with respect to repayment and indemnity; provided that the aggregate net worth of the Institutional Investors providing such unsecured agreements shall be not less than $200,000,000); provided that the reasonable costs of performing its ordinary services under this Indenture shall not be deemed an "extraordinary financial liability" for purposes hereof; and

(5) the Trustee shall not be liable to the Noteholders for any action taken or omitted by it at the direction of the Issuer, the Servicer and/or the Holders of the Notes under circumstances in which such direction is required or permitted by the terms of this Indenture.

(d) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 6.1 and Section 6.3 hereof.

(e) The Trustee, promptly after receipt by a Responsible Officer, shall transmit by first class mail all Holders of Notes, as their names and addresses appear on the Note Register, all written communications that are required hereunder to be delivered to the Trustee and are received from or on behalf of the Issuer or the Servicer (excluding in the case of the Holders (i) information provided by the Trustee to the Issuer pursuant to Section 10.4 hereof, (ii) so long as no Event of Default (other than a Trustee Payment-Related Event of Default) has occurred and is continuing, Servicer Orders received by the Trustee pursuant to Sections 10.2, 11.3 and 12.4 hereof, and (iii) Monthly Reports received pursuant to Section 10.5(a) hereof, unless, in any such case, requested by any Holder) and any notification or other communication received from any of the Rating Agencies stating that the rating of any Class of Notes has been, or will be, changed or withdrawn.

Section 6.2. Notice of Default.

Promptly (and in no event later than 5 Business Days) after the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default of which a Responsible Officer of the Trustee has actual knowledge or after any declaration of acceleration has been made by or delivered to the Trustee pursuant to Section 5.2 hereof, the Trustee shall transmit by mail to the Rating Agencies, to all Holders of Notes, as their names and addresses appear on the Note Register, and to the Issuer and the Servicer, notice of all Defaults or Events of Default hereunder of which a Responsible Officer of the Trustee has actual knowledge, unless such Default or Event of Default shall have been cured or waived.

Section 6.3. Certain Rights of Trustee.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 6.1 hereof:

(a) the Trustee may rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, note or other paper or document (including but not limited to any reports prepared and delivered under Article X hereunder) believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(b) any request or direction of the Servicer mentioned herein shall be sufficiently evidenced by a Servicer Request or Servicer Order, as the context may require;

(c) whenever in the administration of this Indenture the Trustee shall (i) deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder, the Trustee (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, rely upon an Officer's Certificate or (ii) be required to determine the value of any Collateral or funds hereunder or the cash flows projected to be received therefrom, the Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, rely on reports of nationally recognized accounting firms or other persons qualified to provide the information required to make such determination including nationally recognized dealers in securities of the type being valued and securities quotation services;

(d) as a condition to the taking or omitting of any action by it hereunder, the Trustee may consult with counsel and the advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in reliance thereon;

(e) the Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Noteholders pursuant to this Indenture unless such Noteholders shall have offered to the Trustee security reasonably satisfactory to it or indemnity against all costs, expenses and liabilities which might reasonably be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction (an unsecured indemnity agreement of an Institutional Investor organized under the laws of the United States or any state in the United States shall be deemed sufficient; provided that the aggregate net worth of the Institutional Investors providing such unsecured agreements shall not be less than $200,000,000);

(f) the Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, note or other paper or documents received by it, but the Trustee, in its discretion, may and, upon written direction of the Majority Noteholders shall, make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as it may see fit or as it shall be directed, and the Trustee and any Noteholder (acting solely through the Trustee and at the expense of such Noteholder) shall be entitled, on reasonable prior request (which request shall include a statement of the purpose therefor) made in advance to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Servicer, to examine the books and records of the Issuer and the Servicer relating to the Trust Estate, personally or by agent or attorney during the Issuer's or the Servicer's normal business hours; provided that the Trustee or any such Noteholder shall, and shall cause its agents, to hold in confidence all such information, except (i) to the extent disclosure may be required by law, by any regulatory authority, the Transaction Documents or by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, (ii) a Noteholder may disclose such information to any prospective transferee and to such Noteholder's and transferee's accountants, consultants, attorneys and similar agents; provided that all such persons agree in writing to hold such information as confidential and (iii) except to the extent that the Trustee, in its sole judgment, may determine that such disclosure is consistent with its obligations hereunder;

(g) the Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers hereunder or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents or attorneys and the Trustee shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it hereunder;

(h) to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or surety in respect of the execution of this Indenture or otherwise;

(i) the Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice or knowledge of any matter unless a Responsible Officer within the Corporate Trust Office has actual knowledge thereof or unless written notice thereof is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office and such notice references the Notes generally, the Issuer or this Indenture. Whenever reference is made in this Indenture to a Default or an Event of Default such reference shall, insofar as determining any liability on the part of the Trustee is concerned, be construed to refer only to a Default or an Event of Default of which the Trustee is deemed to have knowledge in accordance with this paragraph;

(j) the permissive right of the Trustee to take or refrain from taking any actions enumerated in this Indenture shall not be construed as a duty;

(k) the Trustee shall not be liable for any action it takes, or omits to take, in good faith that it reasonably believes to be authorized or within its rights or powers hereunder;

(l) the rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and to each Paying Agent, Paying and Transfer Agent, Authenticating Agent, Transfer Agent and Note Registrar;

(m) the Trustee shall not be responsible for the accuracy of the books or records of, or acts or omissions of, the Depository, any Transfer Agent (other than the Trustee itself acting in that capacity), Clearstream, Euroclear, any Calculation Agent (other than the Trustee itself acting in that capacity) or any Paying Agent (other than the Trustee itself acting in that capacity); provided, the Trustee will make reasonable efforts to correct any errors they become aware of or to notify the appropriate parties of any errors they become aware of; and

(n) the Trustee will not be liable for the actions or omissions of the Servicer, and without limiting the foregoing, the Trustee will not be under any obligation to monitor, evaluate or verify compliance by the Servicer with the terms hereof or the Servicing Agreement, or to verify or independently determine the accuracy of the information received by it from the Servicer (or from any selling institution, agent, bank, trustee or similar source) with respect to the Portfolio Collateral.

Section 6.4. Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Notes.

The recitals contained herein and in the Notes, other than the certificate of authentication thereon, shall be taken as the statements of the Issuer, and the Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Trustee makes no representation as to the validity or sufficiency of this Indenture, of the Trust Estate, or of the Notes. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application by the Issuer of the Notes or Preferred Shares or the proceeds thereof.

Section 6.5. May Hold Notes.

(a) JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, or any other Person that becomes Trustee hereunder, in any capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Notes, and may otherwise deal with the Issuer or any Affiliate thereof with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee.

(b) The Trustee and its Affiliates may invest in for their own account obligations or securities that would be appropriate for inclusion in the assets as Portfolio Collateral, and the Trustee in making those investments has no duty to act in a way that is favorable to the Issuer or the Holders of the Notes or the Preferred Shares. The Trustee's Affiliates currently serve, and may in the future serve as investment advisor for other issuers of collateralized debt obligations.

(c) The Trustee and its Affiliates are permitted to receive additional compensation that could be deemed to be in the Trustee's economic self interest for (i) serving as investment advisor, administrator, shareholder, servicing agent, custodian or sub-custodian with respect to certain Eligible Investments, (ii) using Affiliates to effect transactions in certain Eligible Investments selected by the Servicer and (iii) effecting transactions in certain Eligible Investments. Such compensation shall not be an amount that is reimbursable or payable pursuant to this Indenture. All purchases of Eligible Investments shall be made in accordance with Section 10.2(b).

Section 6.6. Money Held in Trust.

Money held by the Trustee in trust hereunder need not be segregated from other funds held by the Trustee in trust hereunder except to the extent required herein or required by law. The Trustee shall be under no liability for interest on any money received by it hereunder except as otherwise agreed upon with the Issuer and except to the extent of income or other gain on Eligible Investments which are deposits in or certificates of deposit of the Trustee in its commercial capacity and income or other gain actually received by the Trustee on Eligible Investments. Under no circumstances shall the Trustee be responsible for any losses on investments made in accordance with an Issuer Order or Servicer Order, unless such investment is made in an obligation of the Trustee in its corporate capacity.

Section 6.7. Compensation and Reimbursement.

The Issuer agrees:

(a) to pay the Trustee on each Payment Date (in accordance with the priority of payment provisions set forth in Section 11.1 hereof) compensation for all services rendered by it hereunder (which compensation shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust) in accordance with the Trustee Fee Letter Agreement;

(b) except as otherwise expressly provided herein, to reimburse the Trustee (in accordance with the priority of payment provisions set forth in Section 11.1 hereof) in a timely manner upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Trustee (as such or as Securities Intermediary) in accordance with any provision of this Indenture or in the enforcement of any provision hereof (including the reasonable compensation and the expenses and disbursements of its agents and counsel) and expenses related to the maintenance and administration of the Collateral; provided that any securities transaction charges to the extent included above shall, in the case of certain Eligible Investments specified by the Servicer, be waived in the event that any amounts are received by the Trustee during a Due Period from a financial institution in consideration of purchasing such Eligible Investments, except any such expense, disbursement or advance as may be attributable to the Trustee's negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith;

(c) to reimburse the Trustee (in accordance with the priority of payment provisions set forth in Section 11.1 hereof) for its payment of the fees and expenses of any accounting firm or investment banking firm employed by the Trustee to perform the accounting required pursuant to Section 5.4, Section 5.5, Section 6.3(c) or Section 10.6 hereof and for its payment of the fees and expenses of the Irish Paying Agent, Paying Agents or Authenticating Agents appointed by it at the request of the Issuer pursuant to Section 2.4;

(d) to indemnify the Trustee, its directors, officers, employees and agents (in accordance with the priority of payment provisions set forth in Section 11.1 hereof) for, and to hold it harmless against, any loss, liability or expense (including without limitation reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred without negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of this trust and the Transaction Documents, including the costs and expenses of defense against any claim or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder (including as Securities Intermediary); and

(e) to pay the Trustee (in accordance with the priority of payment provisions set forth in Section 11.1 hereof) reasonable additional compensation together with its expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) for any collection action taken pursuant to Section 6.12 hereof.

Section 6.8. Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility.

There shall at all times be a Trustee hereunder which shall be a bank organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or of any State, authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers, having a combined capital and surplus of at least $200,000,000, having a long-term unsecured debt rating of "BBB" or better by Standard & Poor's and "Baa1" or better by Moody's, and subject to supervision or examination by Federal or state authority. If such corporation publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section 6.8, the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of condition so published. In addition, the Trustee shall not be "affiliated" (as that term is defined in Rule 405 of the Securities Act) with the Co-Issuers or with any person involved in the organization or operation of the Co-Issuers and shall not offer or provide credit or credit enhancement to the Co-Issuers (as provided per Rule 3a-7). If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section 6.8, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect hereinafter specified in this Article VI.

Section 6.9. Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article VI shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee under Section 6.10 hereof. The indemnifications in favor of the Trustee in Section 6.7 hereof shall survive any resignation or removal (to the extent of any indemnified liabilities, costs, expenses and other amounts arising or incurred prior to, or arising out of actions or omissions occurring prior to, such resignation or removal).

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Issuer, the Rating Agencies, the Noteholders and the Servicer and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, the Issuer shall at the direction of its board of directors (with the written consent of the Servicer, not to be unreasonably withheld) promptly appoint a successor trustee or trustees by written instrument, in duplicate, executed by an Authorized Officer of the Issuer on behalf of the Issuer, one original copy of which shall be delivered to the Trustee so resigning and one original copy to the successor trustee or trustees, together with a copy to each Noteholder. If no successor trustee shall have been appointed and an instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 30 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee, or any Holder of a Note, may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(c) Subject to Section 6.9(a) hereof, the Trustee may be removed at any time at the direction the Holders of more than 50% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Controlling Class.

(d) The Issuer, at the direction of its board of directors, by Issuer Order, may remove the Trustee petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee, if at any time:

(i) the Trustee shall cease to be eligible under Section 6.8 hereof and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by the Issuer or by the Requisite Noteholders, or

(ii) the Trustee shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver or liquidator of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation.

(e) If the Trustee shall resign, be removed or become incapable of acting, or if a vacancy shall occur in the office of the Trustee for any cause, the Issuer, at the direction of its board of directors, by Issuer Order, shall (with the written consent of the Servicer, not to be unreasonably withheld) promptly appoint a successor Trustee. If no successor Trustee shall have been so appointed by the Issuer and shall have accepted appointment in the manner hereinabove provided, any Noteholder may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Issuer shall give prompt notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee by giving facsimile notice of such event, confirmed by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to each Rating Agency, Bear Stearns, the Servicer and to the Holders of the Notes as their names and addresses appear in the Note Register. Each notice shall include the name of the successor Trustee and the address of its Corporate Trust Office.

Section 6.10. Acceptance of Appointment by Successor.

Every successor Trustee appointed hereunder shall be required to meet the eligibility requirements set forth in Section 6.8 hereof and shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Issuer and the retiring Trustee an instrument accepting such appointment, and thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective and such successor Trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all the rights, powers, trusts, duties and obligations of the retiring Trustee; but, on request of the Issuer, the successor Trustee or the Requisite Noteholders, such retiring Trustee shall, upon payment of its fees, expenses and indemnities then unpaid, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Trustee all the rights, powers and trusts of the retiring Trustee, and shall duly assign, transfer and deliver to such successor Trustee all property and money held by such retiring Trustee hereunder, subject nevertheless to its lien, if any; provided for in Section 6.13 hereof. Upon request of any such successor Trustee, the Issuer shall execute any and all instruments for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to such successor Trustee all such rights, powers and trusts.

No appointment of a successor Trustee shall become effective until the date ten days after notice of such appointment has been given to each Noteholder, and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent.

Section 6.11. Merger, Conversion, Consolidation or Succession to Business of Trustee.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee hereunder; provided such corporation shall be otherwise qualified and eligible under this Article, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto. In case any Notes have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor by merger, conversion or consolidation to such authenticating Trustee may adopt such authentication and deliver the Notes so authenticated with the same effect as if such successor Trustee had itself authenticated such Notes.

Section 6.12. Certain Duties of Trustee Related to Delayed Payment of Proceeds.

If in any month the Trustee shall not have received a payment with respect to any Pledged Security on its Due Date, (a) the Trustee shall promptly notify the Issuer and the Servicer in writing and, (b) unless within three Business Days after such notice such payment shall have been received by the Trustee, or the Issuer shall have made provision for such payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with Section 10.2(a) hereof, the Trustee shall request the issuer of such Pledged Security, the trustee under the related Underlying Instrument or paying agent designated by either of them, as the case may be, to make such payment as soon as practicable after such request but in no event later than three Business Days after the date of such request. If such payment is not made within such time period, the Trustee shall take such action as the Servicer shall direct in writing; provided that any expenses incurred or to be incurred in taking any such action shall be deemed to be an "extraordinary financial liability" under clause (4) of Section 6.1(c) hereof. Any such action shall be without prejudice to any right to claim a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture. In the event that the Issuer or the Servicer requests a release of a Pledged Security and/or delivers Substitute Portfolio Collateral in connection with any such action under the Servicing Agreement, such release and/or substitution shall be subject to Section 10.3 hereof and Article XII of this Indenture as the case may be. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof the Trustee shall deliver to the Issuer or its designee any payment with respect to any Pledged Security received after the Due Date thereof to the extent the Issuer previously made provisions for such payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with this Section 6.12 and such payment shall not be deemed part of the Trust Estate.

Section 6.13. Non-Petition.

None of the Trustee, the Secured Parties, the Noteholders or the Paying and Transfer Agent, shall cause or join in the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for any reason, including for the nonpayment to any such party of any amounts due hereunder or under the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement or under the Notes, as applicable, until the expiration of the period which is one year and one day (or such longer preference period as may be in effect) after the final payment on the Notes; provided, however, nothing herein shall be deemed to prohibit the Trustee from filing proofs of claim for itself and on behalf of the Noteholders.

Section 6.14. Withholding.

(a) If any withholding tax is imposed on the Co-Issuers' payment (or allocations of income) to any Noteholder, such tax shall reduce the amount otherwise distributable to such Noteholder. The Trustee is hereby authorized and directed to retain from amounts otherwise distributable to any Noteholder sufficient funds for the payment of any tax that is legally owed by the Trust Estate or the Co-Issuers (as directed to it in writing by the Co-Issuers) (but such authorization shall not prevent the Trustee from contesting any such tax in appropriate Proceedings and withholding payment of such tax, if permitted by law, pending the outcome of such Proceedings), or that the Trustee may otherwise determine it is obligated to withhold under applicable law or regulation. The amount of any withholding tax imposed with respect to any Noteholder shall be treated as cash distributed to such Noteholder at the time it is withheld by the Trustee and remitted to the appropriate taxing authority. If there is a possibility that withholding tax is payable with respect to a distribution, the Trustee may in its sole discretion withhold such amounts in accordance with this Section 6.14 (a). If any Noteholder wishes to apply for a refund of any such withholding tax, the Trustee shall reasonably cooperate with such Noteholder in making such claim so long as such Noteholder agrees to reimburse the Trustee for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred. Nothing in this Section 6.14 shall be construed to impose upon the Trustee any obligation or duty to determine the tax liability or responsibilities of the Co-Issuers or the Trust Estate other than the duties required under applicable law, or otherwise to perform any related tax administration or return preparation or filing responsibilities, or to impose upon the Trustee any duty or obligation to commence Proceedings to contest any tax.

(b) In order to receive payments on its Note free of U.S. federal withholding and backup withholding tax, each Holder shall timely furnish the Issuer or its agents any U.S. federal income tax form or certification (such as Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") Form W-8BEN (Certification of Foreign Status), Form W-8IMY (Certification of Foreign Intermediary Status), Form W-9 (Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification) or Form W-8ECI (Certification of Foreign Person's Claim for Exemption from Withholding on Income Effectively Connected with Conduct of a U.S. Trade or Business) or any successors to such IRS forms) that the Issuer or its agents may reasonably request and shall update or replace such form or certification in accordance with its terms or its subsequent amendments.

Section 6.15. The Securities Intermediary.

(a) There shall at all times be one or more securities intermediaries appointed for purposes of this Indenture (the "Securities Intermediary"). JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, is hereby appointed as the initial Securities Intermediary hereunder (in such capacity, "JPMorgan Chase"), and JPMorgan Chase accepts such appointment.

(b) The Securities Intermediary shall be, and JPMorgan Chase as initial Securities Intermediary hereby represents and warrants that it is as of the date hereof and shall be, for so long as it is the Securities Intermediary hereunder, a corporation or national bank that in the ordinary course of its business maintains securities accounts for others and is acting in that capacity hereunder. The Securities Intermediary shall, and JPMorgan Chase as initial Securities Intermediary does, agree with the parties hereto that each Account shall be an account to which financial assets may be credited and undertake to treat the Trustee as entitled to exercise the rights that comprise such financial assets. The Securities Intermediary shall, and JPMorgan Chase as initial Securities Intermediary does, agree with the parties hereto that each item of property credited to each Account shall be treated as a financial asset. The Securities Intermediary shall, and JPMorgan Chase as initial Securities Intermediary does, agree with the parties hereto that, for purposes of the UCC and the United States Regulations, the securities intermediary's jurisdiction of the Securities Intermediary with respect to the Trust Estate shall be the State of New York. The Securities Intermediary shall, and JPMorgan Chase as initial Securities Intermediary does, represent and covenant that it is not and will not be (as long as it is the Securities Intermediary hereunder) a party to any agreement that is inconsistent with the provisions of this Indenture. The Securities Intermediary shall, and JPMorgan Chase as initial Securities Intermediary does, covenant that it will not take any action inconsistent with the provisions of this Indenture applicable to it. The Securities Intermediary shall, and JPMorgan Chase as initial Securities Intermediary does, agree that any item of property credited to any Account shall not be subject to any security interest, lien, encumbrance or right of setoff in favor of the Securities Intermediary or anyone claiming through the Securities Intermediary (other than the Trustee).

(c) It is the intent of the Trustee and the Co-Issuers that each Account shall be a securities account of the Trustee and not an account of the Co-Issuers. Nonetheless, the Securities Intermediary shall agree to comply with entitlement orders originated by the Trustee without further consent by the Co-Issuers or any other person or entity, and JPMorgan Chase as initial Securities Intermediary agrees that, for so long as it is the Securities Intermediary hereunder, it will comply with entitlement orders originated by the Trustee without further consent by the Co-Issuers or any other person or entity. The Securities Intermediary shall covenant that it will not agree with any person or entity other than the Trustee that it will comply with entitlement orders originated by any person or entity other than the Trustee, and JPMorgan Chase as initial Securities Intermediary hereby covenants that, for so long as it is the Securities Intermediary hereunder, it will not agree with any person or entity other than the Trustee that it will comply with entitlement orders originated by any person or entity other than the Trustee.

(d) Nothing herein shall imply or impose upon the Securities Intermediary any duties or obligations other than those expressly set forth herein and those applicable to a securities intermediary under the UCC and the United States Regulations (and the Securities Intermediary shall be entitled to all of the protections available to a securities intermediary under the UCC and the United States Regulations). Without limiting the foregoing, nothing herein shall imply or impose upon the Securities Intermediary any duties of a fiduciary nature (such as, without limitation, the fiduciary duties of the Trustee hereunder).

(e) The Securities Intermediary may at any time resign by notice to the Trustee and may at any time be removed by notice from the Trustee; provided however that it shall be the responsibility of the Trustee to appoint a successor Securities Intermediary and to cause the Accounts to be established and maintained with such successor Securities Intermediary in accordance with the terms hereof; and the responsibilities and duties of the retiring Securities Intermediary hereunder shall remain in effect until all of the Trust Estate credited to the Accounts held by such retiring Securities Intermediary have been transferred to such successor. Any corporation into which the Securities Intermediary may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, consolidation or conversion to which the Securities Intermediary shall be a party, shall be the successor of the Securities Intermediary hereunder, without the execution or filing of any further act on the part of the parties hereto or such Securities Intermediary or such successor corporation.

Section 6.16. Eligible Investments.

Eligible Investments acquired with available funds in an Account shall be credited by the Trustee to such Account.

Section 6.17. Fiduciary For Noteholders; Agent for the Other Secured Parties.

With respect to the security interest created hereunder, the Delivery of any item of Collateral to the Trustee is to the Trustee as representative of the Noteholders and agent for the other Secured Parties. In furtherance of the foregoing, the possession by the Trustee of any item of Collateral, the indorsement to or registration in the name of the Trustee of any item of Collateral and the status of the Trustee as entitlement holder with respect to the Accounts are all undertaken by the Trustee in its capacity as representative of the Noteholders and agent for the other Secured Parties. The Trustee shall not by reason of this Indenture be deemed to be acting as a fiduciary for the Secured Parties other than the Noteholders; provided that the foregoing shall not limit any of the express obligations of the Trustee under this Indenture.

ARTICLE VII

COVENANTS

Section 7.1. Payment of Principal and Interest.

The Co-Issuers (as applicable) will duly and punctually pay the principal of, interest on and all other amounts payable on or in respect of the Notes in accordance with the terms of the Notes and this Indenture.

Section 7.2. Maintenance of Office or Agency.

The Trustee will maintain an office or agency in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York, the State of New York, where Notes may be presented or surrendered for payment. The Trustee hereby initially appoints the office of JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association (the "New York Presenting Agent"), currently located at JPMorgan Chase Bank, 4 New York Plaza, ground floor, New York, New York 10004, Attention: WSS Window – WSS (Houston)—Rockwall CDO, as such office or agency. The Trustee shall give prompt written notice to the Co-Issuers and the Noteholders of any change in the location of the New York Presenting Agent. If the location of the New York Presenting Agent changes and such notice is not given or the Trustee fails to maintain any such office or agency, presentations and surrenders of the Notes may be made or served at the Corporate Trust Office.

Section 7.3. Money for Note Payments to Be Held in Trust.

All payments of amounts due and payable with respect to any Notes that are to be made from amounts withdrawn from the Collection Account shall be made on behalf of the Issuer by the Trustee.

Section 7.4. Existence of Co-Issuers; Corporate Formalities.

(a) Each of the Co-Issuers will, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, maintain in full force and effect its existence, rights and franchises as a company or corporation incorporated or organized under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organization, as the case may be, and will obtain and preserve its qualification to do business as a foreign corporation in each jurisdiction in which such qualification is or shall be necessary to protect the validity and enforceability of this Indenture, the Notes or any of the Pledged Securities or other property included in the Trust Estate. Each of the Co-Issuers shall comply with its charter documents and shall not amend its charter documents without the consent of the Requisite Noteholders if such amendment would have a material adverse effect on the rights of the Noteholders and, for so long as any Notes are then rated, shall notify the Rating Agencies of any amendment and shall not amend its charter document in any material way without satisfaction of the Rating Condition.

(b) The Issuer shall ensure that all corporate or other formalities regarding its existence (including, to the extent required, holding, to the extent required, regular meetings of the board of directors and shareholders) are followed. The Issuer shall not take any action, or conduct its affairs in a manner, that is likely to result in its separate existence being ignored or its assets and liabilities being substantively consolidated with any other Person in a bankruptcy, reorganization or other insolvency proceeding. Without limiting the foregoing, (i) the Issuer shall not have any subsidiaries except the Co-Issuer, and (ii) the Issuer shall not (A) have any employees (other than its directors), (B) engage in any transaction with any shareholder that would constitute a conflict of interest, provided, however, that the entry into the Administration Agreement and the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement with Maples Finance Limited shall not be deemed a conflict of interest or (C) pay dividends other than in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, its organizational documents, and with regard to its Preferred Shares, in accordance with the terms of the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement.

Section 7.5. Protection of Trust Estate.

(a) The Issuer shall authorize, execute, deliver and file all such supplements and amendments hereto and all such financing statements, amendments of financing statements, continuation statements, instruments of further assurance and other instruments and shall take such other action as may be necessary or advisable to:

- (i) Grant more effectively all or any portion of the Trust Estate;
- (ii) maintain or preserve the lien of this Indenture or to carry out more effectively the purposes hereof;
- (iii) perfect, publish notice of, or protect the validity of any Grant made or to be made by this Indenture;
- (iv) enforce any of the Pledged Securities or other instruments or property included in the Trust Estate;
- (v) preserve and defend title to the Trust Estate and the rights therein of the Secured Parties against the claims of all other Persons; and
- (vi) pay any and all taxes levied or assessed upon all or any part of the Trust Estate.

The Issuer hereby authorizes the filing of financing statements (and amendments of financing statements and continuation statements) that name the Issuer as debtor and the Trustee as secured party and that cover all personal property of the Issuer. The Issuer also hereby ratifies the filing of any such financing statements (or amendments of financing statements or continuation statements) that were filed prior to the execution hereof. The Issuer hereby designates the Trustee its agent and attorney-in-fact to take any action or authorize or execute any financing statement, amendment of financing statement, continuation statement or other instrument required pursuant to this Section 7.5; provided that such appointment shall not impose upon the Trustee any of the Issuer's obligations under this Section 7.5.

The Trustee shall give written notice to the Issuer, the Servicer and the legal counsel who rendered the most recent Opinion of Counsel received by the Trustee under Section 7.6(a) of the pending expiration of the financing statement filed in connection with the closing of the transaction contemplated herein and any continuation statement relating thereto, no earlier than six months prior to the scheduled expiration date of such financing statement or continuation statement, as applicable, and no later than two months prior to such scheduled expiration date.

(b) The Trustee shall not, except in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture, release any portion of the Trust Estate from the security interest and lien hereunder or remove any portion of the Trust Estate from the jurisdictions indicated in Section 10.3(a) hereof; provided that the Trustee shall be entitled to remove the Trust Estate or any portion thereof to a jurisdiction other than the applicable jurisdiction or jurisdictions indicated in Section 10.3(a) hereof if the Trustee shall have first obtained an Opinion of Counsel, at its own expense, to the effect that the lien and security interest created by this Indenture with respect to such property, including the perfection and priority thereof, will continue to be maintained after giving effect to such action, and provided further that the Trustee shall thereafter (for so long as such property continues to be so located in such other jurisdiction) obtain at its own expense an annual Opinion of Counsel, on or before the date specified in Section 7.6(a) hereof, confirming the matters required by such Section to the extent governed by the law of such other jurisdiction.

(c) The Issuer shall pay or cause to be paid taxes, if any, levied on account of the beneficial ownership by the Issuer of any Pledged Securities.

(d) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants that its registered office is, and always has been, in the Cayman Islands; it has never had any offices in the United States of America, and the only offices of any type it has ever had have been in the Cayman Islands.

Section 7.6. Opinions and Tax Certificates.

(a) On or before May 31 in each calendar year, commencing in 2007, the Issuer shall cause to be delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel (and the Trustee shall deliver copies of such to the Servicer and the Rating Agencies), stating that, in the opinion of such counsel, as of the date of such opinion, the Indenture creates in favor of the Trustee a security interest in the Trust Estate and that such security interest is perfected.

(b) If required to prevent the withholding and imposition of United States income tax, the Issuer shall deliver or cause to be delivered (as applicable) a United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or W-8IMY (with applicable supporting documentation), or any successor forms thereto, to each issuer of any Portfolio Collateral and each issuer of an Eligible Investment in the Trust Estate at the time such Portfolio Collateral or Eligible Investment is purchased by the Issuer and annually thereafter.

(c) The Issuer will elect to be treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In the event that the Issuer is treated as a corporation, the Issuer will take all actions necessary in order to permit any holder of a Preferred Share, any holder of equity in the Issuer or any Holder of a Note or other security that is or may reasonably be characterized as an equity interest in the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes to make a "qualified electing fund" election for United States federal income tax purposes and to satisfy the ongoing requirements with respect to such an election. Further, in such event, the Issuer will provide, upon the reasonable request of any holder of a Preferred Share, any holder of equity in the Issuer or any such Holder of a Note, any information the Issuer has available to it that assists such holders with regard to filing requirements such holders may have as a result of the controlled foreign corporation rules under the Code.

(d) The Issuer will not take the position that it is engaged in a United States trade or business for federal income tax purposes.

Section 7.7. Performance of Obligations.

(a) The Co-Issuers shall not take any action, and, where applicable, will not consent to any action proposed to be taken by others, that would release any Person from any of such Person's covenants or obligations under any instrument included in the Trust Estate, except in the case of enforcement action taken with respect to any Defaulted Portfolio Collateral in accordance with the provisions hereof and as otherwise required hereby.

(b) The Co-Issuers may contract with other Persons, including JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, and the Servicer, for the performance by such Persons of the Issuer's obligations hereunder and under the Servicing Agreement. Notwithstanding any such arrangement, the Issuer shall remain primarily liable with respect thereto. With respect to any such contract, the performance of such obligations by such Persons shall be deemed to be performance of such obligations by the Issuer.

Section 7.8. Negative Covenants.

(a) The Issuer will not:

(1) sell, transfer, exchange or otherwise dispose of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecate or otherwise encumber (or permit such to occur or suffer such to exist), any part of the Trust Estate, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture and the Servicing Agreement;

(2) claim any credit on, or make any deduction from, the amount payable with respect to the Notes other than amounts withheld pursuant to Section 6.14 hereof, or assert any claim against any present or future Noteholder, by reason of the payment of any taxes levied or assessed upon any part of the Trust Estate;

(3) incur or assume any indebtedness other than pursuant to this Indenture or the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, or incur, assume or guaranty the indebtedness of any Person, issue any additional class of securities or issue any additional shares, shares of stock or membership interests;

(4) (A) permit the validity or effectiveness of this Indenture or any Grant hereunder to be impaired, or permit the lien of this Indenture to be amended, hypothecated, subordinated, terminated or discharged, or permit any Person to be released from any covenants or obligations with respect to this Indenture or the Notes, except, in each case, as may be expressly permitted hereby, thereby, or by the Servicing Agreement, (B) permit any lien, charge, adverse claim, security interest, mortgage or other encumbrance (other than the lien of this Indenture) to be created on or extend to or otherwise arise upon or burden the Trust Estate or any part thereof, any interest therein or the proceeds thereof except as may be expressly permitted hereby, or (C) take any action that would permit the lien of this Indenture not to constitute a valid first priority perfected security interest in the Trust Estate except as may be expressly permitted hereby;

(5) act as agent, negotiator or structurer with respect to any Portfolio Collateral, act as a participant in negotiating the terms of a primary loan agreement, except to the extent provided in the Servicing Agreement, enter into a binding commitment to purchase any Portfolio Collateral prior to the issuance of such Portfolio Collateral or engage in any transaction or activity that would cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States within the meaning of section 864 of the Code;

(6) change its name or its type or jurisdiction of organization unless it has first (i) made all filings and taken all actions in all relevant jurisdictions under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code and other applicable law as are necessary to continue and maintain the priority and perfection of the security interest of the Trustee in the Trust Estate, and (ii) delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that all necessary filings have been made under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code in all relevant jurisdictions as are necessary to continue and maintain the priority and perfection of the security interest of the Trustee in the Trust Estate;

(7) enter into any agreements or amendments thereto unless such agreements and any amendments thereto contain "non-petition" and "limited recourse" provisions, except with respect to any agreements involving the purchase and sale of Portfolio Collateral having customary purchase or sale terms and documented with customary trading documentation;

(8) enter into any agreements or amendments to the Transaction Documents with respect to the "non-petition" or "limited recourse" provisions without satisfying the Rating Condition; or

(9) commingle any of the Collateral with the assets of any other Person, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture and the Servicing Agreement.

(b) The Co-Issuer will not enter into any agreement, contract or indenture other than this Indenture and shall not incur or assume any indebtedness other than pursuant to or as may be expressly permitted by this Indenture, or incur, assume or guaranty the indebtedness of any Person.

(c) The Trustee shall not sell, transfer, exchange or otherwise dispose of, or enter into or engage in any business with respect to, any part of the Trust Estate, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture or the Servicing Agreement.

(d) Neither of the Co-Issuers shall to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law (i) commence any case, proceeding or other action under any existing or future law of any jurisdiction, domestic or foreign, relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or relief of debtors, seeking to have any order for relief entered with respect to it, or seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, winding-up, liquidation, dissolution, composition or other relief with respect to it or its debts, or (ii) seek appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian or other similar official for it or for all or any substantial part of its assets, or make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors; neither of the Co-Issuers shall take any action in furtherance of, or indicating its consent to, approval of, or acquiescence in, any of the acts set forth above; and each of the Co-Issuers shall generally pay debts as they become due and not admit in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due.

(e) Except as permitted by Section 8.2 hereof, the Issuer shall not waive nor permit the amendment of Section 19 or Section 20 of the Servicing Agreement or Section 20 of the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement.

Section 7.9. Statement as to Compliance.

On or before July 31 following each calendar year, beginning in 2007, or immediately if there has been a Default under this Indenture, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee, and the Trustee in turn shall deliver a copy to the Rating Agencies (and any Noteholder upon receipt by the Trustee of a certificate in the form of Exhibit H), an Officer's Certificate of the Issuer stating that:

(1) a review of the activities of the Issuer during such year and of the Issuer's performance under this Indenture has been made under his or her supervision; and

(a) Such Co-Issuer is a corporation duly incorporated or organized, as the case may be, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation and in each jurisdiction where the conduct of its business requires such license, qualification or good standing, except where the failure to be so licensed or qualified or in good standing would not adversely affect the validity or enforceability of this Indenture or the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party, or the ability of such Co-Issuer to perform its obligations hereunder or thereunder.

(b) Such Co-Issuer has the power and authority to execute and deliver the Transaction Documents and all other documents and agreements contemplated hereby and thereby to which it is a party, as well as to carry out the terms hereof and thereof.

(c) Such Co-Issuer has taken all necessary action, including but not limited to all requisite corporate action, to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of the Transaction Documents and all other documents and agreements contemplated hereby and thereby to which it is a party. (d) All authorizations, licenses, permits, certificates, franchises, consents, approvals and undertakings which are required to be obtained by such Co-Issuer under any applicable law which are material to (i) the conduct of its business, (ii) the ownership, use, operation or maintenance of its properties and (iii) the performance by such Co-Issuer of its obligations under or in connection with the Transaction Documents, the Notes and the Preferred Shares have been received and all such authorizations, licenses, permits, certificates, franchises, consents, approvals and undertakings are in full force and effect.

(e) The execution, issuance and delivery of, and performance by such Co-Issuer of its respective obligations under the Transaction Documents and any and all instruments or documents required to be executed or delivered pursuant to or in connection herewith or therewith were and are within the powers of such Co-Issuer and will not violate any provision of any law, regulation, decree or governmental authorization applicable to such Co-Issuer, or its charter or by-laws or other organizational documents and will not violate or cause a default under any provision of any contract, agreement, mortgage, indenture or other undertaking to which such Co-Issuer is a party or which is binding upon such Co-Issuer or any of its property or assets, and will not result in the imposition or creation of any lien, charge, or encumbrance upon any of its properties or assets of such Co-Issuer pursuant to the provisions of any such contract, agreement, mortgage, indenture or undertaking, other than as specifically set forth herein.

(f) There are no legal, governmental or regulatory Proceedings pending to which such Co-Issuer is a party or of which any of its property is the subject, which if determined adversely to such Co-Issuer would individually or in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on the performance by such Co-Issuer of the Transaction Documents or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereunder or thereunder; and to the best of its knowledge, no such Proceedings are threatened or contemplated.

(g) Neither the Notes nor the Preferred Shares are required to be registered pursuant to the Securities Act, such Co-Issuer is not required to be registered as an investment company pursuant to the Investment Company Act, and the Indenture is not required to be qualified under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended.

(j) The Issuer is not a securities intermediary, broker, or commodity intermediary as defined in the UCC, or a Participant as defined in the United States Regulations.

Section 7.17. Representations Relating to the Security Interests in the Collateral.

(a) The Issuer hereby represents that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and, with respect to Collateral Delivered after the Closing Date, be deemed to be repeated on the date on which such Collateral is Delivered as if made at and as of that time), with respect to the then existing Collateral:

(i) The Issuer owns and has good and marketable title to such Collateral free and clear of any lien, claim or encumbrance of any person, other than such as are created under, or expressly permitted by, this Indenture.

(ii) Other than the security interest granted to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture and conveyances permitted by this Indenture, the Issuer has not pledged, assigned, sold, granted a security interest in, or otherwise conveyed such Collateral. The Issuer has not authorized the filing of and is not aware of any financing statements against the Issuer that include a description of collateral covering such Collateral other than any financing statement relating to the security interest granted to the Trustee hereunder or that has been terminated. The Issuer is not aware of any judgment, Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation or tax lien filings against the Issuer.

(iii) Such Collateral is comprised of "instruments", "security entitlements", "general intangibles", "tangible chattel paper", "deposit accounts", "accounts", "certificated securities", "uncertificated securities" or "securities accounts" (each as defined in the applicable Uniform Commercial Code).

(iv) All Accounts constitute "securities accounts" as defined in the applicable Uniform Commercial Code.

(v) This Indenture creates a valid and continuing security interest (as defined in the applicable Uniform Commercial Code) in such Collateral in favor of the Trustee, which security interest is prior to all other liens and is enforceable as such against creditors of and purchasers from the Issuer except as expressly permitted under this Indenture.

(vi) The Issuer has received all consents and approvals required by the terms of such Collateral to the transfer to the Trustee of its interest and rights in such Collateral hereunder.

(b) The Issuer hereby represents that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and, with respect to Collateral Delivered after the Closing Date, be deemed to be repeated on the date on which such Collateral is Delivered as if made at and as of that time), with respect to the then existing Collateral that constitutes "securities accounts", the Indenture creates a valid and continuing security interest (as defined in the applicable Uniform Commercial Code) in the Accounts in favor of the Trustee, which security interest is perfected by control (as defined in the applicable Uniform Commercial Code) because the Trustee has control of each security entitlement carried in each Account.

(c) The Issuer hereby represents that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and, with respect to Collateral Delivered after the Closing Date, be deemed to be repeated on the date on which such Collateral is Delivered as if made at and as of that time), with respect to the then existing Collateral that constitute "instruments":

(i) All original executed copies of each promissory note or mortgage note that constitutes or evidences such instruments have been delivered to the Trustee and (ii) none of the promissory notes or the mortgage notes that constitute or evidence such instruments has any marks or notations indicating that it has been pledged, assigned or otherwise conveyed to any person other than the Trustee.

(d) The Issuer hereby represents that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and, with respect to Collateral Delivered after the Closing Date, be deemed to be repeated on the date on which such Collateral is Delivered as if made at and as of that time), with respect to the then existing Collateral that constitute "security entitlements":

(i) All of such security entitlements have been credited to one of the Accounts. The securities intermediary for each Account has agreed to treat all assets credited to such Account as "financial assets" within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code.

(ii) The Issuer has taken all steps necessary to cause the securities intermediary to identify in its records the Trustee as the person having a security entitlement against the securities intermediary in each of the Accounts.

(iii) The Accounts are not in the name of any person other than the Trustee. The Issuer has not consented to the securities intermediary of any Account to comply with the entitlement order of any person other than the Trustee.

(e) The Issuer hereby represents that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and, with respect to Collateral Delivered after the Closing Date, be deemed to be repeated on the date on which such Collateral is Delivered as if made at and as of that time), with respect to the then existing Collateral that constitutes "general intangibles" or "accounts":

(i) The Issuer has caused or will have caused, within ten days after the Closing Date, the filing of all appropriate financing statements in the proper filing office in the appropriate jurisdictions under applicable law in order to perfect the security interest in such general intangibles or accounts granted to the Trustee hereunder.

(f) The Issuer hereby represents that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and, with respect to Collateral Delivered after the Closing Date, be deemed to be repeated on the date on which such Collateral is Delivered as if made at and as of that time), with respect to the then existing Collateral that constitutes "tangible chattel paper":

(i) (A) All original executed copies of each agreement that constitutes or evidences such tangible chattel paper have been delivered to the Trustee and (B) none of the agreements that constitute or evidence such tangible chattel paper has any marks or notations indicating that it has been pledged, assigned or otherwise conveyed to any person other than the Trustee.

(ii) The Issuer has taken all steps necessary to perfect the security interest against the account debtor in the property securing the agreements that constitute such tangible chattel paper.

(g) The Issuer hereby represents that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and, with respect to Collateral Delivered after the Closing Date, be deemed to be repeated on the date on which such Collateral is Delivered as if made at and as of that time), with respect to the then existing Collateral that constitutes "deposit accounts":

(i) The Issuer has taken all steps necessary to cause the Trustee to become the account holder of such deposit accounts.

(ii) Such deposit accounts are not in the name of any person other than the Trustee. The Issuer has not consented to the bank maintaining any such deposit account to comply with the instructions of any person other than the Trustee.

(h) The Issuer hereby represents that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and, with respect to Collateral Delivered after the Closing Date, be deemed to be repeated on the date on which such Collateral is Delivered as if made at and as of that time), with respect to the then existing Collateral that constitutes a certificated security, such certificated security has been delivered to the Trustee and, if in registered form, has been indorsed to the Trustee or in blank by an effective indorsement or has been registered in the name of the Trustee upon original issue or registration of transfer by the issuer of such certificated security.

(i) The Issuer hereby represents that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and, with respect to Collateral Delivered after the Closing Date, be deemed to be repeated on the date on which such Collateral is Delivered as if made at and as of that time), with respect to the then existing Collateral that constitutes an uncertificated security, the issuer of such uncertificated security has registered the Trustee as the registered owner of such uncertificated security.

(j) None of the provisions of this Section 7.17 shall be waived without the prior written confirmation from S&P that such waiver shall not result in a reduction or withdrawal of the then-current rating of any Class of Notes.

Section 7.18. No "Gross-up" Amounts.

The Co-Issuers shall not be required to pay any "gross-up" or other additional amounts to the Holders of any Class of Notes because taxes or related amounts are required to be withheld from payments on the Notes or any payments to either of the Co-Issuers on any item of Portfolio Collateral or other assets of the Co-Issuers.

Section 7.19. Securities Lending.

(a) So long as no Event of Default is continuing and if after the completion of the transaction the limit in subsection 12.2(u) would be satisfied, the Servicer may cause Portfolio Collateral that are not Defaulted Portfolio Collateral to be lent for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers, and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) having long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or guarantors with ratings of at least "A1" (and not "A1" but on credit watch with negative implications) and "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's and a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "A+" from S&P (each, a "Securities Lending Counterparty") pursuant to one or more agreements (each, a "Securities Lending Agreement"); provided that Portfolio Collateral whose Market Value cannot be determined under clauses (a), (b) or (c) of that definition may not be lent pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement; provided, further, that the gross income from all such transactions during any fiscal year shall not exceed 15% of the gross income of the Issuer for such fiscal year. Upon receipt of an Issuer Order, the Trustee shall release any lent Portfolio Collateral to a Securities Lending Counterparty as directed by the Servicer. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the Placement Agent or Affiliates of the Servicer. The duration of any Securities Lending Agreement shall not exceed the Final Maturity Date of the Notes.

(b) Each Securities Lending Agreement shall be on market terms as determined by the Servicer (except as may be required below) and shall:

(i) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty return to the Trustee debt obligations that are identical (in terms of issue and class) to the lent items of Portfolio Collateral;

(ii) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty pay to the Trustee amounts equivalent to all interest and other payments that the owner of the lent items of Portfolio Collateral is entitled to for the period during which the Portfolio Collateral is lent and require that any such payments not be subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction unless the Securities Lending Counterparty is required under the Securities Lending Agreement to make "gross-up" payments to the Issuer that cover the full amount of the withholding tax on an after-tax basis;

(iii) require that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency shall be satisfied with respect to the execution of the Securities Lending Agreement;

(iv) satisfy any other requirements of Section 1058 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated under it;

- (v) be governed by the laws of New York;
 - (vi) permit the Issuer to assign its rights under the Securities Lending Agreement to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture;
 - (vii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent item of Portfolio Collateral from the Issuer with no penalty if the Portfolio Collateral becomes Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or is subject to redemption in accordance with its terms;
 - (viii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent item of Portfolio Collateral with no penalty upon any redemption of the Notes in whole;
 - (ix) require the Securities Lending Counterparty to post with the Trustee collateral consisting of Cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America that have a maturity date no later than the Business Day preceding the stated termination date of the Securities Lending Agreement (the "Securities Lending Collateral") to secure its obligation to return the Portfolio Collateral;
 - (x) provide that the Securities Lending Collateral shall be maintained at all times in an amount equal to at least 102% of the current Ask-Side Market Value (determined daily and monitored by the Servicer) of the lent Portfolio Collateral and if securities are delivered to the Trustee as security for the obligations of the Securities Lending Counterparty under the related Securities Lending Agreement, the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer will negotiate with the Securities Lending Counterparty a rate for the loan fee to be paid to the Issuer for lending the lent Collateral Obligations;
 - (xi) the lent Portfolio Collateral shall be marked-to-market on a daily basis by the Servicer on the basis of their Market Value;
 - (xii) the Collateral will include the Issuer's rights under the related Securities Lending Agreement rather than the lent Portfolio Collateral;
 - (xiii) provide for early termination within 10 days at the option of the Issuer and the delivery of any lent Portfolio Collateral from the Issuer with no penalty if the Securities Lending Counterparty is no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty and the noncompliance is not cured as provided in this Indenture; and
 - (xiv) contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions that survive the termination of the agreement (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Securities Lending Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those in this Indenture.
- (c) If either Moody's or S&P downgrades a Securities Lending Counterparty such that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party are no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty, then the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, within 10 days of the downgrade, shall

(i) terminate its Securities Lending Agreements with the Securities Lending Counterparty unless a guarantor for the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements has been obtained; or

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Portfolio Collateral lent to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty so that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party, together with all other Securities Lending Agreements, are in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of Securities Lending Counterparties; or

(iii) take any other steps Moody's or S&P may require to cause the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party to be treated by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, as if the obligations were owed by a counterparty having a rating at least equivalent to the rating that was assigned by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty before its being downgraded.

(d) In connection with any such direction by the Servicer to enter into a Securities Lending Agreement, the Trustee may receive and rely on an Issuer Order to the effect that the Securities Lending Agreement, and its Securities Lending Counterparty, is each in compliance with the requirements of this Indenture (including the definition of "Securities Lending Counterparty"). The Issuer and the Trustee may enter into any Securities Lending Agreement at the instruction of the Servicer, and deliver and accept delivery and return of any Portfolio Collateral pursuant to the Securities Lending Agreement, or pursuant to instructions from the Servicer in connection with the Securities Lending Agreement. The Trustee may take any actions and exercise any rights and remedies under any Securities Lending Agreement that the Servicer instructs. The Trustee need not enter into any Securities Lending Agreement that would in its judgment, subject it to any liability, whether financial or otherwise, or cause it to incur or subject it to risk of any cost or disbursement for which it is not, in its judgment, adequately indemnified, or that would impose on it any obligations or administrative burdens that are unacceptable to it. The Servicer shall instruct the Trustee in writing with respect to the administration of any Securities Lending Agreement (including with respect to any default and the exercise of rights under it). The Trustee shall not have any responsibility for evaluating the sufficiency, validity, or acceptability of any Securities Lending Agreement or for the qualifications or eligibility of any Securities Lending Counterparty. Nothing in this Indenture shall be construed to cause the Trustee to have any fiduciary duties to any Securities Lending Counterparty.

So long as any Portfolio Collateral is on loan pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement, (a) the Trustee shall have no liability for any failure or inability on its part to receive any information or take any action with respect to the Portfolio Collateral because of its being on loan (including any failure to take action with respect to a notice of redemption, consent solicitation, exchange or tender offer, or similar corporate action), and (b) the lent Portfolio Collateral shall not be disqualified for return to the Trustee as an item of Portfolio Collateral by any change in circumstance or status during the time while on loan (including any change that would cause the Portfolio Collateral to be ineligible for purchase by the Issuer under this Indenture if applied to a proposed purchase of it in the open market at the time of its return from loan).

ARTICLE VIII

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES

Section 8.1. Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Noteholders.

Without the consent of the Holders of any Notes, but with the consent of the Servicer, the Co-Issuers and the Trustee, at any time, may enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, for any of the following purposes:

(1) to correct or amplify the description of any property at any time subject to the lien of this Indenture, or better to assure, convey and confirm unto the Trustee any property subject or required to be subjected to the lien of this Indenture, or to subject to the lien of this Indenture additional property;

(2) to evidence the succession of another Person to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, and the assumption by any such successor of the covenants of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer contained herein and in the Notes;

(3) to add to the covenants of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Trustee, for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, or to surrender any right or power herein conferred upon the Issuer or the Co-Issuer;

(4) to Grant any property to the Trustee;

(5) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment hereunder by a successor Trustee and to add to or change any of the provisions of this Indenture as shall be necessary to facilitate the administration of the Trust Estate by more than one Trustee, pursuant to the requirements of Section 6.9 or 6.10 hereof;

(6) to cure any ambiguity, or to correct, modify or supplement any provision which is defective or inconsistent with any other provision herein;

(7) to take any action necessary or helpful to prevent the Issuer or the Trustee from becoming subject to any withholding or other taxes or assessments or to reduce the risk that the Issuer will be engaged in a United States trade or business or that the Issuer (or the beneficial owners thereof) will be subject to United States income tax on a net income basis;

(8) to correct any manifest error in any provision hereof upon receipt by the Trustee of written direction from the Issuer or Co-Issuer (as to which the Trustee may rely) describing in reasonable detail such error and the modification necessary to correct such error; or

(9) to effectuate the provisions of Section 2.12 hereof provided that such amendment shall not, as evidenced by an Officer's Certificate of the Issuer, adversely affect in any material respect the interests of any Noteholder; or

(10) to facilitate the delivery and maintenance of the Notes in accordance with the requirements of DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream;

(11) to authorize the appointment of any listing agent, Transfer Agent, Paying Agent or additional registrar for any Class of Notes required or advisable in connection with the listing of the Notes on the Irish Stock Exchange or any other stock exchange and otherwise to amend this Indenture to incorporate any changes required or requested by any governmental authority, stock exchange authority, listing agent, Transfer Agent, Paying Agent or additional registrar for such Notes in connection therewith;

(12) to modify the restrictions on and procedures for resale and other transfer of the Notes in accordance with any change in any applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or to enable the Co-Issuers to rely upon any less restrictive exemption from registration under the Securities Act or the Investment Company Act or to remove restrictions on resale and transfer to the extent not required thereunder;

(13) evidence the addition of an additional issuer or of a wholly owned subsidiary of the Issuer that, in either case, will acquire securities from the Issuer and pledge its assets to secure the obligations of the Issuer secured by the Trust Estate, to the extent necessary to permit the Issuer to comply with the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder or any other statute, rule or regulation applicable to the Issuer, and the assumption by any such additional issuer or subsidiary of the covenants and obligations of the Issuer in this Indenture; or provided further that (A) such amendment for any matters described in clauses (1) through (13) shall not, as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion), adversely affect in any material respect the interests of any Noteholder and (B) no amendment shall be made that would cause the Issuer to register as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act.

(14) prevent the Issuer from becoming an "investment company" as defined in the Investment Company Act or better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 thereunder; provided that, as a condition to the effectiveness of any such supplemental indenture, each of the Issuer, the Trustee and the Initial Purchaser shall have received (A) a Rating Condition with respect to such supplemental indenture and (B) a customary, unqualified opinion of counsel from a nationally recognized law firm (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion) providing that, after giving effect to such supplemental indenture, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act;

The Trustee is hereby authorized to join in the execution of any such supplemental indenture and to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations that may be therein contained. At the cost of the Issuer, the Trustee shall provide to the Servicer and for so long as any Notes are then rated, each Rating Agency then rating any Notes a copy of any proposed supplemental indenture at least 10 days prior to the execution thereof by the Trustee and request written confirmation that the entering into of such supplemental indenture satisfies the Rating Condition. The Trustee shall not enter into any such supplemental indenture if such supplemental indenture does not satisfy the Rating Condition, and, as soon as practicable after the execution by the Trustee and the Issuer of any such supplemental indenture, the Issuer or the Trustee at the request of the Issuer shall provide to the Servicer and each Rating Agency then rating any Notes a copy of the executed supplemental indenture.

Section 8.2. Supplemental Indentures with Consent of Noteholders.

With the consent of the Requisite Noteholders, the Servicer and the Holders of the Preferred Shares, to the extent described in the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, the Co-Issuers and the Trustee may enter into an indenture or indentures supplemental hereto for the purpose of adding any provisions to, or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of, this Indenture or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes under this Indenture; provided that, notwithstanding any Amendment Buy-Out Option described in Section 9.4(b), no such supplemental indenture shall, without the consent of each Noteholder of each Class adversely affected thereby:

(1) change the Final Maturity Date or Payment Date of any Note, or reduce the principal amount, notional principal amount or stated amount thereof, as the case may be, or the means of determining the Applicable Periodic Rate, the Optional Redemption Price, the Special Redemption Price, the Tax Event Redemption Price or the Mandatory Redemption Price, as applicable, with respect thereto, change the provisions of this Indenture relating to the application of proceeds of the Trust Estate to the payment of the Notes or change the jurisdiction where any Note is payable, or the coin or currency in which, any Note or any amount thereunder is payable, or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after the maturity thereof;

(2) reduce the percentage in Aggregate Principal Amount, the consent of the Holders of which is required for the execution of any such supplemental indenture, or the consent of the Holders of which is required for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of this Indenture or certain Events of Default hereunder and their consequences provided for in this Indenture;

(3) impair or adversely affect the Trust Estate except as otherwise permitted herein;

(4) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on a parity with the lien of this Indenture with respect to any part of the Trust Estate or terminate the lien of this Indenture on any property at any time subject hereto (other than pursuant to the terms of this Indenture) or deprive the Holder of any Note or any other party expressly secured hereby of the security afforded by the lien of this Indenture;

(5) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes whose Holders must direct the Trustee to preserve the Trust Estate or must consent before any request is made to rescind the Trustee's election to preserve the Trust Estate pursuant to Section 5.5 hereof, or to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate pursuant to Section 5.4, 5.5 or 9.7

hereof or modify the requirement for consent of any other party to which the right to consent is expressly granted hereby;

(6) modify any of the provisions of this Section or Section 5.15 hereof, except to increase any such percentage or to provide that certain other provisions of this Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected thereby;

(7) modify the provisions of Article XI hereof or the definition of the term "Holder," "Noteholder," "Majority Noteholders," "Majority Preferred Shareholders," "Requisite Noteholders" or of the term "Outstanding";

(8) amend any provision of this Indenture relating to the institution of proceedings for the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to be adjudicated as bankrupt or insolvent, or the consent by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to the institution of bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings against it, or the filing with respect to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of a petition or answer or consent seeking reorganization or relief under the Bankruptcy Code or any other similar applicable law, or the consent by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to the filing of any such petition as to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or of any substantial part of its property, respectively;

(9) amend any provision of this Indenture or other such document that provides that the obligations of the Co-Issuer or the Issuer, as the case may be, are non-recourse obligations of the Co-Issuer or the Issuer, respectively, payable solely from the Collateral in accordance with the terms hereof; or

(10) modify any of the provisions of this Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount or timing of any payment of interest or principal due on any Note on any Payment Date (including the calculation of any of the individual components of such calculation) or to affect the rights of the Holders of Notes to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of such Notes contained herein.

With respect to any action that requires consent from 100% of the Noteholders, if any Noteholder has notified the Trustee in writing that pursuant to such Noteholder's organizational documents or other documents governing such Noteholder's actions, the Noteholder is not permitted to take any affirmative action approving, rejecting or otherwise acting upon any Issuer request under the Indenture, the failure by such Noteholder to consent to or reject any such requested action will be deemed a consent by such Noteholder to the requested action.

Not later than 15 Business Days prior to the execution of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section, the Trustee shall mail to the Servicer and, so long as any Notes are then rated by any Rating Agency, to each such Rating Agency, a copy of such supplemental indenture and, if any Notes are then rated, prior to the execution of the proposed supplemental indenture, the Rating Condition must be satisfied with respect to such supplemental indenture.

It shall not be necessary in connection with any consent of Noteholders under this Section for the Noteholders to approve the specific form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if such consent shall approve the substance thereof.

In the event that any supplemental indenture is consented to by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and 100% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes and the Rating Condition is satisfied or is specifically waived by all consenting parties, all conditions precedent to the execution of such supplemental indenture shall be deemed satisfied, the execution of such supplemental indenture shall be authorized or permitted by this Indenture, and the Trustee shall execute and accept the additional trusts created by such supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article VIII or modification thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture without obtaining an Opinion of Counsel.

Promptly after the execution by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.2, the Issuer or the Trustee at the request of the Issuer shall deliver to the Holders of the Notes, the Servicer, each Rating Agency then rating any Notes and the Repository (for posting on the Repository in the manner described in Section 13.17), a copy thereof.

Section 8.3. Execution of Supplemental Indentures.

In executing or accepting the additional trusts created by any supplemental indenture permitted by this Article VIII or the modifications thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and (subject to Section 6.3(d) hereof) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of such supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture, and that all conditions precedent applicable thereto under this Indenture have been satisfied. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture which affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise.

Section 8.4. Effect of Supplemental Indentures.

Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture under this Article VIII, this Indenture shall be modified in accordance therewith, and such supplemental indenture shall form a part of this Indenture for all purposes; and every Holder of Notes theretofore and thereafter authenticated and delivered hereunder shall be bound thereby.

Section 8.5. Reference in Notes to Supplemental Indentures.

Notes authenticated and delivered after the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article VIII may, and if required by the Trustee shall, bear a notation in form approved by the Trustee as to any matter provided for in such supplemental indenture. If the Issuer shall so determine, new Notes, so modified as to conform in the opinion of the Trustee and the Issuer to any such supplemental indenture, may be prepared and executed by the Issuer and authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for Outstanding Notes.

ARTICLE IX

REDEMPTION; TERMINATION OF TRUST

Section 9.1. Optional Redemption. On the Optional Redemption Date, which date shall be considered the Final Maturity Date in the case of a Total Optional Redemption, subject to satisfaction of certain conditions described herein, the Notes will be redeemed, in whole or in part, by the Co-Issuers or the Issuer, as applicable, in accordance with the priority of distributions described herein, if such redemption is directed by the holders of Preferred Shares in the amounts described below.

(a) In the case of a Total Optional Redemption:

(i) the Holders of at least 75% of the outstanding Preferred Shares eligible to vote direct the Co-Issuer or the Issuer to redeem the Notes; provided that any Preferred Shares beneficially owned or controlled by the Servicer, entities affiliated with the Servicer Entities in excess of the Original HFP Share Amount, shall be excluded from, and be deemed ineligible to participate in, any such vote to direct any Total Optional Redemption;

(ii) sufficient liquidation proceeds from the Portfolio Collateral must exist to effect the redemption of all Notes in full at their Redemption Price in accordance with the priority of distributions described herein; and

(b) in the case of a Partial Optional Redemption:

(i) the Holders of at least 10% of the outstanding Preferred Shares eligible to vote direct the Co-Issuer or the Issuer to redeem the Notes in part; provided that any Preferred Shares beneficially owned or controlled by the Servicer Entities, including any HFP Shares, shall be excluded from, and be deemed ineligible to participate in, any such vote to direct any Partial Optional Redemption;

(ii) the Holders of Preferred Shares directing such Partial Optional Redemption shall specify the Partial Redemption Percentage; provided that the Partial Redemption Percentage must be the percentage equivalent to at least 10% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Notes as of the Closing Date; and

(iii) the following conditions must be satisfied:

(1) the Partial Redemption Percentage of the Notes must be redeemed pro rata at their respective Optional Redemption Price,

(2) the Collateral Quality Matrix tests, Overcollateralization Tests, Interest Coverage Tests and any other eligibility criteria with respect to the Portfolio Collateral must be satisfied before and after giving effect to such redemption; provided that the degree of compliance with the Moody's Weighted Average Rating Test and the Weighted Average Margin Test shall not be diminished after giving effect to such redemption,

(3) any applicable Default Swaps of the Issuer must be modified or terminated in a manner consistent with the economic effect of such redemption and in consideration of the Portfolio Collateral and Eligible Investments that will be owned by the Issuer after giving effect to such redemption, and any net termination payments payable by the Issuer must be paid,

(4) the Rating Condition must be satisfied with respect to each Rating Agency,

(5) not more than three (3) prior Partial Optional Redemptions may have occurred, and

(6) no claims may be pending against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer and no judgments may have been rendered against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer which exceed, or reasonably could be expected to result in liabilities that exceed, in the aggregate, $100,000, unless adequate funds have been reserved or set aside for the payment thereof.

In connection with any Optional Redemption, the Issuer may use all funds credited to the Collection Account to provide for payment of the Optional Redemption Price. If there are not sufficient funds in the Collection Account as of the date the notice of redemption is given to pay the Optional Redemption Price on the Optional Redemption Date and all such payments, fees and expenses (including any termination payments with respect to any Synthetic Securities and any Default Swaps), the Servicer is required to give the Trustee written direction to sell Portfolio Collateral in an amount sufficient to provide funds to pay the Optional Redemption Price in full. The Trustee will give notice of an Optional Redemption to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange if any Class of Notes is then listed on the Irish Stock Exchange.

The Servicer shall have the right to purchase the Preferred Shares held by any Holder that directs the Issuer to effect a Partial Optional Redemption at a price equal to the liquidation value of such Preferred Shares.

(c) The election of the Issuer to redeem any Notes pursuant to this Section 9.1 shall be set forth in an Issuer Order, given to the Trustee in accordance with Section 9.5 hereof, directing the Trustee to make the payment of the Optional Redemption Price for all the Notes, from funds in the Collection Account and/or from monies deposited with the Trustee by the Issuer pursuant to Section 9.8 hereof.

(d) The Issuer shall, simultaneously with electing to redeem Notes under this Section 9.1, set the Optional Redemption Date and the Redemption Record Date for any redemption pursuant to this Section and give notice thereof to the Trustee pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof.

(e) The Issuer shall have the option to withdraw the notice of redemption until the earlier of the fifth Business Day prior to the proposed Optional Redemption Date and the date on which a forward purchase contract is entered into pursuant to Section 9.8 by written notice to the Trustee and the Servicer on or prior to such earlier day.

(f) On the Optional Redemption Date, the Optional Redemption Price shall be distributed pursuant to Section 11.1(d) after payment of all amounts required to be paid pursuant to Section 11.1(b).

Section 9.2. Mandatory Redemption.

If either the Interest Coverage Test or the Overcollateralization Tests are not satisfied as of any applicable Calculation Date or a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, all or a portion of the Notes shall be redeemed (or, in the case of the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes, any Periodic Rate Shortfall Amounts shall be paid and then the Notes shall be redeemed) by the Issuer, in the order set forth in Section 11.1 hereof, on the Payment Date immediately following such Calculation Date at the Mandatory Redemption Price (pursuant to the applicable provisions of Sections 11.1 and 11.2 hereof) in an amount sufficient such that the Interest Coverage Test and Overcollateralization Tests are satisfied or a Rating Confirmation is received, as applicable. The amount of any Mandatory Redemption hereunder shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 11.2 hereof.

Section 9.3. Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement.

On each Payment Date after the second Payment Date, the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement shall be applied by the Issuer in the order set forth in Section 11.1 hereof.

Section 9.4. Special Redemption; Amendment Buy-Out

(a) The Notes (other than Class X) shall be redeemable in part on any Payment Date during the Revolving Period at the option of the Issuer, as directed by and at the discretion of the Servicer, to the extent more than U.S. $2,000,000 of Collateral Principal Collections held in the Collection Account are not applied to the purchase of Additional Portfolio Collateral satisfying the criteria contained in Section 11.3 hereof by the earlier of the last day of the next succeeding Due Period or the last day of the Revolving Period, in the order and priority set forth in Section 11.1 hereof.

(b) In the case of any supplemental indenture pursuant to Section 8.2 that requires the consent of one or more Holders of Notes or Preferred Shares, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders all Notes (other than the Class A-1LA Notes) or Preferred Shares held by such Holders of the Class of Notes or Preferred Shares whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture (the "Amendment Buy-Out Option") for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; provided, however, that the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser may not exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option during the Non-Call Period in connection with a proposed amendment to reduce the rate of interest on any Security, as applicable, or to change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preferred Shares may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer; provided further, that notwithstanding the definition of Non-Consenting Holder, any Holder of Notes (other than the Class A-1LA Notes) or Preferred Shares who fails to respond to any such consent solicitation shall be deemed to have consented to any such supplemental indenture. Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the Non-Call Period, "Non-Consenting Holder" shall exclude any Holder of Class A-1LA Notes (unless such Holder has consented in writing to be designated as a Non-Consenting Holder) and the Amendment Buy-Out Option shall not be applicable to such Class A-1LA Notes. If the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all such Notes or Preferred Shares of Non-Consenting Holders, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes or Preferred Shares the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an "Amendment Buy-Out"). By its acceptance of its Securities or Preferred Shares hereunder, each Holder of Notes or Preferred Shares agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its applicable Notes or Preferred Shares to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing described above shall in any way limit or restrict the rights of Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes to consent or withhold their consent to a supplemental indenture or otherwise vote their interest both during and after the Non-Call Period. Neither the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser nor any other Person shall have any liability to any Holder or Beneficial Owner of Securities or Preferred Shares as a result of an election by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser not to exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) nothing described above or in the Indenture shall in any way limit or restrict the rights of the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes to consent or withhold their consent to a supplemental indenture or to otherwise vote their interest both during and after the Non-Call Period and (ii) the Trustee shall have no responsibility for overseeing the Servicer's compliance with the Amendment Buy-Out provisions herein.

(c) All purchases made pursuant to an Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Securities or Preferred Shares set forth herein and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

Section 9.5. Tax Event Redemption.

(a) The Notes shall be redeemable, in whole but not in part, by the Issuer at the direction of 66-2/3% of the Preferred Shares or a majority of the Controlling Class (but only if the Aggregate Principal Balance of Portfolio Collateral is less than 100% of the Class A-1L Notes) on any Payment Date at the Tax Event Redemption Price, if as a result of (i) change in tax law, rule or regulation or the interpretation thereof, the payments to be received on the Portfolio Collateral are reduced as a result of the imposition of withholding tax, (ii) the Issuer is otherwise subjected to tax such that the income of the Issuer is reduced in an amount determined by such holders of Preferred Shares to be material, (iii) (A) one or more items of Portfolio Collateral that were not subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them have become subject to withholding tax or the rate of withholding has increased on one or more items of Portfolio Collateral that were subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them and (B) in any Due Period the aggregate of the payments subject to withholding tax on new withholding tax obligations and the increase in payments subject to withholding tax on increased rate withholding tax obligations, in each case to the extent not "grossed-up" (on an after-tax basis) by the related obligor, represent 5% or more of Interest Proceeds for the Due Period, or (iv) taxes, fees, assessments or other similar charges are imposed on the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in an aggregate amount in any 12-month period in excess of $2,000,000, other than liabilities for withholding taxes included in clause (iii) above. No redemption pursuant to this Section 9.5

shall occur unless all Outstanding Notes are redeemed and unless all payments, fees and expenses are paid in full on the date of such redemption.

(b) The election of the Issuer to redeem any Notes pursuant to this Section 9.5 shall be set forth in an Issuer Order, given to the Trustee in accordance with Section 9.6 hereof, directing the Trustee to make the payment of the Tax Event Redemption Price from funds in the Collection Account and/or from monies deposited with the Trustee by the Issuer pursuant to Section 9.8 hereof.

(c) The Issuer shall, simultaneously with electing to redeem Notes under this Section 9.5, set the Tax Event Redemption Date and the Redemption Record Date for any redemption pursuant to this Section 9.5 and give notice thereof to the Trustee pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof.

(d) The Issuer shall have the option to withdraw the notice of redemption until the earlier of the fifth Business Day prior to the proposed Tax Event Redemption Date and the date on which a forward purchase contract is entered into pursuant to Section 9.8(b) hereof by written notice to the Trustee and the Servicer on or prior to such earlier day.

(e) On the Tax Redemption Date, the Tax Event Redemption Price shall be distributed pursuant to Section 11.1(d) hereof after payment of all amounts required to be paid pursuant to Section 11.1(b) hereof.

Section 9.6. Notice to Trustee, Rating Agencies and the Servicer.

(a) The Issuer shall by Issuer Order, in connection with an Optional Redemption pursuant to Section 9.1 or a Tax Event Redemption pursuant to Section 9.5, not later than the twentieth Business Day immediately preceding the proposed Optional Redemption Date or Tax Event Redemption Date, as applicable, notify in writing the Trustee, each Rating Agency then rating any Class of Notes and the Servicer of such proposed Optional Redemption Date or Tax Event Redemption Date, as applicable, and the proposed Redemption Record Date and Optional Redemption Price for each Class of Notes.

(b) If any Mandatory Redemption is required pursuant to Section 9.2 hereof, the Issuer shall, not later than the third Business Day after the related Calculation Date, notify in writing the Trustee, each Rating Agency then rating any Class of Notes, the Servicer and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent that such redemption is required and the amount of the Notes of each Class required to be redeemed pursuant to the provisions of Section 11.2 hereof.

(c) If any Special Redemption is required pursuant to Section 9.4 hereof, the Issuer shall, not later than twentieth Business Day preceding the proposed Special Redemption Date, notify in writing the Trustee, each Rating Agency then rating any Class of Notes, the Servicer and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent that such proposed redemption is required and the amount of the Notes of each Class to be redeemed.

Section 9.7. Notice of Optional Redemption and Tax Event Redemption by the Issuer.

(a) If notice thereof has been received by the Trustee from the Issuer pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof, notice of an Optional Redemption shall be given by the Trustee by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not less than twenty calendar days prior to the proposed Redemption Record Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed at the address in the Note Register (with a copy to the Rating Agencies at the addresses specified in Section 10.7 hereof), and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent.

All notices of Optional Redemption shall state: the proposed Optional Redemption Date; the proposed Redemption Record Date; and that on such proposed Optional Redemption Date, all Outstanding Notes are to be redeemed and paid in full and that applicable interest thereon shall cease to accrue on the date specified in the notice and the place where such Notes may be surrendered for payment of the Optional Redemption Price, which shall be the agency of the Trustee to be maintained as provided in Section 7.2 hereof; and that the Issuer may withdraw such election at any time on or prior to the earlier of the Business Day prior to such proposed Optional Redemption Date and the date before which a forward purchase contract is entered into pursuant to Section 9.8(a) hereof.

At the cost of the Issuer, the Trustee shall give notice of any withdrawal of the notice of redemption pursuant to Section 9.1(d) hereof (to the extent feasible) by overnight courier guaranteeing next day delivery, sent not later than the third Business Day prior to the previously proposed Optional Redemption Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed at the address in the Note Register, and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent.

Notice of Optional Redemption of the Notes shall be given by the Issuer or, at the Issuer's request, by the Trustee in the name of the Issuer and at the expense of the Issuer. Failure to give notice of redemption or notice of withdrawal, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Note shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of the Notes or give rise to any claim based upon such failure or defect.

(b) If notice thereof has been received by the Trustee from the Issuer pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof, notice of a Tax Event Redemption shall be given by the Trustee by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not less than twenty calendar days prior to the proposed Redemption Record Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed at the address in the Note Register (with a copy to the Rating Agencies at the addresses specified in Section 10.7 hereof), and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent.

All notices of a Tax Event Redemption shall state: the proposed Tax Event Redemption Date; the proposed Redemption Record Date; and that on such proposed Tax Event Redemption Date, all of the Notes (to the extent of the Aggregate Principal Amount) are to be redeemed and paid in full and that interest thereon shall cease to accrue on the date specified in the notice and the place where such Notes may be surrendered for payment of the Tax Event Redemption Price, which shall be the agency of the Trustee to be maintained as provided in Section 7.2 hereof; and that the Issuer may withdraw such election at any time on or prior to the earlier of the fifth Business Day prior to such proposed Tax Event Redemption Date and the date before which a forward purchase contract is entered into pursuant to Section 9.8(b) hereof.

At the cost of the Issuer, the Trustee shall give notice of any withdrawal of the notice of redemption pursuant to Section 9.5 hereof (to the extent feasible) by overnight courier guaranteeing next day delivery, sent not later than the third Business Day prior to the previously proposed Tax Event Redemption Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed at the address in the Note Register (with a copy to the Rating Agencies at the addresses specified in Section 10.7 hereof), and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent.

Notice of Tax Event Redemption of the Notes shall be given by the Issuer or, at the Issuer's request, by the Trustee in the name of the Issuer and at the expense of the Issuer. Failure to give notice of redemption or notice of withdrawal, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Note shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of the Notes or the withdrawal thereof or give rise to any claim based upon such failure or defect.

Section 9.8. Deposit of Optional Redemption Price and Tax Event Redemption Price.

(a) In the case of an Optional Redemption, on or before the fifth Business Day preceding the proposed Optional Redemption Date contained in the notice of redemption as provided in Section 9.6 hereof, the Issuer shall deposit with the Trustee cash or Eligible Investments maturing no later than the Business Day prior to the Optional Redemption Date (unless such Eligible Investments are issued by the Person acting as Trustee, in which event they may mature on the Optional Redemption Date), or any combination thereof, in an amount sufficient to provide for payment of the Optional Redemption Price with respect to the Outstanding Notes and all amounts due under Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof. The Issuer may use all available funds in the Collection Account to provide for payment of the Optional Redemption Price in accordance with Section 11.1 hereof. In the event that there are not sufficient available funds in the Collection Account as of the date the notice of redemption is sent out pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof to pay the Optional Redemption Price on the Optional Redemption Date in accordance with Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof, the Servicer shall give the Trustee written direction to sell Portfolio Collateral in an amount sufficient to provide available funds to pay the Optional Redemption Price in full pursuant to Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof, and shall give the Issuer written direction to enter into, as of a date which is not later than five (5) Business Days prior to the Optional Redemption Date, forward contracts (each of which shall provide for "payment versus delivery" and shall direct that payment be made to the Trustee) with a financial institution rated "A-1+" by Standard & Poor's and "P-1" by Moody's to sell such Portfolio Collateral for settlement at least three Business Days prior to the Optional Redemption Date, and shall provide a copy of such contract to the Trustee prior to such Business Day preceding such redemption date; and pursuant to such instruction, the Trustee shall release and sell such Portfolio Collateral for purposes of such redemption. In determining whether the proceeds of any Optional Redemption will be sufficient to pay the Optional Redemption Price on the Optional Redemption Date, the Issuer and the Trustee may rely on the Market Value of the Portfolio Collateral when entering into any forward purchase agreements.

(b) In the case of a Tax Event Redemption, on or before the fifth Business Day preceding the proposed Tax Event Redemption Date contained in the notice of redemption as provided in Section 9.6 hereof, the Issuer shall deposit with the Trustee cash or Eligible Investments maturing no later than the Business Day prior to the Tax Event Redemption Date (unless such Eligible Investments are issued by the Person acting as Trustee, in which event they may mature on the Tax Event Redemption Date), or any combination thereof, in an amount sufficient to provide for payment of the Tax Event Redemption Price with respect to the Outstanding Notes and all amounts due under Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof. The Issuer may use all available funds in the Collection Account to provide for payment of the Tax Event Redemption Price in accordance with Section 11.1 hereof. In the event that there are not sufficient available funds in the Collection Account as of the date the notice of redemption is sent out pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof to pay the Tax Event Redemption Price on the Tax Event Redemption Date in accordance with Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof, the Servicer shall give the Trustee written direction to sell Portfolio Collateral in an amount sufficient to provide available funds to pay the Tax Event Redemption Price in full pursuant to Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof, and shall give the Issuer written direction to enter into, as of a date which is not later than five Business Days prior to the Tax Event Redemption Date, forward contracts (each of which shall provide for "payment versus delivery" and shall direct that payment be made to the Trustee) with a financial institution rated "A-1+" by Standard & Poor's and "P-1" by Moody's to sell such Portfolio Collateral for settlement at least three Business Days prior to the Tax Event Redemption Date, and shall provide a copy of such contract to the Trustee prior to such third Business Day preceding such redemption date; and pursuant to such instruction, the Trustee shall release and sell such Portfolio Collateral for purposes of such redemption.

Section 9.9. Notes Payable on Optional Redemption Date.

In the event that notice of Optional Redemption pursuant to Section 9.1 hereof has been given as provided in Section 9.6 hereof and not withdrawn, all Outstanding Notes shall on the Optional Redemption Date become due and payable at the Optional Redemption Price, and (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Optional Redemption Price) all Outstanding Notes shall cease to bear interest on the Optional Redemption Date. Each Holder shall present and surrender its Note at the place specified in the notice of Optional Redemption on or prior to such Optional Redemption Date; provided that if there is delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless (an unsecured indemnity agreement of an Institutional Investor organized under the laws of the United States or any state in the United States with a net worth at least twice the amount of the security or indemnity being deemed sufficient to satisfy such security or indemnity requirement) and an undertaking thereafter to surrender such Note, then, in the absence of notice to the Issuer or the Trustee that the applicable Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, such payment shall be made without presentation or surrender.

If any Note called for redemption shall not be so paid upon surrender thereof for Optional Redemption (or the delivery of the indemnity pursuant to the preceding paragraph), the principal shall, until paid, bear interest from the Optional Redemption Date at the Applicable Periodic Rate.

Section 9.10. Notes Payable on Mandatory Redemption Date.

In the event of a Mandatory Redemption pursuant to Section 9.2 hereof, principal of the Notes (or, in the case of the Class A-3L Notes, Class A-4L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes, any Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount and then any principal) in an amount determined pursuant to Section 11.2 hereof shall on the Mandatory Redemption Date become due and payable, and (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Mandatory Redemption Price) such amounts shall cease to bear interest on the Mandatory Redemption Date.

Section 9.11. Notes Payable on Tax Event Redemption.

In the event that notice of a Tax Event Redemption pursuant to Section 9.5 hereof has been given as provided in Section 9.6 hereof and not withdrawn, all Outstanding Notes shall on the Tax Event Redemption Date become due and payable at the Tax Event Redemption Price, and (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Tax Event Redemption Price) all Outstanding Notes shall cease to bear interest on the Tax Event Redemption Date. Each Holder shall present and surrender its Note at the place specified in the notice of redemption on or prior to such Tax Event Redemption Date; provided that if there is delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless (an unsecured indemnity agreement of an Institutional Investor organized under the laws of the United States or any state in the United States with a net worth at least twice the amount of the security or indemnity being deemed sufficient to satisfy such security or indemnity requirement) and an undertaking thereafter to surrender such Note, then, in the absence of notice to the Issuer or the Trustee that the applicable Note has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, such payment shall be made without presentation or surrender.

If any Note called for a Tax Event Redemption shall not be so paid upon surrender thereof for a Tax Event Redemption (or the delivery of the indemnity pursuant to the preceding paragraph), the principal shall, until paid, bear interest from the Tax Event Redemption Date at the Applicable Periodic Rate.

Section 9.12. Initial Deposit Redemption.

The Class A-1LA Notes and the Class X Notes shall be subject to Initial Deposit Redemption pursuant to the terms of Section 3.3 hereof.

Section 9.14. Notes Payable on Special Redemption Date.

In the event of a Special Redemption pursuant to Section 9.4 hereof, principal of the Notes (or, in the case of the Class A-3L Notes, the Class A-4L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes, any Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount and then any principal) in an amount determined pursuant to Section 11.1 hereof shall on the Special Redemption Date become due and payable and (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Special Redemption Price) such amounts shall cease to bear interest on the Special Redemption Date.

ARTICLE X

ACCOUNTS, ACCOUNTINGS AND RELEASES

Section 10.1. Collection of Money.

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the Trustee may demand payment or delivery of, and shall receive and collect, directly and without intervention or assistance of any fiscal agent or other intermediary, all money and other property payable to or receivable by the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture, including all payments due on the Pledged Securities included in the Trust Estate, in accordance with the terms and conditions of such Pledged Securities. The Trustee shall segregate and hold all such money and property received by it in trust for the Holders of the Notes and shall apply it as provided in this Indenture.

Section 10.2. Accounts.

(a) The Trustee shall, on or prior to the Closing Date, establish ten non-interest bearing segregated trust accounts (collectively, the "Accounts") which shall be designated as the "Collection Account," the "Collateral Account," the "Reserve Account," the "Initial Deposit Account," the "Expense Reimbursement Account," the "Loan Funding Account," the "Closing Expense Account," the "Securities Lending Account," the "Default Swap Collateral Account," and the "Default Swap Issuer Account," respectively, identified as held in trust for the benefit of the Noteholders and the applicable Secured Parties or, in the case of the Default Swap Collateral Account, as held in trust for the benefit of the related Default Swap Counterparty and, to the extent provided in this Indenture, the other Secured Parties. The Trustee may establish any number of sub-accounts to the Collection Account for its convenience in administering the Accounts and Trust Estate.

Each Account (including any sub account) shall be a securities account established with the Securities Intermediary in the name of the Trustee in accordance with Section 6.15.

A Default Swap Collateral Account shall be established for each Default Swap. The Trustee shall credit to each such Default Swap Collateral Account on the Closing Date or on the date any such Default Swap is entered into, as applicable, the amount required to secure the obligations of the Issuer in accordance with the terms of the related Default Swap, as directed by the Servicer, which amount shall be at least equal to the amount referred to in paragraph (iv) of the definition of Default Swap.

Amounts credited to a Default Swap Collateral Account shall be maintained in accordance with the terms and provisions of the related Default Swap. Amounts and property credited to a Default Swap Collateral Account shall be withdrawn by the Trustee and applied to the payment of any amounts payable by, or to the delivery of investment property deliverable by, the Issuer to the related Default Swap Counterparty, as directed by the Servicer, in accordance with the terms of such Default Swap. Income received on amounts credited to a Default Swap Collateral Account will be applied in accordance with the terms of the applicable Default Swap to the payment of any periodic amounts owed by the Issuer to the applicable Default Swap

Counterparty on the date such amounts are due. After application of such amounts, any income then contained in such Default Swap Collateral Account will be withdrawn from such Account and credited to the Collection Account for distribution as Collateral Interest Collections. After payment of all amounts owing by the Issuer to a Default Swap Counterparty in accordance with the terms of the related Default Swap (other than any Default Swap Counterparty Termination Payment) the Trustee shall be directed by the Servicer to withdraw all funds and other property credited to the Default Swap Collateral Account related to such Default Swap and credit such funds and other property to the Collection Account, as Collateral Principal Collections (in the case of cash and Eligible Investments) and the Collateral Account (in the case of Portfolio Collateral and other financial assets) for application as Collateral Principal Collections (other than any income thereon which will be Collateral Interest Collections) in accordance with the terms of the Indenture. If the terms of any Default Swap require the Default Swap Counterparty to secure its obligations with respect to such Default Swap, the Trustee will cause to be established a Default Swap Issuer Account in respect of such Default Swap. The Trustee shall credit to any such Default Swap Issuer Account all funds and other property received from the applicable Default Swap Counterparty to secure the obligations of such Default Swap Counterparty in accordance with the terms of such Default Swap.

Funds and other property standing to the credit of any Default Swap Issuer Account will not be considered to be an asset of the Issuer for purposes of the Interest Coverage Test or the Overcollateralization Tests; provided, however that the Default Swap that relates to such Default Swap Issuer Account will be considered an asset of the Issuer for such purposes.

In accordance with the terms of the applicable Default Swap, funds and other property standing to the credit of the related Default Swap Issuer Account will be withdrawn by the Trustee, as directed by the Servicer, and applied to the payment of any amount owing by the related Default Swap Counterparty to the Issuer. After payment of all amounts owing by the Default Swap Counterparty to the Issuer in accordance with the terms of the related Default Swap, all funds and other property standing to the credit of the related Default Swap Issuer Account will be withdrawn from such Default Swap Issuer Account and paid or transferred to the related Default Swap Counterparty in accordance with the applicable Default Swap.

which such money may be held from time to time, which Eligible Investments shall be acquired and held pursuant to the terms of Section 6.16 hereof) shall be credited.

All Portfolio Collateral Delivered to the Trustee shall be credited to the Collateral Account.

On or before the date on which the Issuer enters into a Securities Lending Agreement and delivers a copy of it to the Trustee, the Trustee shall create a segregated trust account designated as the Securities Lending Account with respect to any such Securities Lending Agreement. The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds credited to the Securities Lending Account shall be: (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Securities Lending Counterparty to the Issuer under a Securities Lending Agreement if the Securities Lending Agreement becomes subject to early termination or in the exercise of remedies under the related Securities Lending Agreement upon any "event of default" under and as defined in the related Securities Lending Agreement, including liquidating the related Securities Lending Collateral, or (ii) to return the Securities Lending Collateral to the relevant Securities Lending Counterparty when and as required by the relevant Securities Lending Agreement, in each case as directed by the Servicer.

Amounts credited to the Securities Lending Account shall be applied pursuant to this Section 10.2. To the extent provided in a Securities Lending Agreement, earnings on amounts credited to the Securities Lending Account shall be payable by the Issuer to the related Securities Lending Counterparty.

Amounts credited to the Securities Lending Account shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Coverage Tests, but the loaned security or asset that relates to the Securities Lending Account shall be so considered an asset of the Issuer.

(b) For purposes of calculating the Collections for this Section 11.3 (and the Balance in the Collection Account for purposes of subsection (a) hereof), Collections shall be deemed to include, as of any date of determination, the sum of 100% of all cash collections actually received in respect of the Portfolio Collateral during such Due Period as of such date of determination and 100% of all Scheduled Distributions to be received (including those which are reasonably expected to be received) in respect of the Portfolio Collateral during such Due Period (excluding, however, any Scheduled Distributions to be received with respect to an item of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral or an item of Equity Portfolio Collateral during such Due Period).

ARTICLE XII

SALE OF PORTFOLIO COLLATERAL; SUBSTITUTION

Section 12.1. Sale of Portfolio Collateral

(a) Provided that no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and subject to the satisfaction of the conditions specified in Section 10.3 hereof and the restrictions in this Article, the Servicer may direct the Trustee, by Servicer Order, to sell, and the Trustee shall release (or cause to be released) from the lien of this Indenture and sell in the manner directed by the Servicer, any Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, Equity Portfolio Collateral, Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral (as described in such direction) so long as, with respect to an item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral or Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, the Servicer certifies to the Trustee, as applicable, that:

(i) in the case of an item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral (including in connection with a Portfolio Improvement Exchange), in writing before the sale, that the Servicer has identified one or more specific manners in which it will be able, in compliance with the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 and the other requirements of Article XII (and in connection with a Portfolio Improvement Exchange, the requirements set forth in the definition of such term), to cause the Issuer to purchase with the applicable Collateral Disposition Proceeds net of accrued interest and costs, no later than the end of the immediately succeeding Due Period (it being understood that such identification shall not be considered either a requirement or an assurance that any specified purchase will be consummated), one or more items of Substitute Portfolio Collateral having an Aggregate Principal Balance equal to or greater than the Principal Balance of such Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral; and

(ii) in the case of an item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, after giving effect to such sale and the subsequent purchase described in (a) above, the Servicer is required to certify that it reasonably believes that (x) either the Collateral Quality Tests and the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 hereof are satisfied or if one or more of such Collateral Quality Tests or criteria is not satisfied, the degree of compliance therewith would not be diminished and (y) either the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Test are satisfied or if any Overcollateralization Test or the Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, the degree of compliance with such tests would not be diminished.

(b) An item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral may be sold at any time, subject to the Sale Restriction Condition as set forth below.

(c) Notwithstanding any term hereof to the contrary and provided that no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and subject to compliance with the conditions specified in Section 10.3 hereof, any Portfolio Collateral may be sold upon delivery to the Trustee of a certificate of the Servicer to the effect that it has reasonably determined, which may be based upon the advice of an opinion of counsel (a copy of which opinion shall be included with such certificate), that such Portfolio Collateral is, or may become, subject to a withholding or other similar tax (or to an increased rate of withholding or other similar tax). Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated herein, the Servicer may direct the sale of an item of Portfolio Collateral that was CCC/Caa Portfolio Collateral or Discount Portfolio Collateral at the time of purchase only if it constitutes Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, is sold in connection with the Optional Redemption of Notes in whole or if the Servicer reasonably expects that the sale and any related purchase of Substitute Portfolio Collateral will restore compliance with any of the Interest Coverage Test, the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 or the Overcollateralization Tests that would be failed or not satisfied in the absence of such sale and purchase.

(d) During any period after the first Due Period if a Sale Restriction Condition occurs, the Issuer shall send a notice to the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes to the effect that, for so long as the applicable Sale Restriction Condition exists, unless the Holders of at least 60% in Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes elect to retain the guidelines in effect on the Closing Date for sales of an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, as applicable, (i) no item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral may be sold unless (A) the rating of the obligor or of any debt or securities issued by the obligor under such an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral has been lowered, withdrawn or put on any "credit watch" list for possible downgrade (or similar list) with negative implications by S&P, Moody's or Fitch or (B) such an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral satisfies the Credit Risk Criteria and is not objected to by the Holders of more than 60% in Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes within forty-five (45) days of the date of such notice, or such later date as extended by the Trustee at the direction of the Servicer provided that in making such determination to sell an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, an increase in credit spread or a decrease in Market Value of such item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral may only be used as corroboration of other bases for such determination or (ii) no item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral may be sold unless such item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral satisfies the Credit Improved Criteria and is not objected to by the Holders of more than 60% in Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes within forty-five (45) days of the date of such notice, or such later date as extended by the Trustee at the direction of the Servicer provided, that in making such determination to sell such item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, a reduction in credit spread or an increase in Market Value of such item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral may only be utilized as corroboration or other bases for such judgment.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth above, the Servicer may at any time direct the Trustee to sell any item of Portfolio Collateral that (i) was obtained as a result of any reorganization or restructuring of any Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or other Portfolio Collateral of an issuer under financial distress, or (ii) does not comply with the criteria set forth in Section 12.2.

Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, no acquisition or disposition of Portfolio Collateral or other eligible asset (as defined in Rule 3a-7) shall be effected by or on behalf of the Issuer for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes.

Notwithstanding the forgoing, if there is no appointment of a successor Servicer with 90 days after the resignation or termination of the Servicer, any sales or disposition of Portfolio Collateral shall be limited to Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral and Defaulted Portfolio

Collateral and Equity Portfolio Collateral; provided that such restriction on the sale or disposition of Portfolio Collateral shall not apply if the Portfolio Collateral is being liquidated in whole or in part in connection with an acceleration or early termination of the Notes.

Section 12.2. Eligibility Criteria and Replacement Restrictions

Subject to Section 3.4 (with respect to Original Portfolio Collateral) in connection with dates occurring prior to the Effective Date, a security to be Granted to the Trustee after the Closing Date for inclusion in the Trust Estate as an item of Portfolio Collateral will be eligible for purchase by the Issuer and inclusion in the Trust Estate only if, as of the date of such Grant of such security the following conditions are met, as certified to the Trustee by Servicer Order, the Overcollateralization Tests, the Interest Coverage Test and the criteria set forth below in this Section 12.2 hereof are satisfied or if one of such tests or criteria is not satisfied, the degree of compliance with such tests or criteria would not be diminished except as otherwise required by Sections 11.3 and 12.4. In addition, if a Suspension Trigger Event is in effect, a majority of the Controlling Class may deliver notice to the Issuer directing the Issuer to suspend any purchases of additional items for inclusion in the Trust Estate as an item of Portfolio Collateral. Such suspension shall automatically terminate once a Suspension Trigger Event is no longer in effect.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 12.2 and Section 11.3, if the Issuer or the Servicer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase an item of Portfolio Collateral to be included in the Trust Estate and at the time of such commitment such item of Portfolio Collateral complied with the definition of Portfolio Collateral and each of the foregoing criteria in this Section 12.2, then the Issuer may consummate the purchase of such item of Portfolio Collateral notwithstanding that such item of Portfolio Collateral fails to comply with the definition of Portfolio Collateral and such criteria on the date of settlement, provided that the agreed to settlement date shall not be more than thirty (30) days after the commitment to acquire such item of Portfolio Collateral or, if settlement occurs more than 30 days following the commitment, such item of Portfolio Collateral satisfies the criteria of this Section 12.2 as of the date of settlement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 12.2 and Section 11.3, the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer shall be deemed to have purchased or sold (as the case may be) any Portfolio Collateral as of the date on which the Issuer delivers to the Trustee a commitment to purchase or sell (as the case may be) such items of Portfolio Collateral, in each case entitling the Issuer (or the Trustee as assignee thereof) to receive or sell (as the case may be), and requiring the purchaser to purchase (in the case of a sale), such Portfolio Collateral and, in such event, the Issuer shall be deemed to have purchased or sold (as the case may be) such Portfolio Collateral on such date. Under the circumstances described in the immediately preceding sentence, if the transaction contemplated by the commitment referred to therein does not settle on or before the thirtieth (30th) day following the scheduled settlement date, the deemed purchase or sale shall be deemed not to have occurred.

Further, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 12.2 and Section 11.3, any certifications or other documents required to be delivered by the Servicer or the Issuer in connection with the purchase or sale of any item of Portfolio Collateral during the Revolving Period may be delivered by the Issuer or the Servicer on the settlement date for such item of Portfolio Collateral even if such date occurs after the Revolving Period.

(a) The Servicer may only direct the Trustee to sell an item of Portfolio Collateral that is the subject of an Offer or call for redemption, if together with its direction to sell such security, the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that the sales price for such Security is equal to or greater than 1% less than the price available pursuant to such Offer or call and such sale will be treated as if the Offer or call were consummated for purposes of determining the Collections for the Due Period relating to the date on which such sale occurs.

(b) If an item of Portfolio Collateral becomes subject to an Exchange Offer after it has been purchased by the Issuer, the Servicer will be permitted to take such action with respect to the Underlying Instrument or the issuer thereof as may be required to convert such item of Portfolio Collateral into an item of Equity Portfolio Collateral.

Section 12.4. Purchase of Substitute Portfolio Collateral

(a) Upon receipt by the Trustee of a Servicer Order with respect thereto, the Collateral Disposition Proceeds received during any Due Period during the Revolving Period may be paid out of the Collection Account, on any Business Day during such Due Period or the immediately succeeding Due Period, for the purpose of purchasing one or more items of Substitute Portfolio Collateral for inclusion in the Trust Estate in an amount not to exceed the amount of such proceeds and specified in such Servicer Order; provided that the Trustee shall have received (i) a certificate of the Servicer dated as of the date of the purchase and the Grant of such Substitute Portfolio Collateral to the effect that such purchase is in compliance with the requirements of this Section 12.4 and Section 12.5(a) hereof and (ii) the certificate required pursuant to Section 12.2 hereof.

(b) In addition to the requirements set forth in 12.4(a), in connection with Substitute Portfolio Collateral purchased with Collateral Disposition Proceeds from the sale of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, each of the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Test are satisfied, in each case both before and after giving effect to such purchase.

(c) In connection with a sale of an item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral after the Revolving Period or the receipt of Collateral Principal Collections due to an unscheduled prepayment after the Revolving Period, the Servicer may enter into commitments to apply such Collateral Disposition Proceeds or such unscheduled prepayments (net of accrued interest and costs) to the purchase of Portfolio Loans as either Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral having an Aggregate Principal Amount equal to or greater than the Principal Balance of the original item of Portfolio Collateral within 90 days of receipt of such proceeds, so long as the Servicer certifies as of the date of purchase that it reasonably believes at the time of such commitment that, after giving effect to such sale and subsequent purchase, (A)

each of the Overcollateralization Tests and the other collateral criteria described herein would be satisfied and the Interest Coverage Test was satisfied for the most recent Payment Date, (B) such Portfolio Loan to be purchased has a Moody's Rating equal to or higher than the Moody's Rating of the original item of Portfolio Collateral, (C) such Portfolio Loan to be purchased has an S&P Rating equal to or higher than the S&P Rating of the original item of Portfolio Collateral, (D) such Portfolio Loan to be purchased has a stated maturity on or prior to the final maturity of such original item of Portfolio Collateral and (E) neither Rating Agency has reduced or withdrawn (and not restored) the rating assigned by it on the Closing Date to any Class of Notes.

Section 12.5. Conditions Applicable to all Transactions Involving Purchases of Portfolio Collateral

(a) Any transaction effected under this Article or under Sections 3.4, 10.2, 10.3, 11.3 or 12.4 hereof involving the Servicer and one or more Affiliates of the Servicer shall be conducted on an arm's-length basis. Any such transaction effected with an Affiliate of the Servicer, the Issuer or the Trustee, shall be effected on terms as favorable to the Noteholders as would be the case if such Person were not so affiliated; provided that the Trustee shall have no responsibility to oversee compliance with this clause by the Issuer or Servicer.

(b) Upon any purchase or substitution pursuant to this Article or Sections 11.3, 12.3(b) or 12.4 hereof, each such Pledged Security shall be Delivered to the Trustee.

(c) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants and will certify to the Trustee in an Officer's Certificate as of the date of each purchase and Grant to the Trustee of each Portfolio Collateral pursuant to Section 11.3, Section 12.3(b) and Section 12.4 hereof:

(i) the Issuer is the owner of such item of Portfolio Collateral and the Deposit free and clear of any liens, claims (including any adverse claims) or encumbrances of any nature whatsoever, except for those granted or expressly permitted pursuant to this Indenture and due bills, if any, with respect to interest, or a portion thereof, accrued on such Portfolio Collateral prior to the first payment date and owed by the Issuer to the seller of such Portfolio Collateral;

(ii) the Issuer has acquired its ownership in such item of Portfolio Collateral and the Deposit in good faith without notice of any adverse claim, except as described in paragraph (i) above;

(iii) the Issuer has Delivered such item of Portfolio Collateral to the Trustee and has not assigned, pledged or otherwise encumbered any interest in such Portfolio Collateral or the Deposit other than interests granted or expressly permitted pursuant to this Indenture;

(iv) the Issuer has full right to Grant and does hereby Grant such item of Portfolio Collateral and the Deposit to the Trustee;

(v) the information set forth with respect to such item of Portfolio Collateral in Schedule A hereto is correct; and

(vi) such item of Portfolio Collateral satisfies the requirements of the definition of Portfolio Collateral.

Section 12.6. Sale of Warrants

The Servicer may direct the Trustee in writing to sell, and the Trustee shall release from the lien of this Indenture and sell in the manner directed by the Servicer, any warrant that is part of a Unit at any time after such warrant becomes separately tradable.

Section 12.7. Underlying Instruments

(a) With respect to each Portfolio Loan acquired by a Participation, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to hold at its office in the State of New York an original executed Underlying Instrument entered into between the Issuer and the Selling Institution which, except in the case of a Portfolio Loan evidenced by an instrument (the original of which shall be delivered to the Trustee), may be a copy thereof, which may be sent by telecopier, certified by the Servicer or the Issuer as a true and accurate copy (which in the case of a Participation shall include the loan and security documentation with respect to the underlying loan) as provided to it by the Servicer, and, provided that the Trustee has sufficient advance notice of such transaction, the Trustee shall send a notice to the Selling Institution and the underlying obligor of such Floating Rate Portfolio Collateral on or prior to the Business Day on which such Floating Rate Portfolio Collateral is to be included in the Trust Estate.

(b) The Issuer (upon Servicer Order) may enter into any amendment of or supplement to any Underlying Instrument with respect to any item of Portfolio Collateral, without notice to or consent of any Noteholder, but with prior written notice to the Trustee, if the amendment or supplement is required (a) by the provisions of the Underlying Instrument or this Indenture, (b) to cure any ambiguity, inconsistency or formal defect or omission, (c) in connection with any authorized amendment of or supplement to this Indenture, or (d) to make any other change deemed necessary or beneficial by the Issuer (upon Servicer Order); provided that, unless such Portfolio Loan is in default, or default is reasonably foreseeable, after giving effect to such amendment or supplement, such item of Portfolio Collateral satisfies the definition of Portfolio Collateral hereunder. The Issuer shall be under no obligation to enter into any such amendment or supplement, and the Servicer and the Issuer shall be under no obligation to provide any Person with any information related thereto (other than to confirm to the Trustee compliance with this Section), to the extent that the Servicer or the Issuer, as the case may be, believes in good faith that any action so taken is necessary in order not to violate any law, regulation or contractual arrangement. The Servicer shall retain any appropriate records of such amendments.

(c) If an amendment of or supplement to any Underlying Instrument without any consent of Noteholders is not permitted by subsection (b), the Issuer may enter into, and the Trustee shall, as directed by the Issuer, accept, or if necessary consent to, such amendment or supplement, with at least 10 days' prior written notice to the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes, unless the Trustee and the Issuer have received notification by the more than 33-1/3% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes objecting to such amendment or supplement within 10 days of such notice.

(d) If the Servicer determines that any amendment to the Underlying Instrument of a DIP Loan materially affects the credit quality of such DIP Loan, the Servicer shall promptly notify the Rating Agencies of such amendment, prior to execution of such amendment.

Section 12.8. Reserved

Section 12.10. Synthetic Securities; Strip Securities

For purposes of the eligibility criteria and related tests herein, a Synthetic Security will generally be included as an item of Portfolio Collateral having the maturity, interest rate and other payment characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the Reference Obligation (including characterization as either an item of Fixed Rate Portfolio Collateral or Floating Rate Portfolio Collateral) and, with respect to all other characteristics, will be included as an item of Portfolio Collateral having the relevant characteristics of the related Reference Obligation and not of the Synthetic Security. The Servicer will notify Moody's and Standard & Poor's in writing or electronically with respect to each purchase of a Synthetic Security not later than the trade date for such Synthetic Security; except that, if, at any time, the rating by Moody's on any Class of Notes then rated by Moody's has been downgraded at least one rating sub-category (and has not been restored) or is put on credit watch (with negative implications), no Synthetic Security will be purchased by the Issuer for inclusion in the Trust Estate unless Moody's has received notice of such purchase and any information necessary to evaluate such purchase, receipt of which shall be acknowledged by a Vice President or more senior member of Moody's CDO Group, in writing or electronically, and after such receipt is acknowledged, either Moody's shall inform the Servicer that such purchase will not cause Moody's to withdraw or further downgrade any of the then-current ratings assigned by Moody's to any of the Notes within 10 Business Days, or after 10 Business Days the Servicer may assume that such purchase will not cause Moody's to withdraw or further downgrade any of the then-current ratings assigned by Moody's to any of the Notes. If after the trade date for any Synthetic Security, there is any modification to the terms of such Synthetic Security, the Servicer will provide notice of such modification to Moody's and Standard & Poor's. Further, unless otherwise agreed by Moody's or as otherwise contemplated in the definition of Synthetic Security in Section 1.1 hereof, upon maturity, acceleration or early termination of a Synthetic Security or the related Reference Obligation, the Issuer will accept only the Reference Obligation or the par amount thereof unless the Reference Obligation would be characterized as Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, Defaulted Portfolio Collateral or Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, in which case the Issuer may accept the current fair market value thereof, except in the event of the exercise of any put or call provision of the Synthetic Security or Reference Obligation, in which case the Issuer shall only accept the Reference Obligation or an amount greater than or equal to the par amount thereof, and the Issuer will take all commercially reasonable actions under the Synthetic Security to accomplish the foregoing. Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, in connection with the acquisition of a Synthetic Security and in lieu of all or a portion of the purchase price for such Synthetic Security, the Issuer may grant the related Synthetic Security a first priority security interest in cash and Eligible Investments designated by the Issuer and the proceeds thereof, which may be released from the lien of the Indenture and deposited with such Synthetic Security Obligor (or an intermediary or agent therefor) and invested as provided by the terms of such Synthetic Security, and the proceeds of which may be applied to make periodic payments under such Synthetic Security. For purposes of this Indenture, the grant of such security interest shall be treated as the payment of a purchase price equal to the value of the cash and Eligible Investments granted, and the Issuer's obligation to make periodic payments under such Synthetic Security shall be disregarded.

Section 12.11. Delayed Drawdown Loans and Revolving Loans

A Delayed Drawdown Loan will not be eligible for purchase by the Issuer for inclusion in the Trust Estate unless the related Underlying Instrument provides (i) that advances may be made for a period not to exceed one (1) year from the date of origination of the Delayed Drawdown Loan and in any event before the end of the Revolving Period; (ii) for a maximum amount that can be borrowed from the Issuer on one or more specified borrowing dates; (iii) that funds borrowed from the Issuer and subsequently repaid may not be reborrowed; and (iv) that the borrower is entitled to such additional advances only upon the achievement of financial performance or other objective criteria established at origination and set forth in such credit agreement.

In addition, simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of any Delayed Drawdown Loan or Revolving Loan, the Issuer is required to deposit into the Loan Funding Account the full amount of any advances or delayed draws that may be required of the Issuer thereunder and principal repaid under any Revolving Loan is required to be deposited in the Loan Funding Account to the extent the Issuer's obligation to fund any future advances has not been irrevocably reduced.

The Trustee shall provide notices directly to any beneficial holder of a Note that so identifies itself and requests receipt of such notices in writing to the Trustee.

ARTICLE XIV

ASSIGNMENT OF SERVICING AGREEMENT

Section 14.1. Assignment of Servicing Agreement

(a) The Issuer, in furtherance of the covenants of this Indenture and as security for the Notes and the performance and observance of the provisions hereof, hereby assigns, transfers, conveys and sets over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Noteholders and the other secured parties hereunder, all of the Issuer's estate, right, title and interest in, to and under the Servicing Agreement, including, without limitation, (i) the right to give all notices, consents and releases thereunder, (ii) the right to give all notices of termination and to take any legal action upon the breach of an obligation of the Servicer thereunder, including the commencement, conduct and consummation of proceedings at law or in equity, (iii) the right to receive all notices, accountings, consents, releases and statements thereunder and (iv) the right to do any and all other things whatsoever that the Issuer is or may be entitled to do thereunder; provided so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing hereunder, the Trustee hereby grants the Issuer a license to exercise all of the Issuer's rights pursuant to the Servicing Agreement without notice to or the consent of the Trustee (except as otherwise expressly required by this Indenture, including, without limitation, as set forth in paragraph (f) of this Section 14.1 hereof), which license shall be and is hereby deemed to be automatically revoked upon the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder until such time, if any, as the Event of Default is cured or waived. The Trustee shall have no liability with respect to any act or failure to act by the Issuer under the Servicing Agreement (provided that this sentence shall not limit or relieve the Trustee from any responsibility it may have under this Indenture upon the occurrence of and during the continuance of any Event of Default).

(b) The assignment made hereby is executed as collateral security, and the execution and delivery hereby shall not in any way impair or diminish the obligations of the Issuer under the provisions of the Servicing Agreement, nor shall any of the obligations contained in the Servicing Agreement be imposed on the Trustee.

(c) Upon the retirement of the Notes and the release of the Trust Estate from the lien of this Indenture, this assignment and all rights herein assigned to the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders shall cease and terminate and all the estate, right, title and interest of the Trustee in, to and under the Servicing Agreement shall revert to the Issuer and no further instrument or act shall be necessary to evidence such termination and reversion.

(d) The Issuer represents that it has not executed any other assignment of the Servicing Agreement.

(e) The Issuer agrees that this assignment is irrevocable, and that it will not take any action which is inconsistent with this assignment or make any other assignment inconsistent herewith. The Issuer will, upon the request of the Trustee, execute all instruments of further assurance and all such supplemental instruments with respect to this assignment as the Trustee may specify.

(f) The Issuer hereby agrees, and hereby undertakes to obtain the agreement of the Servicer in the Servicing Agreement, to the following:

(1) The Servicer consents to, and agrees to perform, the provisions hereof applicable to the Servicer.

(2) The Servicer acknowledges that the Issuer is assigning all of its right, title and interest in, to and under the Servicing Agreement to the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders and the other Secured Parties hereunder.

(3) The Servicer shall deliver to the Trustee (at substantially the same time as delivered pursuant to the Servicing Agreement) duplicate original copies of all notices, statements, communications and instruments delivered or required to be delivered to the Issuer pursuant to the Servicing Agreement.

(4) Except as set forth in the Servicing Agreement, neither the Issuer nor the Servicer will enter into any agreement amending, modifying or terminating the Servicing Agreement or selecting or consenting to a successor manager (other than an amendment or modification of the type that may be made to this Indenture without Holder consent), (a) without satisfying the Rating Condition and (b) so long as the Requisite Holders have not objected in writing to such amendment or modification within 30 days of notice thereof; and any such amendment, modification, termination, selection or consent (in each case, other than pursuant to the provisions of the Servicing Agreement) without confirmation by the Rating Agencies or if the Requisite Holders have objected shall be void; provided that the consent of Requisite Noteholders or confirmation by Moody's and S&P shall not be required for an amendment or modification to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provisions therein, to comply with any changes in law, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under the Servicing Agreement which shall not be inconsistent with the provisions thereof or of this Indenture, so long as such amendment or modification does not affect in any material respects the interests of any Noteholder (as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel acceptable to the Trustee) and each of Moody's and S&P is notified in writing of such amendment or modification. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this subsection shall limit, in any way, any of the rights or remedies available to the Servicer pursuant to the Servicing Agreement.

(5) Except as set forth herein and in the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer shall continue to serve as Servicer under the Servicing Agreement notwithstanding that the Servicer shall not have received amounts due it under the Servicing Agreement because sufficient funds were not then available hereunder to pay such amounts in accordance with Article XI hereof, and agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer for any reason whatsoever, including without limitation the non-payment to the Servicer, until the payment in full of all Notes issued under this Indenture and the expiration of a period equal to one year and one day following all such payments; provided that nothing in this clause shall preclude, or be deemed to estop, the Servicer (A) from taking any action prior to the expiration of the aforementioned one year and one day period in (x) any case or proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, or (y) any involuntary insolvency proceeding filed or commenced against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, by a Person other than the Servicer or its Affiliates, or (B) from commencing against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any properties of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any legal action which is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this subsection shall limit, in any way, any of the rights or remedies available to the Servicer pursuant to the Servicing Agreement.

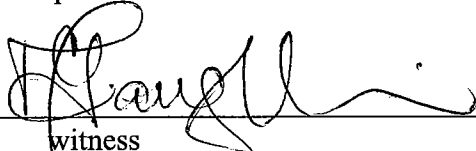

(6) The Servicer will perform its obligations with respect to any conflict of interest in accordance with the applicable requirements of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

Rating Methodology for the Standard & Poor's Rating

S&P RATING

The S&P Rating of an item of Portfolio Collateral as of any date of determination shall be determined in accordance with the following methodology:

(i) If there is an issuer credit rating of the borrower of the item of Portfolio Collateral (the "Borrower"), or the guarantor who unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees the item of Portfolio Collateral (the "Guarantor") by S&P, the most current issuer credit rating for such Borrower or Guarantor;

(ii) (a) if there is not an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating of the item of Portfolio Collateral will be one subcategory below such rating; (b) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior secured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a senior unsecured obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be such rating; and (c) if there is not a rating by S&P on a senior obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, but there is a rating by S&P on a subordinated obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating will be two subcategories above such rating if such rating is "BBB-" or higher and will be one subcategory above such rating if such rating is "BB+" or lower;

(iii) if there is neither an issuer credit rating of the Borrower or its Guarantor by S&P nor a rating by S&P on an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor, then the S&P Rating may be determined using any one of the methods below:

(A) if an obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is publicly rated by Moody's, then the S&P Rating will be determined in accordance with the methodologies for establishing the Moody's Default Probability Rating, except that the S&P Rating of such obligation will be (1) one subcategory below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody's if such security is rated "Baa3" or higher by Moody's and (2) two subcategories below the S&P equivalent of the rating assigned by Moody's if such security is rated "Ba1" or lower by Moody's; provided that item of Portfolio Collateral constituting no more than 5% of the Maximum Investment Amount (which concentration may be increased to 10% upon satisfaction of the Rating Condition with respect to S&P) may be given a S&P Rating based on a rating given by Moody's as provided in this subclause (a) (after giving effect to the addition of the relevant item of Portfolio Collateral, if applicable);

(B) if no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody's, then the Servicer may apply to S&P for a S&P credit rating estimate, which will be its S&P Rating; or

(C) (1) if such item of Portfolio Collateral (other than a Current-Pay Obligation) is not rated by Moody's or S&P, no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody's and if the Servicer determines in its sole discretion based on information available to it after reasonable inquiry that such Borrower (x) is not subject to any bankruptcy or reorganization proceedings nor in default on any of its obligations (unless the subject of a good faith business dispute), (y) is a legally constituted corporate entity having the minimum legal, financial and operational infrastructure to carry on a definable business, deliver and sell a product or service and report its results in generally accepted accounting terms as verified by a reputable audit firm and (z) is not so vulnerable to adverse business, financial and economic conditions that default in its financial or other obligations is foreseeable in the near term if current operating trends continue, then the S&P Rating will be "B-"; provided that the Servicer must apply to S&P for a S&P credit rating on such Borrower within 30 days after the addition of the relevant item of Portfolio Collateral; provided, further, that items of Portfolio Collateral constituting no more than 5% of the Maximum Investment Amount may be given an S&P Rating based on this subclause (C) (after giving effect to the addition of the relevant item of Portfolio Collateral, if applicable) or (2) if such item of Portfolio Collateral is a Current-Pay Obligation and is not rated by Moody's or S&P and no other security or obligation of the Borrower or its Guarantor is rated by S&P or Moody's, then the S&P Rating will be "CCC-"; or provided that if (i) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any positive "credit watch" list by S&P, such rating will be increased by one rating subcategory or (ii) the relevant Borrower or Guarantor or obligation is placed on any negative "credit watch" list by S&P, such rating will be decreased by one rating subcategory.

(iv) if the item of Portfolio Collateral is a CLO Security (a) if the CLO Security has an S&P credit rating, then the S&P Rating shall be such credit rating; otherwise, (b) the S&P Rating shall be the written credit estimate issued by S&P for that item of Portfolio Collateral;

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of an item of Portfolio Collateral that is a DIP Loan, the S&P Rating shall be (A) the rating assigned thereto by S&P if the rating is public, (B) the rating assigned by S&P if the rating is confidential, but only if all appropriate parties have provided written consent to its disclosure and use, (C) the rating assigned by S&P thereto through an estimated rating or (D) the rating assigned thereto by S&P in connection with the acquisition thereof upon the request of the Servicer. In the case of an item of Portfolio Collateral that is a PIK Security, Structured Finance Obligation or Synthetic Securities, the S&P Rating may not be determined pursuant to clause (iii)(A) above.

S&P Ratings for entities or obligations relevant hereunder other than Borrowers and items of Portfolio Collateral shall be determined in a corresponding manner.

Correlation Factor Procedures

The formula used to calculate the Correlation Factor shall be the formula delivered to the Servicer and the Trustee by Moody's.

Moody's Weighted Average Rating Factor Test Procedures

CALCULATION OF WEIGHTED AVERAGE RATING

The "Weighted Average Rating" is determined by summing the products obtained by multiplying the principal amount of each item of Portfolio Collateral (excluding Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, but including Current Pay Obligations), by its Moody's Rating Factor, dividing such sum by the aggregate principal amount of all such securities (excluding Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, but including Current Pay Obligations) and rounding the result up to the nearest whole number. The "Moody's Rating Factor" relating to any Portfolio Collateral is the number set forth in the table below opposite the Rating of such Portfolio Collateral.

Moody's	Moody's	Moody's	Moody's
Rating	Factor	Rating	Factor
Aaa	1	Ba1	940
Aa1	10	Ba2	1,350

Baa2	360	Caa3	8,070
Baa3	610	Ca	10,000
		C	10,000

For purposes of the Weighted Average Rating Test, any item of Portfolio Collateral issued or guaranteed by the United States government or any agency or instrumentality thereof is assigned a Moody's Rating Factor of 1. Short-term securities rated "P-1" will be assigned a Moody's Rating Factor equivalent to that of the senior unsecured rating of the issuer. Short-term securities rated "P-1" of an issuer that does not have such a senior unsecured rating will be assigned a Moody's Rating Factor of 120. For purposes of calculating the Weighted Average Rating and the Weighted Average Rating Test, no item of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral will be taken into account in either the denominator or numerator of such test.

The "Moody's Rating" of any item of Portfolio Collateral shall be determined pursuant to the following method:

- (a) Reserved.
- (b) With respect to any Portfolio Collateral that is a Moody's Senior-Secured Loan, the following:
 - (i) if the borrower of such Portfolio Collateral, or a guarantor that unconditionally and irrevocably provides a guarantee solely for such Portfolio Collateral, has a Moody's corporate family rating, such rating (regardless of whether there is a published rating by Moody's on the Portfolio Collateral of such borrower held by the Issuer);
 - (ii) if the borrower of such Portfolio Collateral does not have a Moody's corporate family rating, then the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be deemed to be the rating thereof as may be assigned by Moody's upon the request of the Issuer or the Servicer;
 - (iii) if the borrower of such Portfolio Collateral does not have a Moody's corporate family rating, but another security or obligation of the borrower is rated by Moody's and Moody's has not assigned a rating pursuant to subclause (ii) above, then the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be determined in the following order:
 - (a) if there is a rating on a senior unsecured obligation of the borrower, then the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall equal such rating;
 - (b) if there is a rating on a senior secured obligation of the borrower, then the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be one subcategory below such rating;
 - (c) if there is a rating on a subordinated obligation of the borrower, then the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be one subcategory above such rating;or
 - (iv) if such Portfolio Collateral is not rated by Moody's, and no other security or obligation of the borrower is rated by Moody's and neither the Issuer nor the Servicer obtains a Moody's Rating for such Portfolio Collateral pursuant to subclause (ii) above, then the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral may be determined using any one of the methods provided below (provided that no more than 5% of the Aggregate Principal Amount may have a Moody's Rating determined pursuant to subclauses (B), (C), (D) and (E) below):
 - (A) (1) if there is an issuer rating of the borrower by S&P (excluding a corporate credit estimate), then the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be (a) one (1) subcategory below Moody's equivalent of such rating assigned by S&P if such rating is "BBB-" or higher by S&P and (b) two (2) subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of the rating assigned by S&P if such rating is "BB+" or lower by S&P; provided that no more than 10% of the Aggregate Principal Amount may be assigned a Moody's Rating as provided in this subclause (A) and clause (b)(iii);

(2) if there is not an issuer rating of the borrower by S&P but a security or obligation of the borrower is rated by S&P (excluding a corporate credit estimate) (a "parallel security"), then the rating of such parallel security shall be determined in accordance with the methodology set forth in subclause (A)(1) above, and the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be determined in accordance with the methodology set forth in clause (iii) above (for such purposes treating the parallel security as if it were rated by Moody's at the rating determined pursuant to this subclause (A)(2));

(B) if the borrower of such Portfolio Collateral is a U.S. borrower and such Portfolio Collateral is a obligation of the borrower and (1) neither the borrower nor any of its Affiliates is subject to reorganization or bankruptcy proceedings, (2) no debt securities or obligations of the borrower are in default, (3) neither the borrower nor any of its Affiliates have defaulted on any debt during the past two (2) years, (4) the borrower has been in existence for the past five (5) years, (5) the borrower is current on any cumulative dividends, (6) the fixed-charge coverage ratio for the borrower exceeds 125% for each of the past two (2) fiscal years and for the most recent quarter, (7) the borrower had a net profit before tax in the past fiscal year and the most recent quarter, and (8) the annual financial statements of the borrower are unqualified and certified by a firm of independent accountants of international reputation, and quarterly statements are unaudited but signed by a corporate officer, the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be "B3";

(C) if the borrower of such Portfolio Collateral is a U.S. borrower and such Portfolio Collateral is a obligation of the borrower and (1) neither the borrower nor any of its Affiliates is subject to reorganization or bankruptcy proceedings and (2) no debt security or obligation of the borrower has been in default during the past two (2) years, the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be "Caa2"; or

(D) if any debt security or obligation of the borrower of such Portfolio Collateral has been in default during the past two (2) years, the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be "Ca";

(c) With respect to any Portfolio Collateral that is a Non Senior Secured Portfolio Loan, the following:

(i) if such Portfolio Collateral is rated by Moody's, such rating;

(ii) with respect to Portfolio Collateral issued by U.S. issuers if such Portfolio Collateral is not rated by Moody's but another security or obligation of the issuer is rated by Moody's, then the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be determined as follows:

(A) if there is a rating of an obligation of the issuer of the same priority, then the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be such rating;

(B) if the rating is on a senior unsecured obligation of the issuer, then,

(1) if such Portfolio Collateral is a senior secured obligation of the issuer, then the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be one subcategory above such rating, with a rating of "Aaa" remaining the same;

(2) if such rating is "B1" or higher and if such Portfolio Collateral is a subordinated obligation of the issuer, then the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be two subcategories below such rating;

(3) if such rating is between "B2" and "Ca", inclusive, and if such Portfolio Collateral is a subordinated obligation of the issuer, then the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be one subcategory below such rating; and

(4) if such rating is lower than "Ca" the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be "C", if such Portfolio Collateral is a subordinated obligation of the issuer;

(C) if the rating is on a subordinated obligation of the issuer and if such Portfolio Collateral is a senior secured obligation of the issuer, then

(1) if the rating is "Baa3" or higher, the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be one subcategory above such rating;

(2) if such rating is "B2" or higher but lower than "Baa3", the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be two subcategories above such rating;

(3) if such rating is "B3", the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be one subcategory above such rating; and

(4) if such rating is lower than "B3", the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall equal such rating;

(D) if there is a rating on a subordinated obligation of the issuer and if such Portfolio Collateral is a senior unsecured obligation of the issuer, then

(1) if such rating is "B3" or higher, the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be one subcategory above such rating; and

(2) if such rating is lower than "B3", the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall equal such rating;

(E) if the rating is on a senior secured obligation of the issuer, then,

(1) if such rating is "Ca" or higher and such Portfolio Collateral is a senior unsecured obligation of the issuer, the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be one subcategory below such rating;

(2) if such rating is "Caa2" or higher and such Portfolio Collateral is a subordinated obligation of the issuer, the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be two subcategories below such rating, and

(3) if such rating is lower than "Caa2", the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be "C";

(iii) if such Portfolio Collateral is not rated by Moody's, and no other security or obligation of the issuer is rated by Moody's, then the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral may be determined using any one of the methods below:

(A) (1) if such Portfolio Collateral is rated by S&P (excluding a corporate credit estimate), then (a) if such rating is "BBB-" or higher, the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be one subcategory below the Moody's equivalent of such rating assigned by S&P; and (b) if such rating is "BB+" or lower, the Moody's Rating of such Portfolio Collateral shall be two subcategories below the Moody's equivalent of such rating assigned by S&P; and

(2) if such Portfolio Collateral is not rated by S&P but another security or obligation of the issuer is rated by S&P (excluding a corporate credit estimate) (a "parallel security"), then the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer may elect (a) first to establish the Moody's equivalent of the rating of such parallel security determined in accordance with the methodology set forth in clause (iii)(A)(1) above, in which case the Moody's Rating of the Portfolio Collateral shall be determined in accordance with the methodology set forth in clause (ii) above, treating the parallel security as if it were rated by Moody's at the rating determined pursuant to this subclause (2) or (b) to present such Portfolio Collateral to Moody's for an estimate of such Portfolio Collateral's rating factor as provided in clause (B) below;

(B) if such Portfolio Collateral is not rated by Moody's and (x) no other security or obligation of the issuer is rated by Moody's or S&P, or (y) another security or obligation of the issuer is rated by S&P (excluding a corporate credit estimate) and the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer so elects as provided in clause (A)(2)(b) above, then the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, may, within three (3) Business Days after the later of (a) the date on which the Issuer commits to purchase such Portfolio Collateral and (b) the date on which the Issuer is allocated a commitment to purchase such Portfolio Collateral, present such Portfolio Collateral to Moody's for an estimate of such Portfolio Collateral's rating factor, from which its corresponding Moody's Rating may be determined; provided that after such presentation and pending receipt from Moody's of such estimate, if the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that the Servicer believes that such estimate shall be at least "B3", then such Portfolio Collateral shall have a Moody's Rating of "B3"; and

(iv) with respect to Portfolio Collateral that are Synthetic Securities, the Moody's Rating assigned in connection with the acquisition of such Synthetic Security.

Annex A
Methodology for Calculating the Amount of an O/C Redemption

For any Payment Date with respect to which one or more of the Overcollateralization Tests are not satisfied, the amount (the “O/C Redemption Amount”) of Available Adjusted Collateral Interest Collections or Available Adjusted Collateral Principal Collections (as applicable) to be applied to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes and the Class B-1L Notes as an O/C Redemption (pursuant to the relevant clause of Section 11.2) in order to satisfy such Overcollateralization Test(s) shall be calculated by the Issuer according to the following formula:

If $I \geq ((L \times R) - A) / (R)$; then

O/C Redemption Amount = $((L \times R) - A) / (R)$; otherwise

O/C Redemption Amount = $I + (((L - I) \times R) - A) / (R - 1)$

On any Payment Date with respect to which more than one of the Overcollateralization Tests is not satisfied:

(a) the O/C Redemption Amount required to satisfy the Overcollateralization Test relating to the Class A Notes on such Payment Date shall be reduced by the amount of cash in the Collection Account that was applied to the making of an O/C Redemption that results from the failure of the Overcollateralization Test relating to the Class A Notes with respect to such Payment Date; and

(b) the O/C Redemption Amount required to satisfy the Overcollateralization Test relating to the Class B-1L Notes on such Payment Date shall be reduced by the amount of cash in the Collection Account that was applied to the making of an O/C Redemption that results from the failure of the Overcollateralization Test or Tests relating to the Class A Notes with respect to such Payment Date.

For purposes of applying the foregoing formula:

(a) Class A Note O/C Test Redemptions. In connection with an O/C Redemption required to satisfy the Overcollateralization Test relating to the Class A Notes:

“L” (for “liabilities”) shall be the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A Notes (including for this purpose any unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amounts with respect to the Class A Notes) as of the related date of calculation;

“R” shall be the required Class A Overcollateralization Percentage;

“A” (for “assets”) shall be the Aggregate Par Amount plus unpaid Purchased Accrued Interest as of the related date of calculation; and

“I” (for “interest collections”) shall be the amount of Collateral Interest Collections available to cure the Class A Overcollateralization Test.

(b) Class B-1L Note O/C Test Redemptions. In connection with an O/C Redemption required to satisfy the Overcollateralization Test relating to the Class B-1L Notes:

“L” (for “liabilities”) shall be the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A Notes and the Class B-1L Notes (including for this purpose any unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amounts with respect to the Class A Notes and the Class B-1L Notes) as of the related Calculation Date;

“R” shall be the required Class B-1L Overcollateralization Percentage;

“A” (for “assets”) shall be the Aggregate Par Amount plus unpaid Purchased Accrued Interest less the Overcollateralization Haircut Amount as of the related date of calculation; and

“I” (for “interest collections”) shall be the amount of Collateral Interest Collections available to cure the Class B-1L Overcollateralization Test.

For purposes of making each of the foregoing calculations, the provisions in the Overcollateralization Ratio Adjustment definition shall apply.

Annex B

Methodology for Calculating the Interest Coverage Test Redemption

For any Payment Date with respect to which the Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, the amount (the “O/C Redemption Amount”) of Available Adjusted Collateral Interest Collections or Available Adjusted Collateral Principal Collections (as applicable) to be applied to the payment of principal of the Class A Notes as an O/C Redemption (pursuant to the relevant clause of Section 11.2) in order to satisfy such Interest Coverage Test shall be calculated by the Issuer according to the following formula:

$$\text{O/C Redemption Amount} = [L - 4 \times (I - \text{PRA}) / (R)]$$

For purposes of applying the foregoing formula:

(a) I/C Test Redemptions. In connection with an O/C Redemption required to satisfy the Interest Coverage Test:

“L” (for “liabilities”) shall be the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A Notes (including for this purpose any unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amounts with respect to the Class A Notes) as of the related Calculation Date;

“R” shall be the required Interest Coverage Ratio;

“PRA” – shall be the Periodic Reserve Amount (but not including amounts payable to the Class B-1L Notes);

“I” (for “interest collections”) shall be the amount of Collateral Interest Collections as of any date plus Scheduled Distributions representing Collateral Interest Collections to be received during the next Due Period (plus, if the amount of Collateral Interest Collections is not calculated on a Calculation Date, Scheduled Distributions for the remainder of the then current Due Period) other than Collateral Interest Collections (including deferred interest thereon) scheduled to be received on any Pledged Security that is not paying or expected to pay current interest with respect to such Due Period, divided by two.

Annex C
Methodology for Calculating the Amount Required to Satisfy the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement

For any Payment Date with respect to which the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement is a positive number, the amount (the “Additional Coverage Amount”) of Available Adjusted Collateral Interest Collections to be applied in accordance with the Indenture shall be calculated by the Issuer according to the following formula:

$$\text{Additional Coverage Amount} = (L \times R) - A$$

For purposes of applying the foregoing formula:

“L” (for “liabilities”) shall be, as of the related Calculation Date, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A Notes and the Class B-1L Notes plus any unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amounts plus, if the amount determined under clause (2) under “Assets” below is a negative number, such amount (after giving effect to the amount to be applied to any O/C Redemption of the Class A Notes and the Class B-1L Notes to satisfy the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Test (if applicable) on the related Payment Date);

“R” shall be the percentage described in clause (b) of the definition of the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement; and

“A” (for “assets”) shall be the sum of:

- (1) the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Portfolio Collateral in the Trust Estate as of the related Calculation Date; plus
- (2) the sum of the Balance of Eligible Investments and cash in the Collection Account representing Collateral Principal Collections plus the Balance of Eligible Investments and cash in the Initial Deposit Account, if any, plus unpaid Purchased Accrued Interest as of such date; less
- (3) the Overcollateralization Haircut Amount (if any).

For purposes of making the foregoing calculations, no item of Equity Portfolio Collateral shall be included as Portfolio Collateral. In addition for purposes of this requirement, (i) with respect to Defaulted Portfolio Collateral as to which there has occurred a payment default or an event of bankruptcy, only the portion equal to the lesser of (a) the Market Value of such item of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral and (b) the Applicable Percentage multiplied by the Principal Balance of such item of Portfolio Collateral, shall be included as Portfolio Collateral and (ii) with respect to items of Discount Portfolio Collateral, only an amount equal to the original purchase price of such item of Discount Portfolio Collateral shall be included as Portfolio Collateral. For purposes of calculating the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement, to the extent an item of Portfolio Collateral is considered Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, Discount Portfolio Collateral and/or is included in the Overcollateralization Haircut Amount, such item of Portfolio Collateral will not be discounted multiple times, but will be treated in the category that results in the largest discount to the par amount of the Portfolio Collateral.

Dated as of May 9, 2007

INDENTURE, dated as of May 9, 2007, among ROCKWALL CDO II LTD., an exempted limited liability company incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the "Company") and, together with its permitted successors and assigns, the "Issuer"), ROCKWALL CDO II (DELAWARE) CORP., a Delaware corporation (the "Co-Issuer" and, together with the Issuer, the "Co-Issuers") and INVESTORS BANK & TRUST COMPANY, as trustee (together with its permitted successors in the trusts hereunder, the "Trustee") and as Securities Intermediary.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The Co-Issuers are duly authorized to execute and deliver this Indenture to provide for the Notes (other than the Class B-2L Notes and the Combination Notes) issuable as provided in this Indenture. The Issuer is also duly authorized to execute and deliver this Indenture to provide for the Class B-2L Notes and the Combination Notes issuable as provided in this Indenture. All representations, warranties, covenants and agreements made by the Co-Issuers herein are for the benefit and security of the Noteholders and the Trustee. The Co-Issuers are entering into this Indenture, and the Trustee is accepting the trusts created hereby, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged.

It is a condition of issuance of the Notes that the Class A-1LA Notes be rated "AAA" by Standard & Poor's and "Aaa" by Moody's, the Class A-1LB Notes be rated "AAA" by Standard & Poor's and "Aaa" by Moody's, the Class A-2L Notes be rated at least "AA" by Standard & Poor's and at least "Aa2" by Moody's, the Class A-3L Notes be rated at least "A" by Standard & Poor's and at least "A2" by Moody's, the Class B-1L Notes be rated at least "BBB" by Standard & Poor's and at least "Baa2" by Moody's, the Class B-2L Notes be rated at least "BB" by Standard & Poor's and at least "Ba2" by Moody's and the Combination Notes be rated at least "Baa2" by Moody's with respect to the Rated Balance and the Rated Coupon of the Combination Notes. With respect to the Notes, such ratings by Standard & Poor's address solely the likelihood of the timely payment of the Periodic Interest Amount (which consists of interest accrued on the Aggregate Principal Amount of each applicable Class of Notes at the Applicable Periodic Rate) and the ultimate payment of the Aggregate Principal Amount in the case of the Class A-1LA Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes and the Class A-2L Notes, and the ultimate payment of the Cumulative Interest Amount and the Aggregate Principal Amount in the case of the Class A-3L Notes, the Class B-1L Notes and the Class B-2L Notes. Such ratings by Moody's address the ultimate cash receipt of all required payments as provided by the governing documents, and are based on the expected loss to the Noteholders of each Class relative to the promise of receiving the present value of such payments. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the obligation to make any Extension Bonus Payment will not be rated by the Rating Agencies.

All things necessary to make this Indenture a valid agreement of the Co-Issuers in accordance with its terms have been done.

All references in this instrument to designated "Annexes," "Articles," "Sections," "Subsections" and other subdivisions are to the designated Annexes, Articles, Sections, Subsections and other subdivisions of this instrument as originally executed. The words "herein," "hereof," "hereunder" and other words of similar import refer to this Indenture as a whole and not to any particular Annex, Article, Section, Subsection or other subdivision. Unless the context otherwise requires, terms defined in the UCC and not otherwise defined in this Indenture shall have the meanings set forth in the UCC. Any reference herein to money or other property that is to be deposited in or is on deposit in a securities account shall also mean that such money or other property is to be credited to, or is credited to, such securities account.

Any reference herein to a "beneficial interest" in a security also shall mean, unless the context otherwise requires, a security entitlement with respect to such security, and any reference herein to a "beneficial owner" or "beneficial holder" of a security also shall mean, unless the context otherwise requires, the holder of a security entitlement with respect to such security.

Section 1.3. Assumptions as to Portfolio Collateral and Trust Estate.

Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, in connection with all calculations required to be made pursuant to this Indenture with respect to Scheduled Distributions on any Pledged Security, or any payments on any other assets included in the Trust Estate, and with respect to the income that can be earned on Scheduled Distributions on such Pledged Securities and on any other amounts that may be received for deposit in the Collection Account, the provisions set forth in this Section 1.3 shall apply.

All calculations with respect to Scheduled Distributions on the Pledged Securities shall be made on the basis of information as to the terms of each such Pledged Security and upon accounting of payments, if any, received on such Pledged Security that are furnished by or on behalf of the issuer of such Pledged Security and such information or report may be conclusively relied upon in making such calculations.

For each Due Period, the Scheduled Distributions on any Pledged Security (excluding any item of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral and Equity Portfolio Collateral, as to which Scheduled Distributions shall be assumed to be zero) shall be the amount required to be paid (including coupon payments, accrued interest, scheduled principal payments, if any, by way of sinking fund payments which are assumed to be on a pro rata basis or other scheduled amortization of principal (excluding any optional redemption), return of principal, and redemption premium, if any) that, if paid as scheduled, will be available in the Collection Account at the end of such Due Period. For purposes of calculating interest on Pledged Securities that have a rate of interest which varies with an objective index, the interest to be received thereon shall be assumed to be equal to the interest that would be received on such Pledged Security if the rate of interest accruing on such Pledged Security on the date of determination were to remain constant for each succeeding Due Period.

Each Scheduled Distribution with respect to a Pledged Security shall be assumed to be received on the applicable Due Date, and each such Scheduled Distribution shall be assumed to be immediately deposited in the Collection Account and to earn interest at the Assumed Interest Rate. All funds assumed to earn interest as provided herein shall be assumed to continue to earn interest at the applicable rate until the date on which they are required to be available in the Collection Account for application, in accordance with the terms hereof, to payment of principal of or interest on the Notes or other amounts payable or otherwise for application in accordance with the terms of this Indenture.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Indenture if the Trustee receives an Issuer Order or Issuer Request and also receives a Servicer Order or Servicer Request with respect to the same subject matter, the Issuer Order or Issuer Request, as the case may be, shall supersede any such Servicer Order or Servicer Request and be the controlling order or request hereunder.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of redemption in whole or acceleration of all or any part of the Notes prior to the termination of the Distribution Compliance Period, the Permanent Regulation S Global Notes will not be issuable in respect of the Temporary Regulation S Global Note or portion thereof, and payment thereon will be made as provided in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note. Any other Class of Note in the form of a Temporary Regulation S Global Note presented to the Trustee for a Permanent Regulation S Global Note shall be endorsed by the Trustee to reduce the principal amount thereof by the amount so exchanged, and shall then be returned to the Custodian, pending exchange of the remaining balance thereof pursuant to the terms hereof.

On each Payment Date, if any, that falls on or prior to the date on which all Temporary Regulation S Global Notes shall have been exchanged for Permanent Regulation S Global Notes (the "Exchange Date"), interest, if any, and principal on the Temporary Regulation S Global Notes shall be paid to the Custodian, acting on behalf of the Clearance System for the benefit of persons for whom the Clearance System holds the Temporary Regulation S Global Notes on each such Payment Date to the extent the Clearance System has delivered a certificate or certificates, appropriately completed and signed, in substantially the form set forth in Exhibit F attached hereto, which certificate or certificates shall be dated the relevant Payment Date and shall be delivered to the Custodian.

Upon any such exchange of a portion of any Temporary Regulation S Global Note for a Permanent Regulation S Global Note, the Custodian shall endorse (or, as provided above, the Trustee shall instruct the Custodian to endorse) such Temporary Regulation S Global Note to reflect the reduction of the principal amount evidenced thereby.

(f) Definitive Notes. If at any time (including without limitation during the Distribution Compliance Period) (i) the Temporary Regulation S Global Notes or the Permanent Regulation S Global Notes or any of them become immediately due and repayable pursuant to Article Five hereof or (ii) any of DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream (A) is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holiday, statutory or otherwise) or (B) announces an intention permanently to cease business and no alternative clearance system satisfactory to the Issuer is available or (iii) as a result of any amendment to, or change in, the laws or regulations of the Cayman Islands or of any authority therein or thereof having power to tax or in the interpretation or administration of such laws or regulations which becomes effective on or after the Closing Date, the Issuer or any Paying Agent is or will be required to make any deduction or withholding from any payment in respect of the Notes which would not be required were the Notes in definitive registered form or (iv) the Issuer so elects by notice to the Noteholders and Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, does not object (as determined by the Issuer), then the Issuer will issue Definitive Notes in exchange for and to the extent of such Global Notes within 30 days of the occurrence of the relevant event set forth in (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) above.

If at any time (i) the Notes or any of them become immediately due and payable following an Event of Default hereunder or (ii) DTC notifies the Issuer or the Trustee in writing that it is unwilling or unable to discharge properly its responsibilities as a depository with respect to the Rule 144A Global Notes or it ceases to be a "clearing agency" registered under the Exchange Act, and the Issuer is unable to locate a qualified successor within 90 days after such notice, then the Issuer will issue Definitive Notes in exchange for and to the extent of such Rule 144A Global Notes within 30 days of the occurrence of the relevant event set forth in (i) or (ii) above.

The Issuer shall notify the Trustee forthwith upon the occurrence of any of the events referred to in the two immediately preceding paragraphs and the Issuer shall, unless the Trustee agrees otherwise, promptly give notice thereof and of its obligation to issue Definitive Notes to the Noteholders. Upon giving such notice, the Issuer promptly shall cause the Custodian, as the case may be, to present forthwith for exchange and surrender such Global Note to the Trustee, for cancellation, together with appropriate exchange, registration, payment and delivery instructions (identifying according to its records the beneficial holders to whom, and in the amounts, the Definitive Notes are to be registered and delivered), upon which the Trustee shall be entitled to rely conclusively. The Issuer shall prepare, execute and deliver to the Trustee at its specified office a sufficient number of duly executed Definitive Notes not later than the 20th day following the date of such notice, and the Trustee shall then promptly authenticate and deliver the appropriate number and amount of such Definitive Notes in accordance with the instructions received from the Custodian.

(g) Form of Notes. The Notes and the Combination Notes shall be typed, printed, lithographed or engraved or produced by any combination of these methods or may be produced in any other manner, all as determined by the Authorized Officers of the Issuer or Co-Issuers, as applicable, executing such Notes or Combination Notes, as evidenced by the Authorized Officers' execution of such Notes or Combination Notes.

Section 2.2. Authorized Amount.

The aggregate principal amount of Class A-1LA Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes, Class A-2L Notes, Class A-3L Notes, Class B-1L Notes (including such Notes represented by the Note Component) and Class B-2L Notes that may be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture is limited to $635,000,000, $115,000,000, $76,000,000, $48,000,000, $36,000,000 and $26,000,000, respectively, except for Notes authenticated and delivered upon registration of transfer of, or in exchange for, or in lieu of, other Notes pursuant to Section 2.5, 2.6 or 8.5 hereof.

The Combination Notes consisting of the Note Component representing an Aggregate Principal Amount of Class B-1L Notes of U.S. $6,750,000 (which is included in the Class B-1L Notes referred to in the immediately preceding paragraph) and the Preferred Share Component representing 3,250,000 Preferred Shares, shall be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture and shall have an initial Aggregate Principal Amount of U.S. $10,000,000.

Section 2.3. Denominations; Extension of Revolving Period and Final Maturity.

(a) Each Class of the Notes and the Combination Notes shall be issuable on the Closing Date in the forms set forth herein, without coupons, in minimum denominations of $200,000 and integral multiples of $1 in excess thereof (in each case expressed in terms of the stated or principal amounts thereof, as the case may be, at the Closing Date).

(b) The Issuer, if directed by the Board Resolution of the Issuer at the request of the Servicer, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Revolving Period to the applicable Extended Revolving Period End Date up to a maximum of four times (so that the Notes can only be extended to 2040) if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously effected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date in accordance with this Section 2.3, (ii) the Extension Conditions set forth in Section 2.3(d) are satisfied, (iii) the Issuer has given written notice to the Trustee of its election to extend the Revolving Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date and (iv) no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing. If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Final Maturity Date of the Notes and the Combination Notes shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Final Maturity Date and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares (other than as may be required pursuant to the Extension Conditions) or amendment or supplement to this Indenture or the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement (the "Maturity Extension"); provided that the Issuer will not be permitted to effect more than four Maturity Extensions.

(c) In the case of a Maturity Extension, any Holder or Beneficial Owner of Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares wishing to sell such Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser pursuant to the Extension Conditions must provide the applicable Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period pursuant to Section 2.3(d) (such Notes and Preferred Shares as to which an Extension Sale Notice has been duly given, "Extension Sale Securities"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each Holder providing an Extension Sale Notice shall be deemed to agree that no Extension Sale Securities of any Holder shall be purchased unless all Extension Sale Securities of all Holders are purchased and settled at the applicable Extension Purchase Price on the applicable Extension Effective Date and the other Extension Conditions are satisfied as of such date.

(d) The Maturity Extension shall be effective only if the following conditions (the "Extension Conditions") are satisfied:

(i) the purchase of all Extension Sale Securities has been settled by the designated Extension Qualifying Purchasers at the applicable Extension Purchase Price as of the applicable Extension Effective Date;

(ii) all such purchases of Extension Sale Securities individually and in the aggregate comply with the applicable transfer restrictions herein, in the Indenture and the Preferred Share Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement immediately after such purchase and the legends on such Notes, Combination Notes and Preferred Shares and all applicable law, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, rules, regulations and procedures of any applicable securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency);

(iii) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to S&P (so long as any Notes are then rated by S&P) and (b) either (A) the Class B-2L Overcollateralization Ratio is at least 105% and the Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied as of the related Extension Determination Date and the Interest Coverage Test was satisfied on the immediately preceding Payment Date, the rating of each Class of Notes or Combination Notes by Moody's has not been downgraded, withdrawn or qualified from that in effect on the Closing Date (unless it subsequently has been reinstated to the rating assigned on the Closing Date) or (B) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to Moody's (so long as any Notes or Combination Notes are then rated by Moody's); and

(iv) (A) the Holders of 100% of the Outstanding Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes have delivered the Extension Sale Notice in the Extension Sale Notice Period or (B) if the Holders of 100% of the Outstanding Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes fail to deliver an Extension Sale Notice pursuant to the preceding clause (A), either (x) the Issuer, acting through the Servicer, notifies the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes in writing not later than the last day of the Extension Sale Notice Period that such Class A-1LA Notes shall constitute "Extension Sale Securities" (as a result of which such Class A-1LA Notes must be purchased by an Extension Qualifying Purchaser) or (y) the Holders of 100% of the Outstanding Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes have consented in writing to the Maturity Extension not later than the last day of the Extension Sale Notice Period; provided that if the Extension Conditions are not satisfied because the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes have failed to deliver an Extension Sale Notice or have failed to provide their written consent to the related Maturity Extension, then the Servicer may extend the Extension Sale Notice Period by seven Business Days if the Servicer reasonably believes that it will receive such Extension Sale Notice or written consent within seven Business Days following the end of the Extension Sale Notice Period.

The Issuer, the Trustee and, by its acceptance of the Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares, each Holder or Beneficial Owner of Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares agrees that the Initial Purchasers or any placement agent shall not be responsible for causing the Extension Conditions to be satisfied and shall not be liable to any such person or Holder of Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares (whether or not such Holder gave an Extension Sale Notice with respect to its Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares) or to any other person if the Extension Conditions are not satisfied. Failure of the Extension Conditions to be satisfied shall not constitute a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture.

(e) The following procedure shall apply to effect any extension of the Revolving Period or the Maturity Date, pursuant to Section 2.3:

(i) No later than three Business Days following receipt by the Trustee of the notice given by the Issuer of its election to extend the Revolving Period (the "Extension Notice"), at the cost of the Issuer the Trustee shall deliver the Extension Notice to all Holders of Notes, Combination Notes and the Preferred Shares Paying and Transfer Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preferred Shares and the Combination Notes with respect to the Preferred Share Component) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes, Combination Notes are Outstanding), and shall request the Rating Condition for the Maturity Extension from S&P, if applicable. Such Extension Notice shall include a statement to the effect that (i) no Extension Sale Notice delivered after the end of the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be effective and (ii) subject to Section 2.3(d)(iv)(B), only the Class A-1LA Notes for which an Extension Sale Notice has been delivered may be treated as Extension Sale Securities pursuant to the Extension Conditions (with the result that the Class A-1LA Notes must be purchased by an Extension Qualifying Purchaser).

(ii) Any Holder of Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares may give irrevocable notice (an "Extension Sale Notice") within 30 days after the Trustee has delivered the Extension Notice (the "Extension Sale Notice Period") of its intention to sell its Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in the case of a Maturity Extension. Any Extension Sale Notice received by the Trustee after the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be disregarded and deemed not to have been given. No Holder of Notes (other than the Class A-1LA Notes as described in clause (d)(iv) above) , Combination Notes or Preferred Shares that has not given such an Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be entitled to sell its Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in connection with the Maturity Extension.

(iii) If the Holders of 100% of the Outstanding Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes have not delivered the Extension Sale Notice to the Trustee by the 20th calendar day after the date of the Extension Notice, the Trustee shall notify the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes of the date on which the Extension Sale Notice Period shall end and include a statement to the effect that (A) no Extension Sale Notice delivered after the end of the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be effective and (B) the Class A-1LA Notes for which no Extension Sale Notice has been delivered may be treated as Extension Sale Securities pursuant to clause (iv) of the Extension Conditions (as a result of which the Class A-1LA Notes must be purchased by an Extension Qualifying Purchaser).

(iv) If clause (iii)(b)(A) of the Extension Conditions is not satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date as determined by the Issuer (or its agent), the Trustee shall request the Rating Condition to be satisfied with respect to Moody's.

(v) On the applicable Extension Determination Date, the Issuer (or its agent) shall confirm (A) whether or not Extension Qualifying Purchasers for all Extension Sale Securities have been designated to purchase such Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares in compliance with all transfer restrictions in the Indenture and the legends on such Notes, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency), (B) whether the requirements of clause (iii) of the Extension Conditions are satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date and (C) whether all other Extension Conditions can be satisfied as of the applicable Extension Effective Date.

(vi) On each Extension Effective Date, the Maturity Extension shall become effective hereunder; provided that all Extension Conditions set forth above are satisfied. No later than two Business Days after each Extension Effective Date, the Trustee based on a determination made by the Issuer, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall deliver a notice to all Holders of Notes and the Preferred Shares Paying and Transfer Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preferred Shares), the Servicer, Bear Stearns, each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Notes are Outstanding) and the Irish Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class of Notes is listed thereon) confirming whether or not the Maturity Extension became effective. If the Maturity Extension became effective, the Issuer shall make any required notifications thereof to the Depository for any Notes subject to the Maturity Extension. None of Bear Stearns, the Servicer or any of their respective Affiliates shall have any duty to act as an Extension Qualifying Purchaser.

(vii) In the case of a Maturity Extension, each Holder of Notes (other than Extension Sale Securities) shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the applicable Extension Bonus Payment to the extent of available funds and as provided in Section 11.1. Holders of the Preferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment. The obligation to make any Extension Bonus Payment shall not be rated by Rating Agencies.

(f) The Extension Bonus Payment shall be payable to any applicable qualifying Beneficial Owners who have provided the Trustee with an Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification on or before the 5th Business Day prior to the first Payment Date from and including each Extension Effective Date on which funds are available to be used for such purposes in accordance with Priority of Payments, but in any event, no later than the earlier of the Final Maturity Date and the date of redemption of the Notes. Extension Bonus Payments which are not available to be paid on a Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments on a Payment Date shall not be considered "due and payable" hereunder but are due and payable on the next Payment Date on which funds are due and payable. The failure to pay any such Extension Bonus Payment on such date shall not be an Event of Default, unless the Issuer shall fail to pay in full such Extension Bonus Payment on the earlier of the Final Maturity Date and the date of redemption in full of the relevant Notes. Unpaid Extension Bonus Payments shall not accrue interest. Such amounts shall be paid, in the case of the Notes, to the accounts designated in the applicable Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification or, to the extent otherwise required by the rules of any applicable securities exchange or clearing agency, in a manner determined by the Issuer.

Section 2.4. Execution, Authentication, Delivery and Dating.

The Class A-1LA Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes shall be executed on behalf of the Issuer, and the Class B-2L Notes and the Combination Notes (to the extent of the Note Component) shall be executed on behalf of the Issuer, by an Authorized Officer of each of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable. The signature of such Authorized Officers on the Notes or the Combination Notes may be manual or facsimile.

Notes or the Combination Notes bearing the manual or facsimile signature of an individual who was at any time the Authorized Officer of the Co-Issuers (as applicable) shall bind the applicable Co-Issuer, notwithstanding the fact that such individual has ceased to hold such office prior to the authentication and delivery of such Notes or Combination Notes or did not hold such office at the date of issuance of such Notes or Combination Notes.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Co-Issuers may deliver the Class A-1LA Notes, the Class A-1LB Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes, and the Issuer may deliver the Class B-2L Notes and the Combination Notes, executed by the Co-Issuer (or the Issuer with respect to the Class B-2L Notes and the Combination Notes) to the Trustee for authentication and the Trustee (or an Authenticating Agent on its behalf), upon Issuer Order, shall authenticate and deliver such Notes and the Combination Notes as provided in this Indenture and not otherwise.

Each Note or Combination Notes authenticated and delivered by the Trustee (or the Authenticating Agent) to or upon Issuer Order on the Closing Date shall be dated as of the Closing Date. All other Notes or Combination Notes that are authenticated after the Closing Date for any other purpose hereunder shall be dated the date of their authentication.

Notes or Combination Notes issued upon transfer, exchange or replacement of other Notes or Combination Notes shall be issued in authorized denominations reflecting the original aggregate stated or principal amount of the Notes or Combination Notes so transferred, exchanged or replaced, but shall represent only the stated or principal amount of the Notes so transferred, exchanged or replaced. If any Note or Combination Notes is divided into more than one Note or Combination Notes in accordance with this Article II, the stated or original principal amount of such Note or Combination Note shall be proportionately divided among the Notes or Combination Notes delivered in exchange therefor and shall be deemed to be the aggregate stated or original principal amount of such subsequently issued Notes or Combination Notes.

No Note or Combination Note shall be entitled to any benefit under this Indenture or be valid or obligatory for any purpose, unless there appears on such Note or Combination Notes a certificate of authentication, substantially in the form provided for herein, executed by the Trustee (or Authenticating Agent, as provided below) by the manual signature of one of its Authorized Officers, and such certificate upon any Note or Combination Notes shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Note has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder.

Upon the request of the Issuer, the Trustee shall and, at the election of the Trustee, the Trustee may, appoint one or more Authenticating Agents with power to act on its behalf and subject to its direction in the authentication of Notes or Combination Notes in connection with transfers and exchanges thereof hereunder as fully to all intents and purposes as though each such Authenticating Agent had been expressly authorized by this Indenture to authenticate the Notes; provided that any such appointment shall be upon terms and conditions reasonably acceptable to the Trustee (with respect to which the Trustee may require, among other things, appropriate indemnification for any damages, losses or reasonable costs arising from acts or omissions of such Authenticating Agent). For all purposes of this Indenture, the authentication of Notes or Combination Notes by an Authenticating Agent pursuant to this Section shall be deemed to be an authentication of such Notes "by the Trustee."

Investors Bank & Trust Company, is hereby appointed, at the request of the Issuer, as Authenticating Agent for purposes of authenticating Definitive Notes issued in exchange for beneficial interests in the Global Notes.

RSM Robson Rhodes LLP is hereby appointed, at the request of the Issuer, as the initial Irish Paying Agent with respect to the Notes.

Any corporation into which any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, consolidation or conversion to which any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to the corporate trust business of any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent, shall be the successor of such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent hereunder, without the execution or filing of any further act on the part of the parties hereto or such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent or such successor corporation.

Any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent may at any time resign by giving written notice of resignation to the Trustee and the Issuer. The Trustee may at any time terminate the agency of any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent by giving written notice of termination to such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent and the Issuer.

The Trustee shall pay to any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent reasonable compensation and shall reimburse each Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent for expenses reasonably incurred by such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent in the performance of its duties as a Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent, in each case as and to the extent agreed upon between the Trustee and such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent; provided that the Trustee shall be reimbursed for such fees and expenses pursuant to Section 6.7 and provided further that if the appointment of such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent is at the election or request of the Issuer, the Trustee's obligation to make such payments shall be limited to amounts for which it is entitled to be reimbursed pursuant to Section 6.7(b) or (c). The provisions of Section 6.5 shall be applicable to any Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or Authenticating Agent.

Section 2.5. Registration, Registration of Transfer and Exchange.

(a) The Issuer shall cause to be kept a register (the "Note Register") in which, subject to such reasonable procedures as it may prescribe, the Issuer shall provide for the registration of the Notes and the Combination Notes and the registration of transfers of the Notes and the Combination Notes. The Trustee is hereby appointed "Note Registrar" for the purpose of registering and transferring the Notes and the Combination Notes as herein provided. The Note Registrar shall supply all relevant documents to the Share Registrar necessary for the Share Registrar to maintain the Share Register accordingly and the Share Registrar shall be able to rely upon such information provided by the Note Registrar without any liability on its part. For so long as a Combination Note is issued and outstanding, the Note Registrar shall cooperate with the Share Registrar as reasonably requested so as to ensure conformity of registrations and transfers of the Preferred Share Component of the Combination Note. The Issuer will notify the Trustee of any Notes or Combination Notes owned by or pledged to the Issuer or any of its Affiliates promptly upon the acquisition thereof or the creation of such pledge. So long as an Event of Default shall be continuing, the Note Registrar shall promptly, upon the written request of a Noteholder or holder of a Combination Note or a Preferred Share, but in no event later than five Business Days following such request, furnish such Noteholder or holder of a Combination Note or a Preferred Share with a list of all other Noteholders, holders of Combination Notes and Preferred Shares (as applicable); provided that the Note Registrar shall have no liability to any person for furnishing the Note Register to any Noteholder or holder of a Combination Note or Preferred Share. The Note Registrar shall, upon request, furnish a copy of the Note Register to the Trustee and the Servicer.

Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) and (k) of this Section 2.5, upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Note or Combination Note, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer (as applicable) shall execute, and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Notes of the same Class or Combination Note, of any authorized denomination and of a like aggregate principal amount.

Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) and (k) of this Section 2.5, at the option of the Holder, Notes or Combination Notes may be exchanged for other Notes of the same Class or Combination Notes, as applicable, in any authorized denominations and of a like aggregate stated or principal amount, upon surrender of the Notes or Combination Notes to be exchanged at the office of the Trustee. Whenever any Notes are so surrendered for exchange, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer (as applicable) shall execute, and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver, the Notes that the Holder making the exchange is entitled to receive.

All Notes (with the exception of the Class B-2L Notes and the Combination Notes) issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of Notes shall be the valid obligations of the Co-Issuers, and the Class B-2L Notes and the Combination Notes shall be the valid obligations of the Issuer, evidencing the same debt, and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Notes or the Combination Notes, as applicable, surrendered upon such registration of transfer or exchange.

Every Note or Combination Note presented or surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange shall be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Co-Issuers (as applicable) and the Trustee duly executed by the Holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge shall be made to a Holder for any registration of transfer or exchange of Notes or Combination Notes, but the Co-Issuers or the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any registration of transfer or exchange of Notes or Combination Notes.

(b) No Note or Combination Notes may be sold or transferred (including, without limitation by pledge or hypothecation) unless such sale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and is exempt under applicable state securities laws. No purported transfer of any interest in any Note or Combination Note or any portion thereof that is not made in accordance with this Section 2.5 shall be given effect by or be binding upon the Trustee or the Co-Issuers (as applicable) and any such purported transfer shall be null and void ab initio and vest in the transferee no rights against the Trustee, the Co-Issuers (as applicable) or the Trust Estate.

By its acceptance of a Note or Combination Note or a beneficial interest in a Note or Combination Note, each owner thereof will be deemed to have represented and agreed that transfer thereof is restricted and agrees that it shall transfer such Note or Combination Note or beneficial interest in such Note or Combination Note, only in accordance with the terms of this Indenture and such Note or Combination Note and in compliance with applicable law.

The applicable rules, regulations and procedures utilized or imposed by any Clearance System or DTC (collectively, "Applicable Procedures") shall be applicable to the Global Notes insofar as and to the extent beneficial interests in such Global Notes are held by the agent members of or participants in Euroclear, Clearstream or DTC, respectively. Account holders or agent members of or participants in Euroclear, Clearstream and DTC shall have no rights under this Indenture with respect to such Global Notes and DTC (or its nominee) as registered Holder of any Global Notes may be treated by the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Note Registrar, the Authenticating Agent and any other Paying Agent (and any agent of any of the foregoing) as the owner of such Global Notes for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prevent the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Note Registrar, the Authenticating Agent or any Paying Agent from giving effect to any written certification, proxy or other authorization furnished by DTC or any Clearance System or impair, as between DTC, the Clearance System and its agent members or participants, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a Holder of any Notes. Requests or directions from, or votes of, DTC, or any Clearance System with respect to any matter shall not be deemed inconsistent if made with respect to (or in separate proportions corresponding to) different beneficial owners. None of the Trustee, the Transfer Agent, the Note Registrar, the Authenticating Agent nor the Paying Agent shall have any duty to monitor, maintain records concerning (or determine compliance with any of the restrictions on transfer set forth herein with respect to) owners of beneficial interests in the Global Notes. None of the Trustee, the Transfer Agent, the Note Registrar, the Authenticating Agent nor the Paying Agent shall have any liability for the accuracy of the records of DTC or any Clearance System, or any actions or omissions of DTC or any Clearance System (or of the agent members of or participants in any Clearance System).

A Noteholder may transfer a Note or its beneficial interest in a Note only in accordance with the following provisions:

(i) Definitive Note to Temporary Regulation S Global Note. To the extent permitted by the Applicable Procedures and subject to the provisions of Section 2.5, if a Holder of a Definitive Note of any Class wishes at any time to transfer its beneficial interest in such Definitive Note to a Non-U.S. Person during the Distribution Compliance Period, such Holder shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 2.5, transfer its interest in such Definitive Note for an equivalent beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note of the same Class. Upon (A) the surrender to the Trustee for cancellation of the Definitive Notes representing the beneficial interest to be so transferred and (B) the receipt by the Trustee and the Co-Issuers of (1) an Investor Representation Letter from such Noteholder's transferee, (2) a Regulation S Transferor Certificate from such Noteholder, and (3) a written order in accordance with the Applicable Procedures containing information regarding the Euroclear or Clearstream account to be credited with the increase in the Regulation S Global Note and the name of such account, the Trustee shall cancel such Definitive Note and, concurrently with such cancellation, instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note of the same Class to reflect an increase of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the same amount and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the transferee a beneficial interest in such Temporary Regulation S Global Note equal to the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Definitive Note so cancelled. In the event of any partial transfer of an interest in a Definitive Note to a Temporary Regulation S Global Note, the Co-Issuers shall execute and provide to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall authenticate and return to the Holder, a Definitive Note evidencing the remaining balance thereof. After the Distribution Compliance Period, interests in any Definitive Notes may not be transferred or exchanged for interests in a Temporary Regulation S Global Note.

(ii) Definitive Note to Permanent Regulation S Global Note. If a Holder of a Definitive Note wishes at any time after the Distribution Compliance Period to transfer its interest in such Definitive Note to a Non-U.S. Person, such Holder shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 2.5, transfer its interest in such Definitive Note for an equivalent beneficial interest in such Permanent Regulation S Global Note of the same Class. Upon (A) the surrender to the Trustee in the case of any Class of Notes or Combination Notes, of the Definitive Note representing the interest to be so transferred, for cancellation and (B) the receipt by the Trustee and the Co-Issuers of (1) an Investor Representation Letter from such Noteholder's transferee, (2) a Regulation S Transferor Certificate from such Noteholder and (3) a written order in accordance with the Applicable Procedures containing information regarding the Euroclear or Clearstream account to be credited with the increase in the Regulation S Global Note and the name of such account, the Trustee shall cancel such Definitive Note, and, concurrently with such cancellation instruct the Custodian to endorse the Permanent Regulation S Global Note to reflect an increase of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the same amount and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the transferee a beneficial interest in such Permanent Regulation S Global Note equal to the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Definitive Note so cancelled. In the event of any partial transfer of an interest in a Definitive Note to a Permanent Regulation S Global Note, the Co-Issuers or the Issuer, as applicable, shall execute and provide to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall authenticate and return to the Holder, a Definitive Note evidencing the remaining balance thereof (which Definitive Note shall be so mailed or otherwise delivered from a location outside the United States).

In respect of any transfers involving Combination Notes, the Note Registrar shall ensure that the Note Register is amended in respect of the Note Component of the Combination Notes and request the Share Registrar to amend the Share Register in respect of the Preferred Share Component of the Combination Notes.

(iii) Temporary Regulation S Global Note to Definitive Note or Rule 144A Global Note. To the extent permitted by DTC, if a Holder of a beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note of a particular Class wishes at any time during the Distribution Compliance Period to transfer its beneficial interest in such Temporary Regulation S Global Note to a U.S. Person, such holder shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 2.5, transfer its beneficial interest in such Temporary Regulation S Global Note for an equivalent interest in a Rule 144A Global Note, or, in the case of a Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note, a Definitive Note. Upon receipt by the Trustee of (A) a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit G hereto and (B) a written order given in accordance with the Applicable Procedures, the Trustee shall instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note to reflect a reduction of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the Aggregate Principal Amount of the beneficial interest thereof to be so transferred and concurrently with such reduction, in the case of a Rule 144A Global Note, instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in the Rule 144A Global Note of the same Class to reflect an increase of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the same amount and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the transferee a beneficial interest in such Rule 144A Global Note equal to the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Temporary Regulation S Global Note so reduced, and, in the case of a Definitive Note, the Co-Issuers shall execute and furnish to the Trustee, and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver to such Holder, a Definitive Note in a principal amount equal to the amount of the reduction in the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Temporary Regulation S Global Note of such Class.

(iv) Transfer of Interests in a Definitive Note. A Holder of a Definitive Note may at any time transfer its interest in such Definitive Note in accordance with this Section 2.5(b)(iv). Any transfer of an interest in a Definitive Note to a Non-U.S. Person during the Distribution Compliance Period shall be made only pursuant to Section 2.5(b)(iii) above. Otherwise the Trustee shall require, prior to any such transfer of a Definitive Note, receipt by the Trustee and the Co-Issuers of (A) an Investor Representation Letter from such Noteholder's transferee and (B) a Transferor Certificate from such Noteholder (which shall only be a Regulation S Transferor Certificate for transfers to Non-U.S. Persons during the Distribution Compliance Period). Upon receipt of such letter and certificate, and surrender to the Trustee the Definitive Note representing the interest to be so transferred, the Trustee shall cancel such Definitive Note and the Co-Issuers shall execute and provide to the Trustee, and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver, a Definitive Note to such transferee (and, in the event of a partial transfer, the Co-Issuers shall execute and provide to the Trustee, and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver, a Definitive Note evidencing the remaining balance to the transferring Holder).

(v) Transfer of Interests in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note. Transfers of beneficial interests in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note may only be made (A) in accordance with Section 2.5(b)(i) above or (B) by book-entry transfer of beneficial interests in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note within the Clearance System (and subject to the Applicable Procedures) to Non-U.S. Persons in accordance with Regulation S in "offshore transactions" (as defined in Regulation S).

(vi) Transfer of Interests in a Permanent Regulation S Global Note. If a Holder of a beneficial interest in the Permanent Regulation S Global Note wishes at any time to transfer its beneficial interest in such Permanent Regulation S Global Note to a U.S. Person, such Holder shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 2.5 and the Applicable Procedures, transfer its beneficial interest in such Permanent Regulation S Global Note for an equivalent interest in a Rule 144A Global Note or, in the case of the Class B-2L Notes or the Combination Note, a Definitive Note. Upon receipt by the Trustee of (A) a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit G hereto and (B) a written order given in accordance with the Applicable Procedures, the Trustee shall instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in the Permanent Regulation S Global Note to reflect a reduction of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the Aggregate Principal Amount of the beneficial interest thereof to be so transferred and concurrently with such reduction, in the case of a Rule 144A Global Note, instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in the Rule 144A Global Note of the same Class to reflect an increase of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the same amount and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the transferee a beneficial interest in such Rule 144A Global Note equal to the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Permanent Regulation S Global Note so reduced, and, in the case of a Definitive Note, the Issuer shall execute and furnish to the Trustee (or Paying Agent, as directed by the Trustee) and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver to such Holder a Definitive Note in the Aggregate Principal Amount equal to the amount of the reduction in the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Permanent Regulation S Global Note (which Definitive Note shall be mailed or otherwise delivered to such Holder from a location outside the United States). Interests in any Permanent Regulation S Global Note shall not be exchanged for or transferred to a Definitive Note (except pursuant to the preceding sentence or Section 2.1, if applicable).

(vii) Transfer of Interest in a Rule 144A Global Note. Subject to the provisions of Section 2.5(k), transfers of beneficial interests in a Rule 144A Global Note may only be made (A) in accordance with the provisions of this Section 2.5(b)(iv) or (B) by book-entry transfer of beneficial interests in a Rule 144A Global Note within DTC (and subject to the Applicable Procedures) and in accordance with the transfer restrictions contained in the legend on such Rule 144A Global Note. If a Holder of a beneficial interest in a Rule 144A Global Note wishes to transfer its beneficial interest in such Rule 144A Global Note to a Non-U.S. Person, such holder shall, subject to the provisions of this Section 2.5 and the Applicable Procedures, transfer its beneficial interest in such Rule 144A Global Note for an equivalent interest in a Temporary Regulation S Global Note or a Permanent Regulation S Global Note, provided such transfer occurs after the Distribution Compliance Period. Upon receipt by the Trustee of (A) a Regulation

S Transferor Certificate from such Noteholder and (B) a written order given in accordance with the DTC's Applicable Procedures, the Trustee shall instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in the Rule 144A Global Note to reflect a reduction of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the Aggregate Principal Amount of the beneficial interest thereof to be so transferred and concurrently with such reduction, instruct the Custodian to adjust the Depository's position in such Temporary Regulation S Global Note or the Permanent Regulation S Global Note of the same Class to reflect an increase of the Aggregate Principal Amount thereof by the same amount and to credit or cause to be credited to the account of the transferee a beneficial interest in such Temporary Regulation S Global Note or Permanent Regulation S Global Note equal to the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Rule 144A Global Note so reduced.

(viii) Exchange of Combination Notes into Component Securities. Subject to the provisions of Section 2.5(l), a Holder of a Combination Note may exchange all or a proportionate amount of each Component Security for (i) a Definitive Note of the Class B-1L Notes or for proportional interests in a Rule 144A Global Note or a Regulation S Global Note of the Class B-1L Note (in the Case of the Note Component) in the amount of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the applicable Note Component being exchanged, and (ii) a Class I Preferred Share certificate (in the case of the Preferred Share Component) representing the number of Class I Preferred Shares comprised in the Preferred Share Component being exchanged, in the manner specified in this Indenture. Such exchange is subject to delivery to the Trustee, the Note Registrar, the Share Registrar and the Issuer of written certifications, substantially in the form of Exhibit B and Exhibit C or Exhibit D, as applicable, to the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement at least 10 Business Days prior to the Payment Date on which such exchange shall become effective.

No Holder of the Combination Notes may exchange or transfer any Note Component or any Preferred Share Component thereof without also exchanging or transferring the proportionate amount of the Preferred Share Component or the Note Component being exchanged or transferred.

The Trustee, upon receipt of such duly completed certificate and such Combination Note, shall (i) cancel such Combination Note (or, by following the procedures of the Depository, decrease the Aggregate Principal Amount of such Combination Note), (ii) authenticate and deliver, without charge, Notes in (or, by following the procedures of the Depository, increase the Aggregate Principal Amount of the applicable Global Note by) the same Aggregate Principal Amount as the Note Component surrendered for exchange and (iii) direct the Paying and Transfer Agent to deliver (in the case of a Preferred Share sold in reliance on Regulation S, by following the procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream for delivery to the account of the Holder of the Combination Notes) a certificate for the Class I Preferred Shares represented by the face amount of such Preferred Share Component surrendered for exchange. Thereafter, the Holder of a Combination Note (or a beneficial interest therein) exchanged hereunder shall become the Holder of the Class B-1L Notes and Class I Preferred Shares (or beneficial interests therein) received upon such an exchange. At any time that the Combination Notes represent interests only in the Preferred Share Components, the Issuer will notify the holders of the Combination Notes and require the exchange of the Combination Notes for the Class I Preferred Shares.

Notwithstanding anything else in this Section 2.5, such Definitive Note or proportional interest in a Rule 144A Global Note or Regulation S Global Note, and such Preferred Share certificate (collectively, "Exchanged Interests") may be in a principal amount or number of shares, as the case may be, smaller than the authorized minimum otherwise applicable thereto; provided that the exchanging Holder of such Combination Note may not thereafter transfer any such Exchanged Interest except to a Person that, after giving effect to such transfer, would hold at least the authorized minimum principal amount or number of shares applicable to such Exchanged Interests.

No Holder of any Note or Preferred Share (including a Holder that receives such Note or Preferred Share upon exchange under this Section 2.5(b)(viii)) will have the right to exchange such Note or Preferred Share for a Combination Note.

At any time that the Combination Notes represent interests only in the Preferred Share Component, the Trustee, on behalf of the Issuer, shall send a notice to the Holders of the Combination Notes informing them that the Holders of the Combination Notes must deliver the Combination Notes to the Paying and Transfer Agent for exchange into the Class I Preferred Shares represented by the Preferred Share Component and, upon such delivery, the Paying and Transfer Agent, in accordance with the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, shall deliver a certificate representing such Preferred Shares to such Holders within five (5) Business Days of delivery to it of the Combination Notes.

No service charge shall be made for any exchange of Combination Notes into Component Securities, but the Trustee or the Paying and Transfer Agent may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

(ix) Initial Sale of Notes. Notwithstanding anything in clauses (i) through (viii) of this Section 2.5(b) to the contrary, in connection with any sale of Initial Purchaser Notes by any Initial Purchaser, no delivery of an Investor Representation Letter or a Transferor Certificate shall be required so long as each purchaser of Notes executes and delivers a transferee certificate acceptable to Bear Stearns (which certificate shall, in the case of any transfer pursuant to Sections 2.5(b)(i) or 2.5(b)(ii), identify each transferee of a beneficial interest in the Temporary Regulation S Global Note, including name, address, payment instructions, Taxpayer information and such other information as the Trustee reasonably may require), which transferee certificate shall be delivered to the Trustee.

(x) Securities Act. No transfer of any Note or any beneficial interest in any Note shall be made unless such transfer (a) is made pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act and registration or qualification under applicable state securities laws or (b) is exempt from such registration or qualification requirements.

The Investor Representation Letters (and any alternative certification acceptable to Bear Stearns pursuant to clause (vi) above) and the Transferor Certificates furnished pursuant to this Section may be relied on conclusively by the Trustee in determining whether the provisions of this Section have been complied with. None of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee or any other person shall be required to register the Notes under the Securities Act or any state securities laws.

(c) (i) Unless a prospective Holder of a Note (and each beneficial owner of an interest in a Global Note) otherwise provides another representation acceptable to each of the Trustee, the Servicer and the Issuer, each Holder of a Note other than a Class B-1L Note, a Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note (and each beneficial owner of an interest in a Class B-1L Note, a Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note in the form of a Global Note), by its purchase thereof, shall be deemed to have represented to the Issuer, the Servicer and the Trustee that (a) no part of the funds being used to pay the purchase price for such Notes constitutes an asset of any "employee benefit plan" (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA) or "plan" (as defined in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code) that is subject to Title I of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (each a "Plan"), including assets held in an insurance company general account, or (b) if the funds being used to pay the purchase price for such Notes include assets of any Plan, an exemption to the prohibited transaction rules applies to the purchase and holding of such Notes.

(ii) Each Holder of a Class B-1L Note shall be required (and each beneficial owner of an interest in a Class B-1L Note shall be deemed) to represent to the Issuer, the Servicer and the Trustee that either (a) the purchaser or transferee is not a Plan and is not acquiring the Class B-1L Note with assets of a Plan, (b) it is an insurance company and such funds include only assets of its general account, and its acquisition and holding of such Note are eligible for exemptive relief available under Section I of PTCE 95-60, or (c) the acquisition and holding of the Class B-1L Notes by the purchaser or transferee are eligible for the exemptive relief available under any of Section 408(b)(17) of ERISA or PTCE 96-23, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14.

(iii) Each Holder of a Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note shall be required (and each beneficial owner of an interest in a Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note in global form shall be deemed) to represent to the Issuer, the Servicer and the Trustee that either (a) no part of the funds being used to pay the purchase price for such Note or Combination Note constitutes "plan assets" of any Plan or other "benefit plan investor" (as defined in Section 3(42) of ERISA) (a "Benefit Plan Investor"), or (b) if the funds being used to pay the purchase price for such Note or Combination Note include "plan assets" of any Plan or other Benefit Plan Investor, (1) it is purchasing the Class B-2L Notes or Combination Notes with assets of an "insurance company general account" within the meaning of PTCE 95-60, its purchase and holding of the Class B-2L Note or Combination Note are eligible for the exemptive relief available under Section I of PTCE 95-60, less than 25% of the assets of such insurance company general account constitute "plan assets" of Benefit Plan Investors, and if, after the initial acquisition of Class B-2L Notes or Combination Notes, during any calendar quarter 25% or more of the assets of such general account (as determined by such insurance company) constitute "plan assets" of Benefit Plan Investors and full exemptive relief from the prohibited transaction prohibitions of Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code is not available under Section 401(c) of ERISA and the regulations thereunder, then such investor will dispose of all of the Class B-2L Notes and Combination Notes then held in such general account by the end of the next following calendar quarter; or (2) its purchase and holding of the Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note are eligible for the exemptive relief available under any of Section 408(b)(17) of ERISA or PTCE 96-23, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14. No purchase of a Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note by a Plan or a person investing on behalf of or with "plan assets" of a Benefit Plan Investor shall be allowed unless, after giving effect to such transfer and all other purchases occurring simultaneously with such transfer, less than 25% of each of the Class B-2L Notes or the Combination Notes and the Preferred Shares (excluding any such Note, Combination Notes or Preferred Shares held by the Servicer or its affiliates or clients) will be held by Benefit Plan Investors, and each potential Holder of a Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note will furnish to the Issuer and the Trustee information sufficient to ensure that this condition is met. Each potential Holder of a Class B-2L Note or a Combination Note will be required to represent and agree that it will not assign or transfer such Class B-2L Note or Combination Note unless (1) the proposed transferee or assignee delivers a letter to the Trustee evidencing its agreement to the foregoing ERISA representations and covenants with respect to its purchase, holding and transfer of such Class B-2L Note or Combination Note and (2) if the Holder (x) is not, and is not acting on behalf of a Benefit Plan Investor, the assignee or transferee will also not be a Benefit Plan Investor, or (y) is or is acting on behalf of an insurance company general account, the assignee or transferee will be accurately identified in such letter as either another insurance company general account or a person who is not and is not acting on behalf of a Benefit Plan Investor; or (z) is or is acting on behalf of or with "plan assets" of a Benefit Plan Investor (other than an insurance company general account), the assignee or transferee will be accurately identified in such letter as either an insurance company general account, another Benefit Plan Investor or a person who is not and is not acting on behalf of any Benefit Plan Investor; provided that for purposes of clauses (x), (y) and (z), a transfer by a Holder (the "Transferring Holder") to Bear Stearns in a secondary market transaction and subsequent transfers by Bear Stearns to a Holder (the "Transferee Holder"), shall be deemed to be a transfer by the Transferring Holder to the Transferee Holder and Bear Stearns may therefore transfer such Notes to any potential Holder to whom the Transferring Holder would be permitted to transfer.

(d) No Note or Combination Note shall be sold or transferred (including, without limitation, by pledge or hypothecation), except to Non-U.S. Persons in "offshore transactions" in accordance with Regulation S under the Securities Act, who, in the case of the Class B-2L Notes and the Combination Notes are also Qualified Institutional Buyers (or, solely in the case of a Holder purchasing Class B-2L Notes on the Closing Date, is an Institutional Accredited Investor), unless the purchaser or transferee is a Qualified Purchaser. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, no transfer of a Note or Combination Note may be made if such transfer would require registration of the Issuer or Co-Issuer under the Investment Company Act (subject, as regards the Trustee's duties, to Section 2.5(f) below).

(e) At any time when the Issuer is not subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, upon the request of any Noteholder, the Issuer shall promptly furnish to such Noteholder or to a prospective purchaser of any Note or Combination Note designated by such Noteholder, as the case may be, the information which the Issuer determines to be required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act ("Rule 144A Information") in order to permit compliance by such Noteholder with Rule 144A in connection with the resale of such Note or Combination Note by such Noteholder; provided that the Issuer shall not be required to provide audited financial statements more than once a year or to furnish Rule 144A Information in connection with any request made on or after the date that is three years from the later of (i) the date such Note or Combination Note (or any predecessor Note or Combination Note) was acquired from the Issuer or (ii) the date such Note or Combination Note (or any predecessor Note or Combination Note) was last acquired from an "affiliate" of the Issuer within the meaning of Rule 144A, in each case as determined by the Issuer. Upon request by the Issuer, the Trustee shall cooperate with the Issuer in mailing or otherwise distributing (at the Issuer's expense) to such Noteholders or prospective purchasers, at and pursuant to the Issuer's written direction, the foregoing materials prepared and provided by the Issuer; provided that the Trustee shall be entitled to affix thereto or enclose therewith such disclaimers as the Trustee shall deem reasonably appropriate, at its discretion (such as, for example, a disclaimer that such Rule 144A Information was assembled by the Issuer and not by the Trustee, that the Trustee has not reviewed or verified the accuracy thereof, and that it makes no representation as to the sufficiency of such information under Rule 144A or for any other purpose).

(f) The Trustee shall not be responsible for ascertaining whether any transfer complies with, or otherwise to monitor or determine compliance with, the requirements or terms of the Securities Act, applicable state securities laws, ERISA, the Code or the Investment Company Act; except that if a certificate is specifically required by the terms of this Section to be provided to the Trustee by a prospective transferee, transferor or the Issuer, the Trustee shall be under a duty to receive and examine the same to determine whether it conforms substantially on its face to the applicable requirements of this Section.

(g) If a Responsible Officer of the Trustee becomes aware that (i) a transfer or attempted or purported transfer of any Note or Combination Note or interest therein was consummated in compliance with the provisions of this Section 2.5 on the basis of a materially incorrect certification from the transferor or purported transferee, (ii) a transferee failed to deliver to the Trustee any certificate required to be delivered hereunder or (iii) the Holder of any Note or Combination Note or interest therein is in material breach of any representation or agreement set forth in any certificate or any deemed representation or agreement of such Holder, the Trustee will direct the Note Registrar not to register such attempted or purported transfer and if a transfer has been registered, such transfer shall be absolutely null and void ab initio and shall vest no rights in the purported transferee (such purported transferee, a "Disqualified Transferee") and the last preceding Holder of such Note or Combination Note that was not a Disqualified Transferee shall be restored to all rights as a Holder thereof retroactively to the date of transfer of such Note or Combination Note by such Holder.

(h) For so long as one or more Global Notes are Outstanding:

(i) the Trustee and its directors, officers, employees and agents may deal with the Depository, with respect to all Global Notes (the "Depository") for all purposes (including the making of distributions on, and the giving of notices with respect to, the Global Notes);

(ii) unless otherwise provided herein, the rights of beneficial owner in a Global Note shall be exercised only through the respective Depository and shall be limited to those established by law and agreements between such beneficial owners and the respective Depository;

(iii) for purposes of determining the identity of and Aggregate Principal Amount of Notes or Combination Notes beneficially owned by a Holder, the records of the Depository shall be conclusive evidence of such identity and Aggregate Principal Amount and the Trustee may conclusively rely on such records when acting hereunder;

(iv) the Depository will make book-entry transfers among the Depository participants of the Depository and will receive and transmit distributions of principal of and interest on the Global Notes to such Depository participants; and

(v) the Depository participants of the Depository shall have no rights under this Indenture under or with respect to any of the Global Notes held on their behalf by the Depository, and the Depository may be treated by the Trustee and its agents, employees, officers and directors as the absolute owner of the Global Notes for all purposes whatsoever.

(i) Each transferee of a Note (excluding any transferee of a Note (other than a Class B-2L Note transferred after the Closing Date or a Combination Note) who is a non-U.S. Person in an offshore transaction under Regulation S but including any transferee of a Class B-2L Note transferred after the Closing Date or a Combination Note who is a non-U.S. Person in an offshore transaction under Regulation S) or a Combination Note will be deemed to represent at time of transfer that the transferee is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and that (i) it is a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) it is not formed for the purpose of investing in the Notes or Combination Notes, unless each of its beneficial owners is a Qualified Purchaser, (iii) it is not a dealer described in paragraph (a)(1)(ii) of Rule 144A unless such transferee owns and invests on a discretionary basis at least U.S.$25 million in securities of issuers that are not affiliated persons of such dealer, (iv) it is not a plan referred to in paragraph (a)(1)(i)(D) or (E) of Rule 144A or a trust fund referred to in paragraph (a)(1)(i)(F) of Rule 144A that holds the assets of such plan, unless investment decisions are made solely by the fiduciary, trustee or sponsor of such plan, (v) it and each account for which it is purchasing is purchasing Notes or Combination Notes in at least the minimum denomination and (vi) it will provide written notice of the foregoing and any other applicable transfer restrictions to any transferee.

(j) Any Note or Combination Note issued upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Notes or Combination Notes shall bear such applicable legend set forth in the relevant Exhibit hereto unless there is delivered to the Trustee, Note Registrar and the Issuer such satisfactory evidence, which may include an Opinion of Counsel, as may be reasonably required by any of the Trustee, Note Registrar and the Issuer to the effect that (i) neither such applicable legend nor the restrictions on transfer set forth therein are required to ensure that transfers thereof comply with the provisions of Rule 144A and to ensure that neither of the Co-Issuers nor the Portfolio Collateral becomes an investment company required to be registered under the Investment Company Act, and (ii) the Co-Issuers and the Portfolio Collateral are exempt from registration under the Investment Company Act other than by reason of Section 3(c)(7) thereof. Upon provision of such satisfactory evidence, the Trustee, at the direction of the Issuer, shall authenticate and deliver Notes or Combination Notes that do not bear such applicable legend.

(k) If, notwithstanding the restrictions set forth in this Section 2.5, either of the Co-Issuers determines that any beneficial owner or Holder of a Rule 144A Global Note (i) is a U.S. Person and (ii) is not (A) a Qualified Purchaser or (B) a company beneficially owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, the Co-Issuers may require, by notice to such beneficial owner or Holder, as the case may be, that such beneficial owner or Holder sell all of its right, title and interest to such Note or Combination Note (or interest therein) to a Person that is both (1) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (2) a Qualified Purchaser or a company beneficially owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers, with such sale to be effected within 30 days after notice of such sale requirement is given. If such beneficial owner or Holder fails to effect the transfer required within such 30-day period, (x) upon written direction from the Issuer, the Trustee shall, and is hereby irrevocably authorized by such beneficial owner or Holder, as the case may be, to cause its interest in such Note or Combination Note to be transferred in a commercially reasonable sale (conducted by the Trustee or by an investment banking firm selected by the Trustee and approved by the Issuer (whose fees are to be paid exclusively from the proceeds of such sale)), in accordance with Section 9-504(3) of the UCC as applied to securities that are sold on a recognized market or that may decline speedily in value) to a Person that certifies to the Trustee and the Co-Issuers, in connection with such transfer, that such Person is both (1) a Qualified Institutional Buyer and (2) a Qualified Purchaser or a company beneficially owned exclusively by one or more Qualified Purchasers and (y) pending such transfer, no further payments will be made in respect of such Note or Combination Note (or beneficial interest therein) held by such Holder or beneficial owner.

(l) So long as Combination Notes represented by Regulation S Global Notes remain outstanding and are held by or on behalf of the Depository, transfers and exchanges of the interests in such Regulation S Global Notes shall only be made in accordance with Section 2.1 and 2.5 and any such transfers will be subject to the provisions of this Section 2.5(l). If a transfer of a beneficial interest in Regulation S Global Notes requires the Trustee to instruct the Depository to reduce or increase the Aggregate Principal Amount of Combination Notes that include the Preferred Share Component represented by the Regulation S Global Note, the Issuer shall cancel the Regulation S Global Note and issue a new Regulation S Global Note registered in the name of such Depository representing the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Combination Note after the transfer. The new Regulation S Global Note shall be deposited with the Depository. The Trustee shall ensure that the Note Register is amended, and shall notify the Share Registrar to amend the Share Register, to reflect the transfers of the Class B-1L Notes and Class I Preferred Shares, respectively, represented by the Combination Note in the form of the Regulation S Global Note. The Issuer is not required to issue a Regulation S Global Note at any time that the Aggregate Principal Amount of Combination Notes is zero.

Section 2.6. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Notes or Combination Notes.

If (i) any mutilated Note or Combination Note is surrendered to the Trustee or the Issuer or the Trustee and the Issuer receive evidence to their reasonable satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Note or Combination Note, and (ii) in the case of a destroyed, lost, or stolen Note or Combination Note, there is delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by them to save each of them harmless (an unsecured indemnity agreement of an Institutional Investor organized under the laws of the United States or any State in the United States with a net worth at least equal to twice the amount of the security or indemnity being deemed sufficient to satisfy such security or indemnity requirement), then, in the absence of notice to the Co-Issuers or the Trustee that such Note or Combination Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the Co-Issuers shall execute and, upon a written request therefor by the Issuer, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Note or Combination Note, a new Note or Combination Note of the same Class, tenor and principal amount, bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding. If, after the delivery of such new Note or Combination Note, a protected purchaser of the original Note or Combination Note in lieu of which such new Note or Combination Note was issued presents such original Note or Combination Note for payment, the Issuer and the Trustee shall be entitled to recover such new Note or Combination Note from the Person to whom it was delivered or any Person taking title therefrom, except a protected purchaser, and the Issuer and the Trustee shall be entitled to recover upon the security or indemnity provided therefor to the extent of any loss, damage, cost or expense incurred by the Co-Issuers, or the Trustee, in connection therewith. If any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Note or Combination Note shall have become or shall be about to become due and payable in full, or shall have been called for redemption in full, instead of issuing a new Note, the Co-Issuers may pay such Note or Combination Note without surrender thereof, except that any mutilated Note or Combination Note shall be surrendered.

Upon the issuance of any new Note or Combination Note under this Section 2.6, the Issuer or the Trustee may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed or any other reasonable expense in relation thereto.

Every new Note or Combination Note issued pursuant to this Section in lieu of any mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Note or Combination Note shall constitute an original additional contractual obligation of the Issuer, whether or not the mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Note or Combination Note shall be at any time enforceable by anyone, and shall be entitled to all the benefits of this Indenture equally and proportionately with any and all other Notes or Combination Notes of the same Class duly issued hereunder.

The provisions of this Section are exclusive and shall preclude (to the extent lawful) all other rights and remedies with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Notes or Combination Notes.

Section 2.7. Payments on the Notes.

(a) No principal will be payable in respect of the Class A-1L Notes (and principal collections on the Portfolio Collateral will be applied as described herein) during the Revolving Period, except in the event of an Initial Deposit Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-1L Notes as described herein. The unpaid principal amount of the Class A-2L Notes shall accrue interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate for such Class from the Closing Date until such unpaid principal amount is paid in full and such accrued interest shall be payable on each Payment Date. To the extent there is any shortfall in the payment of accrued interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate on any Payment Date with respect to the Class A-2L Notes, the Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount will be paid (to the extent of available funds therefor and as described herein) on one or more subsequent Payment Dates after payment of the Periodic Interest Amount with respect to the Class A-2L Notes, unless earlier paid upon an Optional Redemption, a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-2L Notes as described herein. All outstanding principal of the Class A-2L Notes, together with the other amounts described herein, will be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date.

(c) No principal will be payable in respect of the Class A-3L Notes (and principal collections on the Portfolio Collateral will be applied as described herein) during the Revolving Period, except in the event of a Special Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-3L Notes, but only after the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1L Notes and the Class A-2L Notes have been paid in full. The unpaid principal amount of the Class A-3L Notes shall accrue interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate for such Class from the Closing Date until such unpaid principal amount is paid in full and such accrued interest shall be payable on each Payment Date. To the extent there is any shortfall in the payment of accrued interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate on any Payment Date with respect to the Class A-3L Notes, the Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount will be paid (to the extent of available funds therefor and as described herein) on one or more subsequent Payment Dates after payment of the Periodic Interest Amount with respect to the Class A-3L Notes, unless earlier paid upon an Optional Redemption, a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class A-3L Notes as described herein. The unpaid principal amount of the Class B-1L Notes shall accrue interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate for such Class from the Closing Date until such unpaid principal amount is paid in full and such accrued interest shall be payable on each Payment Date. To the extent there is any shortfall in the payment of accrued interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate on any Payment Date with respect to the Class B-1L Notes, the Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount will be paid (to the extent of available funds therefor and as described herein) on one or more subsequent Payment Dates after payment of the Periodic Interest Amount with respect to the Class B-1L Notes, unless earlier paid upon an Optional Redemption, a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class B-1L Notes as described herein. All outstanding principal of the Class B-1L Notes, together with the other amounts described herein, will be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date.

(e) Except in connection with the application of the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement or upon the failure of the Class B-2L Overcollateralization Test, as described herein, no principal will be payable in respect of the Class B-2L Notes during the Revolving Period, except in the event of a Special Redemption, an Optional Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class B-2L Notes, but only after the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A Notes and Class B-1L Notes have been paid in full. The principal amount of the Class B-2L Notes shall be due and payable (to the extent of funds available therefore and in the order of priority as described herein) on each Payment Date during the Amortization Period, but only after the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A Notes and the Class B-1L Notes have been paid in full (except in connection with the application of the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement or upon the failure of the Class B-2L Overcollateralization Test). The unpaid principal amount of the Class B-2L Notes shall accrue interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate for such Class from the Closing Date until such unpaid principal amount is paid in full and such accrued interest shall be payable on each Payment Date. To the extent there is any shortfall in the payment of accrued interest at the Applicable Periodic Rate on any Payment Date with respect to the Class B-2L Notes, the Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount will be paid (to the extent of available funds therefor and as described herein) on one or more subsequent Payment Dates after payment of the Periodic Interest Amount with respect to the Class B-2L Notes, unless earlier paid upon an Optional Redemption, a Special Redemption, a Tax Event Redemption or a Mandatory Redemption of the Class B-2L Notes as described herein. All outstanding principal of the Class B-2L Notes, together with the other amounts described herein, will be due and payable on the Final Maturity Date.

(f) Payments in respect of the Combination Notes shall be made as set forth in Section 16.3 hereof.

(g) Holders of the Notes of each Class as of the Record Date in respect of a Payment Date or as of the Redemption Record Date with respect to the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, an Optional Redemption Date, a Special Redemption Date, a Tax Event Redemption Date or a Mandatory Redemption Date, shall be entitled, to the extent provided for herein, to the interest accrued and payable and principal payable (or Initial Deposit Redemption Price, an Optional Redemption Price, a Special Redemption Price, a Tax Event Redemption Price or a Mandatory Redemption Price payable, as applicable) on such Payment Date or Redemption Record Date with respect to the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, an Optional Redemption Date, a Special Redemption Date, a Tax Event Redemption Date or a Mandatory Redemption Date. Payments of principal to Holders entitled thereto shall be made in the proportion that the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes of such Class registered in the name of each such Holder on such Record Date or Redemption Record Date with respect to the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, an Optional Redemption Date, a Special Redemption Date, a Tax Event Redemption Date or a Mandatory Redemption Date.

(h) Interest accrued with respect to any Class of Notes shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year and the actual number of days elapsed during each Periodic Interest Accrual Period.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the obligations of the Co-Issuers' under this Indenture and the payment of principal of, interest on and all other amounts payable on or in respect of the Class A-1L Notes, the Class A-2L Notes, the Class A-3L Notes and the Class B-1L Notes (including, with respect to the Class B-1L Notes, the Note Component) will constitute nonrecourse obligations of the Co-Issuers, and the payment of principal of, interest on and all other amounts payable on or in respect Class B-2L Notes will constitute nonrecourse obligations of the Issuer, payable solely from the Trust Estate. Having realized the Collateral and distributed the net proceeds thereof, in each case in accordance with this Indenture, neither the Trustee nor any holders of Notes or Combination Notes may take any further steps against the Co-Issuers to recover any sum still unpaid in respect of any claims under this Indenture or the Notes or Combination Notes issued under this Indenture and all claims against the Co-Issuers in respect of any such sum due but still unpaid shall be extinguished and shall not revive. Neither of the Co-Issuers, nor any of their respective agents, partners, beneficiaries, officers, directors, employees or any Affiliate of any of them or any of their respective successors or assigns shall be personally liable for any amounts payable, or performance due, under the Notes, Combination Notes or this Indenture. It is understood that the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not (A) prevent recourse to the Trust Estate for the sums due or to become due under any security, instrument or agreement which is part of the Trust Estate or (B) constitute a waiver, release or discharge of any indebtedness or obligation evidenced by the Notes, Combination Notes or secured by this Indenture, but the same shall continue until paid or discharged or (C) constitute a waiver of an otherwise valid cause of action with respect to the performance of the Servicer's obligations as set forth in the Servicing Agreement or (D) constitute a waiver of any otherwise valid cause of action against the Co-Issuers wherein the loss complained of is directly attributable to the willful misconduct or fraud of the Co-Issuers in making their respective representations or warranties or the performance of their respective obligations under this Indenture or (E) limit the right of any person to name the Co-Issuers as parties defendant in any action, suit or in the exercise of any other remedy under the Notes, Combination Notes or in this Indenture, so long as no judgment in the nature of a deficiency judgment or seeking personal liability shall be asked for or (if obtained) enforced against any such person or entity.

Section 2.8. Persons Deemed Owners.

The Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Note Registrar and the Servicer, and any agent of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Note Registrar and the Servicer shall treat the Person in whose name any Note or Combination Note is registered as it appears on the Note Register (or Share Register in the case of the Preferred Share Component of the Combination Notes) as the owner of such Note for the purpose of receiving payments on such Note or Combination Note, and for all other purposes whatsoever (whether or not such Note or Combination Note is overdue), and none of the Issuer, the Trustee, the Note Registrar or the Servicer, nor any agent of any of them, shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Section 2.9. Cancellation.

All Notes or Combination Notes surrendered for payment, registration of transfer, exchange or redemption, or deemed destroyed, lost or stolen, shall, if surrendered to any Person other than the Trustee, be delivered to the Trustee and shall be promptly cancelled by it. No Notes or Combination Notes shall be authenticated in lieu of or in exchange for any Notes or Combination Notes cancelled as provided in this Section 2.9, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture. All cancelled Notes or Combination Notes held by the Trustee shall be destroyed or held by the Trustee in accordance with its standard retention policy unless the Issuer shall direct by an Issuer Order that they be returned to the Issuer.

Section 2.10. Tax Purposes.

Each of the Co-Issuers shall, and each Holder by acceptance of its Note shall be deemed to have agreed to, treat the Notes as debt solely of the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes and to treat the Preferred Shares as equity of the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes.

Section 2.11. Calculation Agent; Determination of LIBOR.

(a) The Issuer hereby agrees that for so long as any of the Notes remain Outstanding, there will at all times be an agent appointed to calculate LIBOR in respect of each Periodic Interest Accrual Period in accordance with the terms of the Notes. The Issuer has initially appointed Investors Bank & Trust Company, as agent with respect to the determination of LIBOR (in such capacity, the "Calculation Agent"). The Calculation Agent may be removed by the Issuer at any time. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or is removed by the Issuer, or if the Calculation Agent fails to determine LIBOR for a Periodic Interest Accrual Period, the Issuer will promptly appoint as a replacement Calculation Agent a leading bank which is engaged in transactions in U.S. dollar deposits in the international U.S. dollar market and which does not control or is not controlled by or under common control with the Co-Issuers or their Affiliates. The Calculation Agent may not resign or be removed from its respective duties without a successor having been duly appointed.

(b) The Calculation Agent shall determine LIBOR for each Periodic Interest Accrual Period in accordance with the following provisions:

On each LIBOR Determination Date, LIBOR shall equal the rate, as obtained by the Calculation Agent, for three-month U.S. dollar deposits which appears on Telerate Page 3750 (as reported by Bloomberg Financial Markets Commodities News) or such other page as may replace such Page 3750, as of 11:00 a.m. (London time) on such LIBOR Determination Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, LIBOR for the initial Periodic Interest Accrual Period shall be determined through the use of straight-line interpolation by reference to two rates calculated in accordance with the provisions above, one of which shall be for five-month U.S. dollar deposits and the other of which shall be for six-month U.S. dollar deposits.

If, on any LIBOR Determination Date, such rate does not appear on Telerate Page 3750 (as reported by Bloomberg Financial Markets Commodities News) or such other page as may replace such Page 3750, the Calculation Agent shall determine the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations of the Reference Banks (as defined below) to leading banks in the London interbank market for three-month (or five-month or six-month, as applicable) U.S. dollar deposits in an amount determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to requests for quotations as of approximately 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the LIBOR Determination Date made by the Calculation Agent to the Reference Banks. If, on any LIBOR Determination Date, at least two of the Reference Banks provide such quotations, LIBOR shall equal such arithmetic mean of such quotations. If, on any LIBOR Determination Date, only one or none of the Reference Banks provide such quotations, LIBOR shall be deemed to be the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations that leading banks in The City of New York selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer) are quoting on the relevant LIBOR Determination Date for three-month (or five-month or six-month, as applicable) U.S. dollar deposits in an amount determined by the Calculation Agent that is representative of a single transaction in such market at such time by reference to the principal London offices of leading banks in the London interbank market; provided that, if the Calculation Agent is required but is unable to determine a rate in accordance with at least one of the procedures provided above, LIBOR shall be LIBOR as determined on the previous LIBOR Determination Date. As used herein, "Reference Banks" means four major banks in the London interbank market selected by the Calculation Agent (after consultation with the Servicer).

For purposes of any calculations referred to in this paragraph (b), all percentages resulting from such calculations will be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of a percentage point.

(c) As soon as possible after 11:00 a.m. (New York time) on each LIBOR Determination Date, but in no event later than 11:00 a.m. (New York time) on the Business Day immediately following each LIBOR Determination Date, the Calculation Agent will notify the Issuer, the Trustee, the Irish Paying Agent (as long as any of the Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange) and the Servicer of LIBOR for the next Periodic Interest Accrual Period. The Calculation Agent will also specify to the Issuer the quotations upon which LIBOR is based, and in any event the Calculation Agent shall notify the Issuer before 5:00 p.m. (New York time) on each LIBOR Determination Date that either: (i) it has determined or is in the process of determining LIBOR or (ii) it has not determined and is not in the process of determining LIBOR together with its reasons therefor.

(d) Upon receipt of notice of LIBOR for each Periodic Interest Accrual Period from the Calculation Agent pursuant to subsection (c) of this Section 2.11, the Trustee shall determine the Applicable Periodic Rate with respect to the Notes for such Periodic Interest Accrual Period and notify the Irish Stock Exchange of the Applicable Periodic Rate for each Class of Note (as long as any of the Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange).

(e) The determination of LIBOR by the Calculation Agent and the Applicable Periodic Rate with respect to the Notes by the Trustee (in the absence of manifest error) shall be final and binding upon all parties.

Section 2.12. Option to Acquire Credit Enhancement.

Holders of any Class of Notes may elect to acquire bond insurance, a surety bond or similar credit enhancement supporting the payment of principal and/or interest on such Class of Notes, on terms and conditions acceptable to such Holders and at the sole expense of such Holders. Any Class of Notes subject to such enhancement will be designated pursuant to a supplemental indenture adopted pursuant to Section 8.1 as "Insured Notes" of such Class. Premiums for any such enhancement (together with any other amounts payable to the issuer of such bond insurance policy, surety bond or similar credit enhancement, including, without limitation, amounts payable to any such issuer to reimburse it for draws thereunder, together with interest thereon), and costs incurred by the Co-Issuers in connection with such enhancement will be payable from amounts otherwise payable to such Class of Insured Notes, or in such other manner chosen by such Holder (provided that any such payment does not adversely affect any other Noteholder or holder of a Preferred Share). Any Insured Notes for substantially all other purposes will be treated as Notes of such Class, except that the issuer of the bond insurance policy, surety bond or other such credit enhancement will generally be deemed to be the Holder of the Notes of such Class, enhanced by such entity and will in such capacity be entitled to exercise the rights otherwise exercisable by Holders of such Notes.

Section 2.13. Prescription.

Payment in respect of any Note will cease to be due if not paid to the Holder of such Note due to insufficient payment instructions from such Holder to the Trustee or the Paying Agent for a period of twenty years from the Relevant Date.

Section 2.14. Hedge Agreements.

(a) The Cap Agreement:

(i) On the Closing Date, the Issuer shall execute and deliver the Cap Agreement. The Issuer will make a single payment of the Fixed Amount to the Cap Provider on the Closing Date.

(ii) If, by 4:00 p.m., New York City time, on (i) any Payment Date on which the Trustee has not received from the Cap Provider any amount due from the Cap Provider on such Payment Date, (ii) the Business Day following any such Payment Date if the Trustee has not yet received such amount due from the Cap Provider, (iii) the Business Day on which such failure to pay by the Cap Provider becomes an event of default under the Cap Agreement or (iv) the Business Day on which the Trustee receives from the Cap Provider such amount due, the Trustee shall give prompt written notice thereof to the Cap Provider, S&P and Moody's. If the Cap Agreement has been terminated (such termination being subject to a Rating Confirmation) without a replacement, and any Cap Termination Amount owed to the Cap Provider under the Cap Agreement, if any, have been paid, all rights and liens of the Cap Provider under this Indenture with respect to the Cap Agreement shall terminate and be of no further force and effect. If after the Closing Date the credit rating of the Cap Provider is downgraded or withdrawn, a Responsible Officer of the Trustee, upon having actual knowledge of such downgrade or withdrawal, shall provide written notice of such downgrade or withdrawal to the Rating Agencies.

(iii) If, at any time, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes is less than the Cap Notional Amount, the Trustee may, at the direction of the Issuer, sell the Issuer's right to receive payments with respect to the Cap Agreement, but only to the extent that the Cap Notional Amount exceeds the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Notes. Proceeds from any such sale will be distributed as Collateral Interest Collections on the Payment Date relating to the Due Period in which such sale occurs.

(iv) The Cap Agreement will provide that in the event that (a) a S&P First Level Downgrade occurs and is continuing, then within 30 days after such rating withdrawal or downgrade, the Cap Provider shall, subject to satisfaction of the Rating Condition with respect to S&P, at its own expense, either (i) procure a Permitted Transfer, (ii) obtain an Eligible Guaranty or (iii) post collateral in accordance with the Cap Agreement; (b) an S&P Second Level Downgrade occurs and is continuing, then within 10 Local Business Days (as defined in the Cap Agreement) after such rating withdrawal or downgrade, the Cap Provider shall, subject to satisfaction of the Rating Condition with respect to S&P, at its own expense, either (i) procure a Permitted Transfer or (ii) obtain an Eligible Guaranty; and (c) a Moody's Second Level Downgrade occurs and is continuing, the Cap Provider shall as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, at its own expense and using commercially reasonable efforts, either (i) procure a Permitted Transfer or (ii) obtain an Eligible Guaranty.

(v) The Cap Agreement also will provide that the following will constitute "Additional Termination Events" under the Cap Agreement upon the occurrence of which the Issuer will have the right (subject to a Rating Confirmation) to terminate the Cap Agreement: (a) if a S&P First Level Downgrade has occurred and is continuing and the Cap Provider fails to take any action described in clause (a) in the preceding paragraph within the time period specified therein; (b) a S&P Second Level Downgrade has occurred and is continuing and the Cap Provider fails to take any action described in clause (b) in the preceding paragraph within the time period specified therein; (c)(i) a Moody's Second Level Downgrade has occurred and been continuing for 30 or more Local Business Days and (ii) the Cap Provider has failed to comply with or perform any obligation to be complied with or performed by the Cap Provider in accordance with the Cap Agreement; and (d)(i) a Moody's Second Level Downgrade has occurred and been continuing for 30 or more Local Business Days and (ii) either (I) at least one Eligible Replacement has made a Firm Offer to be the transferee or (II) at least one entity that satisfies the Moody's Approved Ratings Threshold has made a Firm Offer to provide an Eligible Guaranty in respect of all of the Cap Provider's present and future obligations under the Cap Agreement.

(vi) In the event of any transfer, assignment or replacement of the Cap Agreement following the occurrence of a "Rating Agency Downgrade" under the Cap Agreement, the Issuer shall use (and cause its agents to use) reasonable commercial efforts to incur only reasonable costs and expenses in connection with such transfer, assignment or replacement including, without limitation, costs and expenses of legal counsel.

(b) Other Hedge Agreements:

(i) On and after the Closing Date, subject to the conditions specified in this Section 2.14(b), the Issuer may enter into additional Hedge Agreements (including, without limitation, interest rate swap, cap or floor agreements, basis swap agreements or, with respect to the Revolving Period only, timing swap agreements) to hedge interest rate exposure or payment timing or accrual mismatches attributable to the Portfolio Collateral, increase or reduce the notional amount of an existing Hedge Agreement, sell all or a portion of any Hedge Agreement or terminate any Hedge Agreement if (x) Rating Agency Confirmation has been obtained or (y) such Hedge Agreement is a Form-Approved Hedge Agreement; provided, further, that with respect to a Form-Approved Hedge Agreement for which consent by the Rating Agencies to use the form in this transaction has been sought after the Closing Date, a Majority of the Controlling Class shall have consented to the use of such form.

(ii) Any termination or similar amount payable by a Hedge Counterparty to the Issuer upon any such reduction, increase, amendment, modification or termination pursuant to the related Hedge Agreement shall constitute Collateral Principal Collections in the Due Period in which such payment is received. Any such amount payable by the Issuer to such Hedge Counterparty shall be payable in accordance with Section 11.1 hereof. Any voluntary termination of a Hedge Agreement shall be subject to Rating Agency Confirmation.

(iii) Each Hedge Agreement shall be required to contain limited recourse and non-petition provisions equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those contained in this Indenture.

(iv) Each Hedge Agreement shall provide that if the ratings of the related Hedge Counterparty or its guarantor, as applicable, are reduced to a level below the levels required in such Hedge Agreement, the related Hedge Counterparty (or guarantor, as applicable) shall be required to (x) provide credit support in order to collateralize its obligations under such Hedge Agreement, (y) provide a guarantee of its obligations under such Hedge Agreement from a guarantor having the required ratings or (z) assign such Hedge Agreement to an eligible assignee, in each case as provided in such Hedge Agreement.

(v) Each Hedge Agreement shall provide that the Issuer may terminate such Hedge Agreement (whether or not the Notes have been paid in full prior to such termination) if, among other things, any of the following events occurs: (w) the bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, reorganization or similar events with respect to the a Hedge Counterparty, (x) failure of the related Hedge Counterparty to make any payment when due (subject to any applicable grace period), (y) a change in law making it illegal for the Issuer or the related Hedge Counterparty to be party to or perform its obligations under such Hedge Agreement or (z) the failure of the related Hedge Counterparty to take the action or actions required of it (including but not limited to those set forth in clause (iv) hereof) upon a reduction or withdrawal of the ratings of the related Hedge Counterparty or its guarantor below the levels specified in the Hedge Agreement. Each Hedge Agreement shall also provide that it may be terminated pursuant to its terms upon any redemption of the Notes in whole and may provide for the right of the related Hedge Counterparty to terminate such Hedge Agreement upon the occurrence of specified "events of default" or "termination events"; provided that no Hedge Agreement may provide for termination upon the occurrence of a Default or an Event of Default under Section 5.1 hereof unless any resulting acceleration of the Notes may no longer be rescinded pursuant to the terms of this Indenture.

(c) The Trustee shall in accordance with each applicable Note Valuation Report pay on each Payment Date amounts due by the Issuer to any Hedge Counterparty under each Hedge Agreement in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

(d) All termination or similar payments required to be paid by the Issuer under any Hedge Agreement shall be payable only on a Payment Date in accordance with Section 11.1 hereof. If a Hedge Counterparty is the sole "defaulting party" or sole "affected party" (as each such term is defined in the related Hedge Agreement), any such termination or similar payment shall be payable by the Issuer only on a subordinated basis in accordance with Section 11.1 hereof. A Hedge Agreement may provide that interest shall accrue on any such subordinated termination or similar payment not paid in full on any Payment Date because insufficient funds are available for such payment on such Payment Date in accordance with Section 11.1.

(e) In addition to the right of the Issuer to enter into additional Hedge Agreements after the Closing Date as set forth in clause (b) hereof, the Issuer may enter into one or more Hedge Agreements in substitution for any terminated Hedge Agreement on terms similar to those of the terminated Hedge Agreement. Any costs attributable to such substitute Hedge Agreement in excess of the termination amounts or similar proceeds received by the Issuer upon termination of the terminated Hedge Agreement shall constitute Aggregate Base Fees and Expenses payable in accordance with Section 11.1 hereof.

(f) Upon the failure of a Hedge Counterparty to pay to the Issuer when due any payment required to be made by such Hedge Counterparty under the related Hedge Agreement, the Issuer or Servicer on its behalf shall promptly make demand for such payment. If such payment is not received by the Business Day immediately following such demand, the Issuer shall provide telephonic notice (promptly confirmed in writing) of such failure to the Trustee and, if applicable, any guarantor of such Hedge Counterparty's obligations under the Hedge Agreement. Upon receipt of such notice (or earlier, if the Trustee has actual knowledge of the failure), the Trustee shall demand payment by such Hedge Counterparty (or guarantor, if applicable) by 12:30 p.m., New York time, on such day (or, if such demand is made after 11:30 a.m. on any day, by 12:30 p.m. on the next succeeding Business Day). The Trustee shall notify Noteholders if such Hedge Counterparty fails to make any required payment within two Business Days after demand by the Trustee therefor.

(g) Any action provided for in this section to be undertaken by the Issuer with respect to a Hedge Agreement (including, without limitation, entering into, terminating or amending a Hedge Agreement or delivering any notice, demand, request, authorization, consent, waiver or other communication under a Hedge Agreement) may be taken by the Servicer pursuant to the authority granted to the Servicer under the Servicing Agreement.

The Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee on the Closing Date cash in the amount of $6,213,244 which is equal to the Issuer's commitment to make or otherwise fund draws related to any Delayed Drawdown Loans or Revolving Loans in the Initial Portfolio Collateral and the Trustee shall have credited such cash to the Loan Funding Account.

Section 3.3. Initial Deposit Redemption.

(a) The Issuer shall use reasonable efforts to use on or prior to the Effective Date the available funds and Eligible Investments in the Initial Deposit Account (other than Account Income on funds on deposit in the Initial Deposit Account) to purchase additional Original Portfolio Collateral as permitted pursuant to Section 3.4 hereof taking into account the Initial Portfolio Collateral and Original Portfolio Collateral already purchased by the Issuer in the Trust Estate (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any of the Original Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date). If the remaining Deposit in the Initial Deposit Account as of the Effective Date equals or exceeds $2,000,000 and the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Original Portfolio Collateral (determined in accordance with the foregoing sentence) acquired or committed to be acquired by the Issuer is less than the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount (subject to the second paragraph of Section 3.4(a)), the Issuer shall cause an Initial Deposit Redemption to occur on the Initial Deposit Redemption Date by redeeming the Class A-1LA Notes in an aggregate amount equal to the excess of the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount over the par amount of Original Portfolio Collateral; provided that the amount applied to such Initial Deposit Redemption shall not exceed the remaining amount of the Deposit (the "Initial Deposit Redemption Amount"). No interest or other amount in excess of the Initial Deposit Redemption Amount, other than the Periodic Interest Amount with respect to the Class A-1LA Notes through the Initial Deposit Redemption Date due on the next succeeding Payment Date, shall be payable on or in respect of the Class A-1LA redeemed in an Initial Deposit Redemption. If there is a Deposit in the Initial Deposit Account on the Effective Date but no Initial Deposit Redemption is required pursuant to the terms of this Section 3.3(a), the remaining Deposit in the Initial Deposit Account shall be transferred to the Collection Account on the Effective Date and shall, subject to Section 3.4(d), constitute Collateral Principal Collections. Account Income in the Initial Deposit Account shall be transferred to the Collection Account on the Effective Date and shall constitute Collateral Interest Collections.

(b) If an Initial Deposit Redemption is required, the Issuer, not later than the third Business Day immediately following the Effective Date, shall notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency in writing that an Initial Deposit Redemption is required pursuant to Section 3.3(a) hereof and the amount of the Class A-1LA Notes required to be redeemed pursuant thereto.

(c) Notice of an Initial Deposit Redemption shall be given by the Trustee by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not less than ten calendar days prior to the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, to each Holder of the Class A-1LA Notes to be redeemed at the address for such Holder in the Note Register and so long as any Notes are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, to the Irish Paying Agent. All notices of Initial Deposit Redemption shall state the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, the Redemption Record Date with respect thereto, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes to be redeemed, and that no interest or other amount in excess of the Initial Deposit Redemption Amount shall be payable on the amount of the Class A-1LA Notes to be redeemed.

(d) If an Initial Deposit Redemption is required, all Eligible Investments in the Initial Deposit Account representing the Deposit not applied to the purchase of Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date shall be liquidated on the Business Day immediately preceding the Initial Deposit Redemption Date and the proceeds thereof shall be held in the Initial Deposit Account. On the Initial Deposit Redemption Date, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Initial Deposit Account all funds therein and apply such funds to the payment of Holders of the Notes in an amount equal to the Initial Deposit Redemption Amount or to a deposit in the Collection Account, as applicable.

Section 3.4. Purchase of Portfolio Collateral between the Closing Date and the Effective Date; Effective Date Conditions.

(a) The Issuer may (i) purchase Original Portfolio Collateral on any Business Day during the period from and including the Closing Date to and including the Effective Date or (ii) enter into a commitment to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral on any Business Day during the period from and including the Closing Date to and including the Effective Date for purchase on or as soon as practicable thereafter (provided that the agreed to settlement date shall not be more than thirty (30) days after the Effective Date), in each case, for inclusion in the Trust Estate in an aggregate amount equal to the Deposit in the Initial Deposit Account. Upon receipt of a Servicer Order requesting the purchase of Original Portfolio Collateral the Trustee shall pay out of the Initial Deposit Account, during the period commencing on the Closing Date and ending on the Effective Date, all or a portion of the funds available therein for the purpose of purchasing Original Portfolio Collateral.

No Original Portfolio Collateral may be purchased prior to the Effective Date unless immediately following the purchase of such item of Portfolio Collateral (as certified by Servicer Order), the remaining Deposit in the Initial Deposit Account, after giving effect to such purchase, is sufficient as of the date of determination to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral in an Aggregate Principal Amount at least equal to the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount for delivery into the Trust Estate (taking into account the Initial Portfolio Collateral and Original Portfolio Collateral already in the Trust Estate (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any of the Original Portfolio Collateral on or before the Effective Date)).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any other provision hereof, if the Issuer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase an item of Portfolio Collateral to be included in the Trust Estate, such commitment not to exceed thirty (30) days, and at the time of such commitment such an item of Portfolio Collateral complied with the definition of Portfolio Collateral and this Section 3.4(a), then the Issuer may consummate the purchase of such an item of Portfolio Collateral notwithstanding that such an item of Portfolio Collateral fails to comply with the definition of Portfolio Collateral and such criteria on the date of settlement.

(b) The Servicer shall cause to be delivered to the Trustee on the Effective Date an amended Schedule A to this Indenture listing all Original Portfolio Collateral (including the Initial Portfolio Collateral then in the Trust Estate) and all commitments to purchase Original Portfolio Collateral, which schedule shall supersede any prior Schedule A delivered to the Trustee.

(c) The Issuer will use its commercially reasonable efforts to purchase, or to enter into binding agreements to purchase, Original Portfolio Collateral by the Effective Date, that, including the Initial Portfolio Collateral, will satisfy, as of the Effective Date, the Collateral Quality Tests, the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 and the Overcollateralization Tests. Within 5 Business Days after the Effective Date, the Issuer or the Servicer (on behalf of the Issuer) shall request a Rating Confirmation on behalf of the Issuer and shall provide a report to the Rating Agencies identifying the Original Portfolio Collateral and the Issuer shall obtain and deliver to the Trustee and the Rating Agencies, together with the delivery of a report (and an electronic file of the Original Portfolio Collateral to S&P) substantially in the form of a Monthly Report as of the Effective Date, an Accountants' Certificate (a) confirming the maturity date, rating, spread, coupon and recovery rate for each item of Original Portfolio Collateral as of the Effective Date and the information provided by the Issuer with respect to every other asset included or to be included in the Trust Estate, by reference to such sources as shall be specified therein, (b) confirming that as of the Effective Date (1) each Overcollateralization Test is met; (2) the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Original Portfolio Collateral that the Issuer owned or committed to purchase as of the Effective Date is at least equal to the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount and (3) the Portfolio Collateral complies with all of the requirements of the Collateral Quality Tests and the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 and (c) specifying the procedures undertaken by them to review data and computations relating to the foregoing statements. If a Rating Confirmation Failure should occur, the Notes will be redeemed pursuant to Section 9.2 hereof.

(d) Notwithstanding any provision in this Indenture to the contrary, if, on the Effective Date, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Portfolio Collateral (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to the Original Portfolio Collateral on or prior to such time) exceeds the Required Portfolio Collateral Amount and there are funds remaining from the Deposit held in the Initial Deposit Account, the Servicer may direct the Trustee to transfer up to the least of (i) 25% of such funds and (iii) $1,000,000, to the Collection Account as additional Collateral Interest Collections; provided that the Overcollateralization Tests and the collateral criteria described herein are satisfied and the Interest Coverage Test for the most recent Payment Date was satisfied. The remainder of the Deposit shall be transferred by the Trustee to the Collection Account to be applied as Collateral Principal Collections on the Payment Date immediately following the date of determination.

Section 3.5. Intermediaries.

(a) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, to the extent any items of Portfolio Collateral issued by an issuer that is not the United States of America, an agency or instrumentality thereof, or some other U.S. Person (collectively, "Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities") are Granted to the Trustee, such Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities may be delivered to and held by the Trustee through one or more Foreign Sub-custodians or Foreign Clearance Systems (as those terms are defined in the Section below; collectively, "Foreign Intermediaries") if such Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities cannot be Delivered to the Trustee.

(b) The Trustee, for the purpose of receiving and holding any Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities that cannot be Delivered to the Trustee, may appoint one or more banking or securities institutions located outside the United States (each a "Foreign Sub-custodian") and/or clearing agencies or systems located outside the United States (each, a "Foreign Clearance System"), including without limitation Euroclear and Clearstream. With respect to Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities (and related cash) held through Foreign Intermediaries, such Foreign Intermediaries may be authorized to hold Non-U.S. Portfolio Securities in central securities depositories or clearing agencies in which such Foreign Intermediaries participate.

(c) The Trustee's responsibility with respect to the selection or appointment of Foreign Intermediaries shall be limited to a duty to exercise reasonable care in the selection or retention of such Foreign Intermediaries in light of prevailing settlement and securities handling practices, procedures and controls in the relevant market and subject to Section 6.3 hereof; provided that the appointment of Euroclear or Clearstream to act as Foreign Intermediary shall be deemed to have been made in the exercise of due care. With respect to any costs, expenses, damages, liabilities, or claims (including, without limitation, attorneys' and accountants' fees) incurred by the Issuer as a result of the acts or the failure to act by any Foreign Intermediaries, the Trustee shall take reasonable action to recover such costs, expenses, damages, liabilities, or claims from such Foreign Intermediaries; provided that the Trustee's sole liability in that regard shall be limited to amounts actually received by it from such Foreign Intermediaries (exclusive of related costs and expenses incurred by the Trustee). The Trustee shall not be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations under this Indenture arising out of or caused, directly or indirectly, by circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including without limitation, acts of God; earthquakes or fires; floods, wars, civil or military disturbances; sabotage; epidemics; riots; interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, computer (hardware or software) or communication service; accidents; labor disputes; acts of civil or military authority; governmental actions; or inability to obtain labor, material, equipment or transportation.

Certificate to the Trustee confirming such calculations; provided that subsection (b) hereof shall not apply if an election to act in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.5 hereof shall have been made and not rescinded (except that the deposit of cash that would otherwise apply in the case of such subsection (b) shall nevertheless be required); provided further that any Eligible Investments deposited hereunder shall at the date of such deposit be rated no lower than the highest rating assigned to any of the Notes or the Combination Notes then outstanding;

Section 5.2. Acceleration of Maturity; Rescission and Annulment.

(a) If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(c) or (d)) with respect to the Notes occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may, with the consent of the Requisite Noteholders, and shall, at the written direction of the Requisite Noteholders, declare the principal of the Notes to be immediately due and payable, by a notice in writing to the Issuer and the Servicer. If an Event of Default as specified in Section 5.1(c) or (d) occurs and is continuing, the principal of the Notes shall be and become immediately due and payable without the necessity of notice or any other action of any Person. If the Notes are declared to be immediately due and payable or if an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(c) or (d) hereof occurs, the Holders of each Class of Notes shall be entitled to receive, as applicable, and in the order of priority set forth in Section 11.1(d), the Cumulative Interest Amount and the Aggregate Principal Amount with respect thereto (in each case as calculated and accrued through the date of payment in full of the Aggregate Principal Amount of each Class of Notes), and the Servicer shall be entitled to receive the amounts payable to the Servicer under and in the order of priority set forth in Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d).

(b) At any time after such a declaration of acceleration of maturity has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee as provided in this Article, the Requisite Noteholders, by written notice to the Trustee and the Co-Issuers, may rescind and annul such declaration and its consequences if:

(i) the Issuer has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay:

(A) all overdue amounts payable on or in respect of the Notes (other than amounts due solely as a result of the acceleration);

(B) to the extent that payment of interest on such amount is lawful, interest on such overdue amounts at the Applicable Periodic Rate; and

(C) all unpaid Trustee Administrative Expenses, Preferred Shares Administrative Expenses, Issuer Base Administrative Expenses, Issuer Excess Administrative Expenses, and other sums paid or advanced by the Trustee and the Paying and Transfer Agent hereunder and under the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement and the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements

(ii) the Trustee has (A) received written evidence that the sum paid or deposited with the Trustee by the Issuer pursuant to clause (i) above is sufficient, and (B) determined that all Events of Default, other than the nonpayment of such amount that has become due solely by such acceleration, have been (1) cured, and the Requisite Noteholders by written notice to the Trustee have agreed with such determination (which agreement shall not unreasonably be withheld), or (2) waived as provided in Section 5.15 hereof.

Section 5.3. Proceedings.

If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and the Notes have been declared due and payable and such declaration and its consequences have not been rescinded and annulled, or at any time on or after the Final Maturity Date, the Trustee may in its discretion proceed to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Noteholders by such appropriate Proceedings, in its own name and as trustee of an express trust, as the Trustee shall deem most effective or as the Trustee may be directed in writing by the Requisite Noteholders to protect and enforce any such rights, whether for the specific enforcement of any covenant or agreement in this Indenture or in aid of the exercise of any power granted herein, or for collection of sums due and unpaid, or to enforce any other proper remedy or legal or equitable right vested in the Trustee by this Indenture or by law, but subject, however, to the terms of Section 5.4 hereof. The reasonable compensation, costs, expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or paid by the Trustee, and its agents and counsel, in connection with any such Proceeding, including, without limitation, the exercise of any remedies pursuant to Section 5.4 hereof, shall be reimbursed to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.7 hereof.

Section 5.4. Remedies.

(a) If the Notes have been declared due and payable and such declaration and its consequences have not been rescinded or annulled, or at any time on or after the Final Maturity Date, the Trustee may, after written notice to the Noteholders, and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent, and shall, upon written direction by the Requisite Noteholders, to the extent permitted by applicable law, do one or more of the following:

(i) institute Proceedings for the collection of all amounts then payable on the Notes or under this Indenture, whether by declaration or otherwise, enforce any judgment obtained, and collect from the Trust Estate securing the Notes monies adjudged due;

(ii) institute Proceedings for the complete or partial foreclosure of this Indenture with respect to the Trust Estate securing the Notes;

(iii) exercise any remedies of a secured party under the UCC including the sale or liquidation of the Trust Estate in accordance with Section 5.18 hereof and take any other appropriate action to protect and enforce the rights and remedies of the Trustee or the Holders of the Notes hereunder; or

(iv) exercise any other rights and remedies that may be available at law or in equity;

provided that the Trustee may not sell or liquidate the Trust Estate, or any portion thereof, or any rights or interest therein, unless (x) in the case of an acceleration resulting from an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.1(a) hereof, or a sale or liquidation of any portion of the Trust Estate at or greater than its par value (provided that Defaulted Portfolio Collateral may be liquidated without reference to, or inclusion in the calculation of, such limitation), the Requisite Noteholders have so directed the Trustee in writing to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate or any portion thereof (y) in the case of an acceleration resulting from an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.1(f) hereof, the Holders of more than 50% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Outstanding Senior Class A Notes (or, if the Senior Class A Overcollateralization Ratio is less than 85%, then 60% of the Controlling Class) have so directed the Trustee in writing to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate or any portion thereof or (z) in the case of any other Event of Default or resulting sale or liquidation, 100% of the Noteholders have so directed the Trustee in writing to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate or any portion thereof; provided further that no Default Swap, Synthetic Security or Hedge Agreement may be terminated so long as a declaration of acceleration may be rescinded or annulled pursuant to Section 5.2(b). The Trustee shall send written notice to each of the Noteholders, with a copy to the Rating Agencies and so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent, of any proposed sale or liquidation of the Trust Estate together with a brief description thereof and such written notice shall be accompanied by an Accountant's Certificate (i) confirming the information with respect to such sale or liquidation (to the extent such accountants shall be able and willing to confirm such information) and (ii) specifying the procedures, if any, undertaken by them to review the data and computations relating to such sale or liquidation. The cost of such Accountant's Certificate shall be reimbursed to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.7 hereof. If the applicable Noteholders direct any sale or liquidation of the Trust Estate, or any portion thereof, the Trustee shall sell or liquidate the Trust Estate, or portion, thereof, in accordance with Section 5.18 hereof at one or more public or private sales conducted in any manner permitted by law.

(b) If an Event of Default as described in Section 5.1(b) hereof has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee may, after written notice to the Noteholders, with a copy to the Rating Agencies and each Hedge Counterparty, and so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent, and shall, upon written direction of the Requisite Noteholders, institute a Proceeding to compel performance of the covenant or to cure the representation or warranty, the breach of which gave rise to the Event of Default under such Section and enforce any decree or order arising from such Proceeding.

(c) If an Event of Default described in Sections 5.1(a)(iii) or 5.1(a)(iv) hereof has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall, upon written direction of the Requisite Noteholders, terminate the services of the Servicer in accordance with the terms of the Servicing Agreement (subject to the term thereof regarding the appointment of a successor servicer). In the event that such a direct to terminated the Servicer is given, the Trustee shall not be under any duty to appoint or cause the appointment of a successor Servicer or to perform or undertake any duties of the terminated Servicer.

Section 5.5. Preservation of Trust Estate.

(a) If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or if the Final Maturity Date has occurred and subject to Section 5.4 hereof, the Trustee shall retain the Trust Estate securing the Notes intact, collect and cause the collection of the proceeds thereof and make and apply all payments and deposits and maintain all accounts in respect of the Notes in accordance with the provisions of Sections 10.1, 10.2(a), 10.2(b) and 11.1 hereof (unless and until the Notes have been declared due and payable and the applicable Noteholders have directed the Trustee pursuant to Section 5.4(a) hereof to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate or any portion thereof). If the Notes have been declared due and payable pursuant to Section 5.2 hereof or if the Final Maturity Date has occurred, any such retention pursuant to this Section 5.5(a) may be rescinded at any time by written notice to the Trustee and the Co-Issuers from the applicable Noteholders directing the Trustee to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate or any portion thereof, in accordance with Section 5.4(a).

(b) Nothing contained in Section 5.5(a) hereof shall be construed to require the Trustee to preserve the Trust Estate securing the Notes if prohibited by applicable law.

Section 5.6. Trustee May File Proofs of Claim.

In case there shall be pending Proceedings relative to the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law, or in case a receiver, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, liquidator, sequestrator or similar official shall have been appointed for or taken possession of the Issuer or its property or such other obligor or its property, or in case of any other comparable Proceedings relative to the Issuer or other obligor, or in case of any voluntary dissolution, liquidation or winding-up of the Issuer, regardless of whether the principal of any Notes shall then be due and payable as therein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and regardless of whether the Trustee shall have made any demand pursuant to the provisions of Section 5.3 hereof, the Trustee is hereby entitled and empowered to, and may and at the direction of the Requisite Noteholders, shall, by intervention in such Proceedings or otherwise:

(i) file one or more claims for the whole amount of principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Notes, and to file such other papers or documents and take such other actions, including participating as a member, voting or otherwise, of any committee of creditors, as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee (including any claim for reasonable compensation to the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee, and their respective agents, attorneys and counsel, and for reimbursement of all expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made by the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee or any Noteholder, except as a result of negligence or bad faith) and of the Noteholders allowed in such Proceedings;

(ii) unless prohibited by applicable law, upon direction of the Requisite Noteholders vote on behalf of the Holders of the Notes in any election of a trustee, a standby trustee, (or a person performing similar functions); and

(iii) collect and receive any monies or other property payable to or deliverable on any such claims, and distribute in accordance with Section 5.8 hereof all amounts received with respect to the claims of the Noteholders and the Trustee on their behalf; and any trustee, receiver, liquidator, custodian or other similar official is hereby authorized by each of the Noteholders to make payments to the Trustee, and, in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of payments directly to the Noteholders, to pay to the Trustee such amounts as shall be sufficient to cover reasonable compensation to the Trustee, each predecessor Trustee and their respective agents, attorneys and counsel, and all other expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made, by the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee or any Noteholder except as a result of negligence or bad faith.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or vote for or accept or adopt on behalf of any Noteholder any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or compromise affecting the Notes or the rights of any Holder thereof, or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Noteholder in any such Proceeding except, as provided in subparagraph (ii) above, to vote for the election of a trustee in bankruptcy (or person performing similar functions) or to participate as a member of any committee of creditors.

In any Proceedings brought by the Trustee (and also any Proceedings involving the interpretation of any provision of this Indenture to which the Trustee shall be a party) the Trustee shall be held to represent all the Holders of the Notes subject to the provisions of this Indenture, and it shall not be necessary to make any Holders of the Notes parties to any such Proceedings.

Section 5.7. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Notes.

All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or the Notes may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Notes or the production thereof in any Proceeding relating thereto, and any such Proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall be applied as set forth in Section 5.8 hereof.

Section 5.8. Application of Money Collected.

Any money collected by or on behalf of the Trustee with respect to the Notes pursuant to this Article V (including all collections from, and proceeds of the sale or liquidation of, the Trust Estate) shall be applied at the date or dates fixed by the Trustee and in the same order as specified in Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof.

Section 5.9. Limitation on Suits.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 5.10 hereof, no Holder of any Note shall have any right to institute any Proceedings, judicial or otherwise, with respect to this Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy hereunder, unless:

(a) such Holder has previously given written notice to the Trustee of a continuing Event of Default;

(b) the Requisite Noteholders shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute Proceedings in respect of such Event of Default in its own name as Trustee hereunder;

Section 5.10. Unconditional Rights of Noteholders to Receive Principal and Interest.

Notwithstanding any other provision in this Indenture, but subject to the provisions of Sections 2.7 and 11.1 hereof, (a) the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive an aggregate amount equal to the unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount, if any, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LA Notes and accrued and unpaid interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate, as any such amounts become due and payable, (b) the Holders of the Class A-1LB Notes shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive an aggregate amount equal to the unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount, if any, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-1LB Notes and accrued and unpaid interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate, as any such amounts become due and payable, (c) the Holders of the Class A-2L Notes shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive an aggregate amount equal to the unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount, if any, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-2L Notes and accrued and unpaid interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate, as any such amounts become due and payable, (d) the Holders of the Class A-3L Notes shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive an aggregate amount equal to the unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount, if any, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class A-3L Notes and accrued and unpaid interest thereon at the Applicable Periodic Rate, as any such amounts become due and payable, (e) the Holders of the Class B-1L Notes shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive an aggregate amount equal to the unpaid Periodic Rate Shortfall Amount, if any, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class B-1L Notes and accrued and Notwithstanding any other provision in this Section 5.10 or otherwise in this Indenture to the contrary, (i) Holders of the Class A-3L Notes shall have no right to institute Proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment until such time as no Senior Class A Notes remain Outstanding, (ii) Holders of the Class B-1L Notes shall have no right to institute Proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment until such time as no Class A Notes remain Outstanding, and (iii) Holders of the Class B-2L Notes shall have no right to institute Proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment until such time as no Class A Notes or Class B-1L Notes remain Outstanding, and, in each case, any such right to institute Proceedings shall be subject to the provisions of Section 5.9 hereof.

Section 5.11. Restoration of Rights and Remedies.

If the Trustee or any Noteholder has instituted any Proceeding to enforce any right or remedy under this Indenture and such Proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee or to such Noteholder, then and in every such case the Issuer, the Trustee and the Noteholder shall, subject to any determination in such Proceeding, be restored severally and respectively to their former positions hereunder, and thereafter all rights and remedies of the Trustee and the Noteholders shall continue as though no such Proceeding had been instituted.

Section 5.12. Rights and Remedies Cumulative.

No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or to the Holders of the Notes is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every right and remedy shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing by law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

Section 5.13. Delay or Omission Not Waiver.

No delay or omission of the Trustee or of any Holder of any Note to exercise any right or remedy occurring upon any Event of Default shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every right and remedy given by this Article V or by law to the Trustee or to the Noteholders may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by the Trustee or by the Noteholders, as the case may be.

Section 5.14. Control by Noteholders.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the Requisite Noteholders, on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes, shall have the right (a) to cause the institution of and direct the time, method and place of conducting any Proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or (b) subject to Section 6.3(e) hereof, to direct the Trustee with respect to its exercise of any right, remedy, trust or power conferred on the Trustee; provided that:

(i) such direction shall not be in conflict with any rule of law or with any express provision of this Indenture (including, without limitation, any provision hereof providing express personal protection to the Trustee or a limitation on the liability of the Co-Issuers as set forth in Section 2.7(i) hereof), and

(ii) the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee that is not inconsistent with such direction; provided that, subject to Section 6.1 hereof, the Trustee need not take any action that it reasonably determines might involve it in liability.

Section 5.15. Waiver of Past Defaults.

Prior to the time a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee, the Requisite Noteholders may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes waive any past Default and its consequences, with notice to the Rating Agencies, except a Default:

(a) in the payment of the principal of or interest on any Note, or

(b) in respect of a covenant or provision hereof that under Section 8.2 hereof cannot be modified or amended without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected.

In the case of any such waiver, the Issuer, the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder, respectively; but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any right consequent thereto. Upon such waiver, such Default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom shall be deemed to have been cured, for every purpose of this Indenture; but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

Section 5.16. Undertaking for Costs.

All parties to this Indenture agree, and each Holder of any Note by his acceptance thereof shall be deemed to have agreed, that any court may in its discretion require, in any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture, or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken, or omitted by it as Trustee, the filing by any party litigant in such suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of such suit, and that such court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in such suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by such party

litigant; but the provisions of this Section 5.16 shall not apply to any suit instituted by the Trustee, to any suit instituted by any Noteholder, or group of Noteholders, holding in the aggregate more than 10% in Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes, or to any suit instituted by any Noteholder for the enforcement of the payment of the principal of or interest on any Note on or after the Final Maturity Date expressed in such Note.

Section 5.17. Waiver of Stay or Execution Laws.

Each of the Co-Issuers covenants (to the extent that it may lawfully do so) that it will not at any time insist upon, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or execution law wherever enacted, including, but not limited to, filing a voluntary petition under the Bankruptcy Code now or at any time hereafter in force, which may affect the covenants or the performance of or the exercise of any remedies under this Indenture; and each of the Co-Issuers (to the extent that they may lawfully do so) hereby expressly waives all benefit or advantage of any such law, and covenants that it will not hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted to the Trustee or any Noteholder, but will suffer and permit the execution of every such power as though no such law had been enacted.

Section 5.18. Sale of Trust Estate.

(a) The power to effect any sale (a "Sale") of any portion of the Trust Estate pursuant to Section 5.4 and Section 5.5 hereof shall not be exhausted by any one or more Sales as to any portion of such Trust Estate remaining unsold, but shall continue unimpaired until the entire Trust Estate securing the Notes shall have been sold or all amounts payable on the Notes under this Indenture with respect thereto shall have been paid. The costs of any such sale of the Trust Estate shall be reimbursable to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.7 hereof. The Trustee may, upon notice to the Noteholders, and so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent, and shall, upon direction of the Requisite Noteholders, postpone any Sale by public announcement made at the time of and place of such Sale. The Trustee hereby expressly waives its right to any amount fixed by law as compensation for any Sale.

(b) The Trustee may bid for and acquire any portion of the Trust Estate in connection with a Sale thereof on an arm's length basis to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, and may pay all or part of the purchase price by crediting against amounts owing on the Notes or other amounts secured by this Indenture, all or part of the net proceeds of such Sale after deducting the reasonable costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Trustee in connection with such Sale notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.7 hereof. The Notes need not be produced in order to complete any such Sale, or in order for the net proceeds of such Sale to be credited against amounts owing on the Notes. The Trustee may hold, lease, operate, manage or otherwise deal with any property so acquired in any manner permitted by law in accordance with this Indenture.

(c) If any portion of the Trust Estate consists of securities issued without registration under the Securities Act ("Unregistered Securities"), the Trustee may seek an Opinion of Counsel, or, if no such Opinion of Counsel can be obtained and with the consent of the Requisite Noteholders, seek a no-action position from the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other relevant Federal or state regulatory authorities, regarding the legality of a public or private sale of such Unregistered Securities (the costs of which in each case, shall be reimbursable to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.7 hereof).

(d) The Trustee shall execute and deliver an appropriate instrument of conveyance transferring its interest in any portion of the Trust Estate in connection with a Sale thereof. In addition, the Trustee is hereby irrevocably appointed the agent and attorney-in-fact of the Issuer to transfer and convey its interest in any portion of the Trust Estate in connection with a Sale thereof and to take all action necessary to effect such Sale. No purchaser or transferee at such a Sale shall be bound to ascertain the Trustee's authority, inquire into the satisfaction of any conditions precedent or see to the application of any monies.

Section 5.19. Action on Notes.

The Trustee's right to seek and recover judgment on the Notes or under this Indenture shall not be affected by the seeking or obtaining of or application for any other relief under or with respect to this Indenture. Neither the lien of this Indenture nor any rights or remedies of the Trustee or the Noteholders hereunder shall be impaired by the recovery of any judgment by the Trustee.

ARTICLE VI

THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.1. Certain Duties and Responsibilities.

(a) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default known to the Trustee (other than a Trustee Payment-Related Event of Default):

(1) the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; and

(2) in the absence of bad faith on its part, the Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture; provided that in the case of any such certificates or opinions which by any provision hereof are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee, the Trustee shall be under a duty to examine the same to determine whether or not they conform on their face to the requirements of this Indenture and shall promptly notify the party delivering the same if such certificate or opinion does not so conform. If a corrected certificate or opinion shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 15 days after such notice from the Trustee, the Trustee shall so notify the Noteholders.

(4) no provision of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers (unless such financial liabilities or exercise of any of its rights and powers relate to the performance of its ordinary services under this Indenture), if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it (provided that the unsecured agreement of any Noteholder that is an Institutional Investor organized under the laws of the United States or any State in the United States shall constitute adequate assurance with respect to repayment and indemnity; provided that the aggregate net worth of the Institutional Investors providing such unsecured agreements shall be not less than $200,000,000); and

(5) the Trustee shall not be liable to the Noteholders for any action taken or omitted by it at the direction of the Issuer, the Servicer and/or the Holders of the Notes under circumstances in which such direction is required or permitted by the terms of this Indenture.

(d) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 6.1 and Section 6.3 hereof.

(e) The Trustee, promptly after receipt by a Responsible Officer, shall transmit by first class mail all Holders of Notes, as their names and addresses appear on the Note Register, all written communications that are required hereunder to be delivered to the Trustee and are received from or on behalf of the Issuer or the Servicer (excluding in the case of the Holders (i) information provided by the Trustee to the Issuer pursuant to Section 10.4 hereof, (ii) so long as no Event of Default (other than a Trustee Payment-Related Event of Default) has occurred and is continuing, Servicer Orders received by the Trustee pursuant to Sections 10.2, 11.3 and 12.4 hereof, and (iii) Monthly Reports received pursuant to Section 10.5(a) hereof, unless, in any such case, requested by any Holder) and any notification or other communication received from any of the Rating Agencies stating that the rating of any Class of Notes has been, or will be, changed or withdrawn.

(e) the Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Noteholders pursuant to this Indenture unless such Noteholders shall have offered to the Trustee security reasonably satisfactory to it or indemnity against all costs, expenses and liabilities which might reasonably be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction (an unsecured indemnity agreement of an Institutional Investor organized under the laws of the United States or any state in the United States shall be deemed sufficient; provided that the aggregate net worth of the Institutional Investors providing such unsecured agreements shall not be less than $200,000,000);

Section 6.4. Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Notes or the Combination Notes.

The recitals contained herein and in the Notes or the Combination Notes, other than the certificate of authentication thereon, shall be taken as the statements of the Issuer, and the Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Trustee makes no representation as to the validity or sufficiency of this Indenture, of the Trust Estate, or of the Notes and the Combination Notes. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application by the Issuer of the Notes, the Combination Notes or the Preferred Shares or the proceeds thereof.

Section 6.6. Money Held in Trust.

Money held by the Trustee in trust hereunder need not be segregated from other funds held by the Trustee in trust hereunder except to the extent required herein or required by law. The Trustee shall be under no liability for interest on any money received by it hereunder except as otherwise agreed upon with the Issuer and except to the extent of income or other gain on Eligible Investments which are deposits in, certificates of deposit of, or obligations of the Trustee in its commercial capacity and income or other gain actually received by the Trustee on Eligible Investments. (e) to pay the Trustee (in accordance with the priority of payment provisions set forth in Section 11.1 hereof) reasonable additional compensation together with its expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) for any collection action taken pursuant to Section 6.12 hereof.

Section 6.8. Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility.

(a) There shall at all times be a Trustee hereunder which shall be a bank organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or of any State, authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers, having a combined capital and surplus of at least $200,000,000, having a long-term unsecured debt rating of "BBB" or better by Standard & Poor's and "Baa1" or better by Moody's, and subject to supervision or examination by Federal or state authority. If such corporation publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section 6.8, the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of condition so published. In addition, the Trustee shall not be "affiliated" (as that term is defined in Rule 405 of the Securities Act) with the Co-Issuers or with any person involved in the organization or operation of the Co-Issuers and shall not offer or provide credit or credit enhancement to the Co-Issuers (as provided per Rule 3a-7). The Trustee shall be deemed to be in compliance with the preceding sentence so long as it is not affiliated (within the meaning of the preceding sentence) with (i) the Issuer or the Administrator, or (ii) the Co-Issuer or Puglisi & Associates, in each case based upon the Trustee's records and actual knowledge, unless otherwise expressly notified in writing by the Issuer, Co-Issuer or Servicer, such notice to include the identity of any other Person or Persons with whom the Trustee must not be affiliated for such purpose. If at any time the Trustee has received such notice, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect hereinafter specified in this Article VI.

(b) In addition to the requirements set forth in Section 6.8(a) hereof, any successor Trustee appointed pursuant to Section 6.9(c) hereof shall (i) have total assets of at least $10,000,000,000, (ii) have a long-term unsecured debt rating of "A" or better by Standard & Poor's and "A2" or better by Moody's and (iii) be regularly engaged in providing trustee services to issuers of collateralized loan obligations. The Trustee appointed on the Closing Date shall not be required to satisfy the requirements set forth in this Section 9.8(b).

Section 6.9. Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article VI shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee under Section 6.10 hereof. The indemnifications in favor of the Trustee in Section 6.7 hereof shall survive any resignation or removal (to the extent of any indemnified liabilities, costs, expenses and other amounts arising or incurred prior to, or arising out of actions or omissions occurring prior to, such resignation or removal).

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Issuer, the Rating Agencies, the Noteholders and the Servicer, each Hedge Counterparty and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent. Upon receiving such notice of resignation, the Issuer shall at the direction of its board of directors (with the written consent of the Servicer, not to be unreasonably withheld) promptly appoint a successor trustee or trustees by written instrument, in duplicate, executed by an Authorized Officer of the Issuer on behalf of the Issuer, one original copy of which shall be delivered to the Trustee so resigning and one original copy to the successor trustee or trustees, together with a copy to each Noteholder. If no successor trustee shall have been appointed and an instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 30 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee, or any Holder of a Note, may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(c) Subject to Section 6.9(a) hereof, the Trustee may be removed at any time by the Issuer, at the direction of its board of directors, and shall be removed by the Issuer if at any time the Holders of more than 50% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Controlling Class have determined that the Trustee has been delinquent in the performance of its obligations under this Indenture and have notified the Issuer in advance of such determination. In addition, subject to Section 6.9(a) hereof, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Trustee may be removed by the Holders of more than 50% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Controlling Class.

(d) The Issuer, at the direction of its board of directors, by Issuer Order, may also remove the Trustee and/or petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee, if at any time:

(i) the Trustee shall cease to be eligible under Section 6.8 hereof and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by the Issuer or by the Requisite Noteholders, or

(ii) the Trustee shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver or liquidator of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation.

(e) If the Trustee shall resign, be removed or become incapable of acting, or if a vacancy shall occur in the office of the Trustee for any cause, the Issuer, at the direction of its board of directors, by Issuer Order, shall (with the written consent of the Servicer, not to be unreasonably withheld) promptly appoint a successor Trustee. If no successor Trustee shall have been so appointed by the Issuer and shall have accepted appointment in the manner hereinabove provided, any Noteholder may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Issuer shall give prompt notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee by giving facsimile notice of such event, confirmed by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to each Rating Agency, Bear Stearns, the Servicer and to the Holders of the Notes as their names and addresses appear in the Note Register. Each notice shall include the name of the successor Trustee and the address of its Corporate Trust Office.

Section 6.10. Acceptance of Appointment by Successor.

Every successor Trustee appointed hereunder shall be required to meet the eligibility requirements set forth in Section 6.8 hereof and shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Issuer and the retiring Trustee an instrument accepting such appointment, and thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective and such successor Trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all the rights, powers, trusts, duties and obligations of the retiring Trustee; but, on request of the Issuer, the successor Trustee or the Requisite Noteholders, such retiring Trustee shall, upon payment of its fees, expenses and indemnities then unpaid, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Trustee all the rights, powers and trusts of the retiring Trustee. The retiring Trustee shall promptly assign, transfer and deliver to such successor Trustee all property and money held by such retiring Trustee hereunder (subject to payment of amounts owing to it hereunder). Upon request of any such successor Trustee, the Issuer shall execute any and all instruments for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to such successor Trustee all such rights, powers and trusts.

No appointment of a successor Trustee shall become effective until the date ten days after notice of such appointment has been given to each Noteholder, and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent.

Section 6.11. Merger, Conversion, Consolidation or Succession to Business of Trustee.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee hereunder; provided such corporation shall be otherwise qualified and eligible under this Article, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto. In case any Notes or Combination Notes have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor by merger, conversion or consolidation to such authenticating Trustee may adopt such authentication and deliver the Notes or Combination Notes so authenticated with the same effect as if such successor Trustee had itself authenticated such Notes or Combination Notes.

Section 6.12. Certain Duties of Trustee Related to Delayed Payment of Proceeds.

If in any month the Trustee shall not have received a payment with respect to any Pledged Security on its Due Date, (a) the Trustee shall promptly notify the Issuer and the Servicer in writing and, (b) unless within three Business Days after such notice such payment shall have been received by the Trustee, or the Issuer shall have made provision for such payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with Section 10.2(a) hereof, the Trustee shall request the issuer of such Pledged Security, the trustee under the related Underlying Instrument or paying agent designated by either of them, as the case may be, to make such payment as soon as practicable after such request but in no event later than three Business Days after the date of such request. If such payment is not made within such time period, the Trustee shall take such action as the Servicer shall direct in writing; provided that any expenses incurred or to be incurred in taking any such action shall be deemed not to relate to the performance of "ordinary services" under clause (4) of Section 6.1(c) hereof. Any such action shall be without prejudice to any right to claim a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture. In the event that the Issuer or the Servicer requests a release of a Pledged Security and/or delivers Substitute Portfolio Collateral in connection with any such action under the Servicing Agreement, such release and/or substitution shall be subject to Section 10.3 hereof and Article XII of this Indenture as the case may be. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof the Trustee shall deliver to the Issuer or its designee any payment with respect to any Pledged Security received after the Due Date thereof to the extent the Issuer previously made provisions for such payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with this Section 6.12 and such payment shall not be deemed part of the Trust Estate.

Section 6.13. Non-Petition.

None of the Trustee, the Secured Parties, the Noteholders, the beneficial owners of the Notes, or the Paying and Transfer Agent, shall cause or join in the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer for any reason, including for the nonpayment to any such party of any amounts due hereunder or under the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement or under the Notes, as applicable, until the expiration of the period which is one year and one day (or such longer preference period as may be in effect) after the final payment on the Notes; provided, however, nothing herein shall be deemed to prohibit the Trustee from filing proofs of claim for itself and on behalf of the Noteholders.

Section 6.14. Withholding.

(a) If any withholding tax is imposed on the Co-Issuers' payment (or allocations of income) to any Noteholder, such tax shall reduce the amount otherwise distributable to such Noteholder. The Trustee is hereby authorized and directed to retain from amounts otherwise distributable to any Noteholder sufficient funds for the payment of any tax that is legally owed by the Trust Estate or the Co-Issuers (as directed to it in writing by the Co-Issuers) (but such authorization shall not prevent the Trustee from contesting any such tax in appropriate Proceedings and withholding payment of such tax, if permitted by law, pending the outcome of such Proceedings), or that the Trustee may otherwise determine it is obligated to withhold under applicable law or regulation. The amount of any withholding tax imposed with respect to any Noteholder shall be treated as cash distributed to such Noteholder at the time it is withheld by the Trustee and remitted to the appropriate taxing authority. If there is a possibility that withholding tax is payable with respect to a distribution, the Trustee may in its sole discretion withhold such amounts in accordance with this Section 6.14 (a). If any Noteholder wishes to apply for a refund of any such withholding tax, the Trustee shall reasonably cooperate with such Noteholder in making such claim so long as such Noteholder agrees to reimburse the Trustee for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred. Nothing in this Section 6.14 shall be construed to impose upon the Trustee any obligation or duty to determine the tax liability or responsibilities of the Co-Issuers or the Trust Estate other than the duties required under applicable law, or otherwise to perform any related tax administration or return preparation or filing responsibilities, or to impose upon the Trustee any duty or obligation to commence Proceedings to contest any tax.

(b) Each Holder shall timely furnish the Issuer or its agents any U.S. federal income tax form or certification (such as Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") Form W-8BEN (Certification of Foreign Status), Form W-8IMY (Certification of Foreign Intermediary Status), Form W-9 (Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification) or Form W-8ECI (Certification of Foreign Person's Claim for Exemption from Withholding on Income Effectively Connected with Conduct of a U.S. Trade or Business) or any successors to such IRS forms) that the Issuer or its agents may reasonably request and shall update or replace such form or certification in accordance with its terms or its subsequent amendments.

Section 6.15. The Securities Intermediary.

(a) There shall at all times be a securities intermediary appointed for purposes of this Indenture (the "Securities Intermediary"). Investors Bank & Trust Company is hereby appointed as the initial Securities Intermediary hereunder and accepts such appointment.

(b) The Securities Intermediary represents, warrants, and covenants, and the parties hereto agree, that at all times prior to the termination of this Indenture:

(i) The Securities Intermediary shall be a corporation or national bank that in the ordinary course of its business maintains securities accounts for others and is acting in that capacity hereunder.

(ii) Each Account shall be an account to which financial assets may be credited and the Securities Intermediary shall treat the Trustee as entitled to exercise the rights that comprise such financial assets. The Securities Intermediary shall not change the name or the account number of any Account without the prior written consent of the Trustee.

(iii) Each item of property credited to each Account shall be treated as a financial asset.

(iv) The Securities Intermediary shall comply with entitlement orders originated by the Trustee without further consent by the Issuer or any other person or entity.

(v) The Securities Intermediary shall not agree with any person or entity other than the Trustee that it will comply with entitlement orders originated by any person or entity other than the Trustee.

(vi) The Securities Intermediary shall not be a party to any agreement that is inconsistent with the provisions of this Indenture. The Securities Intermediary shall not take any action inconsistent with the provisions of this Indenture applicable to it.

(vii) Each item of property credited to each Account shall not be subject to any security interest, lien, claim, encumbrance, or right of setoff in favor of the Securities Intermediary or anyone claiming through the Securities Intermediary (other than the Trustee); provided, however, that the Securities Intermediary may set-off the face amount of any checks or other deposit items which have been credited to an Account but are subsequently returned unpaid because of uncollected or insufficient funds.

(viii) For purposes of Article 8 of the UCC, the securities intermediary's jurisdiction of the Securities Intermediary with respect to the Collateral shall be the State of New York.

(c) It is the intent of the Trustee, the Issuer, and the Co-Issuer that each Account shall be a securities account of the Trustee and not an account of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer.

(d) Nothing herein shall imply or impose upon the Securities Intermediary any duties or obligations other than those expressly set forth herein and those applicable to a securities intermediary under the UCC. The Securities Intermediary shall be entitled to all of the protections available to a securities intermediary under the UCC. Without limiting the foregoing, nothing herein shall imply or impose upon the Securities Intermediary any duties of a fiduciary nature (such as, without limitation, the fiduciary duties of the Trustee hereunder).

(e) The Securities Intermediary (i) shall satisfy the requirements of Section 6.8, and (ii) shall not be an Affiliate of the Issuer.

(f) The Securities Intermediary may at any time resign by written notice to the Trustee and may at any time be removed by written notice from the Trustee. The Trustee shall appoint a successor Securities Intermediary that satisfies the provisions of Section 6.15(e). The Trustee shall cause (i) each Account to be established and maintained with such successor Securities Intermediary in accordance with the terms hereof, and (ii) the successor Securities Intermediary to execute and deliver to the parties hereto a written agreement in which it agrees to be the Securities Intermediary hereunder and to be bound by the provisions of this Indenture applicable to the Securities Intermediary. The duties and obligations of the retiring Securities

Intermediary hereunder shall remain in effect until each Account and all of the Collateral credited thereto have been transferred to the successor Securities Intermediary.

(g) Any corporation into which the Securities Intermediary may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, consolidation or conversion to which the Securities Intermediary shall be a party, shall be the successor of the Securities Intermediary hereunder, without the execution or filing of any further document on the part of the parties hereto or such successor corporation.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 6.15, each item of the Trust Estate that constitutes a general intangible (including any loan, or any participation or assignment therein, that constitutes a general intangible) shall be Delivered to the Trustee as provided in clause (g) of the Definition of "Delivery" and shall not be credited to any Account.

Section 6.16. Eligible Investments.

Eligible Investments acquired with available funds in an Account shall be credited by the Trustee to such Account.

Section 6.17. Fiduciary For Noteholders; Agent for the Other Secured Parties.

The Trustee shall not by reason of this Indenture be deemed to be acting as a fiduciary for the Secured Parties other than the Noteholders; provided that the foregoing shall not limit any of the express obligations of the Trustee under this Indenture.

ARTICLE VII

COVENANTS

Section 7.1. Payment of Principal and Interest.

The Co-Issuers (as applicable) will duly and punctually pay the principal of, interest on and all other amounts payable on or in respect of the Notes and the Combination Notes in accordance with the terms of the Notes, the Combination Notes and this Indenture.

Section 7.2. Maintenance of Office or Agency.

The Issuer will maintain an office or agency in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York, the State of New York, where Notes may be presented or surrendered for payment. The Issuer hereby initially appoints the office of Investors Bank & Trust Company (the "New York Presenting Agent"), currently located at 33 Maiden Lane, 4th Floor, New York, NY 10038, Attention: CDO Services (Rockwall CDO II Ltd.), as such office or agency. The Trustee shall give prompt written notice to the Co-Issuers and the Noteholders of any change in the location of the New York Presenting Agent. Each New York Presenting Agent other than Investors Bank & Trust Company shall be a bank or trust company having a capital and surplus of not less than $100,000,000 and be registered as a transfer agent with the Securities and Exchange Commission. If the location of the New York Presenting Agent changes and such notice is not given or the Issuer fails to maintain any such office or agency, presentations and surrenders of the Notes may be made or served at the Corporate Trust Office.

Section 7.3. Money for Note Payments to Be Held in Trust.

All payments of amounts due and payable with respect to any Notes that are to be made from amounts withdrawn from the Collection Account shall be made on behalf of the Issuer by the Trustee.

Section 7.4. Existence of Co-Issuers; Corporate Formalities.

(a) Each of the Co-Issuers will, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, maintain in full force and effect its existence, rights and franchises as a company or corporation incorporated or organized under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organization, as the case may be, and will obtain and preserve its qualification to do business as a foreign corporation in each jurisdiction in which such qualification is or shall be necessary to protect the validity and enforceability of this Indenture, the Notes, the Combination Notes or any of the Pledged Securities or other property included in the Trust Estate. Each of the Co-Issuers shall comply with its charter documents and shall not amend its charter documents without the consent of the Requisite Noteholders if such amendment would have a material adverse effect on the rights of the Noteholders and, for so long as any Notes are then rated, shall notify the Rating Agencies of any amendment and shall not amend its charter document in any material way without satisfaction of the Rating Condition.

(b) The Issuer shall ensure that all corporate or other formalities regarding its existence (including, to the extent required, holding, to the extent required, regular meetings of the board of directors and shareholders) are followed. The Issuer shall not take any action, or conduct its affairs in a manner, that is likely to result in its separate existence being ignored or its assets and liabilities being substantively consolidated with any other Person in a bankruptcy, reorganization or other insolvency proceeding. Without limiting the foregoing, (i) the Issuer shall not have any subsidiaries except the Co-Issuer and except as provided in Section 7.4(c), and (ii) the Issuer shall not (A) have any employees (other than its directors), (B) engage in any transaction with any shareholder that would constitute a conflict of interest, provided, however, that the entry into the Administration Agreement and the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement with Maples Finance Limited shall not be deemed a conflict of interest or (C) pay dividends other than in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, its organizational documents, and with regard to its Preferred Shares, in accordance with the terms of the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement.

(c) In addition to the Co-Issuer, the Issuer may have as a subsidiary any entity that (x) meets the then-current general criteria of the Rating Agencies for bankruptcy remote entities, (y) is formed for the sole purpose of holding (1) stock of one or more corporations or other assets that are or may be treated as United States real property interests for purposes of Section 897 of the Code acquired or expected to be acquired in connection with a workout of an Asset (an "897 Subsidiary") or (2) equity interests in "partnerships" (within the meaning Section 7701(a)(2) of the Code), "grantor trusts" (within the meaning of the Code) or entities that are disregarded as separate from their owners for United States federal income tax purposes that are or may be engaged or deemed to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States, in each case acquired or expected to be acquired in connection with a workout of an Asset (an "ETB Subsidiary") and (z) is a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes; provided that any 897 Subsidiary and ETB Subsidiary (i) will be wholly-owned by the Issuer, (ii) will not sell, transfer, exchange or otherwise dispose of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecate or otherwise encumber (or permit such to occur), any part of its assets, except in compliance with the Issuer's rights and obligations under this Indenture and with such subsidiary's constituent documents, (iii) will not have any subsidiaries, (iv) will not have any employees (other than directors to the extent they are employees) and will not conduct business under any name other than its own, (v) will not incur or guarantee any indebtedness, (vi) will include in its constituent documents a limitation on its business such that it may only engage in the acquisition of assets permitted under this Indenture and the disposition of such assets and the proceeds thereof to the Issuer (and activities ancillary thereto) and (vii) will distribute 100% of the proceeds of the assets acquired by it (net of applicable taxes and expenses payable by such subsidiary) to the Issuer.

Section 7.5. Protection of Trust Estate.

(a) The Issuer shall authorize, execute, deliver and file all such supplements and amendments hereto and all such financing statements, amendments of financing statements, continuation statements, instruments of further assurance and other instruments and shall take such other action as may be necessary or advisable to:

- (i) Grant more effectively all or any portion of the Trust Estate;
- (ii) maintain or preserve the lien of this Indenture or the priority thereof, or to carry out more effectively the purposes hereof;
- (iii) perfect, publish notice of, or protect the validity of any Grant made or to be made by this Indenture;
- (iv) enforce any of the Pledged Securities or other instruments or property included in the Trust Estate;
- (v) preserve and defend title to the Trust Estate and the rights therein of the Secured Parties against the claims of all other Persons; and
- (vi) pay any and all taxes levied or assessed upon all or any part of the Trust Estate.

The Issuer hereby authorizes the filing of financing statements (and amendments of financing statements and continuation statements) that name the Issuer as debtor and the Trustee as secured party and that cover all personal property of the Issuer. The Issuer also hereby ratifies its authorization of the filing of any such financing statements (or amendments of financing statements or continuation statements) that were filed prior to the execution hereof. The Issuer hereby designates the Trustee its agent and attorney-in-fact to take any action or authorize or execute any financing statement, amendment of financing statement, continuation statement or other instrument required pursuant to this Section 7.5; provided that such appointment shall not impose upon the Trustee any of the Issuer's obligations under this Section 7.5.

Provided that the Trustee (on or before, promptly after, the Closing Date) has been provided with a complete and accurate copy of each such financial statement (which copy is stamped to reflect, or is accompanied by, the applicable filing information, including filing number, original date of filing and filing office), the Trustee shall give written notice to the Issuer and the Servicer of the pending expiration of the financing statement filed in connection with the closing of the transaction contemplated herein and any continuation statement relating thereto, no earlier than six months prior to the scheduled expiration date of such financing statement or continuation statement, as applicable, and no later than two months prior to such scheduled expiration date.

(b) The Trustee shall not, except in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture, release any portion of the Trust Estate from the security interest and lien hereunder or remove any portion of the Trust Estate from the jurisdictions indicated in Section 10.3(a) hereof; provided that the Trustee shall be entitled to remove the Trust Estate or any portion thereof to a jurisdiction other than the applicable jurisdiction or jurisdictions indicated in Section 10.3(a) hereof if the Trustee shall have first obtained an Opinion of Counsel, at its own expense, to the effect that the lien and security interest created by this Indenture with respect to such property, including the perfection and priority thereof, will continue to be maintained after giving effect to such action, and provided further that the Trustee shall thereafter (for so long as such property continues to be so located in such other jurisdiction) obtain at its own expense an annual Opinion of Counsel, on or before the date specified in Section 7.6(a) hereof, confirming the matters required by such Section to the extent governed by the law of such other jurisdiction.

(c) The Issuer shall pay or cause to be paid taxes, if any, levied on account of the beneficial ownership by the Issuer of any Pledged Securities.

(d) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants that its registered office is, and always has been, in the Cayman Islands; it has never had any offices in the United States of America, and the only offices of any type it has ever had have been in the Cayman Islands.

Section 7.6. Opinions and Tax Matters

(a) On or before June 30 in each calendar year, commencing in 2008, the Issuer shall cause to be delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel (and the Trustee shall deliver copies of such to the Servicer and the Rating Agencies (other than S&P)), stating that, in the opinion of such counsel, as of the date of such opinion, the Indenture creates in favor of the Trustee a security interest in the Trust Estate and that such security interest is perfected.

(b) If required to prevent the withholding and imposition of United States income tax, the Issuer shall deliver or cause to be delivered (as applicable) a United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN, or any successor form thereto, to each issuer of any Portfolio Collateral, each issuer of an Eligible Investment and each Synthetic Security Counterparty at the time such Portfolio Collateral or Eligible Investment is purchased by the Issuer or the Synthetic Security is entered into by the Issuer and periodically thereafter (prior to the expiration of the Form previously provided).

(c) The Issuer will take all actions necessary in order to permit any holder of a Preferred Share or any Holder of a Note that is or may reasonably be characterized as an equity interest in the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes, upon request therefor, to make a "qualified electing fund" election for United States federal income tax purposes and to satisfy the ongoing requirements with respect to such an election. Further, the Issuer will provide, upon the reasonable request of any holder of a Preferred Share or any such Holder of a Note that is or may reasonably be characterized as an equity interest in the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes, any information the Issuer has available to it that assists such holders with regard to filing requirements such holders may have as a result of the controlled foreign corporation rules under the Code or pursuant to Section 6038, 6038B or 6046 of the Code.

(d) The Issuer will not take the position that it is engaged in a United States trade or business for federal income tax purposes.

(e) By its acceptance of a Note, each Holder and beneficial owner of a Note shall be deemed to have agreed (1) to provide the Issuer, upon request, with such information as may reasonably be requested by the Issuer (including but not limited to information relating to the beneficial owner of the Note) in connection with the Issuer's fulfillment of its tax reporting, notification, withholding and similar obligations arising under the Code (as amended from time to time) or the Transaction Documents; and (2) to treat the Issuer as not being engaged in the active conduct of a banking, financing, insurance or other similar business for purposes of 954(h)(2) of the Code

(f) By its acceptance of a Note, each Holder and beneficial owner of a Note that is not a United States person (as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) will be deemed to have represented that (x) it is not a bank within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code or an affiliate of a bank or, alternatively, it is such a bank or an affiliate of a bank but it is eligible for benefits under an income tax treaty with the United States that eliminates U.S. federal income taxation of U.S. source interest not attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States and (y) it is not purchasing the Note in order to reduce its U.S. Federal income tax liability or pursuant to a tax avoidance plan within the meaning of Treas. Reg. 1.881-3(b).

(g) Each of the Issuers and each Holder of a Note agrees that it does not intend for this Indenture to represent an agreement to enter into a partnership, a joint venture or any other business entity for United States federal income tax purposes, and none of such parties shall represent or otherwise hold themselves out to the IRS or other third parties as partners in a partnership or members of a joint venture or other business entity for United States federal income tax purposes. The Issuer will not elect for the Issuer to be treated as a partnership or disregarded entity for United States federal income tax purposes.

Section 7.7. Performance of Obligations.

(a) The Co-Issuers shall not take any action, and, where applicable, will not consent to any action proposed to be taken by others, that would release any Person from any of such Person's covenants or obligations under any instrument included in the Trust Estate, except in the case of enforcement action taken with respect to any Defaulted Portfolio Collateral in accordance with the provisions hereof and as otherwise required hereby.

(b) The Co-Issuers may contract with other Persons, including Investors Bank & Trust Company, and the Servicer, for the performance by such Persons of the Issuer's obligations hereunder and under the Servicing Agreement. Notwithstanding any such arrangement, the Issuer shall remain primarily liable with respect thereto. With respect to any such contract, the performance of such obligations by such Persons shall be deemed to be performance of such obligations by the Issuer.

Section 7.8. Negative Covenants.

(a) The Issuer will not:

(1) sell, transfer, exchange or otherwise dispose of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecate or otherwise encumber (or permit such to occur or suffer such to exist), any part of the Trust Estate, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture and the Servicing Agreement;

(2) claim any credit on, or make any deduction from, the amount payable with respect to the Notes other than amounts withheld pursuant to Section 6.14 hereof, or assert any claim against any present or future Noteholder, by reason of the payment of any taxes levied or assessed upon any part of the Trust Estate;

(3) incur or assume any indebtedness other than pursuant to this Indenture or the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, or incur, assume or guaranty the indebtedness of any Person, issue any additional class of securities or issue any additional shares, shares of stock or membership interests;

(4) (A) permit the validity or effectiveness of this Indenture or any Grant hereunder to be impaired, or permit the lien of this Indenture to be amended, hypothecated, subordinated, terminated or discharged, or permit any Person to be released from any covenants or obligations with respect to this Indenture or the Notes, except, in each case, as may be expressly permitted hereby, thereby, or by the Servicing Agreement, (B) permit any lien, charge, adverse claim, security interest, mortgage or other encumbrance (other than the lien of this Indenture) to be created on or extend to or otherwise arise upon or burden the Trust Estate or any part thereof, any interest therein or the proceeds thereof except as may be expressly permitted hereby, or (C) take any action that would permit the lien of this Indenture not to constitute a valid first priority perfected security interest in the Trust Estate except as may be expressly permitted hereby;

(5) act as agent, negotiator or structurer with respect to any Portfolio Collateral, act as a participant in negotiating the terms of a primary loan agreement, except to the extent provided in the Servicing Agreement, enter into a binding commitment to purchase any Portfolio Collateral prior to the issuance of such Portfolio Collateral or engage in any transaction or activity that would cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States within the meaning of section 864 of the Code;

(6) change its name, its type or jurisdiction of organization, or its organizational identification number, unless it has first (i) made all filings and taken all actions in all relevant jurisdictions under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code and other applicable law as are necessary to continue and maintain the priority and perfection of the security interest of the Trustee in the Trust Estate, and (ii) delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that all necessary filings have been made under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code in all relevant jurisdictions as are necessary to continue and maintain the perfection of the security interest of the Trustee in the Trust Estate;

(7) enter into any agreements or amendments thereto unless such agreements and any amendments thereto contain "non-petition" and "limited recourse" provisions, except with respect to any agreements involving the purchase and sale of Portfolio Collateral having customary purchase or sale terms and documented with customary trading documentation;

(8) enter into any agreements or amendments to the Transaction Documents with respect to the "non-petition" or "limited recourse" provisions without satisfying the Rating Condition; or

(9) commingle any of the Collateral with the assets of any other Person, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture and the Servicing Agreement.

(b) The Co-Issuer will not enter into any agreement, contract or indenture other than this Indenture and shall not incur or assume any indebtedness other than pursuant to or as may be expressly permitted by this Indenture, or incur, assume or guaranty the indebtedness of any Person.

(c) The Trustee shall not sell, transfer, exchange or otherwise dispose of, or enter into or engage in any business with respect to, any part of the Trust Estate, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture or the Servicing Agreement.

(d) Neither of the Co-Issuers shall to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law (i) commence any case, proceeding or other action under any existing or future law of any jurisdiction, domestic or foreign, relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or relief of debtors, seeking to have any order for relief entered with respect to it, or seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, winding-up, liquidation, dissolution, composition or other relief with respect to it or its debts, or (ii) seek appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian or other similar official for it or for all or any substantial part of its assets, or make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors; neither of the Co-Issuers shall take any action in furtherance of, or indicating its consent to, approval of, or acquiescence in, any of the acts set forth above; and each of the Co-Issuers shall generally pay debts as they become due and not admit in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due.

(e) Except as permitted by Section 8.2 hereof, the Issuer shall not waive nor permit the amendment of Section 19 or Section 20 of the Servicing Agreement or Section 20 of the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement.

Section 7.9. Statement as to Compliance.

On or before July 31 following each calendar year, beginning in 2008, or immediately if there has been a Default under this Indenture, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee, and the Trustee in turn shall deliver a copy to the Rating Agencies (and any Noteholder upon receipt by the Trustee of a certificate in the form of Exhibit H), an Officer's Certificate of the Issuer stating that:

(1) a review of the activities of the Issuer during such year and of the Issuer's performance under this Indenture has been made under his or her supervision; and

(2) to the best of his or her knowledge, based on such review, the Issuer has fulfilled all of its obligations under this Indenture throughout such year without the occurrence of a Default, or, if there has been a Default hereunder, specifying each such Default known to him or her and the nature and status thereof, including any actions taken to remedy the same.

Section 7.10. Issuer and Co-Issuer May Not Consolidate or Merge.

Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer shall consolidate or merge with or into any other Person.

Section 7.11. No Other Business.

Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer shall engage in any business or activity other than (i) the issuance and redemption of the Notes, the Combination Notes and the Preferred Shares, the issuance and redemption of its ordinary shares, and acquiring, owning, managing, holding and pledging the Pledged Securities and any other instrument or property included in the Trust Estate and (ii) engaging in any other activities that are necessary, suitable or convenient to accomplish the foregoing or are incidental thereto or connected therewith.

Section 7.12. Purchase of Notes.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Indenture to the contrary, the Issuer may acquire Notes in open market or privately negotiated transactions or otherwise (and the Issuer shall give prompt written notice thereof to the Trustee): provided that so long as any Class A Notes are Outstanding, the Issuer shall not acquire any Class B Notes. (a) Such Co-Issuer is a corporation duly incorporated or organized, as the case may be, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation and in each jurisdiction where the conduct of its business requires such license, qualification or good standing, except where the failure to be so licensed or qualified or in good standing would not adversely affect the validity or enforceability of this Indenture or the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party, or the ability of such Co-Issuer to perform its obligations hereunder or thereunder.

(b) Such Co-Issuer has the power and authority to execute and deliver the Transaction Documents and all other documents and agreements contemplated hereby and thereby to which it is a party, as well as to carry out the terms hereof and thereof.

(f) There are no legal, governmental or regulatory Proceedings pending to which such Co-Issuer is a party or of which any of its property is the subject, which if determined adversely to such Co-Issuer would individually or in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on the performance by such Co-Issuer of the Transaction Documents or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereunder or thereunder; and to the best of its knowledge, no such Proceedings are threatened or contemplated.

The Issuer has not authorized the filing of and is not aware of any financing statements against the Issuer that include a description of collateral covering such Collateral other than any financing statement relating to the security interest granted to the Trustee hereunder or that has been terminated. The Issuer is not aware of any judgment, Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation or tax lien filings against the Issuer.

(iii) Such Collateral is comprised of "instruments", "security entitlements", "general intangibles", "tangible chattel paper", "deposit accounts", "accounts", "certificated securities", "uncertificated securities" or "securities accounts" (each as defined in the applicable Uniform Commercial Code).

(iv) All Accounts constitute "securities accounts" as defined in the applicable Uniform Commercial Code.

(v) This Indenture creates a valid and continuing security interest (as defined in the applicable Uniform Commercial Code) in such Collateral in favor of the Trustee, which security interest is prior to all other liens and is enforceable as such against creditors of and purchasers from the Issuer except as expressly permitted under this Indenture.

(c) The Issuer hereby represents that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and, with respect to Collateral Delivered after the Closing Date, be deemed to be repeated on the date on which such Collateral is Delivered as if made at and as of that time), with respect to the then existing Collateral that constitute "instruments":

(i) All of such security entitlements have been credited to one of the Accounts. The securities intermediary for each Account has agreed to treat all assets credited to such Account as "financial assets" within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code.

(ii) The Issuer has taken all steps necessary to cause the securities intermediary to identify in its records the Trustee as the person having a security entitlement against the securities intermediary in each of the Accounts.

(iii) The Accounts are not in the name of any person other than the Trustee. The Issuer has not consented to the securities intermediary of any Account to comply with the entitlement order of any person other than the Trustee.

(e) The Issuer hereby represents that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and, with respect to Collateral Delivered after the Closing Date, be deemed to be repeated on the date on which such Collateral is Delivered as if made at and as of that time), with respect to the then existing Collateral that constitutes "general intangibles" or "accounts":

(i) The Issuer has caused or will have caused, within ten days after the Closing Date, the filing of all appropriate financing statements in the proper filing office in the appropriate jurisdictions under applicable law in order to perfect the security interest in such general intangibles or accounts granted to the Trustee hereunder.

(f) The Issuer hereby represents that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and, with respect to Collateral Delivered after the Closing Date, be deemed to be repeated on the date on which such Collateral is Delivered as if made at and as of that time), with respect to the then existing Collateral that constitutes "tangible chattel paper":

(i) (A) All original executed copies of each agreement that constitutes or evidences such tangible chattel paper have been delivered to the Trustee and (B) none of the agreements that constitute or evidence such tangible chattel paper has any marks or notations indicating that it has been pledged, assigned or otherwise conveyed to any person other than the Trustee.

(ii) The Issuer has taken all steps necessary to perfect the security interest against the account debtor in the property securing the agreements that constitute such tangible chattel paper.

(g) The Issuer hereby represents that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and, with respect to Collateral Delivered after the Closing Date, be deemed to be repeated on the date on which such Collateral is Delivered as if made at and as of that time), with respect to the then existing Collateral that constitutes "deposit accounts":

(i) The Issuer has taken all steps necessary to cause the Trustee to become the account holder of such deposit accounts.

(ii) Such deposit accounts are not in the name of any person other than the Trustee. The Issuer has not consented to the bank maintaining any such deposit account to comply with the instructions of any person other than the Trustee.

(h) The Issuer hereby represents that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and, with respect to Collateral Delivered after the Closing Date, be deemed to be repeated on the date on which such Collateral is Delivered as if made at and as of that time), with respect to the then existing Collateral that constitutes a certificated security, such certificated security has been delivered to the Trustee and, if in registered form, has been indorsed to the Trustee or in blank by an effective indorsement or has been registered in the name of the Trustee upon original issue or registration of transfer by the issuer of such certificated security.

(i) The Issuer hereby represents that, as of the Closing Date (which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Indenture and, with respect to Collateral Delivered after the Closing Date, be deemed to be repeated on the date on which such Collateral is Delivered as if made at and as of that time), with respect to the then existing Collateral that constitutes an uncertificated security, the issuer of such uncertificated security has registered the Trustee as the registered owner of such uncertificated security.

(j) None of the provisions of this Section 7.17 shall be waived without the prior written confirmation from S&P that such waiver shall not result in a reduction or withdrawal of the then-current rating of any Class of Notes.

Section 7.18. No "Gross-up" Amounts.

The Co-Issuers shall not be required to pay any "gross-up" or other additional amounts to the Holders of any Class of Notes because taxes or related amounts are required to be withheld from payments on the Notes or any payments to either of the Co-Issuers on any item of Portfolio Collateral or other assets of the Co-Issuers.

Section 7.19. Securities Lending.

(a) So long as no Event of Default is continuing and if after the completion of the transaction the limit in subsection 12.2(u) would be satisfied, the Servicer may cause Portfolio Collateral that are not Defaulted Portfolio Collateral to be lent for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers, and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) having long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or guarantors with ratings of at least "A1" (and not "A1" but on credit watch with negative implications) and "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's and a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "A+" from S&P (each, a "Securities Lending Counterparty") pursuant to one or more agreements (each, a "Securities Lending Agreement"); provided that Portfolio Collateral whose Market Value cannot be determined under clauses (a), (b) or (c) of that definition may not be lent pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement; provided, further, that the gross income from all such transactions during any fiscal year shall not exceed 15% of the gross income of the Issuer for such fiscal year. Upon receipt of an Issuer Order, the Trustee shall release any lent Portfolio Collateral to a Securities Lending Counterparty as directed by the Servicer. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the Initial Purchasers or Affiliates of the Servicer. The duration of any Securities Lending Agreement shall not exceed the Final Maturity Date of the Notes.

(b) Each Securities Lending Agreement shall be on market terms as determined by the Servicer (except as may be required below) and shall:

(i) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty return to the Trustee debt obligations that are identical (in terms of issue and class) to the lent items of Portfolio Collateral;

(ii) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty pay to the Trustee amounts equivalent to all interest and other payments that the owner of the lent items of Portfolio Collateral is entitled to for the period during which the Portfolio Collateral is lent and require that any such payments not be subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction unless the Securities Lending Counterparty is required under the Securities

Lending Agreement to make "gross-up" payments to the Issuer that cover the full amount of the withholding tax on an after-tax basis;

(iii) require that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency shall be satisfied with respect to the execution of the Securities Lending Agreement;

(iv) satisfy any other requirements of Section 1058 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated under it;

(v) be governed by the laws of New York;

(vi) permit the Issuer to assign its rights under the Securities Lending Agreement to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture;

(vii) provide for early termination and return of any lent item of Portfolio Collateral to the Issuer with no penalty if the Portfolio Collateral becomes Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or is subject to redemption in accordance with its terms;

(viii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent item of Portfolio Collateral with no penalty upon any redemption of the Notes in whole;

(ix) require the Securities Lending Counterparty to post with the Trustee collateral consisting of Cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America that have a maturity date no later than the Business Day preceding the stated termination date of the Securities Lending Agreement (the "Securities Lending Collateral") to secure its obligation to return the Portfolio Collateral;

(x) provide that the value of Securities Lending Collateral shall be maintained at all times in an amount equal to at least 102% of the current Ask-Side Market Value (determined daily and monitored by the Servicer) of the lent Portfolio Collateral;

(xi) the lent Portfolio Collateral shall be marked-to-market on a daily basis by the Servicer on the basis of their Market Value;

(xii) the Collateral will include the Issuer's rights under the related Securities Lending Agreement as well as the lent Portfolio Collateral;

(xiii) provide for early termination within 10 days, at the option of the Issuer and with respect to the return of any lent Portfolio Collateral to the Issuer, with no penalty, if the Securities Lending Counterparty is no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty and the noncompliance is not cured as provided in this Indenture;

(xiv) contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions that survive the termination of the agreement (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Securities Lending Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those in this Indenture; and

(xv) provide for the payment of a fee to the Issuer in consideration for the loan of Portfolio Collateral, at a rate as shall be negotiated with the Securities Lending Counterparty by the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer.

(c) If either Moody's or S&P downgrades a Securities Lending Counterparty such that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party are no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty, then the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer, within 10 days of the downgrade, shall

(i) terminate its Securities Lending Agreements with the Securities Lending Counterparty unless a guarantor for the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements has been obtained; or

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Portfolio Collateral lent to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty so that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party, together with all other Securities Lending Agreements, are in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of Securities Lending Counterparties; or

(iii) take any other steps Moody's or S&P may require to cause the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party to be treated by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, as if the obligations were owed by a counterparty having a rating at least equivalent to the rating that was assigned by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty before its being downgraded.

(d) In connection with any such direction by the Servicer to enter into a Securities Lending Agreement, the Trustee may receive and rely on an Issuer Order to the effect that the Securities Lending Agreement, and its Securities Lending Counterparty, is each in compliance with the requirements of this Indenture (including the definition of "Securities Lending Counterparty"). The Issuer and the Trustee may enter into any Securities Lending Agreement at the instruction of the Servicer, and deliver and accept delivery and return of any Portfolio Collateral pursuant to the Securities Lending Agreement, or pursuant to instructions from the Servicer in connection with the Securities Lending Agreement. The Trustee may take any actions and exercise any rights and remedies under any Securities Lending Agreement that the Servicer instructs. The Trustee need not enter into any Securities Lending Agreement that would in its judgment, subject it to any liability, whether financial or otherwise, or cause it to incur or subject it to risk of any cost or disbursement for which it is not, in its judgment, adequately indemnified, or that would impose on it any obligations or administrative burdens that are unacceptable to it. The Servicer shall instruct the Trustee in writing with respect to the administration of any Securities Lending Agreement (including with respect to any default and the exercise of rights under it). The Trustee shall not have any responsibility for evaluating the sufficiency, validity, or acceptability of any Securities Lending Agreement or for the qualifications or eligibility of any Securities Lending Counterparty. Nothing in this Indenture shall be construed to cause the Trustee to have any fiduciary duties to any Securities Lending Counterparty.

So long as any Portfolio Collateral is on loan pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement, (a) the Trustee shall have no liability for any failure or inability on its part to receive any information or take any action with respect to the Portfolio Collateral because of its being on loan (including any failure to take action with respect to a notice of redemption, consent solicitation, exchange or tender offer, or similar corporate action), and (b) the lent Portfolio Collateral shall not be disqualified for return to the Trustee as an item of Portfolio Collateral by any change in circumstance or status during the time while on loan (including any change that would cause the Portfolio Collateral to be ineligible for purchase by the Issuer under this Indenture if applied to a proposed purchase of it in the open market at the time of its return from loan).

ARTICLE VIII

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES

Section 8.1. Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Noteholders.

Without the consent of the Holders of any Notes, but with the consent of the Servicer, each Hedge Counterparty (to the extent the amendment would have a material adverse effect on such Hedge Counterparty), the Co-Issuers and the Trustee, at any time, may enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, for any of the following purposes:

- (1) to correct or amplify the description of any property at any time subject to the lien of this Indenture, or better to assure, convey and confirm unto the Trustee any property subject or required to be subjected to the lien of this Indenture, or to subject to the lien of this Indenture additional property;
- (2) to evidence the succession of another Person to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, and the assumption by any such successor of the covenants of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer contained herein and in the Notes or the Combination Notes;
- (3) to add to the covenants of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer or the Trustee, for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes and the Combination Notes, or to surrender any right or power herein conferred upon the Issuer or the Co-Issuer;
- (4) to Grant any property to the Trustee;
- (5) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment hereunder by a successor Trustee and to add to or change any of the provisions of this Indenture as shall be necessary to facilitate the administration of the Trust Estate by more than one Trustee, pursuant to the requirements of Section 6.9 or 6.10 hereof;

(6) to cure any ambiguity, or to correct, modify or supplement any provision which is defective or inconsistent with any other provision herein;

(7) to take any action necessary or helpful to prevent the Issuer or the Trustee from becoming subject to any withholding or other taxes or assessments or to reduce the risk that the Issuer will be engaged in a United States trade or business or that the Issuer (or the beneficial owners thereof) will be subject to United States income tax on a net income basis;

(8) to correct any manifest error in any provision hereof upon receipt by the Trustee of written direction from the Issuer or Co-Issuer (as to which the Trustee may rely) describing in reasonable detail such error and the modification necessary to correct such error; or

(9) to effectuate the provisions of Section 2.12 hereof provided that such amendment shall not, as evidenced by an Officer's Certificate of the Issuer, adversely affect in any material respect the interests of any Noteholder; or

(10) to facilitate the delivery and maintenance of the Notes in accordance with the requirements of DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream;

(11) to authorize the appointment of any listing agent, Transfer Agent, Paying Agent or additional registrar for any Class of Notes required or advisable in connection with the listing of the Notes on the Irish Stock Exchange or any other stock exchange and otherwise to amend this Indenture to incorporate any changes required or requested by any governmental authority, stock exchange authority, listing agent, Transfer Agent, Paying Agent or additional registrar for such Notes in connection therewith;

(12) to modify the restrictions on and procedures for resale and other transfer of the Notes or the Combination Notes in accordance with any change in any applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or to enable the Co-Issuers to rely upon any less restrictive exemption from registration under the Securities Act or the Investment Company Act or to remove restrictions on resale and transfer to the extent not required thereunder;

(13) notwithstanding anything contained in clause (12), to modify the restrictions on, and procedures for, resale and transfer of the Notes in accordance with any change in ERISA;

(14) evidence the addition of an additional issuer or of a wholly owned subsidiary of the Issuer that, in either case, will acquire securities from the Issuer and pledge its assets to secure the obligations of the Issuer secured by the Trust Estate, to the extent necessary to permit the Issuer to comply with the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder or any other statute, rule or regulation applicable to the Issuer, and the assumption by any such additional issuer or subsidiary of the covenants and obligations of the Issuer in this Indenture; or provided further that (A) such amendment for any matters described in clauses (1) through (14) shall not, as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion), adversely affect in any material respect the interests of any Noteholder and (B) no amendment shall be made that would cause the Issuer to register as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act. The Trustee shall be entitled to receive and rely upon an opinion of counsel to the effect that a proposed supplemental indenture does not materially adversely affect the interests of the Noteholders of any Class of Notes or the interest of the Preferred Shareholders; provided that any such opinion of counsel may rely on an officer's certificate covering any relevant factual matters.

(15) prevent the Issuer from becoming an "investment company" as defined in the Investment Company Act or better assure compliance with the requirements of Rule 3a-7 thereunder; provided that, with respect to this clause (15) only, as a condition to the effectiveness of any such supplemental indenture, each of the Issuer, the Trustee and Bear Stearns shall have (A) satisfied the Rating Condition with respect to such supplemental indenture and (B) received a customary, unqualified opinion of counsel from a nationally recognized law firm (which may be supported as to factual matters by any relevant certificates or other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering such opinion) providing that, after giving effect to such supplemental indenture, the Issuer is exempt from registration as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act;

The Trustee is hereby authorized to join in the execution of any such supplemental indenture and to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations that may be therein contained. At the cost of the Issuer, the Trustee shall provide to the Servicer, the Cap Provider and for so long as any Notes or Combination Notes are then rated, each Rating Agency then rating any Notes or Combination Notes a copy of any proposed supplemental indenture at least 10 days prior to the execution thereof by the Trustee and request written confirmation that the entering into of such supplemental indenture satisfies the Rating Condition. The Trustee shall not enter into any such supplemental indenture if such supplemental indenture does not satisfy the Rating Condition, and, as soon as practicable after the execution by the Trustee and the Issuer of any such supplemental indenture, the Issuer or the Trustee at the request of the Issuer shall provide to the Servicer, each Hedge Counterparty and each Rating Agency then rating any Notes or Combination Notes a copy of the executed supplemental indenture.

In addition, upon the proposal of the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, and subject to the consent of at least a Majority of the Eligible Preferred Shares of such proposal or at the direction of such Preferred Shares, the Co-Issuers and the Servicer, the Trustee and the Co-Issuers may enter into one or more supplemental indentures (i) in connection with an Optional Redemption by Refinancing involving the issuance of additional notes, to accommodate the issuance of such additional notes and to establish the terms thereof or (ii) in connection with an Optional Redemption by Refinancing involving secured loans, to accommodate borrowings under such secured loans and to establish the terms thereof; provided that, if a supplemental indenture is entered into in connection with the issuance of additional notes or incurrence of secured loans related to an Optional Redemption by Refinancing, such supplemental indenture shall not be effective unless each of the Rating Agencies has (a) if additional notes are issued in substantially the same capital structure as the Notes issued on the Closing Date, (i) provided a Rating Confirmation and (ii) provided a rating to the additional notes to be issued or the secured loans to be incurred as agreed upon by the purchasers of such additional notes in such Optional Redemption by Refinancing or (b) in any other case, provided a rating to the additional notes to be issued or the secured loans to be incurred as agreed upon by the purchasers of such additional notes in such Optional Redemption by Refinancing.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein (so long as the Rating Condition has been satisfied), with the consent of the Servicer and, except as provided in this Section 8.1, without the consent of the Holders of any Notes or the Holders of the Combination Notes or Preferred Shares, the Co-Issuers and the Trustee may enter into an indenture or indentures supplemental thereto (other than as may otherwise be permitted under this Indenture): (a) to add additional rows to the Collateral Quality Matrix (other than in accordance with clause (ii) of the second sentence of the definition of "Collateral Quality Matrix"); (b) to change the definition of Collateral Quality Formula (and any related definitions), (c) to change the definition of Weighted Average Life Requirement (and any related definitions), (d) to change the definition of Minimum Average Recovery Rate Test (and any related definitions) and (e) to change the definition of S&P CDO Monitor Test (and any related definitions); provided that the Trustee must receive the consent of a Majority of the Controlling Class with respect to any indenture or supplemental indenture with respect to items (a) (other than in accordance with clause (ii) of the second sentence of the definition of "Collateral Quality Matrix"), (b), (c), (d) and (e) above.

Section 8.2. Supplemental Indentures with Consent of Noteholders.

With the consent of the Requisite Noteholders, the Servicer and the Holders of the Preferred Shares, to the extent described in the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement, each Hedge Counterparty (to the extent the amendment would have a material adverse effect on each such Hedge Counterparty), the Co-Issuers and the Trustee may enter into an indenture or indentures supplemental hereto for the purpose of adding any provisions to, or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of, this Indenture or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes under this Indenture; provided that, notwithstanding any Amendment Buy-Out Option described in Section 9.4(b), no such supplemental indenture shall, without the consent of each Noteholder of each Class adversely affected thereby:

(1) change the Final Maturity Date or Payment Date of any Note, or reduce the principal amount, notional principal amount or stated amount thereof, as the case may be, or the means of determining the Applicable Periodic Rate, the Optional Redemption Price, the Special Redemption Price, the Tax Event Redemption Price or the Mandatory Redemption Price, as applicable, with respect thereto, change the provisions of this Indenture relating to the application of proceeds of the Trust Estate to the payment of the Notes or the Combination Notes or change the jurisdiction where any Note or Combination Note is payable, or the coin or currency in which, any Note, Combination Note or any amount thereunder is payable, or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after the maturity thereof;

(2) reduce the percentage in Aggregate Principal Amount, the consent of the Holders of which is required for the execution of any such supplemental indenture, or the consent of the Holders of which is required for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of this Indenture or certain Events of Default hereunder and their consequences provided for in this Indenture;

(3) impair or adversely affect the Trust Estate except as otherwise permitted herein;

(4) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on a parity with the lien of this Indenture with respect to any part of the Trust Estate or terminate the lien of this Indenture on any property at any time subject hereto (other than pursuant to the terms of this Indenture) or deprive the Holder of any Note or any other party expressly secured hereby of the security afforded by the lien of this Indenture;

(5) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes whose Holders must direct the Trustee to preserve the Trust Estate or must consent before any request is made to rescind the Trustee's election to preserve the Trust Estate pursuant to Section 5.5 hereof, or to sell or liquidate the Trust Estate pursuant to Section 5.4, 5.5 or 9.7 hereof or modify the requirement for consent of any other party to which the right to consent is expressly granted hereby;

(6) modify any of the provisions of this Section or Section 5.15 hereof, except to increase any such percentage or to provide that certain other provisions of this Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected thereby;

(7) modify the provisions of Article XI hereof or the definition of the term "Holder," "Noteholder," "Majority Noteholders," "Majority Preferred Shareholders," "Requisite Noteholders" or of the term "Outstanding";

(8) amend any provision of this Indenture relating to the institution of proceedings for the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to be adjudicated as bankrupt or insolvent, or the consent by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to the institution of bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings against it, or the filing with respect to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer of a petition or answer or consent seeking reorganization or relief under the Bankruptcy Code or any other similar applicable law, or the consent by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer to the filing of any such petition as to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or of any substantial part of its property, respectively;

(9) amend any provision of this Indenture or other such document that provides that the obligations of the Co-Issuer or the Issuer, as the case may be, are non-recourse obligations of the Co-Issuer or the Issuer, respectively, payable solely from the Collateral in accordance with the terms hereof; or

(10) modify any of the provisions of this Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount or timing of any payment of interest or principal due on any Note or Combination Note on any Payment Date (including the calculation of any of the individual components of such calculation) or to affect the rights of the Holders of Notes or Combination Notes to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of such Notes or Combination Notes contained herein.

With respect to any action that requires consent from 100% of the Noteholders, if any Noteholder has notified the Trustee in writing that pursuant to such Noteholder's organizational documents or other documents governing such Noteholder's actions, the Noteholder is not permitted to take any affirmative action approving, rejecting or otherwise acting upon any Issuer request under the Indenture, the failure by such Noteholder to consent to or reject any such requested action will be deemed a consent by such Noteholder to the requested action. In addition, any consent required from a Noteholder or a Holder of a Preferred Share may be evidenced by one or more instruments (which may be an electronic document, including, but not limited to, in the form of email, to the extent permitted by applicable law), signed by Noteholders or Holders of Preferred Shares in person or by agents duly appointed in writing (provided that no signature shall be required on electronic documents, including, but not limited to, in the form of email to the extent permitted by law).

Not later than 15 Business Days prior to the execution of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section, the Trustee shall mail to the Servicer and, so long as any Notes or Combination Notes are then rated by any Rating Agency, to each such Rating Agency, a copy of such supplemental indenture and, if any Notes or Combination Notes are then rated, prior to the execution of the proposed supplemental indenture, the Rating Condition must be satisfied with respect to such supplemental indenture.

Except for any proposed amendment that would affect the terms of the Combination Notes as such, Holders of the Combination Notes shall be entitled to vote under this Section 8.2 only as Holders of the related Component Securities.

It shall not be necessary in connection with any consent of Noteholders under this Section for the Noteholders to approve the specific form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if such consent shall approve the substance thereof.

In the event that any supplemental indenture is consented to by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer and 100% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes and the Rating Condition is satisfied or is specifically waived by all consenting parties, all conditions precedent to the execution of such supplemental indenture shall be deemed satisfied, the execution of such supplemental indenture shall be authorized or permitted by this Indenture, and the Trustee shall execute and accept the additional trusts created by such supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article VIII or modification thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture without obtaining an Opinion of Counsel; provided that the Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise. The Servicer shall not be bound by any amendment or supplement to this Indenture that would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to it under this Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Servicer unless the Servicer consents to it in writing, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The Servicer shall follow any amendment or supplement to this Indenture by which it is bound of which it has received written notice from the time it receives a copy of the amendment from the Issuer or the Trustee.

Promptly after the execution by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.2, the Issuer or the Trustee at the request of the Issuer shall deliver to the Holders of the Notes, the Servicer, each Rating Agency then rating any Notes a copy thereof.

Section 8.3. Execution of Supplemental Indentures.

In executing or accepting the additional trusts created by any supplemental indenture permitted by this Article VIII or the modifications thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and (subject to Section 6.3(d) hereof) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of such supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture, and that all conditions precedent applicable thereto under this Indenture have been satisfied. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture which affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise.

Section 8.4. Effect of Supplemental Indentures.

Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture under this Article VIII, this Indenture shall be modified in accordance therewith, and such supplemental indenture shall form a part of this Indenture for all purposes; and every Holder of Notes and Combination Notes theretofore and thereafter authenticated and delivered hereunder shall be bound thereby.

Section 8.5. Reference in Notes and Combination Notes to Supplemental Indentures.

Notes and Combination Notes authenticated and delivered after the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article VIII may, and if required by the Trustee shall, bear a notation in form approved by the Trustee as to any matter provided for in such supplemental indenture. If the Issuer shall so determine, new Notes and Combination Notes, so modified as to conform in the opinion of the Trustee and the Issuer to any such supplemental indenture, may be prepared and executed by the Issuer and authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for Outstanding Notes and Combination Notes.

Section 9.1. Optional Redemption.

(a) The Notes shall be redeemable, in whole but not in part, by the Co-Issuer or the Issuers, as applicable, at the direction of the Holders of at least 66-2/3% of the outstanding Eligible Preferred Shares on any Payment Date after the Non-Call Period at the Optional Redemption Price (such redemption of all the Notes, an "Optional Redemption by Liquidation"). No redemption pursuant to this Section 9.1(a) shall occur unless all Outstanding Notes are redeemed, all payments, fees and expenses are paid in full on the date of such redemption, all amounts due to or advanced by any Hedge Counterparty under any Hedge Agreement have been paid or reimbursed and the applicable notice requirements provided in the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement have been satisfied.

(b) Any Class of Notes may be redeemed in whole but not in part, on any Payment Date after the Non-Call Period from the proceeds of a Refinancing (the "Refinancing Proceeds") with the consent of the Holders of at least a Majority of the Eligible Preferred Shares or at the direction of such Holders of Preferred Shares if the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, gives written notice thereof to the Holders of all the Preferred Shares (with a copy to the Trustee, the Paying and Transfer Agent and Rating Agencies) at least 30 days prior to the Payment Date fixed by the Issuer for such redemption (such date, the "Refinancing Date"), by obtaining a loan or an issuance of a replacement class of notes, the terms of which loan or issuance will be negotiated by, and acceptable to, the Servicer, on behalf of the Issuer, from one or more financial institutions or purchasers (which may include the Servicer or its Affiliates) selected by the Servicer (a refinancing provided to such loan or issuance, a "Refinancing" and a redemption of the Notes in connection with such Refinancing, an "Optional Redemption by Refinancing") and, if such Refinancing has not been directed by a Majority of the Eligible Preferred Shares, such proposal is approved such Majority of the Preferred Shares prior to the Refinancing Date. The Issuer shall obtain a Refinancing only if the Servicer determines to its satisfaction (and so notifies the Trustee in writing) that: (i) the principal amount of any obligations providing the Refinancing is no greater than the principal amount of the Notes being redeemed plus the fees and administrative expenses of the Issuer related to the Refinancing; (ii) the stated maturity of the obligations providing the Refinancing is no earlier than the Stated Maturity of the Notes being redeemed; (iii) the interest rate payable in respect of the obligations providing the Refinancing is less than the interest rate payable on the Notes being redeemed; (iv) the agreements relating to the Refinancing contain non-recourse and non-petition provisions, investor qualification provisions and transfer restrictions equivalent to those applicable to the Notes being redeemed, as set forth in the Indenture; (v) the proceeds from the Refinancing will be at least sufficient to redeem the applicable Notes (at the Optional Redemption Price therefor) and to pay any fees and administrative expenses of the Issuer related to the Refinancing; (vi) the Refinancing Proceeds will be used (to the extent necessary) to redeem the applicable Notes; (vii) the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency shall be satisfied (other than with respect to the Notes being redeemed); (viii) the obligations providing the Refinancing are subject to the Priority of Payments and do not rank higher in priority pursuant to the Priority of Payments than the Class of Notes being redeemed; and (ix) the expenses in connection with the Refinancing have been paid or will be adequately provided for. Any Refinancing Proceeds shall not constitute Collateral Interest Collections or Collateral Principal Collections but shall be applied directly on the related Refinancing Date pursuant to the Indenture to redeem the Notes being refinanced without regard to the Priority of Payments; provided that, to the extent that any Refinancing Proceeds are not applied to redeem the Notes being refinanced, such Refinancing Proceeds shall be treated as Collateral Principal Collections or, if the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to such application, as Collateral Interest Collections. None of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee or any other Person shall be liable to the Holders of the Preferred Shares for the failure to issue additional notes or to obtain secured loans.

(c) The election of the Issuer to redeem any Notes pursuant to this Section 9.1 shall be set forth in an Issuer Order, given to the Trustee in accordance with Section 9.6 hereof, directing the Trustee to make the payment of the Optional Redemption Price for all (in the case of an Optional Redemption by Liquidation) or the selected Class (in the case of an Optional Redemption by Refinancing) of the Notes, as applicable, from funds in the Collection Account and/or from monies deposited with the Trustee by the Issuer pursuant to Section 9.8 hereof.

(d) The Issuer shall, simultaneously with electing to redeem Notes under this Section 9.1, set the Optional Redemption Date and the Redemption Record Date for any redemption pursuant to this Section and give notice thereof to the Trustee pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof.

(e) The Issuer shall have the option to withdraw the notice of redemption until (i) the earlier of the fifth Business Day prior to the proposed Optional Redemption Date and the date on which a forward purchase contract is entered into pursuant to Section 9.8 or (ii) the fifth Business Day prior to the proposed Refinancing Date, if (A) in the case of an Optional Redemption by Liquidation, the Servicer shall be unable to deliver the forward purchase contract which satisfies the terms of Section 9.8 to the Trustee, in form satisfactory to the Trustee or (B) in the case of an Optional Redemption by Refinancing, the Servicer does not make the determinations required pursuant to Section 9.1(b) or (C) in the case of any Optional Redemption, at least a Majority of the Eligible Preferred Shares direct such notice to be withdrawn, in each case by written notice to the Trustee, the Servicer, each Class of Notes and, for so long as any Class of Notes and the Rating Agencies is listed on any stock exchange and the rules of such stock exchange so require, to such stock exchange, on or prior to such earlier day.

(f) On the Optional Redemption Date, the Optional Redemption Price shall be distributed pursuant to Section 11.1(d) after payment of all amounts required to be paid pursuant to Section 11.1(b).

Section 9.2. Mandatory Redemption.

If either the Interest Coverage Test or the Overcollateralization Tests (other than with respect to a failure of the Class B-2L Overcollateralization Test) are not satisfied as of any applicable Calculation Date or a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, all or a portion of the Notes shall be redeemed (or, in the case of the Class B-1L Notes and the Class B-2L Notes, any Periodic Rate Shortfall Amounts shall be paid and then the Notes shall be redeemed) by the Issuer, in the order set forth in Section 11.1 hereof, on the Payment Date immediately following such Calculation Date at the Mandatory Redemption Price (pursuant to the applicable provisions of Sections 11.1 and 11.2 hereof) in an amount sufficient such that the Interest Coverage Test and Overcollateralization Tests are satisfied or a Rating Confirmation is received, as applicable. The amount of any Mandatory Redemption hereunder shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 11.2 hereof. If on any Payment Date the Class B-2L Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied, 50% of available Interest Proceeds will be applied to pay principal on the Class B-2L Notes and 50% (or, after the Class B-2L Notes are paid in full, 100%) of available Interest Proceeds will be applied sequentially to pay principal on the Notes according to the priorities described herein until the Class B-2L Overcollateralization Test is satisfied. In addition, Principal Proceeds will be applied sequentially to pay principal on the Notes, as set forth in clause SECOND of Section 11.1(c)(ii) and 11.1(c)(iii) herein.

Section 9.3. Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement.

On each Payment Date after the second Payment Date, the Additional Collateral Deposit Requirement shall be applied by the Issuer in the order set forth in Section 11.1 hereof.

Section 9.4. Special Redemption; Amendment Buy-Out

(a) The Notes shall be redeemable in part on any Payment Date during the Revolving Period at the option of the Issuer, as directed by and at the discretion of the Servicer, to the extent more than U.S. $2,000,000 of Collateral Principal Collections held in the Collection Account are not applied to the purchase of Additional Portfolio Collateral satisfying the criteria contained in Section 11.3 hereof by the earlier of the last day of the next succeeding Due Period or the last day of the Revolving Period, in the order and priority set forth in Section 11.1 hereof.

(b) In the case of any supplemental indenture pursuant to Section 8.2 that requires the consent of one or more Holders of Notes or Preferred Shares, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders (which shall not include any Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes unless such Holders consent to being designated as "Non-Consenting Holders," as described below) all Notes or Preferred Shares held by such Holders of the Class of Notes or Preferred Shares whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture (the "Amendment Buy-Out Option") for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price; provided, however, that the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser may not exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option during the Non-Call Period in connection with a proposed amendment to reduce the rate of interest on any Security, as applicable, or to change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preferred Shares may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer; provided further, that notwithstanding the definition of Non-Consenting Holder, any Holder of Notes (other than the Class A-1LA Notes) or Preferred Shares who fails to respond to any such consent solicitation shall be deemed to have consented to any such supplemental indenture. Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the Non-Call Period, "Non-Consenting Holder" shall exclude any Holder of Class A-1LA Notes (unless such Holder has consented in writing to be designated as a Non-Consenting Holder) and the Amendment Buy-Out Option shall not be applicable to such Class A-1LA Notes. If the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all such Notes or Preferred Shares of Non-Consenting Holders, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes or Preferred Shares the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an "Amendment Buy-Out"). By its acceptance of its Securities or Preferred Shares hereunder, each Holder of Notes or Preferred Shares agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its applicable Notes or Preferred Shares to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser. Neither the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser nor any other Person shall have any liability to any Holder or Beneficial Owner of Securities or Preferred Shares as a result of an election by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser not to exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) nothing described above or in the Indenture shall in any way limit or restrict the rights of the Holders of the Class A-1LA Notes to consent or withhold their consent to a supplemental indenture or to otherwise vote their interest both during and after the Non-Call Period and (ii) the Trustee shall have no responsibility for overseeing the Servicer's compliance with the Amendment Buy-Out provisions herein.

(c) All purchases made pursuant to an Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Securities or Preferred Shares set forth herein and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

Section 9.5. Tax Event Redemption.

(a) The Notes shall be redeemable, in whole but not in part, by the Issuer at the direction of a Majority of the Preferred Shares or a Majority of the Controlling Class (but only if the Aggregate Principal Balance of Portfolio Collateral is less than 100% of the Class A-1L Notes) on any Payment Date at the Tax Event Redemption Price, if as a result of (i) change in tax law, rule or regulation or the interpretation thereof, the payments to be received on the Portfolio Collateral are reduced as a result of the imposition of withholding tax, (ii) the Issuer is otherwise subjected to tax such that the income of the Issuer is reduced in an amount determined by such holders of Preferred Shares to be material, (iii) (A) one or more items of Portfolio Collateral that were not subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them have become subject to withholding tax or the rate of withholding has increased on one or more items of Portfolio Collateral that were subject to withholding tax when the Issuer committed to purchase them and (B) in any Due Period the aggregate of the payments subject to withholding tax on new withholding tax obligations and the increase in payments subject to withholding tax on increased rate withholding tax obligations, in each case to the extent not "grossed-up" (on an after-tax basis) by the related obligor, represent 5% or more of Interest Proceeds for the Due Period, or (iv) (A) a Hedge Counterparty being required to deduct or withhold from any payment to the Issuer under the related Hedge Agreement for or on account of any tax for whatever reason and such obligor or Hedge Counterparty is not required to pay to the Issuer such additional amount as is necessary to ensure that the net amount actually received by the Issuer (free and clear of taxes, whether assessed against such obligor, such Hedge Counterparty or the Issuer) will equal the full amount that the Issuer would have received had no such deduction or withholding occurred or (B) the Issuer being required to pay to the Hedge Counterparty an additional amount for or on account of any tax for whatever reason, the Issuer does not receive the full amount under a Hedge Agreement that it would otherwise be entitled to receive, or (v) taxes, fees, assessments or other similar charges are imposed on the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in an aggregate amount in any 12-month period in excess of $2,000,000, other than liabilities for withholding taxes included in clause (iii) above. No redemption pursuant to this Section 9.5 shall occur unless all Outstanding Notes are redeemed, unless all payments, fees and expenses are paid in full on the date of such redemption, all amounts due to or advanced by any Hedge Counterparty under any Hedge Agreement have been paid or reimbursed and unless all other payments, fees and expenses are paid in full.

(b) The election of the Issuer to redeem any Notes pursuant to this Section 9.5 shall be set forth in an Issuer Order, given to the Trustee in accordance with Section 9.6 hereof, directing the Trustee to make the payment of the Tax Event Redemption Price from funds in the Collection Account and/or from monies deposited with the Trustee by the Issuer pursuant to Section 9.8 hereof.

(c) The Issuer shall, simultaneously with electing to redeem Notes under this Section 9.5, set the Tax Event Redemption Date and the Redemption Record Date for any redemption pursuant to this Section 9.5 and give notice thereof to the Trustee pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof.

(d) The Issuer shall have the option to withdraw the notice of redemption until the earlier of the fifth Business Day prior to the proposed Tax Event Redemption Date and the date on which a forward purchase contract is entered into pursuant to Section 9.8(b) hereof by written notice to the Trustee and the Servicer on or prior to such earlier day.

(e) On the Tax Redemption Date, the Tax Event Redemption Price shall be distributed pursuant to Section 11.1(d) hereof after payment of all amounts required to be paid pursuant to Section 11.1(b) hereof.

Section 9.6. Notice to Trustee, Rating Agencies, the Hedge Counterparty and the Servicer.

(a) The Issuer shall by Issuer Order, in connection with an Optional Redemption pursuant to Section 9.1 or a Tax Event Redemption pursuant to Section 9.5, not later than the twentieth Business Day immediately preceding the proposed Optional Redemption Date or Tax Event Redemption Date, as applicable, notify in writing the Trustee, each Hedge Counterparty, each Rating Agency then rating any Class of Notes and the Servicer of such proposed Optional Redemption Date or Tax Event Redemption Date, as applicable, and the proposed Redemption Record Date and Optional Redemption Price for each Class of Notes.

(b) If any Mandatory Redemption is required pursuant to Section 9.2 hereof, the Issuer shall, not later than the third Business Day after the related Calculation Date, notify in writing the Trustee, each Rating Agency then rating any Class of Notes, the Hedge Counterparty, the Servicer and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent that such redemption is required and the amount of the Notes of each Class required to be redeemed pursuant to the provisions of Section 11.2 hereof.

(c) If any Special Redemption is required pursuant to Section 9.4 hereof, the Issuer shall, not later than twentieth Business Day preceding the proposed Special Redemption Date, notify in writing the Trustee, each Rating Agency then rating any Class of Notes, the Hedge Counterparty, the Servicer and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent that such proposed redemption is required and the amount of the Notes of each Class to be redeemed.

Section 9.7. Notice of Optional Redemption and Tax Event Redemption by the Issuer.

(a) If notice thereof has been received by the Trustee from the Issuer pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof, notice of an Optional Redemption shall be given by the Trustee by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not less than twenty calendar days prior to the proposed

Redemption Record Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed at the address in the Note Register (with a copy to the Rating Agencies at the addresses specified in Section 10.7 hereof), and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent.

All notices of Optional Redemption shall state: the proposed Optional Redemption Date; the proposed Redemption Record Date; and that on such proposed Optional Redemption Date, all Outstanding Notes are to be redeemed and paid in full and that applicable interest thereon shall cease to accrue on the date specified in the notice and the place where such Notes may be surrendered for payment of the Optional Redemption Price, which shall be the agency of the Trustee to be maintained as provided in Section 7.2 hereof; and that the Issuer may withdraw such election at any time on or prior to the earlier of the Business Day prior to such proposed Optional Redemption Date and the date before which a forward purchase contract is entered into pursuant to Section 9.8(a) hereof.

At the cost of the Issuer, the Trustee shall give notice of any withdrawal of the notice of redemption pursuant to Section 9.1(d) hereof (to the extent feasible) by overnight courier guaranteeing next day delivery, sent not later than the third Business Day prior to the previously proposed Optional Redemption Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed at the address in the Note Register, and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent.

Notice of Optional Redemption of the Notes shall be given by the Issuer or, at the Issuer's request, by the Trustee in the name of the Issuer and at the expense of the Issuer. Failure to give notice of redemption or notice of withdrawal, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Note shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of the Notes or give rise to any claim based upon such failure or defect.

(b) If notice thereof has been received by the Trustee from the Issuer pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof, notice of a Tax Event Redemption shall be given by the Trustee by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not less than twenty calendar days prior to the proposed Redemption Record Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed at the address in the Note Register (with a copy to the Rating Agencies at the addresses specified in Section 10.7 hereof), and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent.

All notices of a Tax Event Redemption shall state: the proposed Tax Event Redemption Date; the proposed Redemption Record Date; and that on such proposed Tax Event Redemption Date, all of the Notes (to the extent of the Aggregate Principal Amount) are to be redeemed and paid in full and that interest thereon shall cease to accrue on the date specified in the notice and the place where such Notes may be surrendered for payment of the Tax Event Redemption Price, which shall be the agency of the Trustee to be maintained as provided in Section 7.2 hereof; and that the Issuer may withdraw such election at any time on or prior to the earlier of the fifth Business Day prior to such proposed Tax Event Redemption Date and the date before which a forward purchase contract is entered into pursuant to Section 9.8(b) hereof.

At the cost of the Issuer, the Trustee shall give notice of any withdrawal of the notice of redemption pursuant to Section 9.5 hereof (to the extent feasible) by overnight courier guaranteeing next day delivery, sent not later than the third Business Day prior to the previously proposed Tax Event Redemption Date, to each Holder of Notes to be redeemed at the address in the Note Register (with a copy to the Rating Agencies at the addresses specified in Section 10.7 hereof), and, so long as any Class of Notes is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Paying Agent.

Notice of Tax Event Redemption of the Notes shall be given by the Issuer or, at the Issuer's request, by the Trustee in the name of the Issuer and at the expense of the Issuer. Failure to give notice of redemption or notice of withdrawal, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Note shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of the Notes or the withdrawal thereof or give rise to any claim based upon such failure or defect.

Section 9.8. Deposit of Optional Redemption Price and Tax Event Redemption Price.

(a) In the case of an Optional Redemption, on or before the fifth Business Day preceding the proposed Optional Redemption Date contained in the notice of redemption as provided in Section 9.6 hereof, the Issuer shall deposit with the Trustee cash or Eligible Investments maturing no later than the Business Day prior to the Optional Redemption Date (unless such Eligible Investments are issued by the Person acting as Trustee, in which event they may mature on the Optional Redemption Date), or any combination thereof, in an amount sufficient to provide for payment of the Optional Redemption Price with respect to the Outstanding Notes and all amounts due under Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof. The Issuer may use all available funds in the Collection Account to provide for payment of the Optional Redemption Price in accordance with Section 11.1 hereof. In the event that there are not sufficient available funds in the Collection Account as of the date the notice of redemption is sent out pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof to pay the Optional Redemption Price on the Optional Redemption Date in accordance with Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof, the Servicer shall give the Trustee written direction to sell Portfolio Collateral in an amount sufficient to provide available funds to pay the Optional Redemption Price in full pursuant to Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof, and shall give the Issuer written direction to enter into, as of a date which is not later than five (5) Business Days prior to the Optional Redemption Date, forward contracts (each of which shall provide for "payment versus delivery" and shall direct that payment be made to the Trustee) with a financial institution rated "A-1+" by Standard & Poor's and "P-1" by Moody's to sell such Portfolio Collateral for settlement at least three Business Days prior to the Optional Redemption Date, and shall provide a copy of such contract to the Trustee prior to such Business Day preceding such redemption date; and pursuant to such instruction, the Trustee shall release and sell such Portfolio Collateral for purposes of such redemption. In determining whether the proceeds of any Optional Redemption will be sufficient to pay the Optional Redemption Price on the Optional Redemption Date, the Issuer and the Trustee may rely on the Market Value of the Portfolio Collateral when entering into any forward purchase agreements.

(b) In the case of a Tax Event Redemption, on or before the fifth Business Day preceding the proposed Tax Event Redemption Date contained in the notice of redemption as provided in Section 9.6 hereof, the Issuer shall deposit with the Trustee cash or Eligible Investments maturing no later than the Business Day prior to the Tax Event Redemption Date (unless such Eligible Investments are issued by the Person acting as Trustee, in which event they may mature on the Tax Event Redemption Date), or any combination thereof, in an amount sufficient to provide for payment of the Tax Event Redemption Price with respect to the Outstanding Notes and all amounts due under Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof. The Issuer may use all available funds in the Collection Account to provide for payment of the Tax Event Redemption Price in accordance with Section 11.1 hereof. In the event that there are not sufficient available funds in the Collection Account as of the date the notice of redemption is sent out pursuant to Section 9.6 hereof to pay the Tax Event Redemption Price on the Tax Event Redemption Date in accordance with Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof, the Servicer shall give the Trustee written direction to sell Portfolio Collateral in an amount sufficient to provide available funds to pay the Tax Event Redemption Price in full pursuant to Sections 11.1(b) and 11.1(d) hereof, and shall give the Issuer written direction to enter into, as of a date which is not later than five Business Days prior to the Tax Event Redemption Date, forward contracts (each of which shall provide for "payment versus delivery" and shall direct that payment be made to the Trustee) with a financial institution rated "A-1+" by Standard & Poor's and "P-1" by Moody's to sell such Portfolio Collateral for settlement at least three Business Days prior to the Tax Event Redemption Date, and shall provide a copy of such contract to the Trustee prior to such third Business Day preceding such redemption date; and pursuant to such instruction, the Trustee shall release and sell such Portfolio Collateral for purposes of such redemption.

Section 9.9. Notes Payable on Optional Redemption Date.

ACCOUNTS, ACCOUNTINGS AND RELEASES

Section 10.1. Collection of Money.

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the Trustee may demand payment or delivery of, and shall receive and collect, directly and without intervention or assistance of any fiscal agent or other intermediary, all money and other property payable to or receivable by the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture, including all payments due on the Pledged Securities included in the Trust Estate, in accordance with the terms and conditions of such Pledged Securities. The Trustee shall segregate and hold all such money and property received by it in trust for the Holders of the Notes and shall apply it as provided in this Indenture.

Section 10.2. Accounts.

(a) The Trustee shall, on or prior to the Closing Date, establish with the Securities Intermediary ten non-interest bearing segregated securities accounts (collectively, the "Accounts") which shall be designated as the "Collection Account," the "Collateral Account," the "Reserve Account," the "Initial Deposit Account," the "Expense Reimbursement Account," the "Loan Funding Account," the "Closing Expense Account," the "Securities Lending Account," the "Default Swap Collateral Account," and the "Default Swap Issuer Account," respectively, identified as held in trust for the benefit of the Noteholders and the applicable Secured Parties or, in the case of the Default Swap Collateral Account, as held in trust for the benefit of the related Default Swap Counterparty and, to the extent provided in this Indenture, the other Secured Parties. The Trustee may establish any number of sub-accounts to the Collection Account for its convenience in administering the Accounts and Trust Estate.

Each Account (including any sub-account) shall be a securities account established with the Securities Intermediary in the name of the Trustee in accordance with Section 6.15.

Pursuant to a Servicer Order, a Default Swap Collateral Account shall be established for each Default Swap. The Trustee shall credit to each such Default Swap Collateral Account on the Closing Date or on the date any such Default Swap is entered into, as applicable, the amount required to secure the obligations of the Issuer in accordance with the terms of the related Default Swap, as directed by the Servicer, which amount shall be at least equal to the amount referred to in paragraph (iv) of the definition of Default Swap, such amounts to be credited to any such Default Swap Collateral Account shall be transferred by the Trustee from the Collection Account or the Initial Deposit Account, as directed by the Servicer.

Amounts credited to a Default Swap Collateral Account shall be maintained in accordance with the terms and provisions of the related Default Swap. Amounts and property credited to a Default Swap Collateral Account shall be withdrawn by the Trustee and applied to the payment of any amounts payable by, or to the delivery of investment property deliverable by, the Issuer to the related Default Swap Counterparty, as directed by the Servicer, in accordance with the terms of such Default Swap. Income received on amounts credited to a Default Swap

Collateral Account will be applied in accordance with the terms of the applicable Default Swap to the payment of any periodic amounts owed by the Issuer to the applicable Default Swap Counterparty on the date such amounts are due, as directed by the Servicer. After application of such amounts, any income then contained in such Default Swap Collateral Account will be withdrawn from such Account, upon direction of the Servicer, and credited to the Collection Account for distribution as Collateral Interest Collections. After payment of all amounts owing by the Issuer to a Default Swap Counterparty in accordance with the terms of the related Default Swap (other than any Default Swap Counterparty Termination Payment) the Trustee shall be directed by the Servicer to withdraw all funds and other property credited to the Default Swap Collateral Account related to such Default Swap and credit such funds and other property to the Collection Account, as Collateral Principal Collections (in the case of cash and Eligible Investments) and the Collateral Account (in the case of Portfolio Collateral and other financial assets) for application as Collateral Principal Collections (other than any income thereon which will be Collateral Interest Collections) in accordance with the terms of this Indenture. Any Default Swap Counterparty Termination Payments owed by the Issuer to the Default Swap Counterparty shall be paid solely from amounts available therefor under the priority of payment provisions described herein.

Except for interest on securities credited to a Default Swap Collateral Account payable to the Issuer as described pursuant to the preceding paragraph, funds and other property standing to the credit of a Default Swap Collateral Account will not be considered to be an asset of the Issuer for purposes of the Interest Coverage Test or the Overcollateralization Tests; provided, however that the Default Swap that relates to such Default Swap Collateral Account will be considered an asset of the Issuer for such purposes.

If the terms of any Default Swap require the Default Swap Counterparty to secure its obligations with respect to such Default Swap, upon Servicer Order the Trustee will cause to be established a Default Swap Issuer Account in respect of such Default Swap. The Trustee shall credit to any such Default Swap Issuer Account all funds and other property received from the applicable Default Swap Counterparty to secure the obligations of such Default Swap Counterparty in accordance with the terms of such Default Swap.

Funds and other property standing to the credit of any Default Swap Issuer Account will not be considered to be an asset of the Issuer for purposes of the Interest Coverage Test or the Overcollateralization Tests; provided, however that the Default Swap that relates to such Default Swap Issuer Account will be considered an asset of the Issuer for such purposes.

In accordance with the terms of the applicable Default Swap, funds and other property standing to the credit of the related Default Swap Issuer Account will be withdrawn by the Trustee, as directed by the Servicer, and applied to the payment of any amount owing by the related Default Swap Counterparty to the Issuer. After payment of all amounts owing by the Default Swap Counterparty to the Issuer in accordance with the terms of the related Default Swap, all funds and other property standing to the credit of the related Default Swap Issuer Account will be withdrawn from such Default Swap Issuer Account and paid or transferred to the related Default Swap Counterparty, as directed by the Servicer, in accordance with the applicable Default Swap.

The Collection Account shall be a segregated securities account (or, at the Trustee's option, may be comprised of two separate, segregated trust accounts, designated for the collection of Collateral Interest Collections and Collateral Principal Collections, respectively), to which money required to be credited to the Collection Account (and Eligible Investments in which such money may be held from time to time, which Eligible Investments shall be acquired and held pursuant to the terms of Section 6.16 hereof) shall be credited.

All Portfolio Collateral Delivered to the Trustee that consists of security entitlements shall be credited to the Collateral Account.

Pursuant to Servicer Order, on or before the date on which the Issuer enters into a Securities Lending Agreement and delivers a copy of it to the Trustee, the Trustee shall create a segregated securities account designated as the Securities Lending Account with respect to any such Securities Lending Agreement. All Securities Lending Collateral posted by any Securities Lending Counterparty and received by the Trustee in support of its respective obligation under a Securities Lending Agreement shall be immediately credited to the Securities Lending Account. The only permitted withdrawal from or application of funds credited to the Securities Lending Account shall be: (i) for application to obligations of the relevant Securities Lending Counterparty to the Issuer under a Securities Lending Agreement if the Securities Lending Agreement becomes subject to early termination or in the exercise of remedies under the related Securities Lending Agreement upon any "event of default" under and as defined in the related Securities Lending Agreement, including liquidating the related Securities Lending Collateral, or (ii) to return the Securities Lending Collateral to the relevant Securities Lending Counterparty when and as required by the relevant Securities Lending Agreement, in each case as directed by the Servicer.

Amounts credited to the Securities Lending Account shall be applied as provided in the preceding paragraph. To the extent provided in a Securities Lending Agreement, earnings on amounts credited to the Securities Lending Account shall be payable by the Issuer to the related Securities Lending Counterparty, as directed by the Servicer.

Amounts credited to the Securities Lending Account shall not be considered an asset of the Issuer for the purposes of the Interest Coverage Test or the Overcollateralization Tests, but the loaned security or asset that relates to the Securities Lending Account shall be so considered an asset of the Issuer.

The Trustee shall credit to the Collection Account (i) all Collections received and (ii) all amounts otherwise received by it which are required to be credited thereto pursuant to this Indenture, including but not limited to, Section 10.3(e)(i) hereof.

The Trustee shall credit to the Initial Deposit Account (i) the Deposit received on the Closing Date for credit to the Initial Deposit Account pursuant to Section 3.2(e) hereof, (ii) all other amounts received by the Trustee which are required to be credited thereto pursuant to this Indenture, including but not limited to, Sections 3.2(e), 10.3(e)(ii) and 11.3 hereof and (iii) all proceeds received with respect to the sale of the Post-Closing Sale Collateral.

Upon the purchase of any item of Portfolio Collateral that is a Delayed Drawdown Loan or a Revolving Loan, the Trustee (as instructed by the Servicer) shall credit Collateral Principal Collections to the Loan Funding Account in an amount equal to the Issuer's maximum future funding obligations under the terms of such Delayed Drawdown Loan or Revolving Loan (as identified by the Servicer) and the Collateral Principal Collections so credited shall be considered part of the purchase price of such Delayed Drawdown Loan or Revolving Loan for purposes of Article XII hereof. When Collateral Principal Collections are received by the Trustee with respect to a Delayed Drawdown Loan or a Revolving Loan, the amount of such Collateral Principal Collections that may thereafter be re-borrowed under the terms of the Delayed Drawdown Loan or the Revolving Loan shall be credited to the Loan Funding Account.

The Trustee shall credit to the Expense Reimbursement Account (i) on the Closing Date the $50,000 received on the Closing Date for credit to the Expense Reimbursement Account pursuant to Section 3.2(f) hereof, (ii) all other amounts received by the Trustee which are required to be credited thereto from available amounts in the Collection Account pursuant to Section 11.1 hereof and (iii) all amounts received by it which are required to be credited thereto pursuant to Section 10.3(e)(iii) hereof.

Upon receipt, the Trustee shall credit to the Closing Expense Account on the Closing Date the amount specified pursuant to Section 3.2(f) hereof.

In addition, the Issuer may, but under no circumstances shall be required to, credit such monies to the Collection Account as it deems, in its sole discretion, to be advisable in the event that, but for such action, an Event of Default would occur.

All monies, instruments, investment property and other property credited to the Collection Account, the Initial Deposit Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Loan Funding Account, the Closing Expense Account and the Reserve Account pursuant to this Indenture, and all Portfolio Collateral and other property credited to the Collateral Account, shall be held by the Trustee as part of the Trust Estate and shall be applied in the manner set forth herein.

The Trustee shall pay free and clear of the lien of the Indenture, upon receipt (or withdrawal from the Collection Account if previously credited thereto), all Retained Accrued Interest, as directed by Bear Stearns.

(b) Upon Servicer Order (which may be in the form of standing instructions) or, after the occurrence of an Event of Default upon written direction of the Requisite Noteholders, any portion of the monies in the Collection Account, the Initial Deposit Account, the Loan Funding Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, Reserve Account and the Closing Expense Account in excess of $10,000 (in the aggregate) shall be applied by the Trustee as directed in such Servicer Order (or written direction of Requisite Noteholders, as the case may be) to purchase one or more Eligible Investments, provided that Eligible Investments in the Loan Funding Account are to mature no later than one Business Day after the date of such purchase. If the amount in such Accounts is equal to or less than $10,000, such amount shall remain therein and shall not be held in Eligible Investments. The Servicer and Issuer acknowledge that the selection of Eligible Investments by the Servicer pursuant to the preceding sentence shall be subject to the availability of such Eligible Investment at the institution at which such Account is held. If, prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Servicer shall not have given directions pursuant to this Section 10.2(b) with respect to any amounts in excess of $10,000 for one Business Day, the Trustee, unless otherwise directed in writing by the Issuer within one Business Day, shall invest such monies in Standby Directed Investments (which, in the case of Eligible Investments in the Loan Funding Account, are to mature no later than one Business Day after the date of such purchase). If, after the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Requisite Noteholders shall not have given directions pursuant to this Section 10.2(b) with respect to any amounts in excess of $10,000 for one Business Day, the Trustee shall apply such moneys as fully as practicable to purchase Standby Directed Investments and maturing not later than the earlier of (i) 30 days after the date of such purchase or (ii) the Business Day prior to the next Payment Date (or, in the case of Eligible Investments in the Initial Deposit Account, the Business Day prior to the Effective Date and in the case of Eligible Investments in the Loan Funding Account, one Business Day after the date of such purchase). All income or other gain from such Eligible Investments shall be credited to the Collection Account, the Initial Deposit Account, the Loan Funding Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Reserve Account or the Closing Expense Account, as the case may be (for which the related purchase was made) and any loss resulting from such Eligible Investments shall be charged to the Collection Account, the Initial Deposit Account, the Loan Funding Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Reserve Account or the Closing Expense Account, as the case may be (for which the related purchase was made). The Trustee shall not in any way be held liable by reason of any insufficiency in the Collection Account, the Initial Deposit Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, the Loan Funding Account or the Closing Expense Account resulting from any loss on any Eligible Investment. Except as expressly provided herein, the Trustee shall be under no obligation to invest funds held hereunder.

(c) Upon Servicer Order and subject to the provisions of Section 11.3 hereof, on any Business Day, the applicable portion of Collateral Interest Collections shall be released from the Collection Account as specified in such Servicer Order and applied by the Trustee in accordance with such Servicer Order in payment of one or more specified items of Additional Portfolio Collateral purchased in accordance with the provisions of Section 11.3 hereof.

(e) Upon Servicer Order and subject to the provisions of Section 12.4 hereof, on any Business Day all or a portion of the Collateral Disposition Proceeds shall be released from the Collection Account and applied by the Trustee in accordance with such Servicer Order in payment of one or more specified items of Substitute Portfolio Collateral purchased in accordance with the provisions of Section 12.4 hereof.

Upon Servicer Order, on the Effective Date and pursuant to Section 3.4(d), all Account Income credited to the Initial Deposit Account shall be released from the Initial Deposit Account and credited to the Collection Account to be applied as Collateral Interest Collections on the next Payment Date and the remainder of such funds shall be considered Collateral Principal Collections.

(g) Upon Servicer Order on behalf of the Issuer, all or a portion of the funds available in the Expense Reimbursement Account shall be released from the Expense Reimbursement Account and applied by the Trustee to the payment to the Issuer for the purpose of paying on or prior to the next Payment Date following the date of delivery of such Servicer Order the Issuer Base Administrative Expenses, as specified therein, which are payable during the Due Period relating to such Payment Date.

(h) On or before the first Payment Date, any remaining portion of the Closing Expense Deposit after the closing expenses have been paid in full, as confirmed by the Issuer, or Servicer on its behalf, (including any Account Income thereon) shall be transferred (i) upon receipt by the Trustee of a Servicer Order to the Initial Deposit Account (and be deemed to be part of the Deposit) or, after the Effective Date, to the Collection Account to be applied as Collateral Interest Collections or (ii) if no such Servicer Order has been received on the Business Day prior to the second Payment Date, to the Collection Account to be applied as Collateral Interest Collections.

(j) On or before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish with the Securities Intermediary a single, segregated securities account that shall be designated as the Reserve Account, that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the applicable Secured Parties, and over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal. On the Closing Date, the Trustee, at the direction of the Issuer, shall credit to the Reserve Account the Reserve Amount from the net proceeds of the Offering. Amounts credited to the Reserve Account shall be applied pursuant to subclause (b) of this Section 10.2.

SALE OF PORTFOLIO COLLATERAL; SUBSTITUTION

Section 12.1. Sale of Portfolio Collateral

(a) Provided that no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and subject to the satisfaction of the conditions specified in Section 10.3 hereof and the restrictions in this Article, the Servicer may direct the Trustee, by Servicer Order, to sell, and the Trustee shall release (or cause to be released) from the lien of this Indenture and sell in the manner directed by the Servicer, any Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, Equity Portfolio Collateral, Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral (as described in such direction) so long as, with respect to an item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral or Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, the Servicer certifies to the Trustee, as applicable, that:

(i) in the case of an item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral (including in connection with a Portfolio Improvement Exchange), in writing before the sale, that the Servicer has identified one or more specific manners in which it will be able, in compliance with the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 and the other requirements of Article XII (and in connection with a Portfolio Improvement Exchange, the requirements set forth in the definition of such term), to cause the Issuer to purchase with the applicable Collateral Disposition Proceeds net of accrued interest and costs, no later than the end of the immediately succeeding Due Period (it being understood that such identification shall not be considered either a requirement or an assurance that any specified purchase will be consummated), one or more items of Substitute Portfolio Collateral having an Aggregate Principal Balance equal to or greater than the Principal Balance of such Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral; and

(ii) in the case of an item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, after giving effect to such sale and the subsequent purchase described in (a) above, the Servicer is required to certify that it reasonably believes that (x) either the Collateral Quality Tests and the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 hereof are satisfied or if one or more of such Collateral Quality Tests or criteria is not satisfied, the degree of compliance therewith would not be diminished and (y) either the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Test are satisfied or if any Overcollateralization Test or the Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, the degree of compliance with such tests would not be diminished.

(b) An item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral may be sold at any time, subject to the Sale Restriction Condition as set forth below. Following any sale of a Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral pursuant to this Section 12.1(a), at the direction of the Servicer during the Revolving Period, the Issuer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase additional Portfolio Collateral (to the extent the purchase is in the best interest of the Issuer) with an Aggregate Principal Amount at least equal to the sale proceeds received by the Issuer with respect to the Portfolio Collateral sold. For this purpose, the Aggregate Principal Amount of any Revolving Loan or Delayed Drawdown Loan shall only include its funded amount.

(c) Notwithstanding any term hereof to the contrary and provided that no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and subject to compliance with the conditions specified in Section 10.3 hereof, any Portfolio Collateral may be sold upon delivery to the Trustee of a certificate of the Servicer to the effect that it has reasonably determined, which may be based upon the advice of an opinion of counsel (a copy of which opinion shall be included with such certificate), that such Portfolio Collateral is, or may become, subject to a withholding or other similar tax (or to an increased rate of withholding or other similar tax). Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated herein, the Servicer may direct the sale of an item of Portfolio Collateral that was CCC/Caa Portfolio Collateral or Discount Portfolio Collateral at the time of purchase only if it constitutes Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, is sold in connection with the Optional Redemption of Notes in whole or if the Servicer reasonably expects that the sale and any related purchase of Substitute Portfolio Collateral will restore compliance with any of the Interest Coverage Test, the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 or the Overcollateralization Tests that would be failed or not satisfied in the absence of such sale and purchase.

(d) During any period after the first Due Period if a Sale Restriction Condition occurs, the Issuer shall send a notice to the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes to the effect that, for so long as the applicable Sale Restriction Condition exists, unless the Holders of at least 60% in Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes elect to retain the guidelines in effect on the Closing Date for sales of an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, as applicable, (i) no item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral may be sold unless (A) the rating of the obligor or of any debt or securities issued by the obligor under such an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral has been lowered, withdrawn or put on any "credit watch" list for possible downgrade (or similar list) with negative implications by S&P, Moody's or Fitch or (B) such an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral satisfies the Credit Risk Criteria and is not objected to by the Holders of more than 60% in Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes within forty-five (45) days of the date of such notice, or such later date as extended by the Trustee at the direction of the Servicer provided that in making such determination to sell an item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, an increase in credit spread or a decrease in Market Value of such item of Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral may only be used as corroboration of other bases for such determination or (ii) no item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral may be sold unless such item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral satisfies the Credit Improved Criteria and is not objected to by the Holders of more than 60% in Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes within forty-five (45) days of the date of such notice, or such later date as extended by the Trustee at the direction of the Servicer provided, that in making such determination to sell such item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, a reduction in credit spread or an increase in Market Value of such item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral may only be utilized as corroboration or other bases for such judgment.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth above, the Servicer may at any time direct the Trustee to sell any item of Portfolio Collateral that (i) was obtained as a result of any reorganization or restructuring of any Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral or other Portfolio Collateral of an issuer under financial distress, or (ii) does not comply with the criteria set forth in Section 12.2.

Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, no acquisition or disposition of Portfolio Collateral or other eligible asset (as defined in Rule 3a-7) shall be effected by or on behalf of the Issuer for the primary purpose of recognizing gains or decreasing losses resulting from market value changes.

Notwithstanding the forgoing, if there is no appointment of a successor Servicer with 90 days after the resignation or termination of the Servicer, any sales or disposition of Portfolio Collateral shall be limited to Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral and Defaulted Portfolio Collateral and Equity Portfolio Collateral; provided that such restriction on the sale or disposition of Portfolio Collateral shall not apply if the Portfolio Collateral is being liquidated in whole or in part in connection with an acceleration or early termination of the Notes.

Section 12.2. Eligibility Criteria and Replacement Restrictions

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 12.2 and Section 11.3, if the Issuer or the Servicer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase an item of Portfolio Collateral to be included in the Trust Estate and at the time of such commitment such item of Portfolio Collateral complied with the definition of Portfolio Collateral and each of the foregoing criteria in this Section 12.2, then the Issuer may consummate the purchase of such item of Portfolio Collateral notwithstanding that such item of Portfolio Collateral fails to comply with the definition of Portfolio Collateral and such criteria on the date of settlement, provided that the agreed to settlement date shall not be more than thirty (30) days after the commitment to acquire such item of Portfolio Collateral or, if settlement occurs more than 30 days following the commitment, such item of Portfolio Collateral satisfies the criteria of this Section 12.2 as of the date of settlement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 12.2 and Section 11.3, the Issuer or the Servicer on behalf of the Issuer shall be deemed, except for purposes of the Granting Clauses, to have purchased or sold (as the case may be) any Portfolio Collateral as of the date on which the Issuer delivers to the Trustee a commitment to purchase or sell (as the case may be) such items of Portfolio Collateral, in each case entitling the Issuer (or the Trustee as assignee thereof) to receive or sell (as the case may be), and requiring the purchaser to purchase (in the case of a sale), such Portfolio Collateral and, in such event, the Issuer shall be deemed to have purchased or sold (as the case may be) such Portfolio Collateral on such date. Under the circumstances described in the immediately preceding sentence, if the transaction contemplated by the commitment referred to therein does not settle on or before the thirtieth (30th) day following the scheduled settlement date, the deemed purchase or sale shall be deemed not to have occurred.

Further, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 12.2 and Section 11.3, any certifications or other documents required to be delivered by the Servicer or the Issuer in connection with the purchase or sale of any item of Portfolio Collateral during the Revolving Period may be delivered by the Issuer or the Servicer on the settlement date for such item of Portfolio Collateral even if such date occurs after the Revolving Period.

Section 12.3. Sale of Portfolio Collateral Subject to Offer or Call

(a) The Servicer may only direct the Trustee to sell an item of Portfolio Collateral that is the subject of an Offer or call for redemption, if together with its direction to sell such security, the Servicer certifies to the Trustee that the sales price for such Security is equal to or greater than 1% of the price available pursuant to such Offer or call and such sale will be treated as if the Offer or call were consummated for purposes of determining the Collections for the Due Period relating to the date on which such sale occurs.

(b) If an item of Portfolio Collateral becomes subject to an Exchange Offer after it has been purchased by the Issuer, the Servicer will be permitted to take such action with respect to the Underlying Instrument or the issuer thereof as may be required to convert such item of Portfolio Collateral into an item of Equity Portfolio Collateral.

Section 12.4. Purchase of Substitute Portfolio Collateral

(a) Upon receipt by the Trustee of a Servicer Order with respect thereto, the Collateral Disposition Proceeds received during any Due Period during the Revolving Period may be paid out of the Collection Account, on any Business Day during such Due Period or the immediately succeeding Due Period, for the purpose of purchasing one or more items of Substitute Portfolio Collateral for inclusion in the Trust Estate in an amount not to exceed the amount of such proceeds and specified in such Servicer Order; provided that the Trustee shall have received (i) a certificate of the Servicer dated as of the date of the purchase and the Grant of such Substitute Portfolio Collateral to the effect that such purchase is in compliance with the requirements of this Section 12.4 and Section 12.5(a) hereof and (ii) the certificate required pursuant to Section 12.2 hereof.

(b) In addition to the requirements set forth in 12.4(a), in connection with Substitute Portfolio Collateral purchased with Collateral Disposition Proceeds from the sale of Defaulted Portfolio Collateral, each of the Overcollateralization Tests and the Interest Coverage Test are satisfied, in each case both before and after giving effect to such purchase.

(c) In connection with a sale of an item of Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral after the Revolving Period or the receipt of Collateral Principal Collections due to an unscheduled prepayment after the Revolving Period, the Servicer may enter into commitments to apply such Collateral Disposition Proceeds or such unscheduled prepayments (net of accrued interest and costs) to the purchase of Portfolio Loans as either Additional Portfolio Collateral or Substitute Portfolio Collateral having an Aggregate Principal Amount equal to or greater than the Principal Balance of the original item of Portfolio Collateral within 90 days of receipt of such proceeds, so long as the Servicer certifies as of the date of purchase that it reasonably believes at the time of such commitment that, after giving effect to such sale and subsequent purchase, (A) each of the Overcollateralization Tests and the collateral criteria described in Section 12.2 would be satisfied and the Interest Coverage Test was satisfied for the most recent Payment Date, (B) such Portfolio Loan to be purchased has a Moody's Rating equal to or higher than the Moody's Rating of the original item of Portfolio Collateral, (C) such Portfolio Loan to be purchased has an S&P Rating equal to or higher than the S&P Rating of the original item of Portfolio Collateral, (D) such Portfolio Loan to be purchased has a stated maturity on or prior to the final maturity of such original item of Portfolio Collateral and (E) neither Rating Agency has reduced or withdrawn (and not restored) the rating assigned by it on the Closing Date to any Class of Notes.

Section 12.5. Conditions Applicable to all Transactions Involving Purchases of Portfolio Collateral

(a) Any transaction effected under this Article or under Sections 3.4, 10.2, 10.3, 11.3 or 12.4 hereof involving the Servicer and one or more Affiliates of the Servicer shall be conducted on an arm's-length basis. Any such transaction effected with an Affiliate of the Servicer, the Issuer or the Trustee, shall be effected on terms as favorable to the Noteholders as would be the case if such Person were not so affiliated; provided that the Trustee shall have no responsibility to oversee compliance with this clause by the Issuer or Servicer.

(b) Upon any purchase or substitution pursuant to this Article or Sections 11.3, 12.3(b) or 12.4 hereof, each such Pledged Security shall be Delivered to the Trustee.

(c) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants and will certify to the Trustee in an Officer's Certificate as of the date of each purchase and Grant to the Trustee of each Portfolio Collateral pursuant to Section 11.3, Section 12.3(b) and Section 12.4 hereof:

(i) the Issuer is the owner of such item of Portfolio Collateral and the Deposit free and clear of any liens, claims (including any adverse claims) or encumbrances of any nature whatsoever, except for those granted or expressly permitted pursuant to this Indenture and due bills, if any, with respect to interest, or a portion thereof, accrued on such Portfolio Collateral prior to the first payment date and owed by the Issuer to the seller of such Portfolio Collateral;

(ii) the Issuer has acquired its ownership in such item of Portfolio Collateral and the Deposit in good faith without notice of any adverse claim, except as described in paragraph (i) above;

(iii) the Issuer has Delivered such item of Portfolio Collateral to the Trustee and has not assigned, pledged or otherwise encumbered any interest in such Portfolio Collateral or the Deposit other than interests granted or expressly permitted pursuant to this Indenture;

(iv) the Issuer has full right to Grant and does Grant pursuant to the Granting Clauses such item of Portfolio Collateral and the Deposit to the Trustee;

(v) the information set forth with respect to such item of Portfolio Collateral in Schedule A hereto is correct; and

(vi) such item of Portfolio Collateral satisfies the requirements of the definition of Portfolio Collateral.

Section 12.6. Sale of Warrants

The Servicer may direct the Trustee in writing to sell, and the Trustee shall release from the lien of this Indenture and sell in the manner directed by the Servicer, any warrant that is part of a Unit at any time after such warrant becomes separately tradable.

Section 12.7. Underlying Instruments

(a) With respect to each Portfolio Loan acquired by a Participation, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to hold at its office in the State of New York or the Commonwealth of Massachusetts an original executed Underlying Instrument entered into between the Issuer and the Selling Institution which, except in the case of a Portfolio Loan evidenced by an instrument (the original of which shall be delivered to the Trustee), may be a copy thereof, which may be sent by telecopier, certified by the Servicer or the Issuer as a true and accurate copy (which in the case of a Participation shall include the loan and security documentation with respect to the underlying loan) as provided to it by the Servicer, and, provided that the Trustee has sufficient advance notice of such transaction, the Trustee shall send a notice of the assignment of such Participation to the Selling Institution and the underlying obligor of such Portfolio Loan on or prior to the Business Day on which such Portfolio Loan is to be included in the Trust Estate.

(b) The Issuer (upon Servicer Order) may enter into any amendment of or supplement to any Underlying Instrument with respect to any item of Portfolio Collateral, without notice to or consent of any Noteholder, but with prior written notice to the Trustee, if the amendment or supplement is required (a) by the provisions of the Underlying Instrument or this Indenture, (b) to cure any ambiguity, inconsistency or formal defect or omission, (c) in connection with any authorized amendment of or supplement to this Indenture, or (d) to make any other change deemed necessary or beneficial by the Issuer (upon Servicer Order); provided that, unless such Portfolio Loan is in default, or default is reasonably foreseeable, after giving effect to such amendment or supplement, such item of Portfolio Collateral satisfies the definition of Portfolio Collateral hereunder. The Issuer shall be under no obligation to enter into any such amendment or supplement, and the Servicer and the Issuer shall be under no obligation to provide any Person with any information related thereto (other than to confirm to the Trustee compliance with this Section), to the extent that the Servicer or the Issuer, as the case may be, believes in good faith that any action so taken is necessary in order not to violate any law, regulation or contractual arrangement. The Servicer shall retain any appropriate records of such amendments.

(c) If an amendment of or supplement to any Underlying Instrument without any consent of Noteholders is not permitted by subsection (b), the Issuer may enter into, and the Trustee shall, as directed by the Issuer, accept, or if necessary consent to, such amendment or supplement, with at least 10 days' prior written notice to the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes, unless the Trustee and the Issuer have received notification by the more than 33-1/3% of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Notes objecting to such amendment or supplement within 10 days of such notice.

(d) If the Servicer determines that any amendment to the Underlying Instrument of a DIP Loan materially affects the credit quality of such DIP Loan, the Servicer shall promptly notify the Rating Agencies of such amendment, prior to execution of such amendment.

Section 12.8. Synthetic Securities

For purposes of the eligibility criteria and related tests herein, a Synthetic Security will generally be included as an item of Portfolio Collateral having the maturity, interest rate and other payment characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the Reference Obligation (including characterization as either an item of Fixed Rate Portfolio Collateral or Floating Rate Portfolio Collateral) and, with respect to all other characteristics, will be included as an item of Portfolio Collateral having the relevant characteristics of the related Reference Obligation and not of the Synthetic Security. The Servicer will notify Moody's and Standard & Poor's in writing or electronically with respect to each purchase of a Synthetic Security not later than the trade date for such Synthetic Security; except that, if, at any time, the rating by Moody's on any Class of Notes then rated by Moody's has been downgraded at least one rating sub-category (and has not been restored) or is put on credit watch (with negative implications), no Synthetic Security will be purchased by the Issuer for inclusion in the Trust Estate unless Moody's has received notice of such purchase and any information necessary to evaluate such purchase, receipt of which shall be acknowledged by a Vice President or more senior member of Moody's CDO Group, in writing or electronically, and after such receipt is acknowledged, either Moody's shall inform the Servicer that such purchase will not cause Moody's to withdraw or further downgrade any of the then-current ratings assigned by Moody's to any of the Notes within 10 Business Days, or after 10 Business Days the Servicer may assume that such purchase will not cause Moody's to withdraw or further downgrade any of the then-current ratings assigned by Moody's to any of the Notes. If after the trade date for any Synthetic Security, there is any modification to the terms of such Synthetic Security, the Servicer will provide notice of such modification to Moody's and Standard & Poor's. Further, unless otherwise agreed by Moody's or as otherwise contemplated in the definition of Synthetic Security in Section 1.1 hereof, upon maturity, acceleration or early termination of a Synthetic Security or the related Reference Obligation, the Issuer will accept only the Reference Obligation or the par amount thereof unless the Reference Obligation would be characterized as Credit Risk Portfolio Collateral, Defaulted Portfolio Collateral or Credit Improved Portfolio Collateral, in which case the Issuer may accept the current fair market value thereof, except in the event of the exercise of any put or call provision of the Synthetic Security or Reference Obligation, in which case the Issuer shall only accept the Reference Obligation or an amount greater than or equal to the par amount thereof, and the Issuer will take all commercially reasonable actions under the Synthetic Security to accomplish the foregoing. Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, in connection with the acquisition of a Synthetic Security and in lieu of all or a portion of the purchase price for such Synthetic Security, the Issuer may grant the related Synthetic Security a first priority security interest in cash and Eligible Investments designated by the Issuer and the proceeds thereof, which may be released from the lien of the Indenture and deposited with such Synthetic Security Obligor (or an intermediary or agent therefor) and invested as provided by the terms of such Synthetic Security, and the proceeds of which may be applied to make periodic payments under such Synthetic Security. For purposes of this Indenture, the grant of such security interest shall be treated as the payment of a purchase price equal to the value of the cash and Eligible Investments granted, and the Issuer's obligation to make periodic payments under such Synthetic Security shall be disregarded.

Section 12.9. Delayed Drawdown Loans and Revolving Loans

A Delayed Drawdown Loan will not be eligible for purchase by the Issuer for inclusion in the Trust Estate unless the related Underlying Instrument provides (i) that advances may be made for a period not to exceed one (1) year from the date of origination of the Delayed Drawdown Loan and in any event before the end of the Revolving Period; (ii) for a maximum amount that can be borrowed from the Issuer on one or more specified borrowing dates; (iii) that funds borrowed from the Issuer and subsequently repaid may not be reborrowed; and (iv) that the borrower is entitled to such additional advances only upon the achievement of financial performance or other objective criteria established at origination and set forth in such credit agreement.

In addition, simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of any Delayed Drawdown Loan or Revolving Loan, the Issuer is required to deposit into the Loan Funding Account the full amount of any advances or delayed draws that may be required of the Issuer thereunder and principal repaid under any Revolving Loan is required to be deposited in the Loan Funding Account to the extent the Issuer's obligation to fund any future advances has not been irrevocably reduced.

The Trustee shall provide notices directly to any beneficial holder of a Note that so identifies itself and requests receipt of such notices in writing to the Trustee.

Where this Indenture provides for notice in any manner, any such notice may be waived in writing by any Person entitled to receive such notice, either before or after the event, and such waiver shall be the equivalent of such notice. Waivers of notice by Noteholders shall be filed with the Trustee but such filing shall not be a condition precedent to the validity of any action taken in reliance upon such waiver.

In the event that, by reason of the suspension of the regular mail service as a result of a strike, work stoppage or similar activity it shall be impractical to mail notice of any event to Noteholders when such notice is required to be given pursuant to any provision of this Indenture, then any manner of giving such notice as shall be satisfactory to the Trustee shall be deemed to be a sufficient giving of such notice.

ARTICLE XIV

ASSIGNMENT OF THE SERVICING AGREEMENT

Section 14.1. Assignment of the Servicing Agreement

(a) The Issuer, in furtherance of the covenants of this Indenture and as security for the Notes and the performance and observance of the provisions hereof, has, pursuant to the Granting Clauses, assigned, transferred, conveyed and set over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Noteholders and the other secured parties hereunder, all of the Issuer's right, title and interest in, to and under the Servicing Agreement, including, without limitation, (i) the right to give all notices, consents and releases thereunder, (ii) the right to give all notices of termination and to take any legal action upon the breach of an obligation of the Servicer thereunder, including the commencement, conduct and consummation of proceedings at law or in equity, (iii) the right to receive all notices, accountings, consents, releases and statements thereunder and (iv) the right to do any and all other things whatsoever that the Issuer is or may be entitled to do thereunder; provided so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing hereunder, the Trustee hereby grants the Issuer a license to exercise all of the Issuer's rights pursuant to the Servicing Agreement without notice to or the consent of the Trustee (except as otherwise expressly required by this Indenture, including, without limitation, as set forth in paragraph (f) of this Section 14.1 hereof), which license shall be and is hereby deemed to be automatically revoked upon the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder until such time, if any, as the Event of Default is cured or waived. The Trustee shall have no liability with respect to any act or failure to act by the Issuer under the Servicing Agreement (provided that this sentence shall not limit or relieve the Trustee from any responsibility it may have under this Indenture upon the occurrence of and during the continuance of any Event of Default).

(b) The assignment made pursuant to the Granting Clauses is made as collateral security, and shall not in any way impair or diminish the obligations of the Issuer under the provisions of the Servicing Agreement, nor shall any of the obligations contained in the Servicing Agreement be imposed on the Trustee.

(c) Upon the retirement of the Notes and the release of the Trust Estate from the lien of this Indenture, the assignment pursuant to the Granting Clauses and all rights herein assigned to the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders shall cease and terminate and all the right, title and interest of the Trustee in, to and under the Servicing Agreement shall revert to the Issuer and no further instrument or act shall be necessary to evidence such termination and reversion.

(d) The Issuer represents that it has not executed any other assignment of the Servicing Agreement.

(e) The Issuer agrees that the assignment is irrevocable, and that it will not take any action which is inconsistent with such assignment or make any other assignment inconsistent therewith. The Issuer will, upon the request of the Trustee, execute all instruments of further assurance and all such supplemental instruments with respect to this assignment as the Trustee may specify.

(f) The Issuer hereby agrees, and hereby undertakes to obtain the agreement of the Servicer in the Servicing Agreement, to the following:

(1) The Servicer consents to, and agrees to perform, the provisions hereof applicable to the Servicer.

(2) The Servicer acknowledges that the Issuer is assigning all of its right, title and interest in, to and under the Servicing Agreement to the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders and the other Secured Parties hereunder.

(3) The Servicer shall deliver to the Trustee (at substantially the same time as delivered pursuant to the Servicing Agreement) duplicate original copies of all notices, statements, communications and instruments delivered or required to be delivered to the Issuer pursuant to the Servicing Agreement.

(4) Except as set forth in the Servicing Agreement, neither the Issuer nor the Servicer will enter into any agreement amending, modifying or terminating the Servicing Agreement or selecting or consenting to a successor manager (other than an amendment or modification of the type that may be made to this Indenture without Holder consent), (a) without satisfying the Rating Condition and (b) so long as the Requisite Holders have not objected in writing to such amendment or modification within 30 days of notice thereof; and any such amendment, modification, termination, selection or consent (in each case, other than pursuant to the provisions of the Servicing Agreement) without confirmation by the Rating Agencies or if the Requisite Holders have objected shall be void; provided that the consent of Requisite Noteholders or confirmation by Moody's and S&P shall not be required for an amendment or modification to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provisions therein, to comply with any changes in law, or to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under the Servicing Agreement which shall not be inconsistent with the provisions thereof or of this Indenture, so long as such amendment or modification does not affect in any material respects the interests of any Noteholder (as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel acceptable to the Trustee) and each of Moody's and S&P is notified in writing of such amendment or modification. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this subsection shall limit, in any way, any of the rights or remedies available to the Servicer pursuant to the Servicing Agreement.

(5) Except as set forth herein and in the Servicing Agreement, the Servicer shall continue to serve as Servicer under the Servicing Agreement notwithstanding that the Servicer shall not have received amounts due it under the Servicing Agreement because sufficient funds were not then available hereunder to pay such amounts in accordance with Article XI hereof, and agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against the Issuer for any reason whatsoever, including without limitation the non-payment to the Servicer, until the payment in full of all Notes issued under this Indenture and the expiration of a period equal to one year and one day following all such payments; provided that nothing in this clause shall preclude, or be deemed to estop, the Servicer (A) from taking any action prior to the expiration of the aforementioned one year and one day period in (x) any case or proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, or (y) any involuntary insolvency proceeding filed or commenced against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, by a Person other than the Servicer or its Affiliates, or (B) from commencing against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any properties of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any legal action which is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceeding.

(6) The Servicer will perform its obligations with respect to any conflict of interest in accordance with the applicable requirements of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

ARTICLE XV

ASSIGNMENT OF THE HEDGE AGREEMENT

Section 15.1. Assignment of the Hedge Agreements

(a) Pursuant to the Granting Clauses, the Issuer has assigned, transferred, conveyed and set over to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Noteholders and the other Secured Parties hereunder, all of the Issuer's right, title and interest in, to and under each Hedge Agreement, including, without limitation, (i) all of the Issuer's interest in all securities, monies and proceeds held by the related Hedge Counterparty thereunder, (ii) the right to give all notices, consents and releases thereunder, (iii) the right to give all notices of termination and to take any legal action upon the breach of an obligation of the related Hedge Counterparty thereunder, including the commencement, conduct and consummation of proceedings at law or in equity, (iv) the right to receive all notices, accountings, consents, releases and statements thereunder and (v) the right to do any and all other things whatsoever that the Issuer is or may be entitled to do thereunder; provided so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing hereunder, the Trustee hereby grants the Issuer a license to exercise all of the Issuer's rights pursuant to the Hedge Agreement without notice to or the consent of the Trustee (except as otherwise expressly required by this Indenture), which license shall be and is hereby deemed to be automatically revoked upon the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder until such time, if any, as the Event of Default is cured or waived. The Trustee shall have no liability with respect to any act or failure to act by the Issuer under any Hedge Agreement (provided that this sentence shall not limit or relieve the Trustee from any responsibility it may have under this Indenture upon the occurrence of and during the continuance of any Event of Default hereunder).

(b) The assignment made pursuant to the Granting Clauses is made as collateral security, and shall not in any way impair or diminish the obligations of the Issuer under the provisions of any Hedge Agreement, nor shall any of the obligations contained in any Hedge Agreement be imposed on the Trustee.

(c) Upon the retirement of the Notes and the release of the Trust Estate from the lien of this Indenture, all rights herein assigned to the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders and the other Secured Parties shall cease and terminate and all the right, title and interest of the Trustee in, to and under each Hedge Agreement shall revert to the Issuer and no further instrument or act shall be necessary to evidence such termination and reversion.

(d) The Issuer represents that the Issuer has not executed any other assignment of the Hedge Agreement.

(e) The Issuer agrees that the assignment set forth in the Granting Clauses is irrevocable, and that it will not take any action which is inconsistent with such assignment or make any other assignment inconsistent herewith. The Issuer will, upon the request of the Trustee, execute all instruments of further assurance and all such supplemental instruments with respect to such assignment as the Trustee may specify.

(f) The Issuer further agrees, with respect to the Hedge Agreement, as follows:

(1) The Issuer will obtain on or before the Closing Date the acknowledgement by each Hedge Counterparty that the Issuer is assigning all of its right, title and interest in, to and under the related Hedge Agreement to the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders and the other Secured Parties.

(2) Prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default the Issuer will deliver to the Trustee copies of all notices and communications delivered or required to be delivered to the Issuer pursuant to the related Hedge Agreement, but only if such notice or communication relates to any (i) default under, (ii) early termination of or (iii) amendment of, such Hedge Agreement.

(3) Subject to Section 2.14(d), the Issuer will not enter into any agreement amending, modifying or terminating a Hedge Agreement, without prior written consent of the Requisite Noteholders and written confirmation by the Rating Agencies that such amendment, modification or termination would not cause the ratings of any Class of Notes to be reduced or withdrawn; provided (A) that the consent of Requisite Noteholders and confirmation by the Rating Agencies shall not be required for an amendment or modification to cure any ambiguity or to correct or supplement any provision with respect to matters or questions arising under such Hedge Agreement which shall not be inconsistent with the provisions thereof or of this Indenture, in each case so long as such amendment or modification does not adversely affect in any material respects the interests of any Noteholder (as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel acceptable to the Trustee) and (B) neither the consent of the Requisite Noteholders, confirmation by the Rating Agencies nor an Opinion of Counsel shall be required with respect to any amendment or modification that either only corrects a manifest error or is principally and manifestly for the benefit of the Noteholders.

ARTICLE XVI

COMBINATION NOTES

Section 16.1. Payments on Combination Notes.

Upon receipt by (i) the Trustee of any payment in respect of the Note Component, or by (ii) the Paying and Transfer Agent of any payment in respect of the Preferred Share Component, the Trustee or the Paying and Transfer Agent, as applicable, shall distribute such payment to the Holders of the Combination Notes by wire transfer to such accounts as the Holders may specify (in writing) to the Trustee and the Paying and Transfer Agent prior to the related Record Date. Payments on the Preferred Share Component of the Combination Notes shall be deposited in the Preferred Shares Collection Account and distributed by the Paying and Transfer Agent to the Holders of the Combination Notes on each Payment Date subject to the provisions of the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement.

Section 16.2. Rights of Holders of the Combination Notes.

(a) All rights ordinarily allocable to a Holder of a Component Security shall be exercised by the Holder of the Combination Notes, all payments to be made hereunder to a Holder of a Component Security shall be made by the Trustee or the Paying and Transfer Agent, as applicable, directly to such Holder of the Combination Notes, and the Holder of the Combination Notes shall have all the rights, as the Holder of the Component Securities, for all purposes hereunder. All distributions to the Holder of the Combination Notes in respect of the Preferred Share Component shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement.

(b) Except as expressly provided herein, the Holders of the Combination Notes shall not be entitled to vote with respect to matters arising under this Indenture, the Paying and Transfer Agency Agreement or the Servicing Agreement except as Holders of the Component Securities.

(c) All of the obligations of the Issuer under the Combination Notes (to the extent of the Note Component) are limited recourse obligations of the Issuer, payable solely from amounts paid in respect of the related Component Securities. No Holder of a Combination Note shall have any claim against the Co-Issuers or the Trustee for any amounts payable but not actually received by the Trustee in respect of any Component Security that is not a Note, and the claims and rights of a Holder of a Combination Note in respect of any amounts payable in respect of any Component Security that is a Note shall be identical to the claims and rights of a Holder of the same amount of such Component Security.

(d) The Combination Notes represent interests in the related Component Securities. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Combination Notes do not represent an obligation of the Issuer separate from or in addition to the obligation of the Issuer with respect to the related Component Securities.

Section 16.3. Application of Payments on the Combination Notes.

(a) The Aggregate Principal Amount of the Combination Notes shall at all times equal the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Note Component plus the Notional Amount of the Preferred Share Component. After issuance, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Combination Note shall be reduced by the amount and to the extent the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Note Component or the Notional Amount of the Preferred Share Component is reduced. When a payment causing the reduction of the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Class B-1L Notes is made, the Aggregate Principal Amount of the Note Component shall be reduced based on the proportion that the Note Component bears to the Class B-1L Notes. When a payment causing the reduction of the Notional Amount of the Class I Preferred Shares is made, the Notional Amount of the Preferred Share Component shall be reduced based on the proportion that the Preferred Share Component bears to the Class I Preferred Shares.

(b) Solely for purposes of determining the Rated Balance and the Rated Coupon of the Combination Notes (as applicable), all monies distributed to the Component Securities will be applied, first to interest accrued at the Rated Coupon (with interest thereon) for the related Periodic Interest Accrual Period (calculated on the basis of a 360-day year and the actual number of days elapsed during each Periodic Interest Accrual Period) and then to the Rated Balance, until the Rated Balance has been paid in full and thereafter any payment received will be deemed additional interest on the Combination Notes. The Rated Coupon will accrue on the Rated Balance of the Combination Notes.

Section 16.4. Mandatory Exchange of the Combination Notes

On any date the Issuer elects or the Trustee is instructed by the Issuer or Noteholders or the Holders of the Preferred Shares, as applicable, either to liquidate the Trust Estate, to redeem the Notes in whole pursuant to Article IX or to redeem the Class B-1L Notes pursuant to an Optional Redemption by Refinancing pursuant to Section 9.1(b), each Holder of a Combination Note shall surrender such Combination Note to the Trustee for exchange of such Combination Note for the corresponding Component Securities as provided in Section 2.5(b)(viii) hereof. In connection with such exchange, the respective obligations and responsibilities of the Issuer and the Trustee created hereby with respect to the Combination Notes shall terminate and this Indenture shall cease to be of further effect with respect to the Combination Notes as provided in Section 4.1 hereof.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The Co-Issuers are duly authorized to execute and deliver this Indenture to provide for the Class A-1a Notes, the Class A-1b Notes, the Class A-1g Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3a Notes, the Class A-3b Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes issuable as provided in this Indenture and the Issuer is duly authorized to execute and deliver this Indenture to provide for the Composite Securities issuable as provided in this Indenture. All covenants and agreements made by the Co-Issuers in this Indenture are for the benefit and security of the Secured Parties. Concurrently with the execution of this Indenture and the issuance of the Securities and subject to the terms and conditions contained in the Insurance Agreement, the Insurer will issue and deliver to and in favor of the Trustee for the benefit of each Holder of the Insured Notes, the Policy, which, subject to certain terms and conditions contained therein (including that the Policy is not terminated in accordance with the terms hereof), unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees the Insured Amount to the Trustee for the benefit of the Holders of the Insured Notes to the extent such Insured Amounts become Due for Payment and are not paid as a result of Nonpayment by the Issuer. The Co-Issuers are entering into this Indenture, and the Trustee is accepting the trusts created by this Indenture, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged.

All things necessary to make this Indenture a valid agreement of the Co-Issuers in accordance with the agreement's terms have been done.

GRANTING CLAUSES

The Issuer Grants to the Trustee, for the benefit and security of the Noteholders, the Composite Securityholders, the Insurer, the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager and each Hedge Counterparty (collectively, the "Secured Parties"), all of its right, title, and interest in, to, and under, in each case, whether now owned or existing, or hereafter acquired or arising:

(a) the Collateral Obligations (listed, as of the Closing Date, in Schedule 1 to this Indenture and as such Schedule 1 may be modified, amended and revised subsequent to the Closing Date by the Issuer) and all Workout Assets, including any part thereof which consists of general intangibles (as defined in the UCC) relating thereto, all payments made or to be made thereon or with respect thereto, and all Collateral Obligations and Workout Assets including any part thereof which consists of general intangibles (as defined in the UCC) relating thereto, which are delivered or credited to the Trustee, or for which a Security Entitlement is delivered or credited to the Trustee or which are credited to one or more of the Issuer Accounts on or after the Closing Date and all payments made or to be made thereon or with respect thereto;

(b) the Custodial Account, the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Revolving Reserve Account, the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Synthetic Security Collateral Account, the Hedge Counterparty Collateral Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Expense Reimbursement Account, and the Securities Lending Account (collectively, the "Issuer Accounts"),

Eligible Investments purchased with funds on deposit in the Issuer Accounts, and all income from the investment of funds in the Issuer Accounts;

(c) the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account (and together with the Issuer Accounts, the "Accounts") and assets included therein, subject to the terms of the related Synthetic Security (provided, however, that any such rights in any Synthetic Security Counterparty Account shall be held in trust by the Trustee (or Securities Intermediary) first to secure the Issuer's payment obligations to the relevant Synthetic Security Counterparty and second for the benefit of the Secured Parties);

(d) the Management Agreement, the Securities Lending Agreements, the Hedge Agreements as set forth in Article 15, the Collateral Administration Agreement and, solely for the benefit of the Holders of the Class A-1g Notes only, the Insurance Documents to the extent of any rights of the Issuer therein;

(e) all Cash or money delivered to the Trustee (or its bailee);

(f) all securities, investments and agreements of any nature in which the Issuer has an interest (except for securities and investments in the Issuer's bank account in the Cayman Islands), including any part thereof which consists of general intangibles (as defined in the UCC) relating thereto; and

(g) all proceeds with respect to the foregoing;

(all of the property and assets described in foregoing clauses (a) through (g), but excluding the Class 1 Collateral (as defined below) and the Excluded Property, the "Collateral").

The Issuer as a second and separate grant Grants to the Trustee, for the benefit and security solely of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities (solely to the extent of their Class 1 Component), all of its right, title and interest in, to and under, in each case, whether now owned or existing, or hereafter acquired or arising, the Class 1 Component Account and any property of any type deposited into the Class 1 Component Account and all proceeds with respect to the foregoing (all of the foregoing, the "Class 1 Collateral").

These Grants are not intended to and do not transfer any liability under the Collateral, which liabilities shall remain the sole obligation of the Issuer. These Grants are made, however, in trust as separate trusts, to secure the Notes and the Class 1 Components in the case of the first grant, and only the Class 1 Components in the case of the second grant. "Special Redemption Date": The meaning specified in Section 9.5.

"Spread Excess": As of any Measurement Date, a fraction whose:

(i) numerator is the product of:

(A) the greater of zero and the excess of the Weighted Average Spread for the Measurement Date over the Minimum Weighted Average Spread specified in the applicable row of the Ratings Matrix, and

(B) the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Floating Rate Obligations (excluding any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations) held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date, and

(ii) denominator is the Aggregate Principal Balance of all Fixed Rate Obligations (excluding any Non-Performing Collateral Obligations) held by the Issuer as of the Measurement Date.

In computing the Spread Excess on any Measurement Date, the Weighted Average Spread for the Measurement Date will be computed as if the Fixed Rate Excess were equal to zero.

"Stated Maturity": With respect to any Collateral Obligation, the maturity date specified in it or the applicable Underlying Instrument (or, if earlier, the first date on which any person may be required by the Issuer to repurchase the entire principal amount of the Collateral Obligation at or above par) and with respect to the Notes of any Class and the Composite Securities, the Payment Date in February, 2017 or, upon a Maturity Extension (if any), the applicable Extended Stated Maturity Date. Unless otherwise specified, "Stated Maturity" means the Stated Maturity of the Notes and the Composite Securities.

"Structured Finance Obligation": Any obligation:

(i) secured directly by, referenced to, or representing ownership of, a pool of receivables or other assets of U.S. obligors, or obligors organized or incorporated in Moody's Group I Countries, Moody's Group II Countries or Moody's Group III Countries, including portfolio credit default swaps, synthetic collateralized debt obligations, and collateralized debt obligations, but excludes:

(iii) that has a rating and a Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate assigned by Moody's; and

(iv) whose ownership or disposition (without regard to the Issuer's other activities) by the Issuer will not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to net income taxes.

In connection with the purchase of a Structured Finance Obligation, the Portfolio Manager shall obtain from Moody's the applicable Moody's Priority Category Recovery Rate.

For purposes of the Diversity Test, multiple Structured Finance Obligations from CDOs managed by the same Portfolio Manager or multiple Structured Finance Obligations issued by the same master trust will be considered to be obligations of one issuer.

"Subordinated Lien Loan": A Secured Loan secured by a second (or lower) priority security interest in the relevant collateral.

"Subordinated Management Fee": An amount equal to the sum of (i) a fee that accrues from the Closing Date payable to the Portfolio Manager in arrears on each Payment Date equal to 0.25% per annum of the Maximum Investment Amount if and to the extent funds are available for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments, (ii) on any Payment Date that any part of the Senior Management Fee was not paid on the preceding Payment Date, an amount equal to interest on such unpaid amount at a rate of LIBOR for the applicable period plus 3.00% per annum and (iii) on any Payment Date that any part of the Subordinated Management Fee was not paid on the preceding Payment Date, an amount equal to interest on such unpaid amount at a rate of LIBOR for the applicable period plus 3.00% per annum. The maturity, interest rate, and other non-credit characteristics of a Synthetic Security may be different from the Reference Obligations to which the credit risk of the Synthetic Security relates.

No Synthetic Security shall require the Issuer to make any payment to the Synthetic Security Counterparty after its initial purchase other than any payments represented by the release of any cash collateral posted by the Issuer from the Collection Account to the Synthetic Security Counterparty Account simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into the Synthetic Security in an amount not exceeding the amount of the posted cash collateral. Collateral may be posted only to a Synthetic Security Counterparty Account. No Synthetic Security shall result in the Issuer being a "buyer" of credit protection.

The term Synthetic Security shall not include any Structured Finance Obligation or any Participation, but the Reference Obligation of a Synthetic Security may be a Structured Finance Obligation.

Each Synthetic Security Agreement shall contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Synthetic Security Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those contained in this Indenture.

The ownership or disposition of any Synthetic Security (without regard to the Issuer's other activities) must not cause the Issuer to be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business for United States federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject the Issuer to net income taxes.

Unless the Rating Condition is otherwise satisfied, any "deliverable obligation" that may be delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event" under any proposed Synthetic Security must not provide that its transfer to the Issuer is subject to obtaining any consents and must qualify (when the Issuer purchases the related Synthetic Security and when such "deliverable obligation" is delivered to the Issuer as a result of the occurrence of any "credit event") as a Collateral Obligation and satisfy the Concentration Limitations under this Indenture, except that such "deliverable obligation" may constitute a Defaulted Obligation when delivered upon a "credit event and if the Reference Obligation of the Synthetic Security is a Senior Secured Loan then the "deliverable obligation" under the Synthetic Security must also be a Senior Secured Loan.

Synthetic Securities that are credit default swaps, credit linked notes, or other similar instruments may not provide for "restructuring" as a "credit event".

For purposes of the Coverage Tests and the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test, unless the Rating Condition for each Rating Agency is satisfied in respect of any proposed alternative treatment, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of the Collateral Quality Tests (other than the Diversity Test and the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test), a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the related Reference Obligations.

For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations other than limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of its Reference Obligations and not the Synthetic Security. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limitations relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligation.

With respect to a Synthetic Security based upon or relating to a senior secured index investment providing non-leveraged credit exposure to a basket of credit default swaps referencing a diversified group of Reference Obligations, with respect to which the principal or notional amount of the credit exposure to any single Reference Obligation does not increase over time, for purposes of: (i) calculating compliance with the Diversity Test, the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test, and the Concentration Limitations

(other than limits relating to payment characteristics and except for clauses 17 and 17(a) of the definition of "Concentration Limitations"), and all related definitions, and (ii) any other provision or definition of this Indenture involving a determination with respect to a Reference Obligation, the characteristics of such Reference Obligations shall be determined by treating such Synthetic Security as a direct investment by the Issuer in each such Reference Obligation in an amount equal to the Allocable Principal Balance of such Reference Obligation. In addition, each Reference Obligation under such Synthetic Security shall be assigned a Moody's Rating Factor equal to the sum of the Moody's Rating Factor of (i) the related Reference Obligor, (ii) the Synthetic Security Counterparty of such Synthetic Security and (iii) the Synthetic Security Collateral of such Synthetic Security. In addition, the Moody's Priority Category Rate in respect of a Synthetic Security referencing multiple Reference Obligations pursuant to this paragraph shall be the Moody's Priority Category Rate as assigned by Moody's to each Reference Obligation underlying such Synthetic Security. For the avoidance of doubt, Reference Obligations upon which a Synthetic Security is based as described in this paragraph must meet the definition of "Collateral Obligation" to the extent provided in this definition.

If the Rating Condition must be satisfied to execute the purchase of any Synthetic Security, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, shall give each applicable Rating Agency not less than 5 days' prior notice of the purchase of or entry into any Synthetic Security.

withholding tax on New Withholding Tax Obligations and the increase in payments subject to withholding tax on Increased Rate Withholding Tax Obligations, in each case to the extent not "grossed-up" (on an after-tax basis) by the related obligor, represent 5% or more of Interest Proceeds for the Due Period; or

(ii) taxes, fees, assessments, or other similar charges are imposed on the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in an aggregate amount in any twelve-month period in excess of U.S.$2,000,000, other than any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax with respect to any payment owing in respect of any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange does not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation or Collateral Obligation.

Section 1.2. Assumptions as to Pledged Obligations; Construction Conventions.

This Section 1.2 shall be applied in connection with all calculations required to be made pursuant to this Indenture:

- with respect to the scheduled payment of principal or interest on any Pledged Obligation, or any payments on any other assets included in the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral,
- with respect to the sale of and reinvestment in Collateral Obligations,
- with respect to the income that can be earned on the scheduled payment of principal or interest on the Pledged Obligations and on any other amounts that may be received for deposit in the Collection Account, and
- with respect to the treatment of Collateral Obligations loaned pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement.

The provisions of this Section 1.2 shall be applicable to any determination or calculation that is covered by this Section 1.2, whether or not reference is specifically made to Section 1.2, unless some other method of calculation or determination is expressly specified in the particular provision.

(a) All calculations with respect to the scheduled payment of principal or interest on the Pledged Obligations shall be made on the basis of information as to the terms of each Pledged Obligation and on reports of payments received on the Pledged Obligation that are furnished by or on behalf of the issuer of the Pledged Obligation and, to the extent they are not manifestly in error, the information or report may be conclusively relied on in making the calculations.

(b) For each Due Period and as of any Measurement Date, the scheduled payment of principal or interest on any Pledged Obligation shall be the sum of

(i) the total amount of payments and collections reasonably expected to be received during the Due Period in respect of the Pledged Obligation that, if paid as scheduled, will be available for payment on the Notes and of certain expenses of the Issuer and the Co-Issuer in the Collection Account at the end of the Due Period; and

(ii) any such amounts received in prior Due Periods that were not disbursed on a previous Payment Date.

Except as provided in paragraph (h) below, a Non-Performing Collateral Obligation shall be assumed to have a scheduled payment of principal and interest of zero.

The total amount of payments and collections reasonably expected to be received includes the proceeds of the sale of the Pledged Obligation received and, in the case of sales which have not yet settled, to be received during the Due Period and not reinvested in additional Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty, Securities Lending Counterparty, or Hedge Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security, Securities Lending Agreement, or Hedge Agreement) or Eligible Investments or retained in the Collection Account for subsequent reinvestment pursuant to Section 12.2.

(c) For purposes of the applicable determinations required by Article 12 and the definition of "Interest Coverage Ratio," the expected interest on Collateral Obligations shall be calculated using their then current interest rates.

(d) With respect to any Collateral Obligation, the date on which it "matures" (or its "maturity" date) shall be the earlier of

(i) the stated maturity of the obligation or

(ii) if the Issuer has the right to require the issuer or obligor of the Collateral Obligation to purchase, redeem, or retire the Collateral Obligation at a price of at least par on any one or more dates before its Stated Maturity (a "put right") and the Portfolio Manager certifies to the Trustee that it will cause the Issuer to direct the Trustee to exercise the put right on a date, the maturity date shall be the date specified in the certification.

(e) For purposes of calculating compliance with the Collateral Quality Tests (other than the Diversity Test and the S&P Industry Classification with respect to the S&P CDO Monitor Test), the Coverage Tests, and the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not of the Reference Obligation. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limits other than limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of its Reference Obligations and not the Synthetic Security. For purposes of calculating compliance with the Concentration Limits relating to payment characteristics, and all related definitions, unless otherwise specified in this Indenture or by the Rating Agencies, a Synthetic Security shall be included as a Collateral Obligation having the characteristics of the Synthetic Security and not its Reference Obligations.

(f) Any Collateral Obligation loaned to a Securities Lending Counterparty shall be included in the Collateral Quality Tests, the Coverage Tests, and the Reinvestment Overcollateralization Test and the Principal Balance of any Collateral Obligation loaned to a Securities Lending Counterparty shall be included in the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations, in each case unless an "event of default" (under and as defined in the related Securities Lending Agreement) is continuing.

(g) If a Class of Notes ceases to be Outstanding, then any Coverage Test computed by reference to the Class of Notes (but not to any subordinate Class of Notes then Outstanding) shall cease to be of any force.

(h) For purposes of calculating compliance with the Eligibility Criteria (other than the Weighted Average Life Test), at the direction of the Portfolio Manager by notice to the Trustee, during the Reinvestment Period any Eligible Investment representing Principal Proceeds received upon the maturity, redemption, sale, or other disposition of a Collateral Obligation (or, after the Reinvestment Period, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations) shall be deemed to have the characteristics of the disposed Collateral Obligation until reinvested in an additional Collateral Obligation. The calculations shall be based on the Principal Balance of the disposed Collateral Obligations except in the case of Defaulted Collateral Obligations and Credit Risk Securities, in which case the calculations will be based on the Principal Proceeds received on the disposition or sale of the Defaulted Collateral Obligation or Credit Risk Obligation.

Section 1.3. Rules of Interpretation.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture or unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) Defined terms include, as appropriate, all genders and the plural as well as the singular.

(b) References to designated articles, sections, subsections, exhibits, and other subdivisions of this Indenture, such as "Section 6.12 (a)," refer to the designated article, section, subsection, exhibit, or other subdivision of this Indenture as a whole and to all subdivisions of the designated article, section, subsection, exhibit, or other subdivision. The words "herein,"

"hereof," "hereto," "hereunder," and other words of similar import refer to this Indenture as a whole and not to any particular article, section, exhibit, or other subdivision of this Indenture.

(c) Any term that relates to a document or a statute, rule, or regulation includes any amendments, modifications, supplements, or any other changes that may have occurred since the document, statute, rule, or regulation came into being, including changes that occur after the date of this Indenture. References to law are not limited to statutes. Any reference to any person includes references to its successors and assigns.

(d) Any party may execute any of the requirements under this Indenture either directly or through others, and the right to cause something to be done rather than doing it directly shall be implicit in every requirement under this Indenture. Unless a provision is restricted as to time or limited as to frequency, all provisions under this Indenture are implicitly available and things may happen from time to time.

(e) The term "including" and all its variations mean "including but not limited to." Except when used in conjunction with the word "either," the word "or" is always used inclusively (for example, the phrase "A or B" means "A or B or both," not "either A or B but not both").

(f) A reference to "a thing" or "any of a thing" does not imply the existence or occurrence of the thing referred to even though not followed by "if any," and "any of a thing" is any and all of it. A reference to the plural of anything as to which there could be either one or more than one does not imply the existence of more than one (for instance, the phrase "the obligors on a note" means "the obligor or obligors on a note"). "Until something occurs" does not imply that it must occur, and will not be modified by the word "unless." The word "due" and the word "payable" are each used in the sense that the stated time for payment has passed. The word "accrued" is used in its accounting sense, i.e., an amount paid is no longer accrued. In the calculation of amounts of things, differences and sums may generally result in negative numbers, but when the calculation of the excess of one thing over another results in zero or a negative number, the calculation is disregarded and an "excess" does not exist. Portions of things may be expressed as fractions or percentages interchangeably. The word "shall" is used in its imperative sense, as for instance meaning a party agrees to something or something must occur or exist.

(g) All accounting terms used in an accounting context and not otherwise defined, and accounting terms partly defined in this Indenture, to the extent not completely defined, shall be construed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. To the extent that the definitions of accounting terms in this Indenture are inconsistent with their meanings under generally accepted accounting principles, the definitions contained in this Indenture shall control.

(h) In the computation of a period of time from a specified date to a later specified date or an open-ended period, the words "from" and "beginning" mean "from and including," the word "after" means "from but excluding," the words "to" and "until" mean "to but excluding," and the word "through" means "to and including." Likewise, in setting deadlines or other periods, "by" means "on or before." The words "preceding," "following," "before," "after," "next," and words of similar import, mean immediately preceding or following. References to a month or a year refer to calendar months and calendar years.

(i) Any reference to the enforceability of any agreement against a party means that it is enforceable against the party in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, and other similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights and to general equity principles.

(j) Except when only the registered holder is recognized, such as in Section 2.9., references to Noteholders, holders, and the like refer equally to beneficial owners who have an interest in a Note but are not reflected in the Indenture Register as the owner.

ARTICLE 2

Section 2.2. Forms of Securities and Certificate of Authentication.

(a) The Securities, including the Certificated Composite Securities, Regulation S Global Securities, Rule 144A Global Notes and Certificate of Authentication, shall be in the forms of the applicable portion of Exhibit A.

The global securities shall be deposited on behalf of the subscribers for the Securities represented thereby with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee of, the Depository for the respective accounts of Euroclear and Clearstream, duly executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided. The aggregate principal amount of the Regulation S Global Securities may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee or the Depository or its nominee, as the case may be, as hereinafter provided. As used above and in subsection (d) below, "U.S. person" and "off-shore transaction" have the meanings assigned to them in Regulation S.

(c) Rule 144A Global Securities. The Notes of each Class sold to U.S. persons that are QIB/QPs shall each be issued initially in the form of one permanent global note per Class in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of the applicable portion of Exhibit A, including legends (each, a "Rule 144A Global Security"), which shall be deposited on behalf of the subscribers for the Notes represented thereby with the Trustee as custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee of, the Depository, duly executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided. The aggregate principal amount of the Rule 144A Global Notes may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee or the Depository or its nominee, as the case may be, as hereinafter provided.

(d) Certificated Composite Securities. The Composite Securities sold to U.S. persons that are either (x) QIB/QPs or (y) both Accredited Investors and Qualified Purchasers, shall be issued in the form of certificated securities in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons substantially in the form of the applicable portion of Exhibit A (each, a "Certificated Composite Security"), which shall be registered in the name of their beneficial owner or a nominee of their beneficial owner, duly executed by the Issuer and authenticated by the Trustee as hereinafter provided.

(e) Book-Entry Provisions. This Section 2.2(e) shall apply only to Global Securities deposited with or on behalf of the Depository. The "Operating Procedures of the Euroclear System" of Euroclear and the "Terms and Conditions Governing Use of Participants" of Clearstream, respectively, shall be applicable to the Regulation S Global Securities insofar as interests in the Global Securities are held by the Agent Members of Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be.

Agent Members shall have no rights under this Indenture with respect to any Global Security held on their behalf by the Trustee, as custodian for the Depository and the Depository may be treated by the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, and any agent of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee as the absolute owner of the Note for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Indenture shall prevent the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, or any agent of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee, from giving effect to any written certification, proxy, or other authorization furnished by the Depository or impair, as between the Depository and its Agent Members, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a Holder of any Security.

Section 2.4. Extension of Reinvestment Period and Stated Maturity.

(a) The Issuer, if directed by the Portfolio Manager, shall be entitled on each Extension Effective Date to extend the Reinvestment Period to the applicable Extended Reinvestment Period End Date if (i) in the case of an Extension Effective Date occurring after the first Extension Effective Date, the Issuer has previously affected a Maturity Extension for each preceding Extension Effective Date in accordance with this Section 2.4 and (ii) the Extension Conditions set forth in Section 2.4(c) are satisfied and the Issuer has given written notice of its election to extend the Reinvestment Period no later than 60 days and no earlier than 90 days prior to such Extension Effective Date. If the Extension Conditions are satisfied, the Stated Maturity of the Securities shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Stated Maturity Date and the Weighted Average Life Test shall be automatically extended to the related Extended Weighted Average Life Date, without any requirement for approval or consent of any Holders of Securities or Preference Shares or amendment or supplement to this Indenture or the Preference Share Documents (the "Maturity Extension").

(b) In the case of a Maturity Extension, any Holder of Notes, Composite Securities or Preference Shares wishing to sell such Securities or Preference Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser pursuant to the Extension Conditions must provide the applicable Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period pursuant to Section 2.4(d) (such Securities as to which an Extension Sale Notice has been duly given, "Extension Sale Securities"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each Holder providing an Extension Sale Notice shall be deemed to agree that no Extension Sale Securities of any Holder shall be purchased unless all Extension Sale Securities of all Holders are purchased and settled at the applicable Extension Purchase Price on the applicable Extension Effective Date and the other Extension Conditions are satisfied as of such date.

(c) The Maturity Extension shall be effective only if the following conditions (the "Extension Conditions") are satisfied:

(i) the purchase of all Extension Sale Securities has been settled by the designated Extension Qualifying Purchasers at the applicable Extension Purchase Price as of the applicable Extension Effective Date;

(ii) all such purchases of Extension Sale Securities individually and in the aggregate comply with the applicable transfer restrictions in this Indenture and the Preference Share Documents immediately after such purchase and the legends on such Securities or Preference Shares and all applicable law, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, rules, regulations and procedures of any applicable securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency);

(iii) (a) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to S&P (so long as any Notes are then rated by S&P) and (b) either (i) all Coverage Tests and the Selected Collateral Quality Tests are satisfied as of the related Extension Determination Date, the rating of each Class of Securities by Moody's has not been downgraded, withdrawn or qualified from that in effect on the Closing Date (unless it subsequently has been reinstated to the rating assigned on the Closing Date) and the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least $663,000,000 or (ii) the Rating Condition has been satisfied with respect to Moody's (so long as any Securities are then rated by Moody's); and

(iv) so long as the Insurer is the Controlling Class, the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer has obtained the Insurer's consent; provided, however, in the event that the Insurer does not consent to a Maturity Extension, the Holders of 100% of the Insured Notes (after giving effect to the sale of any Insured Notes which are Extension Sale Securities in connection with the proposed Maturity Extension) may, pursuant to Section 16.8, terminate the Policy, upon which, so long as clauses (i) through (iii) above have been satisfied, the Maturity Extension shall be effective.

The Issuer, the Trustee, the Insurer and, by its acceptance of the Securities or Preference Shares, each Holder of Securities or Preference Shares agrees that the Initial Purchaser shall not be responsible for causing the Extension Conditions to be satisfied and shall not be liable to any such person or Holder of Securities or Preference Shares (whether or not such Holder gave an Extension Sale Notice with respect to its Securities or Preference Shares) or to any other person if the Extension Conditions are not satisfied. Failure of the Extension Conditions to be satisfied shall not constitute a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture.

(d) Extension Procedure.

(i) No later than three Business Days following receipt by the Trustee of the notice given by the Issuer's election to extend the Reinvestment Period (the "Extension Notice"), the Trustee shall mail the Extension Notice to all Holders of Securities and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of the Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Securities are Outstanding), in the form of Exhibit J, and shall request the Rating Condition for the Maturity Extension from S&P, if applicable;

(ii) Any Holder of Securities or Preference Shares may give irrevocable notice (an "Extension Sale Notice") within 30 days after the Trustee has mailed the Extension Notice (the "Extension Sale Notice Period") of its intention to sell its Securities or Preference Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in the case of a Maturity Extension. Any Extension Sale Notice received by the Trustee after the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be disregarded and deemed not to have been given. No Holder of Securities or Preference Shares that has not given such an Extension Sale Notice within the Extension Sale Notice Period shall be entitled to sell its Securities or Preference Shares to an Extension Qualifying Purchaser in connection with the Maturity Extension; and

(iii) If clause (iii)(b)(i) of the Extension Conditions is not satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date as determined by the Issuer (or its agent), the Trustee shall request the Rating Condition to be satisfied with respect to Moody's.

(e) On the applicable Extension Determination Date, the Issuer (or its agent) shall confirm (i) whether or not Extension Qualifying Purchasers for all Extension Sale Securities have been designated to purchase such Securities or Preference Shares in compliance with all transfer restrictions in this Indenture and the legends on such Securities or Preference Shares and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency), (ii) whether the requirements of clause (c)(iii) of the Extension Conditions are satisfied as of the applicable Extension Determination Date and (iii) whether all other Extension Conditions can be satisfied as of the applicable Extension Effective Date.

(f) On each Extension Effective Date, the Maturity Extension shall automatically become effective under the terms of this Indenture; provided that all Extension Conditions set forth in clauses (a) and (c) above are satisfied. No later than two Business Days after each Extension Effective Date, the Trustee based on a determination made by the Issuer in consultation with the Portfolio Manager, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail a notice to all Holders of Securities, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Portfolio Manager, the Initial Purchaser, each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Securities are Outstanding) and the Irish Stock Exchange (if and for so long as any Class of Notes is listed thereon) confirming whether or not the Maturity Extension became effective. If the Maturity Extension became effective, the Issuer shall make any required notifications thereof to the Depositary for any Securities or Preference Shares subject to the Maturity Extension.

(g) In the case of a Maturity Extension, each Holder of Notes (other than Extension Sale Securities) and the Insurer (so long as the Policy has not been terminated) shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the applicable Extension Bonus Payment. Holders of Composite Securities and Preference Shares shall not be entitled to receive any Extension Bonus Payment.

The Extension Bonus Payment shall be payable to (i) any applicable qualifying beneficial owners who have provided the Trustee with an Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification and (ii) to the Insurer, on the first Payment Date from and including each Extension Effective Date on which funds are available to be used for such purposes in accordance with Priority of Payments, but in any event, no later than the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption of the Notes. Extension Bonus Payments which are not available to be paid on a Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments on a Payment Date shall not be considered "due and payable" hereunder. The failure to pay any such Extension Bonus Payment on such date shall not be an Event of Default, unless the Issuer shall fail to pay in full such Extension Bonus Payment on the earlier of the Stated Maturity and the date of redemption in full of the relevant Securities. Unpaid Extension Bonus Payments shall not accrue interest. Such amounts shall be paid: (i) in the case of the Notes, to the accounts designated in the applicable Extension Bonus Eligibility Certification or, to the extent otherwise required by the rules of any applicable securities exchange or clearing agency, in a manner determined by the Issuer and (ii) in the case of the Insurer, to the account specified in the Premium Letter or as otherwise directed by the Insurer in writing.

Section 2.5. Execution, Authentication, Delivery, and Dating.

The Securities shall be executed on behalf of each of the Applicable Issuers by one of their respective Authorized Officers. The signature of the Authorized Officer on the Securities may be manual or facsimile.

Securities bearing the manual or facsimile signatures of individuals who were at any time the Authorized Officers of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as applicable, shall bind the Issuer and the Co-Issuer, notwithstanding that any of them have ceased to hold their offices before the authentication and delivery of the Securities or did not hold their offices at the date of issuance of the Securities.

At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer may deliver Securities executed by the Applicable Issuers to the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent for authentication and the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent, upon Issuer Order, shall authenticate and deliver the Securities as provided in this Indenture and not otherwise.

Each Security authenticated and delivered by the Trustee or the Authenticating Agent upon Issuer Order on the Closing Date shall be dated as of the Closing Date. All other Securities that are authenticated after the Closing Date for any other purpose under this Indenture shall be dated the date of their authentication.

Securities issued upon transfer, exchange, or replacement of other Securities shall be issued in authorized denominations reflecting the original Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities so transferred, exchanged, or replaced, but shall represent only the current outstanding principal amount of the Securities so transferred, exchanged, or replaced. If any Security is divided into more than one Security in accordance with this Article 2, the original principal amount of the Security shall be proportionately divided among the Securities delivered in exchange for it and shall be the original aggregate principal amount of the subsequently issued Securities.

No Security shall be entitled to any benefit under this Indenture or be valid or obligatory for any purpose, unless there appears on the Security a Certificate of Authentication executed by the Trustee or by the Authenticating Agent by the manual signature of one of their Authorized Officers, and that certificate on any Security shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that the Security has been duly authenticated and delivered under this Indenture.

Section 2.6. Registration, Registration of Transfer and Exchange.

(a) The Issuer shall cause a register (the "Indenture Register") to be kept in which the Issuer shall provide for the registration of Securities and the registration of transfers of Securities. The Trustee is hereby initially appointed "Indenture Registrar" for the purpose of registering Securities and transfers of the Securities as provided in this Indenture. The Issuer may rely conclusively on any such information provided to it by the Trustee. Upon any resignation or removal of the Indenture Registrar, the Issuer shall promptly appoint a successor and notify the Portfolio Manager of the appointment or, in the absence of such appointment, assume the duties of Indenture Registrar. The Issuer shall cause the Composite Securities to be registered and recorded in the Indenture Register and, with respect to the Preference Share Component, in the Preference Share register.

If the Issuer appoints a person other than the Trustee to be Indenture Registrar, the Issuer will give the Trustee prompt written notice of the appointment of the Indenture Registrar and of the location, and any change in the location, of the Indenture Register. The Trustee may inspect the Indenture Register at all reasonable times and obtain copies of it. The Trustee may rely on a certificate executed on behalf of the Indenture Registrar by an Officer of the Indenture Registrar as to the names and addresses of the Holders of the Securities and the principal amounts and number of the Securities.

Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Securities at the office or agency of the Co-Issuers to be maintained pursuant to Section 7.2, if the requirements of this Indenture are met the Applicable Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferees, new Securities of any authorized denomination and of a like original Aggregate Outstanding Amount.

At the option of its holder, Securities may be exchanged for Securities of like terms, in any authorized denominations and of like aggregate principal amount, upon surrender of the Securities to be exchanged at the office or agency of the Co-Issuers to be maintained pursuant to Section 7.2. Whenever any Security is surrendered for exchange, the Applicable Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, the Securities that the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder making the exchange is entitled to receive.

All Securities issued on any registration of transfer or exchange of Securities shall be the valid obligations of the Applicable Issuers evidencing the same obligations, and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Securities surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange.

Every Security presented or surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange shall be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Indenture Registrar duly executed by its holder or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

No Holder shall incur a service charge for any registration of transfer or exchange of Securities, but the Trustee may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

(b) No Security may be sold or transferred (including by pledge or hypothecation) unless the sale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, is exempt from the registration requirements under applicable state securities laws, and will not cause either of the Co-Issuers to become subject to the requirement that it register as an investment company under the 1940 Act. None of the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, or any other person shall have any obligation to register the Securities under the Securities Act or any state securities laws.

The Trustee shall require, before any registration of transfer of a Composite Security in which delivery is to be made in the form of a Certificated Composite Security, that the Holder's prospective transferee deliver to the Trustee and the Co-Issuers a certificate relating to the transfer in the form of the applicable portion of Exhibit B (each, a "Transferee Certificate").

(c) (i) No Note may be transferred, directly or indirectly, to a Benefit Plan Investor unless the purchaser's purchase, holding and disposition of a Note or any beneficial interest therein (x) will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction under Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code and (y) in the case of a governmental, church or other plan, will not result in a non-exempt violation of any substantially similar U.S. federal, state, local or non-U.S. law.

(ii) No Composite Security may be transferred, directly or indirectly, to (i) an ERISA Plan or (ii) a Benefit Plan Investor that is not an ERISA Plan but whose purchase, holding or disposition of a Composite Security or any beneficial interest therein will result in a non-exempt violation of any federal, state, local or non-U.S. law substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code.

(d) Neither the Trustee nor the Indenture Registrar shall be responsible for ascertaining whether any transfer complies with, or for otherwise monitoring or determining compliance with, the requirements or terms of the Securities Act, applicable state securities laws, ERISA, the Code or the 1940 Act; except that if a certificate or any other document is specifically required by this Section 2.6 to be provided to the Trustee by a prospective transferee, the Trustee shall be under a duty to receive and examine the same to determine whether it conforms substantially on its face to the applicable requirements of this Section 2.6.

Each Holder of a Class 1 Composite Security (other than a Regulation S Global Security) will be required to provide to the Issuer and the Trustee written certification in the form of the applicable portion of Exhibit B as to whether it is an Affected Bank and each subsequent transferee of a Regulation S Global Security will be deemed to represent to the Issuer and to the Trustee that it is not an Affected Bank. No transfer of any Class 1 Composite Security to a transferee that has represented it is an Affected Bank will be effective, and the Trustee will not recognize any such transfer, unless such transfer is specifically authorized by the Issuer in writing; provided, however, that the Issuer shall authorize any such transfer if (x) such transfer would not cause more than 33 1/3% of the aggregate outstanding amount of the Preference Shares (including the Preference Share Components of the Class 1 Composite Securities) to be owned by Affected Banks or (y) the transferor is an Affected Bank previously approved by the Issuer.

(e) For so long as any of the Securities are Outstanding, the Issuer shall not issue or register the transfer of any Issuer Ordinary Shares to U.S. persons and the Co-Issuer shall not issue or register the transfer of any of its shares of the Co-Issuer to U.S. persons. As used in this subsection (e), "U.S. person" has the meaning assigned to it in Regulation S.

(f) So long as a Global Security remains Outstanding and is held by or on behalf of the Depository, transfers of the Global Security, in whole or in part, shall only be made in accordance with Section 2.2(c) and this Section 2.6(f).

(i) Subject to clauses (ii), (iii), and (iv) of this Section 2.6(f), transfers of a Global Security shall be limited to transfers of the Global Security in whole, but not in part, to nominees of the Depository.

(ii) Rule 144A Global Security to Regulation S Global Security. If a Holder of a beneficial interest in a Rule 144A Global Security deposited with the Depository wishes at any time to exchange its interest in the Rule 144A Global Security for an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Security, or to transfer its interest in the Rule 144A Global Security to a person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Security, the Holder may exchange or transfer the interest for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Security (subject to the rules and procedures of the Depository) if the Holder after the exchange or transfer is not a U.S. person.

The Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository to reduce the principal amount of the Rule 144A Global Security and to increase the principal amount of the Regulation S Global Security by the aggregate principal amount of the beneficial interest in the Rule 144A Global Security to be exchanged, and to credit to the securities account of the person specified in the instructions a beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Security equal to the reduction in the principal amount of the Rule 144A Global Security upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of

(A) instructions given in accordance with the Depository's procedures from an Agent Member directing the Indenture Registrar to credit a beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Security, but not less than the minimum denomination applicable to the Holder's Securities, equal to the beneficial interest in the Rule 144A Global Security to be exchanged or transferred,

(B) a written order given in accordance with the Depository's procedures containing information regarding the participant account of the Depository and the Euroclear or Clearstream account to be credited with the increase,

(C) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-2 given by the Holder of the beneficial interest stating that the exchange or transfer of the interest has been made in compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Global Securities, including that the Holder or the transferee, as applicable, is not a U.S. person, and that the transfer has been made pursuant to and in accordance with Regulation S, and

(D) in the case of a transfer, a certificate in the applicable form of Exhibit B given by the proposed transferee stating that it is not a U.S. person.

(iii) Regulation S Global Security to Rule 144A Global Security. If a Holder of a Note held as a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Security deposited with the Depository wishes at any time to exchange its interest in the Regulation S Global Security for an interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Security or to transfer its interest in the Regulation S Global Security to a person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of an interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Security, the Holder may, subject to the rules and procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream, or the Depository, as the case may be, exchange or transfer, or cause the exchange or transfer of, the interest for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Security. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of:

(A) instructions from Euroclear, Clearstream, or the Depository, as the case may be, directing the Indenture Registrar to cause to be credited a beneficial interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Security equal to the beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Security, but not less than the minimum denomination applicable to the Holder's Securities, to be exchanged or transferred, the instructions to contain information regarding the participant account with the Depository to be credited with the increase,

(B) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-3 given by the Holder of the beneficial interest and stating that, in the case of an exchange, the Holder is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and is also a Qualified Purchaser or, in the case of a transfer, the person transferring the interest in the Regulation S Global Security reasonably believes that the person acquiring the interest in a Rule 144A Global Security is a Qualified Institutional Buyer, is obtaining the beneficial interest in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A and in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction, and is also a Qualified Purchaser, and

(C) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-1 given by the proposed transferee stating that it is both a Qualified Institutional Buyer and a Qualified Purchaser, then the Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository to reduce the Regulation S Global Security by the aggregate principal amount of the beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Security to be transferred or exchanged and the Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository, concurrently with the reduction, to credit to the securities account of the person specified in the instructions a beneficial interest in the corresponding Rule 144A Global Security equal to the reduction in the principal amount of the Regulation S Global Security.

(iv) Regulation S Global Composite Security to Certificated Composite Security. If a Holder of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Composite Security wishes at any time to transfer its interest in such Global Security to a person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of a Certificated Composite Security of the same Class, the Holder may, subject to the rules and procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream, or the Depository, as the case may be, transfer the interest for an equivalent beneficial interest in one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class as described below. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of:

(A) instructions given in accordance with the Depository's procedures from an Agent Member, or instructions from Euroclear, Clearstream, or the Depository, as the case may be, directing the Trustee to deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class, designating the registered name or names, address, payment instructions, the Class, and the number and principal amounts of the Certificated Composite Securities to be executed and delivered (the Class and the aggregate principal amounts of the Certificated Composite Securities being equal to the aggregate principal amount of such Global Security to be transferred), in authorized denominations,

(B) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-6 given by the Holder of the beneficial interest and stating that the person transferring the interest in the Global Security reasonably believes that the person acquiring the interest in a Certificated Composite Security is either a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor, is obtaining the beneficial interest in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A or in a transaction not requiring registration under the Securities Act and in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other jurisdiction, and is also either (i) a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) a Knowledgeable Employee or (iii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees, and

(C) a certificate in the applicable form of Exhibit B given by the transferee of the beneficial interest stating that it is both (x) either a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor and (y) either (i) a Qualified Purchaser, (ii) Knowledgeable Employee or (iii) an entity owned exclusively by Qualified Purchasers and/or Knowledgeable Employees, and then the Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository to reduce the applicable Global Security by the aggregate principal amount of the beneficial interest in the Global Security to be transferred and the Indenture Registrar shall record the transfer in the Indenture Register in accordance with Section 2.6(a) and authenticate and deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the appropriate Class registered in the names specified in the certificate described in clause (B) above in principal amounts designated by the transferee (the aggregate of the amounts being equal to the beneficial interest in the Global Securities to be transferred) and in the minimum denominations and integral multiples in excess thereof as specified in Section 2.3.

If a Holder of a beneficial interest in a Regulation S Global Composite Security wishes at any time to exchange the interest in such Global Security for one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class, the Holder may exchange the interest for an equivalent beneficial interest in one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class as provided below. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of

(A) instructions given in accordance with the Depository's procedures from an Agent Member, or instructions from Euroclear,

Clearstream, or the Depository, as the case may be, directing the Trustee to deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities and

(B) written instructions from the Holder designating the registered name, address, and payment instructions of the Holder and the Class and the face amounts of the Certificated Composite Securities to be executed and delivered to the Holder (the Class and the aggregate face amounts of the Certificated Composite Securities being the same as the beneficial interest in the Global Security to be exchanged), then the Indenture Registrar shall instruct the Depository to reduce the Global Security by the aggregate principal amount of the beneficial interest in the Global Security to be exchanged, shall record the exchange in the Indenture Register in accordance with Section 2.6(a), and authenticate and deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the appropriate Class registered as specified in the instructions described in clause (A) above, in authorized denominations.

(v) Other Exchanges. If a Global Security is exchanged for Securities in definitive registered form without interest coupons pursuant to Section 2.11, the Securities may be exchanged for one another only in accordance with procedures substantially consistent with the provisions above (including certification requirements intended to insure that the transfers are made only to Holders who are QIB/QPs or are to non-U.S. persons, or otherwise comply with Regulation S, as the case may be), and as may be from time to time adopted by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee.

(g) So long as a Certificated Composite Security remains Outstanding, transfers of a Certificated Composite Security, in whole or in part, shall only be made in accordance with this Section 2.6(g).

(i) Certificated Composite Security to Regulation S Global Composite Security. If a Holder of a Composite Security represented by a Certificated Composite Security wishes at any time to exchange the Certificated Composite Security for an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Composite Security, or to transfer the Certificated Composite Security to a person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of an interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Composite Security, the Holder may exchange or transfer the Security for an equivalent beneficial interest in the corresponding Regulation S Global Composite Security, if the proposed transferee or the person requesting the exchange, as applicable, is not a U.S. person. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of:

(A) the Certificated Composite Security properly endorsed for the transfer, and written instructions from the Holder directing the Indenture Registrar to cause to be credited a beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Composite Security of the same Class equal to the principal amount of the Certificated Composite Security,

(B) a written order containing information regarding the Euroclear or Clearstream account to be credited with the increase,

(C) a certificate in the form of Exhibit B-5, given by the Holder of the Certificated Composite Security stating that the exchange or transfer of the interest has been made in compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Regulation S Global Composite Security, including that the proposed transferee or the person requesting the exchange, as the case may be, is not a U.S. person and that the proposed transfer is being made pursuant to and in accordance with Regulation S, and

(D) in the case of a transfer, a certificate in the appropriate form of Exhibit B given by the proposed transferee stating that it is not a U.S. person, the Indenture Registrar shall cancel the Certificated Composite Security in accordance with Section 2.10, record the transfer in the Indenture Register in accordance with Section 2.6(a), and instruct the Depository to increase the principal amount of Regulation S Global Composite Security by the aggregate principal amount of the Certificated Composite Security to be exchanged or transferred, and to credit to the account of the person specified in the instructions a beneficial interest in the Regulation S Global Composite Security of the same Class equal to the amount specified in the instructions received pursuant to clause (A) above.

(ii) Certificated Composite Security to Certificated Composite Security. If a Holder of a Certificated Composite Security wishes at any time to transfer the Certificated Composite Security to a person who wishes to take delivery of it in the form of one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class, the Holder may transfer the Security as provided below. Upon receipt by the Indenture Registrar of

(A) the Holder's Certificated Composite Security properly endorsed for the transfer, and

(B) a certificate in the applicable form of Exhibit B given by the transferee of the Certificated Composite Security, then the Indenture Registrar shall cancel the Certificated Composite Security in accordance with Section 2.10, record the transfer in the Indenture Register in accordance with Section 2.6(a), and upon execution by the Applicable Issuers authenticate and deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities bearing the same designation as the Certificated Composite Securities endorsed for transfer, registered in the names specified in the assignment described in clause (A) above, in principal amounts designated by the transferee (the aggregate of the principal amounts being equal to the aggregate principal amount of the Certificated Composite Securities surrendered by the transferor), and in authorized denominations.

(iii) Exchange of Certificated Composite Securities. If a Holder of one or more Certificated Composite Securities wishes at any time to exchange the Certificated Composite Securities for one or more Certificated Composite Securities of the same Class of different face amounts, the Holder may exchange the Certificated Composite Security for Certificated Composite Securities bearing the same designation as the Certificated Composite Securities endorsed for exchange as provided below. Upon receipt by the Applicable Issuers and the Indenture Registrar of (A) the Holder's Certificated Composite Securities properly endorsed for the exchange and (B) written instructions from the Holder designating the face amounts of the Certificated Composite Securities to be issued (the aggregate of the face amounts being equal to the aggregate face amount of the Certificated Composite Securities surrendered for exchange), then the Indenture Registrar shall cancel the Certificated Composite Securities in accordance with Section 2.10, record the exchange in the Indenture Register in accordance with Section 2.6(a), and upon execution by the Applicable Issuers authenticate and deliver one or more Certificated Composite Securities bearing the same designation as the Certificated Composite Securities endorsed for exchange, registered in the same names as the Certificated Composite Securities surrendered by the Holder, in different face amounts designated by the Holder, and in authorized denominations.

(h) The Components of the Composite Securities, whether in the form of Certificated Preference Shares, Regulation S Global Preference Shares or the Treasury Strip, are not separately transferable. For the avoidance of doubt, a Holder of a Class 1 Composite Security may not exchange its Class 1 Composite Security for proportional interests in the underlying securities represented by the Components thereof.

(i) If Securities are issued upon the transfer, exchange, or replacement of Securities bearing the applicable legends in the applicable Exhibit A, and if a request is made to remove the legend on the Securities, the legend shall not be removed unless the Trustee and the Applicable Issuers received satisfactory evidence, which may include an Opinion of Counsel acceptable to them, reasonably required by the Applicable Issuers (and which shall by its terms permit reliance by the Trustee), to the effect that neither the legend nor the restrictions on transfer in it are required to ensure that transfers of the Securities comply with the Securities Act, the 1940 Act, ERISA, and the Code. Upon provision of satisfactory evidence, the Trustee or its Authenticating Agent, at the written direction of the Applicable Issuers shall, after due execution by the Applicable Issuers authenticate and deliver Securities that do not bear the applicable legend.

(j) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 2.6 to the contrary:

(i) Restrictions on U.S. Transfers. Transfers of an interest in a Regulation S Global Security that are not made in an offshore transaction pursuant to Regulation S or are made to U.S. Persons, if such transferees take delivery in the form of an interest in a Rule 144A Global Note or a Certificated Composite Security, shall be limited to transfers made pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.6(f)(iii) and Section 2.6(f)(iv).

(ii) Beneficial interests in a Regulation S Global Security may only be held through Euroclear or Clearstream.

(k) Each person who becomes a beneficial owner of a Note or Composite Security evidenced by: (i) an interest in a Certificated Composite Security or Definitive Security, shall make the representations, warranties and agreements set forth in the applicable Transferee Certificate set forth in Exhibit B upon such person's purchase or other acquisition of the relevant Certificated Composite Security or Definitive Security and (ii) an interest in a Global Security, shall be deemed to make (or, in the case of a Class 1 Composite Security, represented by a Global Security purchased in the Offering of the Securities, will be required to make) the representations, warranties and agreements set forth in the applicable legends of the Securities set forth in Exhibit A hereto and in the applicable Transferee Certificate set forth in Exhibit B hereto upon such person's purchase or other acquisition of the relevant Global Security.

(l) The aggregate principal amount of any Global Security may be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee, as custodian for DTC for the Global Security, which adjustments shall be conclusive as to the aggregate principal amount of any Global Security.

(m) Any purported transfer of a Security not in accordance with this Section 2.6 shall be null and void.

Section 2.7. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost, or Stolen Securities.

If the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, and the relevant Transfer Agent receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss, or theft of any Security, and they receive the security or indemnity they require to hold each of them harmless, or if any mutilated Security is surrendered to a Transfer Agent, then, in the absence of notice to the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, or the Transfer Agent that the Security has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the Applicable Issuers shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in exchange for the mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Security, a replacement Security, of like tenor and equal principal amount.

If, after delivery of the replacement Security or payment on it, a protected purchaser of the predecessor Security presents it for payment, transfer, or exchange, the Applicable Issuers, the Transfer Agent, and the Trustee may recover the replacement Security (or the payment on it) from the person to whom it was delivered or any person taking the replacement Note from the person to whom the replacement Note was delivered or any assignee of that person, except a protected purchaser, and may recover on the security or indemnity provided therefor to the extent of any loss, damage, cost, or expense incurred by the Applicable Issuers, the Trustee, and the Transfer Agent in connection with it.

If any mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Security has become payable, the Applicable Issuers in their discretion may, instead of issuing a new Security pay the Security without requiring its surrender except that any mutilated Security shall be surrendered.

Upon the issuance of any new Security under this Section, the Applicable Issuers or the Trustee may require the payment by its holder of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with the issuance and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Trustee) connected with it.

Every new Security issued pursuant to this Section in replacement for any mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Security shall be an original additional contractual obligation of the Applicable Issuers and the new Security shall be entitled to all the benefits of this Indenture equally and proportionately with all other Securities of the same Class duly issued under this Indenture.

The provisions of this Section are exclusive and shall preclude (to the extent lawful) all other rights with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen Securities.

Section 2.8. Payment of Principal and Interest and Other Amounts; Principal and Interest Rights Preserved; Withholding.

(a) The Notes of each Class shall accrue interest during each Interest Period on their Aggregate Outstanding Amount (determined as of the first day of the Interest Period and after giving effect to any redemption or other payment of principal occurring on that day) at the Applicable Note Interest Rate. Interest shall be payable in arrears on each Payment Date. Payment of interest on each Class of Notes shall be subordinated to the payments of interest on the related Priority Classes and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

So long as any Priority Classes are Outstanding with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes, any payment of interest due on the Class of Deferred Interest Notes that is not available to be paid ("Deferred Interest") in accordance with the Priority of Payments on any Payment Date shall not be considered "payable" for the purposes of this Indenture (and the failure to pay the interest shall not be an Event of Default) until the Payment Date on which the interest is available to be paid in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Deferred Interest on any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall be payable on the first Payment Date on which funds are available to be used for that purpose in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Interest shall cease to accrue on each Note, or in the case of a partial repayment, on the part repaid, from the date of repayment or the respective Stated Maturity unless payment of principal is improperly withheld or unless there is some other default with respect to the payments of principal.

To the extent lawful and enforceable, interest on Deferred Interest with respect to any Class of Deferred Interest Notes shall accrue at the Note Interest Rate for the Class (and to the extent not paid as current interest on the Payment Date after the Interest Period in which it accrues, shall thereafter be additional Deferred Interest, until paid as provided in this Indenture.

(b) The principal of each Note of each Class matures at par and is payable on the Payment Date that is the Stated Maturity for the Class of Notes, unless the unpaid principal of the Note becomes payable at an earlier date by declaration of acceleration, call for redemption, or otherwise. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the payment of principal of each Class of Notes:

(i) may only occur after principal on each Class of Notes that is a Priority Class with respect to the Class has been paid in full and

(ii) is subordinated to the payment on each Payment Date of the principal and interest payable on the Priority Classes, and other amounts in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

(c) Principal payments on the Notes shall be made in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Section 9.1.

(d) As a condition to the payment of principal of and interest on any Security without the imposition of U.S. withholding tax, the Paying Agent shall require the previous delivery of appropriate properly completed and signed United States federal income tax certifications (generally, an Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or applicable successor form) in the case of a person that is a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code or an appropriate Internal Revenue Service Form W-8 (or applicable successor form) in the case of a person that is not a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) or any other certification acceptable to it to enable the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, and any Paying Agent to determine their duties and liabilities with respect to any taxes or other charges that they may be required to deduct or withhold from payments on the Security under any present or future law of the United States or any present or future law of any political subdivision of the United States or taxing authority in the United States or to comply with any reporting or other requirements under any such law.

(e) Payments in respect of interest on and principal of any Note shall be made by the Trustee, or by the Irish Listing and Paying Agent, if applicable, in U.S. Dollars to the Depository or its designee with respect to a Global Security and to the Holder or its nominee with respect to a Certificated Composite Security or a Definitive Security, by wire transfer, as directed by the Holder, in immediately available funds to a U.S. Dollar account maintained by the Depository or its nominee with respect to a Global Security, and to the Holder or its designee with respect to a Certificated Composite Security or a Definitive Security, in the case of a Certificated Composite Security or a Definitive Security, its holder has provided written wiring instructions to the Trustee and, if the payment is to be made by the Irish Listing and Paying Agent, the Irish Listing and Paying Agent, on or before the related Record Date. Payments in respect of interest on and principal of any Preference Share payable to the Preference Shares Paying Agent in accordance with the Priority of Payments for payments on the Preference Shares in accordance with the Preference Share Documents shall be payable by wire transfer in immediately available funds (or by internal transfer if the Trustee and the Preference Shares Paying Agent are the same Person) to the Preference Shares Distribution Account.

If appropriate instructions for the wire transfer are not received by the related Record Date, then the payment will be made by check drawn on a U.S. bank mailed to the address of the Holder in the Indenture Register. Upon final payment due on the Maturity of a Note, its holder shall present and surrender the Note at the office designated by the Trustee on or before the Maturity. If the Trustee and the Applicable Issuers have been furnished the security or indemnity they require to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender the certificate, then, in the absence of notice to the Applicable Issuers or the Trustee that the applicable Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender. In the case of Components to be redeemed, the related Composite Securities do not need to be surrendered at the office of any paying agent under this Indenture to receive the applicable Redemption Price. Neither the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, nor any Paying Agent shall have any responsibility or liability for any aspects of the records maintained by Euroclear, Clearstream, or any of the Agent Members relating to or for payments made thereby on account of beneficial interests in a Global Security.

In the case where any final payment of principal and interest is to be made on any Note (other than on its Stated Maturity and except as otherwise provided in this Indenture), the Trustee, in the name and at the expense of the Applicable Issuers shall, not more than 30 nor less than 10 days before the date on which the payment is to be made, mail (by first-class mail, postage prepaid) to the persons entitled thereto at their addresses appearing on the Indenture Register, a notice specifying the date on which the payment will be made, the amount of the payment per U.S.$100,000 original principal amount of Notes and the place where the Notes may be presented and surrendered for payment.

The final payment on any Composite Security shall be made only upon surrender of the certificate for the Composite Security to the Trustee at the office designated by the Trustee. If the Trustee and the Issuer have been furnished any security or indemnity they require to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender the certificate, then, in the absence of notice to the Issuer or the Trustee that the applicable certificate has been acquired by a protected purchaser, final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender of the applicable certificate.

(f) Payments of principal to Holders of the Notes of each Class shall be made in the proportion that the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes of the Class registered in the name of each Holder on the applicable Record Date bears to the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of all Notes of the Class on the Record Date.

(g) Interest accrued shall be calculated (i) in the case of the Notes (other than the Fixed Rate Notes) on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in the applicable Interest Period divided by 360 and (ii) in the case of the Fixed Rate Notes on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months.

(h) All reductions in the principal amount of a Security (or one or more predecessor Securities) effected by payments of installments of principal made on any Payment Date or Redemption Date shall be binding on all future Holders of the Security and of any Security issued upon the registration of its transfer, exchange, or replacement, whether or not the payment is noted on the Security.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the obligations of the Applicable Issuers under the Notes and the Class 1 Components and under this Indenture are limited recourse obligations of the Applicable Issuers payable solely from the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral (as applicable) and following realization of the assets, application of their proceeds in accordance with this Indenture and the reduction of the proceeds of the Collateral to zero, all obligations of, and any claims against, the Co-Issuers under this Indenture or under the Securities or arising in connection therewith shall be extinguished and shall not thereafter revive. No recourse shall be had against any Officer, director, employee, shareholder, or incorporator of either of the Co-Issuers or their respective successors or assigns for any amounts payable under the Securities or this Indenture. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph (i) shall not (1) prevent recourse to the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral (as applicable) for the sums due or to become due under any security, instrument, or agreement that is part of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral (as applicable) or (2) be a waiver, release, or discharge of any indebtedness or obligation evidenced by the Securities or secured by this Indenture until the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral (as applicable) have been realized. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph (i) shall not limit the right of any person to name the Issuer or the Co-Issuer as a party defendant in any Proceeding or in the exercise of any other remedy under the Notes or this Indenture, so long as no judgment in the nature of a deficiency judgment or seeking personal liability is sought or (if obtained) enforced against the person.

(j) If any withholding tax is imposed on the Issuer's payment (or allocations of income) under the Securities to any Noteholder or Composite Securityholder, as applicable, the tax shall reduce the amount otherwise distributable to the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder, as applicable. The Trustee is hereby authorized and directed to retain from amounts otherwise distributable to any Noteholder or Composite Securityholder sufficient funds for the payment of any tax that is legally owed, or required by law to be collected, by or on behalf of the Issuer (but the authorization shall not prevent the Trustee or the Issuer from contesting any such tax in appropriate proceedings and withholding payment of the tax, if permitted by law, pending the outcome of the proceedings). The amount of any withholding tax imposed with respect to any Noteholder or Composite Securityholder shall be treated as Cash distributed to the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder when it is withheld by the Trustee and remitted to the appropriate taxing authority. If there is a possibility that withholding tax is payable with respect to a distribution, the Trustee may in its sole discretion withhold the amounts in accordance with this Section 2.8(j). If any Noteholder or Composite Securityholder wishes to apply for a refund of any such withholding tax, the Trustee shall reasonably cooperate with the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder in making the claim by providing information readily available to the Trustee so long as the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder agrees to reimburse the Trustee for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred and provides the Trustee with security reasonably acceptable to the Trustee assuring the reimbursement. The Trustee hereby provides notice to each Noteholder or Composite Securityholder that the failure by the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder to provide the Trustee with appropriate tax certifications may result in amounts being withheld from payments to the Noteholder or Composite Securityholder. Nothing in this Indenture shall impose an obligation on the part of the Trustee to determine the amount of any tax or withholding obligation on the part of the Issuer or in respect of the Securities.

Section 2.9. Persons Considered Owners.

The Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Trustee, and any agent of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee may treat as the owner of the Security the person in whose name any Security is registered on the Indenture Register on the applicable Record Date for the purpose of receiving payments of principal of and interest on the Security and on any other date for all other purposes whatsoever (whether or not the Security is overdue), and neither the Issuer, the Co-Issuers, nor the Trustee nor any agent of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or the Trustee shall be affected by notice to the contrary. The Portfolio Manager shall notify the Trustee of any Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager that owns the Securities or Preference Shares.

Section 2.10. Cancellation.

All Securities surrendered for payment, registration of transfer, exchange, or redemption, or lost or stolen, shall be promptly canceled by the Trustee and may not be reissued or resold. No Securities shall be authenticated in lieu of or in exchange for any Securities canceled as provided in this Section 2.10, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture. All canceled Securities held by the Trustee shall be destroyed by the Trustee in accordance with its standard policy unless the Co-Issuers direct by an Issuer Order delivered to the Trustee prior to cancellation and destruction that they be returned to the Issuer.

Section 2.11. Definitive Securities.

(a) A Global Security deposited with the Depository pursuant to Section 2.2 shall be transferred in the form of a Definitive Security to their beneficial owners only if the transfer complies with Section 2.6 and either

(i) the Depository notifies the Co-Issuers that it is unwilling or unable to continue as Depository for the Global Security or

(ii) if at any time the Depository ceases to be a Clearing Agency registered under the Exchange Act and, in each case, a successor depository is not appointed by the Co-Issuers within 90 days after the notice.

(b) Any Global Security that is transferable in the form of a Definitive Security to its beneficial owners pursuant to this Section 2.11 shall be surrendered by the Depository to the office of the Trustee's agent located in the City of New York, New York as specified in Section 7.2 (or any other office designated by the Trustee) to be so transferred, in whole or from time to time in part, without charge, and the Applicable Issuers shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, upon the transfer of each portion of the Global Security, an equal aggregate principal amount of definitive physical certificates (pursuant to the instructions of the Depository) (each, a "Definitive Security") in authorized denominations. Any Definitive Security delivered in exchange for an interest in a Global Security, as applicable, shall, except as otherwise provided by Section 2.6(i), bear the legends in the applicable portion of Exhibit A and shall be subject to the transfer restrictions referred to in the legends.

(c) The Holder of a Global Security may grant proxies and otherwise authorize any person, including Agent Members and persons that may hold interests through Agent Members, to take any action which a Holder is entitled to take under this Indenture or the Securities, as applicable.

(d) Upon the occurrence of either of the events specified in Section 2.11(a)(i) and (ii), the Co-Issuers shall promptly make available to the Trustee a reasonable supply of Definitive Securities in definitive, fully registered form without interest coupons.

The Definitive Securities shall be in substantially the same form as the Global Securities, with any changes the Issuer and Trustee agree to and the Applicable Issuers shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in exchange therefor, the same aggregate principal amount of Definitive Securities of authorized denominations.

Section 2.12. Securities Beneficially Owned by Persons Not QIB/QPs or Qualified Purchasers.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary elsewhere in this Indenture, any transfer of a beneficial interest in any (i) Global Security to a U.S. person (for purposes of this Section 2.12 as defined in Regulation S) that is not a QIB/QP or (ii) Certificated Composite Security to a U.S. person that is not an Accredited Investor and a Qualified Purchaser, and that is not in each case made pursuant to an applicable exemption under the Securities Act, shall be void and any such purported transfer of which the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or the Trustee has notice may be disregarded by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, and the Trustee for all purposes.

(b) After discovery by the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or the Trustee (and notice by the Trustee or the Co-Issuer to the Issuer, if either of them makes the discovery), that a person is a Non-Permitted Holder, the Issuer shall promptly send notice to the Non-Permitted Holder demanding that the Non-Permitted Holder transfer its interest to a person that is not a Non-Permitted Holder within 30 days of the date of the notice. If the Non-Permitted Holder fails to so transfer its Notes, Composite Securities, or interest in the Securities, without further notice to the Non-Permitted Holder, the Issuer may sell the Notes, Composite Securities, or interest in the Securities to a purchaser selected by the Issuer that is not a Non-Permitted Holder on any terms the Issuer chooses. The Issuer, or the Trustee acting on behalf of the Issuer, may select the purchaser by soliciting bids (or by appointing an investment bank at the expense of the Issuer to solicit bids) from brokers or other market professionals that regularly deal in securities similar to the Securities, and selling the Securities, or interest in the Securities to the highest bidder. However, the Issuer or the Trustee may select a purchaser by any other means determined by it in its sole discretion. The Holder of each Security, the beneficial owner of each interest in a Security, the Non-Permitted Holder, and each other person in the chain of title from the Holder or beneficial owner to the Non-Permitted Holder, by its acceptance of an interest in the Securities agrees to cooperate with the Issuer and the Trustee to effect the transfers. The proceeds of the sale, net of any commissions, expenses of the Trustee or otherwise, and taxes due in connection with the sale shall be remitted to the Non-Permitted Holder. The terms of any sale under this subsection shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Issuer (or the Trustee acting on its behalf), and the Issuer and the Trustee shall not be liable to any person having an interest in the Securities sold as a result of any such sale or the exercise of its discretion.

(a) The Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, shall deliver or cause to be delivered to a custodian appointed by the Issuer, which shall be a Securities Intermediary (the "Custodian"), all Collateral in accordance with the definition of "Deliver." Initially, the Custodian shall be JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association. Any successor custodian shall be a state or national bank or trust company that is not an Affiliate of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer and has capital and surplus of at least U.S.$200,000,000 and is a Securities Intermediary. Subject to the limited right to relocate Pledged Obligations as provided in Section 7.5(b), the Trustee shall hold all Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments, other investments purchased in accordance with this Indenture (other than Loans, Participations and general intangibles) and Cash in the relevant Account established and maintained pursuant to Article 10, as to which in each case the Trustee shall have entered into an agreement with the Custodian substantially in the form of Exhibit G providing, inter alia, that the establishment and maintenance of the Account shall be governed by the law of the State of New York. The security interest of the Trustee in the funds or other property used in connection with the acquisition shall, immediately and without further action on the part of the Trustee, be released. Section 3.3. Representations as to Collateral.

(a) The Issuer hereby represents and warrants to the Secured Parties as to the Collateral and to the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities as to the Class 1 Collateral as follows (which representations are repeated on each day on which the Issuer acquires new Collateral or new Class 1 Collateral):

(i) This Indenture creates a valid and continuing security interest (as defined in the applicable Uniform Commercial Code) in the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral in favor of the Trustee, which security interest is prior to all other liens, charges, claims, security interests, mortgages, and other encumbrances, and is enforceable as such as against creditors of and purchasers from the Issuer.

(ii) The Issuer has good and marketable title to and is the owner of each item of Collateral and Class 1 Collateral free of any liens, claims, or encumbrances of any nature whatsoever except for liens (A) that are being released on the Closing Date and (B) granted pursuant to or permitted by this Indenture.

(iii) The Issuer has not assigned, pledged, or otherwise encumbered any interest in the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral (or, if any interest in the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral has been assigned, pledged, or otherwise encumbered, it has been released before the Closing Date or is being released on the Closing Date) other than interests granted pursuant to or permitted by this Indenture.

(iv) The Issuer has full right, and has received all consents and approvals required by the related Underlying Instruments, to grant a security interest in its rights in the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral to the Trustee.

(v) Each Collateral Obligation included in the Collateral satisfied the requirements of the definition of "Collateral Obligation" as of the date the Issuer committed to purchase the same or, in the case of the Warehoused Loans, as of the Closing Date.

(vi) All Collateral Obligations, any obligation that at the time of acquisition, conversion, or exchange did not satisfy the requirements of a Collateral Obligation, and Eligible Investments (other than, in each case, "general intangibles" within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code) have been and will have been credited to one of the Accounts. The securities intermediary for each Account has agreed to treat all assets credited to the Accounts as "financial assets" within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code.

(vii) The Issuer has pledged to the Trustee all of the Issuer's interest in the Class 1 Collateral and each Collateral Obligation included in the Collateral pursuant to the Granting Clauses of this Indenture and has delivered the Class 1 Collateral and each Collateral Obligation (including any promissory note and all its other Underlying Instruments to the extent received by the Issuer) to the Trustee or the Custodian as contemplated by Section 3.2.

(viii) Each of the Class 1 Collateral and the Collateral constitutes "general intangibles," "certificated securities," "instruments," "securities entitlements," "uncertificated securities," each within the meaning of the applicable Uniform

Commercial Code, or any other category of collateral under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code as to which the Issuer has complied with its obligations under Section 3.3(b).

(ix) The Issuer has caused (or will have caused within 10 days following the Closing Date) the filing of appropriate financing statements in the proper filing offices in the appropriate jurisdictions under applicable law to perfect the security interest in the portion of the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral pledged to the Trustee under this Indenture that may be perfected by the filing of financing statements.

(x) The Issuer has not authorized the filing of and is not aware of any financing statements against the Issuer that include a description of collateral covering the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral other than any financing statement (A) relating to the security interest granted to the Trustee under this Indenture, (B) that has been terminated, or (C) that names the Trustee as the secured party. On the date of this Indenture, the Issuer is not aware of any judgment or Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation or tax lien filings against the Issuer.

(xi) The Issuer has delivered to the Trustee a fully executed agreement pursuant to which the securities intermediary for each Account has agreed to comply with all instructions originated by the Trustee relating to the Account without further consent by the Issuer.

(xii) All original executed copies of each "instrument" (as defined in each applicable Uniform Commercial Code) that are or evidence the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral have been delivered to the Custodian, to the extent received by the Issuer. The Issuer has received a written acknowledgment from the Custodian that the Custodian is holding all the instruments delivered to it that are or evidence the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral solely on behalf and for the benefit of the Trustee. None of the instruments that are or evidence the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral has any marks or notations indicating that they are then pledged or otherwise assigned to any person other than the Trustee.

(xiii) The Accounts are not in the name of any person other than the Issuer or the Trustee. The Issuer has not consented to the securities intermediary of any Account to comply with instructions of any person other than the Trustee.

(xiv) All "certificated securities" (as defined in each applicable Uniform Commercial Code) that are or evidence the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral have been delivered to the Custodian, to the extent received by the Issuer, registered in the name of the Custodian or indorsed to the Custodian. The Issuer has received a written acknowledgment from the Custodian that the Custodian is holding all the certificated securities delivered to it that are or evidence the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral solely on behalf and for the benefit of the Trustee.

(xv) The Issuer has caused all "uncertificated securities" (as defined in each applicable Uniform Commercial Code) that are or evidence the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral to be registered in the name of the Custodian.

(xvi) Upon grant by the Issuer, the Trustee has a first priority perfected security interest in the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral.

(b) If the Issuer acquires Collateral or Class 1 Collateral that is not "general intangibles," "certificated securities," "instruments," "securities entitlements," "uncertificated securities," each within the meaning of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code, or another category of collateral under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code as to which the Issuer has complied with its obligations under this Section 3.3(b), then on or before the date on which the Issuer acquires the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral, the Issuer (or the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer) shall notify S&P and the Trustee (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) of its acquisition or intended acquisition of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral and the Issuer shall represent to S&P and to the Trustee (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) as to the category of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral under the applicable Uniform Commercial Code and shall make any further representations as to the perfection and priority of the security interest in the Collateral Granted under this Indenture acceptable to S&P.

The Reinvestment Period shall terminate upon a declaration of acceleration (subject to re-commencement pursuant to Section 5.2(b)). If an Event of Default specified in Section 5.1(e), (g) or (h) occurs, all unpaid principal, together with all its accrued and unpaid interest (and any applicable Defaulted Interest Charge), of all the Notes and the Class 1 Component, and other amounts payable under this Indenture, shall automatically become payable (and the Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance shall become immediately payable) without any declaration or other act on the part of the Trustee or any Noteholder and the Reinvestment Period shall terminate automatically (subject to re-commencement pursuant to Section 5.2(b)). If an Event of Default occurs with respect to the Class 1 Component under Section 5.1(b), a Majority of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities may declare the Class 1 Component immediately payable by notice to the Issuer and the Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance shall become immediately payable. (i) The Issuer or the Co-Issuer has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay:

(A) all unpaid installments of interest and principal on the Notes then due or, in the case of acceleration of the Class 1 Component by the Majority of the Class 1 Component, all distributions with respect to the Class 1 Component under Section 11.2 (other than as a result of the acceleration);

If a declaration of acceleration is rescinded as described above:

(x) the Reinvestment Period, if terminated by the declaration, shall recommence on the date of the rescission (unless the Reinvestment Period would have otherwise terminated before that date pursuant to clauses (i), (ii), or (iii) of its definition); and

(y) the Trustee shall preserve the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral in accordance with this Indenture. If the preservation of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral is rescinded pursuant to Section 5.5, the Notes and the Class 1 Component may again be accelerated pursuant to Section 5.2(a), notwithstanding any previous rescission of a declaration of acceleration pursuant to this Section 5.2(b)).

No rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right resulting from the Default.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5.2 to the contrary, the Notes will not be subject to acceleration by the Trustee, a Majority of the Controlling Class, or any other Holders solely as a result of the failure to pay any amount due on Notes that are not of the Controlling Class.

Section 5.3. Collection of Indebtedness and Suits for Enforcement by Trustee.

The Applicable Issuers covenant that if a default occurs in the payment of any principal of or interest when payable on any Note (determined without giving effect to any payments made under the Policy) or the Class 1 Component, upon demand of the Trustee or the Holder of any affected Note or Class 1 Composite Securities, the Applicable Issuers shall pay to the Trustee, for the benefit of the Holder of the Note or the Class 1 Composite Securities, the whole amount then payable on the Note or the Class 1 Component for principal and interest with interest on the overdue principal and, to the extent that payments of the interest shall be legally enforceable, on overdue installments of interest and all other amounts owing to the Holders of the Securities and the Insurer under this Indenture and the Insurance Agreement, at the Applicable Note Interest Rate or Default Interest Rate, as applicable, and, in addition, an amount sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of collection, including the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements, and advances of the Trustee and the Holders and their agents and counsel.

If the Issuer or the Co-Issuer fails to pay those amounts immediately on demand, the Trustee, in its own name and as Trustee of an express trust, may, and shall at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, institute a Proceeding for the collection of the sums due, may prosecute the Proceeding to judgment or final decree, and may enforce the same against the Applicable Issuers or any other obligor on the Notes or the Class 1 Component and collect the monies determined to be payable in the manner provided by law out of the Collateral.

If an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee may, and shall upon written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, proceed to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Holders of the Securities by any appropriate Proceedings as is deemed most effective (if no direction is received by the Trustee) or as the Trustee may be directed by a Majority of the Controlling Class, to protect and enforce the rights of the Trustee and the Holders of the Securities, whether for the specific enforcement of any agreement in this Indenture or in aid of the exercise of any power granted in this Indenture, or to enforce any other proper remedy or legal or equitable right vested in the Trustee by this Indenture or by law. The reasonable compensation, costs, expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or paid by the Trustee and its agents and counsel, in connection with such Proceeding, including, without limitation, the exercise of any remedies pursuant to Section 5.4, shall be reimbursed to the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.7.

If any Proceedings are pending relating to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any other obligor on the Notes or the Class 1 Component under the Bankruptcy Law or any other applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, or other similar law, or if a receiver, assignee, or trustee in bankruptcy or reorganization, liquidator, sequestrator, or similar official has been appointed for or taken possession of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or their respective property or any other obligor on the Notes or its property, or if any other comparable Proceedings are pending relating to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes or the Class 1 Component, or the creditors or property of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes, the Trustee, regardless of whether the principal of any Notes is then payable by declaration or otherwise and regardless of whether the Trustee has made any demand pursuant to this Section 5.3, may, by intervention in the Proceedings or otherwise:

(a) file and prove claims for the whole amount of principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Notes and the Class 1 Component, and file any other papers or documents appropriate and take any other appropriate action (including sitting on a committee of creditors) to have the claims of the Trustee (including any claim for reasonable compensation to the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee, and their respective agents, attorneys, and counsel, and for reimbursement of all expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made, by the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee, except as a result of negligence or bad faith) and of the Holders of the Securities allowed in any Proceedings relating to the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes or to the creditors or property of the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, or other obligor on the Notes;

(b) unless prohibited by applicable law, vote on behalf of the Holders of the Securities in any election of a trustee or a standby trustee in arrangement, reorganization, liquidation, or other bankruptcy or insolvency Proceedings or person performing similar functions in comparable Proceedings; and

(c) collect and receive any monies or other property payable to or deliverable on any such claims, and distribute all amounts received with respect to the claims of the Holders of the Securities and of the Trustee on their behalf; and any trustee, receiver or liquidator, custodian, or other similar official is authorized by each of the Holders of the Securities to make payments to the Trustee, and, if the Trustee consents to making payments directly to the Holders of the Securities, to pay to the Trustee amounts sufficient to cover reasonable compensation to the Trustee, each predecessor Trustee, and their respective agents, attorneys, and counsel, and all other reasonable expenses and liabilities incurred, and all advances made, by the Trustee and each predecessor Trustee except as a result of negligence or bad faith.

Nothing in this Indenture shall authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or vote for or accept or adopt on behalf of the Holder of any Security, any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, or composition affecting the Securities or any Holder of Securities, or to authorize the Trustee to vote on the claim of the Holder of any Security in any Proceeding except, as aforesaid, to vote for the election of a trustee in bankruptcy or similar person.

Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5.3 to the contrary, the Trustee may not sell or liquidate the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral or institute Proceedings in furtherance of the sale or liquidation of the Collateral pursuant to this Section 5.3 except according to Section 5.5(a).

Section 5.4. Remedies.

(a) If an Event of Default is continuing, and the Notes have been declared payable and the declaration and its consequences have not been rescinded, or at any time after the Stated Maturity, the Co-Issuers agree that the Trustee may, and shall, upon written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, to the extent permitted by applicable law, exercise one or more of the following rights:

- (i) institute Proceedings for the collection of all amounts then payable on the Class 1 Component or otherwise payable under this Indenture, whether by declaration or otherwise, enforce any judgment obtained, and collect from the Class 1 Collateral any monies adjudged due;
- (ii) sell or liquidate all or a portion of the Class 1 Collateral or interests in it, at one or more public or private sales called and conducted in any manner permitted by law and in accordance with Section 5.17;

- (iv) exercise any remedies of a secured party under the UCC and take any other appropriate action to protect and enforce the rights of the Trustee and the Holders of the Securities under this Indenture; and
- (v) exercise any other rights that may be available at law or in equity;

except that the Trustee may not sell or liquidate the Class 1 Collateral or institute Proceedings in furtherance of the sale or liquidation of the Class 1 Collateral pursuant to this Section 5.4 except according to Section 5.5(a).

The Trustee may, but need not, obtain at the Issuer's expense, and rely on an opinion of an Independent investment banking firm of national reputation with demonstrated capabilities in structuring and distributing securities similar to the Securities, which may be the Initial Purchaser, as to the feasibility of any action proposed to be taken in accordance with this Section 5.4 and as to the sufficiency of the proceeds and other amounts receivable with respect to the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral to make the required payments of principal of and interest on the Securities, which opinion shall be conclusive evidence as to the feasibility or sufficiency.

(b) If an Event of Default as described in Section 5.1(f) is continuing the Trustee may, with the consent of, and shall, at the direction of, the Holders of not less than 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, institute a Proceeding solely to compel performance of the covenant or agreement or to cure the representation or warranty, the breach of which gave rise to the Event of Default under Section 5.1(f), and enforce any equitable decree or order arising from the Proceeding.

(c) Upon any sale, whether made under the power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, any Holders or the Portfolio Manager (subject to the Management Agreement) may bid for and purchase any part of the Collateral and, upon compliance with the terms of sale, may hold, retain, possess, or dispose of the Collateral in its or their own absolute right without accountability.

Upon any sale, whether made under the power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, the receipt of the Trustee, or of the Officer making a sale under judicial Proceedings, shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchasers at any sale for their purchase money, and the purchasers shall not be obliged to see to its application.

Any sale, whether under any power of sale given under this Indenture or by virtue of judicial Proceedings, shall bind the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, and the Holders of the Securities, shall operate to divest all interest whatsoever, either at law or in equity, of each of them in the property sold, and shall be a perpetual bar, both at law and in equity, against each of them and their successors and assigns, and against all persons claiming through or under them.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, none of the Trustee, the Secured Parties, or the Holders of the Securities may, before the date that is one year and one day (or if longer, any applicable preference period plus one day) after the payment in full of all Notes, institute against, or join any other person in instituting against, the Issuer or the Co-Issuer any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium, or liquidation Proceedings, or other Proceedings under the Bankruptcy Law or any similar laws in any jurisdiction. Nothing in this Section 5.4 shall preclude the Trustee or any Secured Party (i) from taking any action before the expiration of that period in (A) any case or Proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or (B) any involuntary insolvency Proceeding filed or commenced by a person other than a Secured Party, or (ii) from commencing against the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or any of its properties any legal action that is not a bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium, or liquidation Proceeding.

Section 5.5. Optional Preservation of Collateral.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall retain the Class 1 Collateral intact, collect, and cause the collection of the proceeds of the Class 1 Collateral and make and apply all payments and deposits and maintain all accounts in respect of the Class 1 Collateral and the Class 1 Components in accordance with Section 11.2 and Article 10 and shall not sell the Class 1 Collateral in any circumstances unless so directed by all of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities, in which case the Trustee shall sell the Class 1 Collateral to the buyer identified by such Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, if an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee shall retain the Collateral intact, collect, and cause the collection of the proceeds of the Collateral and make and apply all payments and deposits and maintain all accounts in respect of the Collateral and the Notes, and any Hedge Agreements (other than amounts received under a Hedge Agreement that are used in putting a Replacement Hedge in place), in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Article 10 and Article 12 unless:

(i) the Trustee determines that the anticipated net proceeds of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral would be sufficient to discharge in full the amounts then due and unpaid on the Notes for principal and interest (including Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest and any interest on the Defaulted Interest and Deferred Interest), all Administrative Expenses, all other amounts (if any) then payable to the Hedge Counterparty by the Issuer (including any applicable termination payments) net of all amounts then payable to the Issuer by the Hedge Counterparty, all amounts owing by the Issuer to the Insurer under the Insurance Agreement, and all other amounts then payable under clause (3) of Section 11.1(a)(i) and a Majority of the Controlling Class agrees with that determination; or

(ii) the Holders of a Super Majority of each of the Senior Class A Notes, the Class A-2 Notes, the Class A-3 Notes, the Class B Notes and the Class C Notes direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral; provided, however, if an Event of Default specified in 5.1(d) occurs and if the Insurer is the Controlling Class, the Insurer shall have the sole right to direct the sale and liquidation of the Collateral under this clause (ii).

The Trustee shall give written notice of the retention of the Collateral to the Issuer with a copy to the Co-Issuer and the Portfolio Manager. So long as the Event of Default is continuing, any retention pursuant to this Section 5.5(a) may be rescinded at any time when the conditions specified in clause (i) or (ii) exist.

(b) Nothing contained in Section 5.5(a) shall be construed to require the Trustee to sell the Collateral if the conditions in clause (i) or (ii) of Section 5.5(a) are not satisfied. Nothing contained in Section 5.5(a) shall be construed to require the Trustee to preserve the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral if prohibited by applicable law.

(c) In determining whether the condition specified in Section 5.5(a)(i) exists, the Trustee shall obtain bid prices with respect to each security contained in the Collateral from two nationally recognized dealers (or if there is only one market maker, that market maker and if there is no market maker, from a pricing service), at the time making a market in those securities, and shall compute the anticipated proceeds of sale or liquidation on the basis of the lower of the bid prices for each security. In addition, for the purposes of determining issues relating to the valuation of the Collateral, the satisfaction of the conditions specified in this Indenture, the execution of a sale or liquidation of the Collateral, and the execution of a sale or other liquidation of the Collateral in connection with a determination whether the condition specified in Section 5.5(a)(i) exists, the Trustee may retain, at the Issuer's expense, and rely on an opinion of an Independent investment banking firm of national reputation, which may be the Initial Purchaser.

The Trustee shall deliver to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Holders of the Securities, the Co-Issuers, the Insurer, the Portfolio Manager and the Hedge Counterparties a report stating the results of any determination required pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i). The Trustee shall make the determinations required by Section 5.5(a)(i) after an Event of Default at the request of a Majority of the Controlling Class at any time during which the Trustee retains the Collateral pursuant to Section 5.5(a). The Trustee shall obtain (at the Issuer's expense) a letter of a firm of Independent certified public accountants confirming the accuracy of each calculation made by the Trustee pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) and certifying their conformity to the requirements of this Indenture.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, the Trustee may not, and the Holders of the Notes representing the requisite percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Notes specified in Section 5.4 or 5.5, may not instruct the Trustee to sell or liquidate or (except in connection with the concurrent execution of a Replacement Hedge) terminate any Hedge Agreement during the continuance of an Event of Default until all Collateral other than the Hedge Agreements has been sold or liquidated and its proceeds applied in accordance with this Indenture.

(e) Collateral may not be sold or liquidated pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) after the last date on which the sale or liquidation is permitted under Section 5.5(a)(i) with respect to a determination made pursuant to Section 5.5(a)(i) (the last permitted date being determined by the Trustee under Section 5.5(a)(i)), unless a new determination is made in accordance with Section 5.5(a)(i) and the Collateral is sold or liquidated before the last sale date permitted in accordance with the new determination.

Section 5.6. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Securities.

All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or under any of the Securities may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee without the possession of any of the Securities or their production in any trial or other Proceeding relating to them, and any Proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall be applied as provided in Section 5.7.

In any Proceedings brought by the Trustee (and any Proceedings involving the interpretation of any provision of this Indenture to which the Trustee shall be a party) the Trustee shall be held to represent all the Holders of the Securities.

Section 5.7. Application of Money Collected.

Any money collected by the Trustee with respect to the Notes pursuant to this Article 5 and any money that may then be held or subsequently received by the Trustee with respect to the Notes under this Indenture shall be applied, subject to Section 13.1 and in accordance with Section 11.1, at the dates fixed by the Trustee.

Any money collected by the Trustee with respect to the Class 1 Component pursuant to this Article 5 and any money that may then be held or subsequently received by the Trustee with respect to the Class 1 Component under this Indenture shall be applied in accordance with Section 11.2 at the dates fixed by the Trustee.

Section 5.8. Limitation on Suits.

No Holder of any Security shall have any right to institute any Proceedings, judicial or otherwise, with respect to this Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy under this Indenture, unless:

(a) the Holder has previously given to the Trustee written notice of an Event of Default;

(b) the Holders of not less than 25% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class or, in the case of acceleration of the Class 1 Component by the Majority of the Class 1 Component, the Class 1 Components, of the Class 1 Composite Securities shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute Proceedings with respect to the Event of Default in its own name as Trustee under this Indenture and the Holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity satisfactory to it against the expenses and liabilities to be incurred in compliance with the request;

(c) the Trustee for 30 days after its receipt of the notice, request, and offer of indemnity has failed to institute a Proceeding; and

(d) no direction inconsistent with the written request has been given to the Trustee during the 30 day period by a Majority of the Controlling Class or, in the case of acceleration of the Class 1 Component by the Majority of the Class 1 Component, the Class 1 Components, of the Class 1 Composite Securities.

No one or more Holders of Securities have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of, or by availing of, any provision of this Indenture to affect the rights of any other Holders of Securities of the same Class or to obtain or to seek to obtain priority or preference over any other Holders of the Securities of the same Class or to enforce any right under this Indenture, except in the manner provided in this Indenture and for the equal and ratable benefit of all the Holders of Securities of the same Class subject to and in accordance with Section 13.1 and the Priority of Payments or Section 11.2, as the case may be.

If the Trustee receives conflicting or inconsistent requests and indemnity from two or more groups of Holders of the Controlling Class, each representing less than a Majority of the Controlling Class, the Trustee shall take the action requested by the Holders of the largest percentage in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Indenture.

For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 5.8 shall not limit the right of the Insurer to exercise any rights or remedies that the Insurer may have pursuant to Section 16.2.

Section 5.9. Unconditional Rights of Holders of Securities.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Indenture other than this Section 5.9 and Sections 2.8(i), 5.4(d), and 13.1, (i) the Holder of any Note and a Holder of the Class 1 Composite Securities shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive payment of the principal of and interest on the Note or the Class 1 Component, as the case may be, as it comes due in accordance with the Priority of Payments or Section 11.2, as the case may be, and Section 13.1, and, subject to Section 5.8, to institute proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment, and that right shall not be impaired without the consent of the Holder; and (ii) the Insurer shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive payment of all outstanding Accrued Insurance Liabilities in accordance with the Priority of Payments and Section 13.1, and subject to Section 5.8, to institute proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment, and that right shall not be impaired without the consent of the Insurer. Holders of Notes ranking junior to Notes still Outstanding may not institute proceedings for the enforcement of any such payment until no Note ranking senior to their Note remains Outstanding, subject to Section 5.8, and shall not be impaired without the consent of any such Holder. For so long as any Notes are Outstanding, the Preference Shares Paying Agent shall not be entitled to any payment of any amount for payments to the Holders of the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Shares Documents, to the extent legally permitted, on a claim against the Issuer unless there are sufficient funds to pay such amounts to the Preference Shares Paying Agent in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Section 5.10. Restoration of Rights and Remedies.

If the Trustee, the Insurer or the Holder of any Security has instituted any Proceeding to enforce any right under this Indenture and the Proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee, the Insurer or to the Holder, then, subject to any determination in the Proceeding, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Insurer and the Holder shall be restored to their former positions under this Indenture, and thereafter all rights of the Trustee, the Insurer and the Holder shall continue as though no Proceeding had been instituted.

Section 5.11. Rights and Remedies Cumulative.

No right in this Indenture conferred on or reserved to the Trustee, the Insurer or to the Holders of Securities is intended to be exclusive of any other right, and every right shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right given under this Indenture or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right under this Indenture, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right.

Section 5.12. Delay or Omission Not Waiver.

No delay or omission of the Trustee, the Insurer or the Holder of any Security to exercise any right accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair the right or be a waiver of the Event of Default or an acquiescence in it or of a subsequent Event of Default. Every right given by this Article 5 or by law to the Trustee, the Insurer or to the Holders of Securities may be exercised from time to time, and as often as deemed expedient, by the Trustee, the Insurer or by the applicable Holders.

Section 5.13. Control by Majority of the Controlling Class.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, during the continuance of an Event of Default, a Majority of the Controlling Class, with respect to the Notes, or all of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities, with respect to acceleration of the Class 1 Component by the Majority of the Class 1 Component, the Class 1 Components, may institute and direct the time, method, and place of conducting any Proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any right of the Trustee with respect to the Notes or the Class 1 Components, as the case may be, if:

(i) the direction does not conflict with any rule of law or with any express provision of this Indenture; and

(ii) the Trustee has been indemnified to its reasonable satisfaction (and the Trustee need not take any action that it determines might involve it in liability unless it has received an indemnity against the liability).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, only a Majority of the Controlling Class may direct proceedings with respect to remedies specified in Section 5.4(a) or otherwise with respect to the Collateral, and only a Majority of the Class 1 Component may direct proceedings with respect to the remedies specified in Section 5.4(b) or otherwise with respect to the Class 1 Component.

(b) The Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee that is not inconsistent with a direction under Section 5.13(a). Subject to Section 6.1, the Trustee need not take any action that it determines might involve it in liability (unless the Trustee has received an indemnity against the liabilities reasonably satisfactory to it) and during the continuance of an Event of Default that has not been cured, or waived, the Trustee shall, before receiving directions from a Majority of the Controlling Class or all of the Holders of the Class 1 Components, as the case may be, exercise the rights expressly vested in it by this Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise with respect to the Event of Default as is required by Section 6.1(b).

(c) Any direction to the Trustee to undertake a Sale of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral shall be in accordance with Section 5.4 or 5.5.

Section 5.14. Waiver of Past Defaults.

Before a judgment or decree for payment of any money due has been obtained by the Trustee, as provided in this Article 5, a Majority of the Controlling Class may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes, with respect to the Notes, or all of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities, with respect to the Class 1 Components, waive any past Default and its consequences, except a Default:

(a) in the payment of the principal or Redemption Price of any Note or the Class 1 Component, as the case may be, or in the payment of interest (including Defaulted Interest, Deferred Interest, and any interest on Defaulted Interest or Deferred Interest) on the Notes;

(b) with respect to a provision of this Indenture that under Section 8.2 cannot be modified or amended without the waiver or consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note or Class 1 Composite Security adversely affected by the modification or amendment;

(c) in the payment of amounts due to the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, the Insurer or the Hedge Counterparty, which may only be waived with the consent of the affected party; or

(d) arising as a result of an Event of Default described in Section 5.1(e), (g) or (h).

Upon any such waiver, the Default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising from it shall be cured, for every purpose of this Indenture, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any right consequent thereto. The Trustee shall promptly give written notice of any such waiver to the Portfolio Manager, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Holder of Securities.

Section 5.15. Undertaking for Costs.

All parties to this Indenture agree, and each Holder of any Note by its acceptance of its Note agrees, that in any suit for the enforcement of any right under this Indenture, or in any suit against the Trustee or the Portfolio Manager for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee or for any action taken or omitted by the Portfolio Manager, as applicable, any court may in its discretion require the filing by any party litigant in the suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of the suit, and that the court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in the suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by the party litigant. This Section 5.15 shall not apply to any suit instituted by the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager or the Insurer, to any suit instituted by any Holder, or group of Holders, of Notes holding in the aggregate more than 10% in Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class, or to any suit instituted by any Holder of Notes for the enforcement of the payment of the principal of or interest on any Note or any other amount payable under this Indenture after the applicable Stated Maturity (or, in the case of redemption, after the applicable Redemption Date).

Section 5.16. Waiver of Stay or Extension Laws.

To the extent that they may lawfully do so, the Co-Issuers covenant that they will not at any time insist on, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension law or any valuation, appraisal, redemption, or marshalling law or rights, in each case wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, that may affect the covenants, the performance of, or any remedies under this Indenture. To the extent that they may lawfully do so, the Co-Issuers expressly waive all benefit or advantage of any such law or rights, and covenant that they shall not delay or impede the execution of any power in this Indenture granted to the Trustee or the Holders of the Securities but will permit the execution of every power as though the law had not been enacted or rights created.

Section 5.17. Sale of Collateral.

(a) The power to effect any sale (a "Sale") of any portion of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral pursuant to Sections 5.4 and 5.5 shall not be exhausted by any one or more Sales as to any portion of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral remaining unsold, but shall continue unimpaired until the entire Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral is sold or all amounts secured by the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral have been paid. The Trustee may upon notice to the Holders of the Securities and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), and shall, at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class with respect to Collateral and all of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities with respect to the Class 1 Component, from time to time postpone any Sale by public announcement made at the time and place of the Sale. The Trustee waives its rights to any amount fixed by law as compensation for any Sale. The Trustee may deduct the reasonable expenses incurred by it in connection with a Sale from its proceeds notwithstanding Section 6.7.

(b) The Trustee or the Insurer may bid for and acquire any portion of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral in connection with a public Sale of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral, and may pay all or part of the purchase price by crediting against amounts owing on the Notes in the case of the Collateral or the Class 1 Components in the case of the Class 1 Collateral or other amounts secured by the Collateral in the case of the Notes or the Class 1 Collateral in the case of the Class 1 Components all or part of the net proceeds of the Sale after deducting the reasonable expenses incurred by the Trustee in connection with the Sale notwithstanding Section 6.7. The Securities need not be produced to complete any Sale, or for the net proceeds of the Sale to be credited against amounts owing on the Notes in the case of the Collateral or the Class 1 Components in the case of the Class 1 Collateral. The Trustee or the Insurer may hold, lease, operate, manage, or otherwise deal with any property so acquired in any manner permitted by law in accordance with this Indenture.

(c) If any portion of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral consists of securities issued without registration under the Securities Act ("Unregistered Securities"), the Trustee may seek an Opinion of Counsel, or, if no Opinion of Counsel can be obtained, seek a no action position from the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other relevant federal or state regulatory authorities, regarding the legality of a public or private Sale of the Unregistered Securities.

(d) The Trustee shall execute and deliver an appropriate instrument of transfer transferring its interest in any portion of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral in connection with its Sale. In addition, the Trustee is irrevocably appointed the agent and attorney-in-fact of the Issuer to transfer its interest in any portion of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral in connection with its Sale, and to take all action necessary to effect the Sale. No purchaser or transferee at a Sale shall be bound to ascertain the Trustee's authority, to inquire into the satisfaction of any conditions precedent, or see to the application of any monies.

Section 5.18. Action on the Securities.

The Trustee's right to seek and recover judgment on the Notes, the Class 1 Component or under this Indenture shall not be affected by the seeking or obtaining of or application for any other relief under or with respect to this Indenture. Neither the lien of this Indenture nor any rights or remedies of the Trustee, the Insurer or the Holders of the Securities shall be impaired by the recovery of any judgment by the Trustee against the Issuer or by the levy of any execution under the judgment on any portion of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral or on any of the assets of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer.

Section 5.19. Direction by the Insurer.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, so long as the Insurer is the Controlling Class, the Insurer shall have the right (to the exclusion of the Holders of the Insured Notes) to direct the Trustee as to any and all remedies to be sought or taken on behalf of the Holders of the Insured Notes under this Indenture and the Trustee shall not exercise any such remedies unless directed by the Insurer to the extent the Holders of the Insured Notes could control the actions of the Trustee. Each Holder of the Insured Notes shall be deemed to have consented to the Insurer's rights hereunder with respect to an Event of Default. At such time as there exists and is continuing a Insurer Default, the Trustee shall not be bound to continue to comply with any term or condition of this Indenture that requires the consent of or approval or direction from the Insurer.

ARTICLE 6

THE TRUSTEE

Section 6.1. Certain Duties and Responsibilities.

(a) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default:

(i) the Trustee undertakes to perform the duties and only the duties specifically provided in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; and

(ii) in the absence of bad faith on its part, the Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, on certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture; the Trustee shall examine any certificates or opinions that by any provision of this Indenture are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee to determine whether or not they substantially conform on their face to the requirements of this Indenture and shall promptly notify the party delivering the same if the certificate or opinion does not conform. If a corrected form has not been delivered to the Trustee within 15 days after the notice from the Trustee, the Trustee shall so notify the Holders of the Securities and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares).

(b) If the Trustee has actual knowledge that an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee shall, before the receipt of directions from a Majority of the Controlling Class, exercise the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture, and use the same degree of care and skill in its exercise, as a prudent person would use under the circumstances in the conduct of the person's own affairs.

(c) No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act, or its own willful misconduct, except that:

(i) this subsection shall not be construed to limit the effect of subsection (a) of this Section 6.1;

(ii) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Trust Officer, unless it is proven that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(iii) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer or the Portfolio Manager in accordance with this Indenture or a Majority (or the other percentage required by this Indenture) of the Controlling Class (or other Class if required or permitted by this Indenture) or, with respect to the Class 1 Component, the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities relating to the time, method, and place of conducting any Proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee, under this Indenture; and

(iv) no provision of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any extraordinary financial liability in the performance of any of its duties under this Indenture, or in the exercise of any of its rights contemplated under this Indenture, if it has reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of the funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against the risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it; provided that the reasonable costs of performing its ordinary services under this Indenture shall not be deemed an "extraordinary financial liability" for purposes hereof.

(d) For all purposes under this Indenture, the Trustee shall not have notice or knowledge of any Insurer Default or Event of Default described in Section 5.1(d) through 5.1(i) or any Default described in Section 5.1(e) through 5.1(j) unless a Trust Officer assigned to and working in the Corporate Trust Office has actual knowledge of it or unless written notice of any event that is in fact the an Event of Default or Default is received by the Trustee at the Corporate Trust Office, and the notice references the Notes or the Class 1 Component generally, the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Collateral, the Class 1 Collateral or this Indenture. For purposes of determining the Trustee's responsibility and liability under this Indenture, whenever reference is made in this Indenture to an Event of Default or a Default, the reference shall be construed to refer only to an Event of Default or Default of which the Trustee has notice as described in this Section 6.1.

(e) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to this Section 6.1 and Section 6.3.

Upon written request by the Insurer (so long as it is the Controlling Class), the Trustee shall, upon reasonable (but no less than three Business Day's) prior written notice to the Trustee, permit any representative of the Insurer, during the Trustee's normal business hours, to examine all books of account, records, reports and other papers of the Trustee relating to the Securities, to make copies and extracts therefrom (the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in making any such copies or extracts to be reimbursed to the Trustee by the Insurer) and to discuss the Trustee's actions, as such actions relate to the Trustee's duties with respect to the Securities, with the Trustee's officers and employees responsible for carrying out the Trustee's duties with respect to the Securities.

Section 6.2. Notice of Default.

Promptly (and in no event later than five Business Days) after the occurrence of any Default known to the Trustee or after any declaration of acceleration has been made or delivered to the Trustee pursuant to Section 5.2, the Trustee shall transmit notice of all Defaults under this Indenture known to the Trustee, unless the Default has been cured or waived, and of the declaration by mail to the Portfolio Manager and the Co-Issuers, each Rating Agency, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and to all Holders of Securities, as their names and addresses appear on the Indenture Register, the Irish Stock Exchange, for so long as any Class of Securities is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, and, upon written request therefor by a Beneficial Owner in the form of Exhibit I certifying that it is a Beneficial Owner, to the Beneficial Owner (or its designee).

Section 6.3. Certain Rights of Trustee.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 6.1:

(a) the Trustee may rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting on any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, note, or other paper or document (including but not limited to any reports prepared and delivered under Article 10) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(b) any request or direction of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer mentioned in this Indenture shall be sufficiently evidenced by an Issuer Request or Issuer Order;

(c) whenever in the administration of this Indenture the Trustee

(i) deems it desirable that a matter be proved or established before taking, suffering, or omitting any action under this Indenture, the Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, rely on an Officer's certificate (unless other evidence is specifically prescribed in this Indenture) or

(ii) is required to determine the value of, or any other matter with respect to, any Collateral or Class 1 Collateral or funds under this Indenture or the cash flows projected to be received therefrom, the Trustee may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, rely on reports of nationally recognized accountants, investment bankers, or other persons qualified to provide the information required to make the determination, including nationally recognized dealers in securities of the type being valued and securities quotation services;

(d) as a condition to taking or omitting to take any action under this Indenture, the Trustee may consult with counsel and the advice of the counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection with respect to any action taken or omitted by it under this Indenture in good faith and in reliance thereon;

(e) the Trustee need not exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request or direction of the Insurer or any of the Holders of the Securities pursuant to this Indenture, unless the Insurer or the Holders have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity satisfactory to it against the costs and liabilities that might reasonably be incurred by it in compliance with the request or direction;

(f) the Trustee need not make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, note, or other paper or document, but the Trustee, in its discretion, may, and upon the written direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class or of a Rating Agency shall, make any the further inquiry or investigation into the facts or matters that it deems appropriate or as it is directed, and the Trustee shall be entitled, on reasonable prior notice to the Co-Issuers and the Portfolio Manager, to examine the books and records relating to the Notes, the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral, personally or by agent or attorney, during the Co-Issuers' or the Portfolio Manager's normal business hours. The Trustee shall, and shall cause its agents to, hold in confidence all such information, except to the extent (i) disclosure may be required by law by any regulatory or administrative authority and (ii) that the Trustee, in its sole judgment, determines that disclosure is consistent with its obligations under this Indenture; provided, however, that the Trustee may disclose on a confidential basis any such information to its agents, attorneys and auditors and the Insurer in connection with the performance of its responsibilities hereunder;

(g) the Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers under this Indenture or perform any duties under this Indenture either directly or by or through agents or attorneys, and the Trustee shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any non-Affiliated agent, or non-Affiliated attorney, appointed with due care by it under this Indenture; provided that, except with respect to any authentication agent, subcustodian or any agent or attorney appointed by the Trustee to comply with applicable law, the Trustee shall not delegate its obligations hereunder unless the Trustee shall have received the written consent (or deemed consent, as applicable) of the Insurer (so long as it is the Controlling Class) which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided that, if the Trustee shall have provided written notice of any such proposed delegation to the Insurer and, within five Business Days thereof, the Insurer shall not have objected in writing to such delegation the Insurer shall be deemed to have consented to such delegation; provided, further, that so long as the Trustee shall have received, or shall be deemed to have received, the consent of the Insurer (so long as it is the Controlling Class), the Trustee shall not be responsible to the Insurer for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed by it hereunder; provided, further, that, for the avoidance of doubt, the Trustee shall not be required to obtain the consent of the Insurer for the appointment of legal counsel, accountants or any other service provider which this Indenture permits the Trustee to appoint or rely upon, or that the Trustee deems advisable to perform its obligations hereunder.

(j) the Trustee may request and receive (and rely on) instruction from the Issuer, the Portfolio Manager, or the accountants identified in the Accountants' Certificate (and in the absence of its receipt of timely instruction from them, may obtain from an Independent accountant at the expense of the Issuer) as to the application of GAAP to the extent any defined term in this Indenture, or any calculation required to be made or determined by the Trustee under this Indenture, is dependent on or defined by reference to United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), in any instance;

Section 6.4. Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Securities.

The recitals contained in this Indenture and in the Securities, other than the Certificate of Authentication, shall be taken as the statements of the Applicable Issuers. Under no circumstances shall the Trustee be responsible for any losses on investments made in accordance with an Issuer Order or a written order or request by the Portfolio Manager, unless such investment is made in an obligation of the Trustee in its corporate capacity.

Section 6.7. Compensation and Reimbursement.

(a) The Issuer agrees:

(i) to pay the Trustee on each Payment Date reasonable compensation for all services rendered by it under this Indenture in accordance with its letter agreement with the Trustee (which compensation shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust);

(ii) except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture or in its letter agreement with the Trustee, to reimburse the Trustee in a timely manner upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements, and advances incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance with this Indenture (including securities transaction charges and the reasonable compensation and expenses and disbursements of its agents and legal counsel and of any accounting firm or investment banking firm employed by the Trustee pursuant to Section 5.4, 5.5, 10.5, or 10.7, except any such expense, disbursement, or advance attributable to its negligence, willful misconduct, or bad faith) but with respect to securities transaction charges, only to the extent they have not been waived during a Due Period due to the Trustee's receipt of a payment from a financial institution with respect to certain Eligible Investments, as specified by the Portfolio Manager;

(iii) to indemnify the Trustee and its officers, directors, employees, and agents for any loss, liability, or expense incurred without negligence, willful misconduct, or bad faith on their part, arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of this trust, including the costs and expenses of defending themselves (including reasonable attorney's fees and costs) against any claim or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of their powers or duties under this Indenture; and

(iv) to pay the Trustee reasonable additional compensation together with its expenses (including reasonable counsel fees and costs) for any collection action taken pursuant to Section 6.13.

(b) The Trustee shall receive amounts pursuant to this Section 6.7 as provided in Sections 11.1(a)(i) and (ii) but only to the extent that funds are available for their payment. Subject to Section 6.9, the Trustee shall continue to serve as Trustee under this Indenture notwithstanding the fact that the Trustee has not received amounts due to it under this Indenture. No direction by the Holders of the Securities shall affect the right of the Trustee to collect amounts owed to it under this Indenture. If on any date when a fee is payable to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture insufficient funds are available for its payment any portion of a fee not so paid shall be deferred and payable on the next date on which a fee is payable and sufficient funds are available for it.

(c) The Trustee agrees not to cause the filing of a petition in bankruptcy for the non-payment to the Trustee of any amounts provided by this Section 6.7 until at least one year and one day, or if longer the applicable preference period then in effect plus one day, after the payment in full of all Securities issued under this Indenture and the payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent of all amounts payable with respect to the Preference Shares in accordance with the Priority of Payments. Nothing in this Section 6.7(c) shall prohibit or otherwise prevent the Trustee from filing proofs of claim in any bankruptcy, insolvency or similar proceeding.

Section 6.8. Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility.

There shall at all times be a Trustee under this Indenture that is an Independent entity organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or of any state of the United States, authorized under those laws to exercise corporate trust powers, having a combined capital and surplus of at least U.S.$200,000,000, subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority, having a rating of at least "Baa1" (and not on credit watch with negative implications) by Moody's and at least "BBB+" by S&P, and having an office within the United States. If the Trustee publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of its supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section 6.8, the combined capital and surplus of the Trustee shall be its combined capital and surplus in its most recent published report of condition. For so long as the Insurer is the Controlling Class, upon written request by the Insurer, the Trustee shall provide copies of any such reports to the Insurer. If at any time the Trustee ceases to be eligible in accordance with this Section 6.8, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 6.9.

Section 6.9. Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article 6 shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee under Section 6.10. The indemnification in favor of the Trustee shall survive any resignation or removal of the Trustee.

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving not less than 30 days written notice to the Co-Issuers, the Portfolio Manager, the Holders of the Securities, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency. Upon receiving the notice of resignation, the Co-Issuers shall at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class promptly appoint a successor trustee satisfying the requirements of Section 6.8, by written instrument, in duplicate, executed by an Authorized Officer of the Issuer and an Authorized Officer of the Co-Issuer, one copy of which shall be delivered to the resigning Trustee and one copy to the successor Trustee, together with a copy to the Insurer, each Holder of Securities, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and the Portfolio Manager. If no successor Trustee has been appointed and an instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee has not been delivered to the Trustee within 60 days after the giving of the notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee, the Insurer or any Holder of a Security, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee satisfying the requirements of Section 6.8.

(c) The Trustee may be removed (i) at any time by an Act of a Majority of each Class of Securities, (ii) at any time when an Event of Default is continuing by a Majority of the Controlling Class, or (iii) by order of a court of competent jurisdiction, delivered to the Trustee and to the Co-Issuers.

(d) If at any time:

(i) the Trustee ceases to be eligible under Section 6.8 and fails to resign after written request by the Co-Issuers or a Majority of the Controlling Class; or

(ii) the Trustee becomes incapable of acting or is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver or liquidator of the Trustee or of its property appointed or any public officer takes charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation, or liquidation, then, in any such case (subject to Section 6.9(a)), (A) the Co-Issuers, by Issuer Order, may, and at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class shall, remove the Trustee, or (B) subject to Section 5.15, the Insurer or any Holder may, on behalf of itself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(e) If the Trustee is removed or becomes incapable of acting, or if a vacancy occurs in the office of the Trustee for any reason (other than resignation), the Co-Issuers, by Issuer Order or at the direction of a Majority of the Controlling Class, shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee. If the Co-Issuers fail to appoint a successor Trustee within 60 days after the removal or incapability or the occurrence of the vacancy, a successor Trustee may be appointed by a Majority of the Controlling Class by written instrument delivered to the Issuer and the retiring Trustee. The successor Trustee so appointed shall, upon its acceptance of its appointment, become the successor Trustee and supersede any successor Trustee proposed by the Co-Issuers. If no successor Trustee has been so appointed by the Co-Issuers or a Majority of the Controlling Class and accepted appointment pursuant to Section 6.10, subject to Section 5.15, then the Trustee to be replaced, or any Holder, may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Co-Issuers shall give prompt notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee by mailing written notice of the event by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the Portfolio Manager, the Insurer, to each Rating Agency, to the Holders of Securities as their names and addresses appear in the Indenture Register and to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares). Each notice shall include the name of the successor Trustee and the address of its Corporate Trust Office. If the Co-Issuers fail to mail the notice within ten days after acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee, the successor Trustee shall cause the notice to be given at the expense of the Co-Issuers.

Section 6.10. Acceptance of Appointment by Successor.

Every successor Trustee appointed under this Indenture shall execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the Co-Issuers, the Insurer and the retiring Trustee an instrument accepting its appointment. Upon delivery of the required instruments, the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective and the successor Trustee, without any further act, shall become vested with all the rights and obligations of the retiring Trustee; but, on request of the Co-Issuers, the Insurer or a Majority of any Class of Notes or the successor Trustee, the retiring Trustee shall, upon payment of any amounts then due to it, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to the successor Trustee all the rights and obligations of the retiring Trustee, and shall duly assign, transfer, and deliver to the successor Trustee all property and money held by the retiring Trustee under this Indenture. Upon request of any successor Trustee, the Co-Issuers shall execute any instruments to more fully and certainly vest in and confirm to the successor Trustee all the rights and obligations of the Trustee under this Indenture.

No successor Trustee shall accept its appointment unless at the time of its acceptance the successor is qualified and eligible under Section 6.8 and either (a) each Rating Agency has been notified and the successor has long-term debt rated within the four highest rating categories by each Rating Agency, or (b) if not rated within the four highest categories by each Rating Agency, the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect thereto.

Section 6.11. Merger, Conversion, Consolidation, or Succession to Business of Trustee.

Any entity into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any entity resulting from any merger, conversion, or consolidation to which the Trustee is a party, or any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee under this Indenture (and of the Bank under all of its other capacities under this Indenture, including as Custodian, Securities Intermediary, Indenture Registrar, and Paying Agent) without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto. If any of the Securities have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor by merger, conversion, or consolidation to the authenticating Trustee may adopt the authentication and deliver the Securities so authenticated with the same effect as if the successor Trustee had itself authenticated the Securities.

Section 6.12. Co-Trustees.

At any time, to meet the legal requirements of any jurisdiction in which any part of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral may at the time be located, the Co-Issuers and the Trustee may appoint a co-trustee (subject to the approval of the Rating Agencies) to act jointly with the Trustee, with respect to all or any part of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral, with the power to file proofs of claim and take any other actions pursuant to Section 5.6 in this Indenture and to make claims and enforce rights of action on behalf of the Holders of the Securities and the, as the Holders themselves have the right to do, subject to the other provisions of this Section 6.12.

The Co-Issuers shall join with the Trustee in the execution, delivery, and performance of all instruments and agreements necessary or proper to appoint a co-trustee. If the Co-Issuers do not join in the appointment within 15 days after they receive a request to do so, the Trustee may make the appointment.

Any instruments to more fully confirm a co-trustee's appointment shall, on request, be executed, acknowledged, and delivered by the Co-Issuers. The Co-Issuers agree to pay (but only from and to the extent of the Collateral), to the extent funds are available therefor under Section 11.1(a)(i)(1), any reasonable fees and expenses in connection with the appointment.

Every co-trustee shall, to the extent permitted by law, but to that extent only, be appointed subject to the following terms:

(a) the Securities shall be authenticated and delivered and all rights and obligations under this Indenture in respect of the custody of securities, cash, and other personal property held by, or required to be deposited or pledged with, the Trustee under this Indenture, shall be exercised solely by the Trustee;

(b) the rights and obligations conferred or imposed on the Trustee in respect of any property covered by the appointment of a co-trustee shall be conferred or imposed on and exercised or performed by the Trustee or by the Trustee and the co-trustee jointly as provided in the instrument appointing the co-trustee;

(c) the Trustee at any time, by an instrument in writing executed by it, with the concurrence of the Co-Issuers evidenced by an Issuer Order, may accept the resignation of or remove any co-trustee appointed under this Section 6.12, and if an Event of Default is continuing, the Trustee shall have the power to accept the resignation of, or remove, any co-trustee without the concurrence of the Co-Issuers. A successor to any co-trustee so resigned or removed may be appointed in the manner provided in this Section 6.12;

(d) no co-trustee under this Indenture shall be personally liable because of any act or omission of the Trustee under this Indenture;

(e) the Trustee shall not be liable because of any act or omission of a co-trustee;
and

(f) any Act of Holders of Securities delivered to the Trustee shall be deemed to have been delivered to each co-trustee.

Section 6.13. Certain Duties of Trustee Related to Delayed Payment of Proceeds.

If in any month the Trustee has not received a payment with respect to any Pledged Obligation on its Due Date:

(a) the Trustee shall promptly notify the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager in writing, and

(b) unless the payment is received by the Trustee within three Business Days (or the end of the applicable grace period for the payment, if longer) after the notice, or unless the Issuer, in its absolute discretion (but only to the extent permitted by Section 10.2(a)), makes provision for the payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with Section 10.2(a),

the Trustee shall request the issuer of the Pledged Obligation, the trustee under the related Underlying Instrument, or paying agent designated by either of them to make the payment as soon as practicable after the request but in no event later than three Business Days after the date of the request. If the payment is not made within that time period, the Trustee, subject to clause (iv) of Section 6.1(c), shall take the action directed by the Portfolio Manager in writing. Any such action shall be without prejudice to any right to claim a Default or Event of Default under this Indenture. If the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager requests a release of a Pledged Obligation or delivers a Collateral Obligation in connection with any such action under the Management Agreement, the release or substitution shall be subject to Section 10.6 and Article 12. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the Trustee shall deliver to the Issuer or its designee any payment with respect to any Pledged Obligation or any Collateral Obligation received after its Due Date to the extent the Issuer previously made provisions for the payment satisfactory to the Trustee in accordance with this Section 6.13 and the payment shall not be part of the Collateral.

Section 6.14. Authenticating Agents.

For all purposes of this Indenture, the authentication of Securities by an Authenticating Agent pursuant to this Section 6.14 shall be the authentication of Securities "by the Trustee."

Any Authenticating Agent may at any time resign by giving written notice of resignation to the Trustee and the Issuer. The Trustee may at any time terminate the agency of any Authenticating Agent by giving written notice of termination to the Authenticating Agent and the Co-Issuers.

The Co-Issuers agree to pay to each Authenticating Agent from time to time reasonable compensation for its services, and reimbursement for its reasonable expenses relating to its services as an Administrative Expense; provided, however, that if the Trustee elects to appoint an Authenticating Agent without the approval or request of the Co-Issuers, then the Trustee shall pay such compensation and reimbursement. Sections 2.9, 6.4, and 6.5 shall be applicable to any Authenticating Agent.

Section 6.15. Fiduciary for Holders of Notes Only; Agent for Secured Parties.

In furtherance of the foregoing, the possession by the Trustee of any Pledged Obligation and the endorsement to or registration in the name of the Trustee of any Pledged Obligation (including as entitlement holder of the Custodial Account) are all undertaken by the Trustee in its capacity as representative of the Holders of Notes or the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities, as the case may be, and agent for the other Secured Parties. The Trustee shall owe no fiduciary duties to the Insurer other than as subrogee of the Noteholders; provided that, the foregoing shall not limit any of the express obligations of the Trustee under this Indenture.

The Applicable Issuers shall pay the principal of and interest on the Securities in accordance with the Securities and this Indenture.

The Issuer shall, subject to the Priority of Payments, reimburse the Co-Issuer for any amounts paid by the Co-Issuer pursuant to the Securities or this Indenture. The Co-Issuer shall not reimburse the Issuer for any amounts paid by the Issuer pursuant to the Securities or this Indenture.

Amounts properly withheld under the Code or other applicable law by any person from a payment to any Holder shall be considered as having been paid by the applicable Issuers to the Holder for all purposes of this Indenture.

Section 7.2. Maintenance of Office or Agency.

The Co-Issuers appoint the Trustee as a Paying Agent for the payment of principal of and interest on the Notes and of the Class 1 Component. The Co-Issuers appoint JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, 4 New York Plaza, Ground Floor, New York, NY 10004, Attn: ITS (Houston) Southfork CLO Ltd., as the Co-Issuers' agent where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Securities or this Indenture may be served and where Securities may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange.

The Co-Issuers may at any time and from time to time vary or terminate the appointment of any Paying Agent or appoint any additional agents for all of these purposes.

The Co-Issuers shall maintain in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, an office or agency where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Securities and this Indenture may be served and an office or agency outside of the United States where Securities may be presented and surrendered for payment.

No paying agent shall be appointed in a jurisdiction that subjects payments on the Securities to withholding tax.

So long as any Class of Securities is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the rules of the exchange so require, the Co-Issuers shall maintain in Ireland a Paying Agent and an office or agency where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Securities and this Indenture may be served and where the Securities may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange.

The Co-Issuers appoint, for so long as any Class of Securities is listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, JP Morgan Bank (Ireland) PLC (the "Irish Listing and Paying Agent") as Listing Agent and as Paying Agent in Ireland with respect to the Securities, for the payment of principal and interest on the Securities and as the Co-Issuers' agent where notices and demands on the Co-Issuers in respect of the Securities or this Indenture may be served. The Co-Issuers shall give prompt written notice to the Trustee, each Rating Agency, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and the Holders of the Securities of the appointment or termination of any such agent and of the location and any change in the location of any such office or agency.

If at any time the Co-Issuers fail to maintain any required office or agency in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, or outside the United States, or fail to furnish the Trustee with their addresses, notices and demands may be served on the Co-Issuers.

Section 7.3. Money for Note Payments to be Held in Trust.

All payments of amounts payable with respect to any Securities that are to be made from amounts withdrawn from the Payment Account shall be made on behalf of the Applicable Issuers by the Trustee or a Paying Agent with respect to payments on the Securities.

When the Applicable Issuers have a Paying Agent that is not also the Indenture Registrar, they shall furnish no later than the fifth calendar day after each Record Date a list in the form the Paying Agent reasonably requests, of the names and addresses of the Holders and of the certificate numbers of individual Securities held by each Holder.

Whenever the Applicable Issuers have a Paying Agent other than the Trustee, they shall, on or before the Business Day before each Payment Date or Redemption Date direct the Trustee to deposit on the Payment Date with the Paying Agent an aggregate sum sufficient to pay the amounts then becoming due (to the extent funds are then available for that purpose in the Payment Account), that sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled to it and (unless the Paying Agent is the Trustee) the Co-Issuers shall promptly notify the Trustee of its action or failure so to act. Any monies deposited with a Paying Agent (other than the Trustee) in excess of an amount sufficient to pay the amounts then becoming due on the Securities with respect to which the deposit was made shall be paid over by the Paying Agent to the Trustee for application in accordance with Article 10.

Additional or successor Paying Agents shall be appointed by Issuer Order with written notice of the appointment to the Trustee. So long as Notes of any Class are rated by a Rating Agency any Paying Agent must either have a long-term debt rating of "Aa3" (and not on credit watch with negative implications) or higher by Moody's and "AA-" or higher by S&P or a short-term debt rating of "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) by Moody's and "A-1+" by S&P or the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency must be satisfied with respect to its appointment. If a successor Paying Agent ceases to have a long-term debt rating of "Aa3" (and not on credit watch with negative implications) or higher by Moody's and "AA-" or higher by S&P or a short-term debt rating of "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) by Moody's and a short-term debt rating of "A-1+" by S&P, the Co-Issuers shall promptly remove the Paying Agent and appoint a successor Paying Agent. The Co-Issuers shall not appoint any Paying Agent that is not, at the time of the appointment, a depository institution or trust company subject to supervision and examination by federal or state or national banking authorities. The Co-Issuers shall cause each Paying Agent other than the Trustee to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which the Paying Agent agrees with the Trustee, subject to this Section 7.3, that the Paying Agent will:

- (i) allocate all sums received for payment to the Holders of Securities for which it acts as Paying Agent on each Payment Date and any Redemption Date among the Holders in the proportion specified in the applicable report to the extent permitted by applicable law;
- (ii) hold all sums held by it for the payment of amounts due with respect to the Securities in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled to them until they are paid or otherwise disposed of as provided in this Indenture;
- (iii) immediately resign as a Paying Agent and forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums held by it in trust for the payment of Securities if at any time it ceases to meet the standards required to be met by a Paying Agent at the time of its appointment;
- (iv) immediately give the Trustee notice of any default by the Issuer or the Co-Issuer (or any other obligor on the Notes) in the making of any payment required to be made; and
- (v) during the continuance of any such default, upon the written request of the Trustee, forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums so held in trust by the Paying Agent.

To obtain the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture or for any other purpose, the Co-Issuers may at any time pay, or by Issuer Order direct any Paying Agent to pay, to the Trustee all sums held in trust by the Co-Issuers or the Paying Agent, and, upon the payment by any Paying Agent to the Trustee, the Paying Agent shall be released from all further liability with respect to the money paid.

Any money deposited with a Paying Agent and not previously returned that remains unclaimed for 20 Business Days shall be returned to the Trustee. Except as otherwise required by applicable law, any money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent in trust for the payment of the principal of or interest on any Security or with respect to the Class 1 Component and remaining unclaimed for two years after the principal or interest has become payable shall be paid to the Applicable Issuers. The Holder of the Security shall thereafter look only to the Applicable Issuers for payment of the amounts due to it as an unsecured general creditor and all liability of the Trustee or the Paying Agent with respect to that money (but only to the extent of the amounts so paid to the Applicable Issuers) shall thereupon cease. The Trustee or the Paying Agent, before being required to release any payment, may, but shall not be required to, adopt and employ, at the expense of the Applicable Issuers any reasonable means of notification of the release of the payment, including mailing notice of the release to Holders whose Securities have been called but have not been surrendered for redemption or whose right to or interest in monies payable but not claimed is determinable from the records of any Paying Agent, at the last address of record of each Holder.

Section 7.4. Existence of Co-Issuers.

(a) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall maintain in full force their existence and rights as companies incorporated or organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands and the State of Delaware, respectively, and shall obtain and preserve their qualification to do business as foreign corporations in each jurisdiction in which the qualifications are necessary to protect the validity and enforceability of this Indenture, the Securities, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, the Preference Shares, any of the Collateral or any of the Class 1 Collateral.

However, the Issuer may change its jurisdiction of incorporation from the Cayman Islands to any other jurisdiction reasonably selected by the Issuer so long as:

(A) the Issuer has received a legal opinion (on which the Trustee may rely) to the effect that the change is not disadvantageous in any material respect to the Holders, the Portfolio Manager, the Insurer or any Hedge Counterparty,

(B) written notice of the change has been given by the Issuer to the Trustee, the Holders of the Securities, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Portfolio Manager, any Hedge Counterparty, the Insurer and each Rating Agency, and

(C) on or before the 15th Business Day following its receipt of the notice the Trustee has not received written notice from a Majority of the Controlling Class objecting to the change.

The Issuer may take any action required by this Indenture within the United States notwithstanding any provision of this Indenture requiring the Issuer to take the action outside of the United States so long as before taking the action the Issuer receives a legal opinion from nationally recognized legal counsel to the effect that it is not necessary to take the action outside of the United States or any political subdivision of the United States to prevent the Issuer from becoming subject to any United States federal, state, or local withholding or other taxes.

(b) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall ensure that all corporate or other formalities regarding their respective existences (including holding regular board of directors' and shareholders', or other similar, meetings to the extent required by applicable law) are followed. Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer shall take any action, or conduct its affairs in a manner, that is likely to result in its separate existence being ignored or in its assets and liabilities being substantively consolidated with any other person in a bankruptcy, reorganization, or other insolvency proceeding. Without limiting the foregoing,

- (i) the Issuer shall not have any subsidiaries other than the Co-Issuer,
- (ii) the Co-Issuer shall not have any subsidiaries,
- (iii) the Issuer shall maintain at all times at least one director who is Independent of the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, and any of their respective Affiliates,
- (iv) the Issuer shall not commingle its funds with the funds of any other person, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture, and
- (v) except to the extent contemplated in the Management Agreement, the Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement and the declaration of trust by the Share Trustee, the Issuer and the Co-Issuer shall not:
 - (A) have any employees (other than their respective directors),
 - (B) engage in any transaction with any shareholder that would be a conflict of interest (the entry into the Administration Agreement with the Administrator shall not be deemed a conflict of interest), or
 - (C) pay dividends in violation of this Indenture, the resolutions of its board of directors and the Preference Share Documents.

Section 7.5. Protection of Collateral.

(a) The Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer will procure any action within the Portfolio Manager's control that is reasonably necessary to maintain the perfection and priority of the security interest of the Trustee in the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral. The Issuer from time to time (and promptly upon the request of the Insurer for so long as the Insurer is the Controlling Class) shall execute and deliver any supplements and amendments to this Indenture and shall execute and deliver any Financing Statements, continuation statements, instruments of further assurance, and other instruments and shall take any other action appropriate to secure the rights and remedies of the Secured Parties under this Indenture and to:

- (i) Grant more effectively all or any portion of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral;
- (ii) maintain or preserve the lien (and its priority) of this Indenture or to carry out more effectively the purposes of this Indenture;

- (iii) perfect, publish notice of, or protect the validity of any Grant made by this Indenture (including any actions appropriate as a result of changes in law);
- (iv) enforce any of the Pledged Obligations or other instruments or property included in the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral;
- (v) preserve and defend title to the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral and the rights of the Secured Parties in the Collateral and of the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities in the Class 1 Collateral against the claims of anyone; and
- (vi) pay when due all taxes levied or assessed on any part of the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral.

The Issuer designates the Portfolio Manager as its agent and attorney in fact to execute any Financing Statement, continuation statement, and all other instruments, and take all other actions, required pursuant to this Section 7.5.

The Issuer authorizes the filing without the Issuer's signature a financing statement that names the Issuer as "debtor" and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association as "secured party" (with or without indicating its capacity as Trustee hereunder) and that describes the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral as "all assets of the debtor, whether now owned or hereafter acquired and wherever located."

(b) The Trustee shall not:

(i) except in accordance with Section 10.6(a), (b), or (c), remove any portion of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral that consists of Cash or is evidenced by an instrument, certificate, or other writing:

(A) from the jurisdiction in which it was held at the date the most recent Opinion of Counsel was delivered pursuant to Section 7.6 (or from the jurisdiction in which it was held as described in the Opinions of Counsel delivered at the Closing Date pursuant to Section 3.1(iii) if no Opinion of Counsel has yet been delivered pursuant to Section 7.6), or

(B) from the possession of the person who held it (other than the Bank), or

(ii) cause or permit ownership or the pledge of any portion of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral that consists of book-entry securities to be recorded on the books of a person (other than the Bank):

(A) located in a different jurisdiction from the jurisdiction in which the ownership or pledge was recorded, or

(B) other than the person on whose books the ownership or pledge was originally recorded, unless the Trustee shall have first received an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the lien and security interest created by this Indenture with respect to the property and its priority will continue to be maintained after giving effect to the change.

(c) Without at least 30 days' prior written notice to the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer shall not change its "location" (as defined in Section 9-307 of the UCC) or change its name from the name shown on the signature pages of this Indenture.

(d) The Issuer shall, subject to the Priority of Payments, enforce all of its material rights and remedies under the Management Agreement, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement, each Hedge Agreement and each Securities Lending Agreement.

(e) The Issuer shall pay any taxes levied because any Pledged Obligations are owned by the Issuer.

(f) The Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer will either exercise the "put" option that prevents a Collateral Obligation from being a Long-Dated Collateral Obligation on the last available date before the Stated Maturity of the Securities or sell the Collateral Obligation for Sale Proceeds at least equal to the Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligation, in either case by the Stated Maturity of the Securities.

Section 7.6. Opinions as to Collateral.

On or before May, 31 in each calendar year, commencing in 2006, the Issuer shall furnish to the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, the Insurer and each Rating Agency an Opinion of Counsel from each relevant jurisdiction stating that, in the counsel's opinion, as of the date of the opinion, all actions necessary to maintain the lien and security interest created by this Indenture with respect to the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral have been taken and that no further action (other than as specified in the opinion) needs to be taken for the continued effectiveness and perfection of the lien over the next year. The opinion may be subject to customary assumptions and qualifications.

Section 7.7. Performance of Obligations.

(a) The Co-Issuers, each as to itself, shall not take any action, and shall use their reasonable commercial efforts not to permit any action to be taken by others, that would release any person from any of the person's covenants or obligations under any instrument included in the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral, except in the case of enforcement action taken with respect to any Defaulted Collateral Obligation in accordance with this Indenture and actions by the Portfolio Manager under the Management Agreement and in conformity with this Indenture or as otherwise required by this Indenture.

(b) The Applicable Issuers may, with the prior written consent of the Insurer, a Majority of each Class of Notes, a Majority of the Preference Shares and a Majority of the Class 1 Component (except in the case of the Management Agreement and the Collateral Administration Agreement as initially executed), contract with other persons (including the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, and the Collateral Administrator) for the performance of actions and obligations to be performed by the Applicable Issuers under this Indenture. Notwithstanding any such arrangement, the Applicable Issuers shall remain primarily liable for performance under this Indenture. The Applicable Issuers shall punctually perform, and use their reasonable commercial efforts to cause the Portfolio Manager, the Trustee, the Collateral Administrator, the Preference Shares Paying Agent and any other person to perform, all of their obligations in the Management Agreement, this Indenture, the Collateral Administration Agreement, the Preference Shares Paying Agency Agreement or any other agreement.

Section 7.8. Negative Covenants.

(a) The Issuer shall not and, with respect to clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), and (vi), the Co-Issuer shall not, in each case from and after the Closing Date:

(i) sell, transfer, assign, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise encumber (or permit or suffer the sale, transfer, assignment, exchange, or other disposition of, or pledge, mortgage, hypothecation, or other encumbering of), any part of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture and the Management Agreement;

(ii) claim any credit on, make any deduction from, or, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws, dispute the enforceability of payment of the principal or interest (or any other amount) payable in respect of the Notes or the Class 1 Component (other than amounts withheld in accordance with the Code or any applicable laws of the Cayman Islands) or assert any claim against any present or future Holder of Notes because of the payment of any taxes levied or assessed on any part of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral;

(iii) (A) incur or assume or guarantee any indebtedness, other than the Securities and this Indenture and the transactions contemplated by this Indenture (including, as contemplated hereby, entering into the Hedge Agreements and Securities Lending Agreements), or (B) issue any additional class of securities other than the Preference Shares issued on or before the Closing Date, except as otherwise permitted by the Preference Share Documents;

(iv) (A) permit the validity or effectiveness of this Indenture or any Grant under this Indenture to be impaired, or permit the lien of this Indenture to be amended, hypothecated, subordinated, terminated, or discharged, or permit any person to be released from any covenants or obligations with respect to this Indenture or the Securities, except as may be expressly permitted by this Indenture or by the Management Agreement, (B) permit any lien, charge, adverse claim, security interest, mortgage, or other encumbrance (other than the lien of this Indenture) to be created on or extend to or otherwise arise on or burden any part of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral, any interest in it, or its proceeds of, or (C) take any action that would permit the lien of this Indenture not to be a valid first priority perfected security interest in the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral;

(v) amend the Management Agreement except pursuant to its terms and Section 15.1(f)(iv) or amend the Collateral Administration Agreement except pursuant to its terms unless the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the amendment or enter into any waiver in respect of any of the foregoing agreements without providing written notice to each Rating Agency and the Trustee (and, with respect to the Collateral Administration Agreement, without the consent of the Trustee);

(vi) to the extent permitted by applicable law, dissolve or liquidate in whole or in part, except as permitted under this Indenture;

(x) except for any Underlying Instrument and agreements involving the purchase or sale of Collateral Obligations having customary purchase or sale terms and documented with customary trading documentation (but not excepting any Synthetic Security or Hedge Agreement), enter into any agreement unless the agreement contains "non-petition" and "limited recourse" provisions.

(b) Neither the Issuer nor the Trustee shall sell, transfer, exchange, or otherwise dispose of Collateral or Class 1 Collateral, or enter into an agreement or commitment to do so, or enter into or engage in any business with respect to any part of the Collateral or Class 1 Collateral, except as expressly permitted by this Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer, the Management Agreement.

(c) The Co-Issuer shall not invest any of its assets in "securities" as the term is defined in the 1940 Act, and shall keep all of its assets in Cash.

(d) Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer shall use the proceeds of the Securities to buy or carry Margin Stock.

Section 7.9. Notice of Default; Statement as to Compliance.

(a) The Co-Issuers shall notify the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, the Insurer, the Rating Agencies, and each Hedge Counterparty within 10 days of acquiring actual knowledge of Default.

(b) On or before May, 31 in each calendar year commencing in 2006, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee (to be forwarded by the Trustee to the Portfolio Manager and each Holder of Securities making a written request therefor and, upon written request therefor by a Beneficial Owner in the form of Exhibit I certifying that it is a Beneficial Owner, to the Beneficial Owner (or its designee), the Insurer and each Rating Agency) a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Issuer that, to the best knowledge of the Issuer, no Default exists, and has not existed since the date of the last certificate or, if a Default does then exist or had existed, specifying the same and its nature and status, including actions undertaken to remedy it, and that the Issuer has complied with all of its obligations under this Indenture or, if that is not the case, specifying those obligations with which it has not complied.

Section 7.10. Co-Issuers May Consolidate, etc., Only on Certain Terms.

Neither the Issuer nor the Co-Issuer (the "Merging Entity") shall consolidate or merge with or into any other person or transfer or convey all or substantially all of its assets to any person, unless permitted by Cayman Islands law (in the case of the Issuer) or United States and Delaware law (in the case of the Co-Issuer) and unless:

(a) the Merging Entity shall be the surviving corporation, or the person (if other than the Merging Entity) formed by the consolidation or into which the Merging Entity is merged or to which all or substantially all of the assets of the Merging Entity are transferred (the "Successor Entity"),

(i) if the Merging Entity is the Issuer, is a company organized and existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands or another jurisdiction approved by a Majority of the Controlling Class (except that no approval shall be required in connection with any such transaction undertaken solely to effect a change in the jurisdiction of incorporation pursuant to Section 7.4), and

(ii) in any case shall expressly assume, by an indenture supplemental to this Indenture, executed and delivered to the Trustee, the Insurer and each Noteholder and each Composite Securityholder, the due and punctual payment of all amounts on all Securities issued by the Merging Entity and the performance and observance of every covenant of this Indenture on its part to be performed or observed, all as provided in this Indenture;

(b) each Rating Agency shall have been notified of the consolidation, merger, transfer, or conveyance and the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the transaction;

(c) if the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall have agreed with the Trustee,

(i) to observe the same legal requirements for the recognition of the formed or surviving corporation as a legal entity separate and apart from any of its Affiliates as are applicable to the Merging Entity with respect to its Affiliates,

(ii) not to consolidate or merge with or into any other person or transfer or convey the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral or all or substantially all of its assets to any other person except in accordance with this Section 7.10; and

(d) if the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall have delivered to the Trustee, the Insurer and each Rating Agency an Officer's certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing in the jurisdiction in which it is organized; that it has sufficient power and authority to assume the obligations in subsection (a) above and to execute and deliver an indenture supplemental to this Indenture for the purpose of assuming the obligations in subsection (a) above; that it has duly authorized the execution, delivery, and performance of an indenture supplemental to this Indenture for the purpose of assuming the obligations in subsection (a) above and that the supplemental indenture is its valid and legally binding obligation, enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject only to bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, moratorium, and other laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and to general principles of equity; if the Merging Entity is the Issuer, that, following the event that causes the Successor Entity to become the successor to the Issuer, (i) the Successor Entity has title, free of any lien, security interest, or charge, other than the lien and security interest of this Indenture, to the Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral, and (ii) the lien of this Indenture

(e) after giving effect to the transaction, no Default or Event of Default shall be continuing;

(f) the Merging Entity shall have notified each Rating Agency of the consolidation, merger, transfer, or conveyance and shall have delivered to the Trustee, the Insurer, each Noteholder, each Composite Securityholder and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) an Officer's certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that the consolidation, merger, transfer, or conveyance and the supplemental indenture comply with this Article 7 and that all conditions precedent in this Article 7 relating to the transaction have been complied with and that no adverse tax consequences will result therefrom to the Holders of the Securities or Preference Shares or the Insurer;

(g) the Merging Entity shall have delivered to the Trustee and the Insurer an Opinion of Counsel stating that after giving effect to the transaction, neither of the Co-Issuers (or, if applicable, the Successor Entity) will be as an investment company under the 1940 Act; and

(h) after giving effect to the transaction, the outstanding stock of the Merging Entity (or, if applicable, the Successor Entity) will not be beneficially owned within the meaning of the 1940 Act by any U.S. Person.

Section 7.11. Successor Substituted.

Upon any consolidation or merger, or transfer or conveyance of all or substantially all of the assets of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, in accordance with Section 7.10 in which the Merging Entity is not the surviving corporation, the Successor Entity shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right of, the Merging Entity under this Indenture with the same effect as if the person had been named as the Issuer or the Co-Issuer, as the case may be, in this Indenture. Upon any such consolidation, merger, transfer, or conveyance, the person named as the "Issuer" or the "Co-Issuer" in the first paragraph of this Indenture or any successor may be dissolved, wound up, and liquidated at any time thereafter, and the person thereafter shall be released from its liabilities as obligor and maker on all the Securities and from its obligations under this Indenture.

Section 7.12. No Other Business.

(a) From and after the Closing Date, the Issuer shall not engage in any business or activity other than issuing and selling the Securities pursuant to this Indenture and the Preference Shares pursuant to the Preference Share Documents and acquiring, owning, holding, and pledging and selling Collateral Obligations and the other Collateral and the Class 1 Collateral in connection therewith, and shall not act as agent, negotiator or structurer with respect to any Collateral, act as a participant in negotiating terms of a primary loan agreement, enter into a binding commitment to purchase any Collateral prior to the issuance thereof or engage in any transaction or activity not permitted by Schedule 7 or which the Issuer knows would cause it to be treated as engaged in a trade or business in the United States within the meaning of Section 864 of the Code, and the Co-Issuer shall not engage in any business or activity other than issuing and selling the Notes to be issued by it pursuant to this Indenture and, with respect to the Issuer and the Co-Issuer, other activities appropriate to accomplish the foregoing or incidental thereto or connected therewith.

(b) In furtherance and not in limitation of clause (a) of this Section 7.12, the Issuer shall comply with all of the provisions set forth in Schedule 7 hereto, unless, with respect to a particular transaction, the Issuer and the Trustee shall have received an opinion or advice of tax counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters that, under the relevant facts and circumstances with respect to such transaction, the Issuer's failure to comply with one or more of such provisions will not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States within the meaning of Section 864 of the Code or otherwise to be subject to United States federal income tax on a net basis. The provisions set forth in Schedule 7 hereto may be amended, eliminated or supplemented (without execution of a supplemental indenture) if the Issuer and the Trustee shall have received an opinion of tax counsel of nationally recognized standing in the United States experienced in such matters that the Issuer's compliance with such amended provisions or supplemental provisions or the Issuer's failure to comply with such provisions proposed to be eliminated, as the case may be, will not cause the Issuer to be engaged, or deemed to be engaged, in a trade or business within the United States within the meaning of Section 864 of the Code or otherwise to be subject to United States federal income tax on a net basis provided, however, that written notice of any such amendment, elimination or supplementation of or to the provisions of Schedule 7 pursuant to this Section 7.12(b) shall be provided to the Insurer and each Rating Agency then rating any Outstanding Class of Securities within 90 days of any such amendment, elimination or supplementation. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event an opinion of tax counsel as described above has been obtained in accordance with the terms hereof, no consent of any Holder of the Securities or satisfaction of the Rating Condition shall be required in order to comply with this Section 7.12(b) in connection with the amendment, elimination or supplementation of any provision of Schedule 7 contemplated by such opinion of tax counsel.

(c) The Issuer and the Co-Issuer may amend, or permit the amendment of, their Memorandum and Articles or the Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws if the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the amendment (but not otherwise).

Section 7.13. Listing on Irish Stock Exchange.

So long as any Securities remain Outstanding, the Co-Issuers shall use all reasonable efforts to obtain and maintain the listing of the Securities on the Irish Stock Exchange.

Section 7.14. Annual Rating Review.

So long as any Securities of any Class remain Outstanding, on or before May, 31 in each year commencing in 2006, the Co-Issuers shall obtain and pay for an annual review or ongoing surveillance of the rating of each Outstanding Class of Securities (including, in the case of the Insured Notes, the rating thereof without giving effect to the Policy) from each Rating Agency, as applicable. The Co-Issuers shall promptly notify the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager in writing (and the Trustee shall promptly provide a copy of the notice to the Holders of the Securities) and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) if at any time the rating of any Class of Securities has been, or is known will be, changed or withdrawn.

Section 7.15. Reporting.

At any time when the Co-Issuers are not subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act and are not exempt from reporting pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) under the Exchange Act, upon the request of a Holder or Beneficial Owner of any Note or a Holder of a Composite Security, the Co-Issuers shall promptly furnish "Rule 144A Information" to the Holder or Beneficial Owner, to a prospective purchaser of a Security designated by the Holder or Beneficial Owner or to the Trustee for delivery to the Holder or Beneficial Owner or a prospective purchaser designated by the Holder or Beneficial Owner, as the case may be, to permit compliance by the Holder or Beneficial Owner with Rule 144A under the Securities Act in connection with the resale of the Security by the Holder or Beneficial Owner. "Rule 144A Information" is the information specified pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act.

Section 7.16. Calculation Agent.

(a) The Issuer agrees that for so long as any floating rate Notes remain Outstanding an agent will always have been appointed (that does not control and is not controlled by or under common control with the Issuer or its Affiliates) to calculate LIBOR in respect of each Interest Period (the "Calculation Agent"). The Issuer has initially appointed the Trustee as Calculation Agent. The Issuer may remove the Calculation Agent at any time. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or is removed by the Issuer or if the Calculation Agent fails to determine any of the information required to be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange, as described in subsection (b), in respect of any Interest Period, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager (on its behalf) shall promptly appoint a replacement Calculation Agent. For so long as any Securities are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and the rules of the exchange so require, notice of the appointment of any replacement Calculation Agent shall be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange or the Irish Listing and Paying Agent as promptly as practicable after the appointment. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties without a successor having been duly appointed.

(b) As soon as possible after 11:00 A.M., London time, on the second Business Day before the first day of each Interest Period, but in no event later than 11:00 A.M., London time, on the next Business Day, the Calculation Agent shall calculate the Note Interest Rate for each Class of floating rate Notes for the next Interest Period. The Calculation Agent shall communicate those rates and amounts to the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Insurer, each Paying Agent, the Portfolio Manager, Euroclear, Clearstream, the Depository, and, so long as any of the floating rate Notes are listed thereon and the rules of the exchange so require, the Irish Stock Exchange or the Listing Agent. In the latter case, the information shall be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange or the Listing Agent as soon as possible after its determination. The Calculation Agent shall separately notify the Irish Stock Exchange or the Irish Listing and Paying Agent of the information. The Calculation Agent shall also specify to the Co-Issuers the quotations on which the foregoing rates are based, and in any event the Calculation Agent shall notify the Co-Issuers before 7:00 P.M., London time, on the second Business Day before the first day of each Interest Period that either:

(i) it has determined or is in the process of determining the Note Interest Rate for each Class of floating rate Notes, or

(ii) it has not determined and is not in the process of determining any such Note Interest Rate together with its reasons therefor.

The Calculation Agent's determination of the foregoing rates for any Interest Period shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding on all parties and the Holders and Beneficial Owners of the Preference Shares.

Section 7.17. Certain Tax Matters.

(a) For United States federal income tax purposes, the Issuer shall treat the Preference Shares as equity and the Notes as debt. The Issuer shall treat the Composite Securities as consisting of Preference Shares corresponding to the Preference Share Component and representing an ownership interest in the Class 1 Collateral. Each Holder of a Note, by its acquisition of that Note, agrees to treat those Notes as debt for United States federal income tax purposes. Each Holder of a Composite Security, by its acquisition of the Composite Security, agrees to treat the Composite Securities as consisting of Preference Shares corresponding to corresponding to the Preference Share Component, and representing an ownership interest in the Class 1 Collateral and to treat the Preference Shares as equity in the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes.

(b) The Issuer will not elect to be treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(c) The Issuer shall file, or cause to be filed, any tax returns, including information tax returns, required by any governmental authority; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not file, or cause to be filed, any income or franchise tax return in any state of the United States unless it shall have obtained an opinion of tax counsel of nationally recognized standing experienced in such matters prior to such filing that, under the laws of such jurisdiction, the Issuer is required to file such income or franchise tax return.

(d) Upon the Trustee's receipt of a request of a Holder holding a Note that is issued with original issue discount for U.S. Federal income tax purposes for the information described in United States Treasury Regulations section 1.1275-3(b)(1) that is applicable to such Note that is issued with original issue discount for U.S. Federal income tax purposes, the Issuer will cause its independent accountants to provide promptly to the Trustee and such requesting Holder all of such information.

(e) Notwithstanding any contrary agreement or understanding, the Portfolio Manager, the Co-Issuers, the Trustee, the Insurer and the Holders and beneficial owners of the Notes and Composite Securities (and each of their respective employees, representatives or other agents) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Indenture and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such tax treatment and tax structure. The foregoing provision shall apply from the beginning of discussions between the parties. For this purpose, the tax treatment of a transaction is the purported or claimed U.S. tax treatment of the transaction under applicable U.S. federal, state or local law, and the tax structure of a transaction is any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. tax treatment of the transaction under applicable U.S. federal, state or local law.

(f) The Issuer and each Holder and each beneficial owner of a Senior Class A Note, Class A-2 Note, Class A-3 Notes, Class B Note or Class C Note (as the case may be), by acceptance of its Senior Class A Note, Class A-2 Note, Class A-3 Notes, Class B Note or Class C Note (as the case may be), or its interest in a Senior Class A Note, Class A-2 Note, Class A-3

Notes, Class B Note or Class C Note (as the case may be), as the case may be, shall be deemed to have agreed to treat, and shall treat, such Senior Class A Note, Class A-2 Note, Class A-3 Notes, Class B Note or Class C Note as debt of the Issuer for United States federal income tax purposes.

(g) Each Holder and beneficial owner of a Note or Composite Security, by acceptance of its Note or Composite Security or its interest in a Note or Composite Security, shall be deemed to understand and acknowledge that failure to provide the Issuer, the Trustee or any Paying Agent with the applicable U.S. federal income tax certifications (generally, a United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or successor applicable form) in the case of a person that is a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code or an appropriate United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-8 (or successor applicable form) in the case of a person that is not a "United States person" within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) may result in U.S. federal back-up withholding from payments in respect of such Note or Composite Security.

(h) The Issuer shall cause its independent accountants, within 90 days after the end of each calendar year, to provide to each Holder of Securities and, upon written request therefor certifying that it is a holder of a beneficial interest in a Note or Composite Security, to such holder (or its designee), all information that a U.S. shareholder making a "qualified electing fund" election (as defined in the Code) with respect to the Notes is required to obtain from the Issuer for U.S. federal income tax purposes and a "PFIC Annual Information Statement" as described in United States Treasury Regulation section 1.1295-1(g)(1) (or any successor Treasury Regulation) (including all representations and statements required by such statement), and the Issuer will take or cause to be taken any other reasonable steps to facilitate such election by a Noteholder or Composite Securityholder or beneficial owner of Notes or Composite Securities.

(i) If the Issuer is aware that it has purchased an interest in a "reportable transaction" within the meaning of Section 6011 of the Code, and a Holder of a Note or Composite Security requests information about any such transactions in which the Issuer is an investor, the Issuer shall provide such information it has reasonably available as soon as practicable after such request.

(j) The Issuer shall provide, or cause to be provided, upon the request of a Noteholder or Composite Securityholder and, upon written request certifying that it is a holder of a beneficial interest in a Note or Composite Security, to such holder (or its designee), any information that a Holder or beneficial owner of Notes or Composite Securities reasonably requests to assist such Noteholder, Composite Securityholder or beneficial owner with regard to filing requirements the Noteholder, Composite Securityholder or beneficial owner of Notes or Composite Securities is required to satisfy as a result of the controlled foreign corporation rules under the Code.

(k) The Issuer shall not conduct any business other than the business that the Issuer is permitted to conduct under this Agreement.

Section 7.18. Securities Lending.

(a) So long as no Event of Default is continuing and if after the completion of the transaction the limit in clause (28) of the definition of "Concentration Limitations" would be satisfied, the Portfolio Manager may cause Collateral Obligations that are not Defaulted

Collateral Obligations to be lent for a term of 90 days or less to banks, broker-dealers, and other financial institutions (other than insurance companies) having long-term and short-term senior unsecured debt ratings or guarantors with ratings of at least "A1" (and not "A1" but on credit watch with negative implications) and "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's and a long-term senior unsecured debt rating of at least "A" from S&P (each, a "Securities Lending Counterparty") pursuant to one or more agreements (each, a "Securities Lending Agreement"); provided that Collateral Obligations the Market Value of which cannot be determined under clause (i), (ii) or (iii) of that definition may not be lent pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement. Upon receipt of an Issuer Order, the Trustee shall release any lent Collateral Obligations to a Securities Lending Counterparty as directed by the Portfolio Manager. The Securities Lending Counterparties may be Affiliates of the Initial Purchaser or Affiliates of the Portfolio Manager. The duration of any Securities Lending Agreement shall not exceed the Stated Maturity of the Securities.

(b) Each Securities Lending Agreement shall be on market terms as determined by the Portfolio Manager (except as may be required below) and shall:

(i) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty return to the Issuer debt obligations that are identical (in terms of issue and class) to the lent Collateral Obligations;

(ii) require that the Securities Lending Counterparty pay to the Issuer amounts equivalent to all interest and other payments that the owner of the lent Collateral Obligation is entitled to for the period during which the Collateral Obligation is lent and require that any such payments not be subject to withholding tax imposed by any jurisdiction unless the Securities Lending Counterparty is required under the Securities Lending Agreement to make "gross-up" payments to the Issuer that cover the full amount of the withholding tax on an after-tax basis;

(iii) require that the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency shall be satisfied with respect to the execution of the Securities Lending Agreement;

(iv) satisfy any other requirements of Section 1058 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated under it;

(v) be governed by the laws of New York;

(vi) permit the Issuer to assign its rights under the Securities Lending Agreement to the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture;

(vii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Collateral Obligation becomes a Credit Risk Obligation or is subject to redemption in accordance with its terms;

(viii) provide for early termination and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty upon any redemption of the Securities in whole;

(ix) require the Securities Lending Counterparty to post with the Trustee collateral consisting of cash or direct registered debt obligations of the United States of America that have a maturity date no later than the Business Day preceding the stated termination date of the Securities Lending Agreement (the "Securities Lending");

Collateral") to secure its obligation to return the Collateral Obligations or in the alternative post the Securities Lending Collateral with a custodian for the benefit of the Issuer designated by the Securities Lending Counterparty that satisfies the requirements with respect to being a securities intermediary with respect to the posted collateral if that custodian would qualify to be a successor trustee under Section 6.8;

(x) provide that the Securities Lending Collateral shall be maintained at all times in an amount equal to at least 102% of the current Ask-Side Market Value (determined daily and monitored by the Portfolio Manager) of the lent Collateral Obligations and if securities are delivered to the Trustee as security for the obligations of the Securities Lending Counterparty under the related Securities Lending Agreement, the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer will negotiate with the Securities Lending Counterparty a rate for the loan fee to be paid to the Issuer for lending the lent Collateral Obligations;

(xi) the lent Collateral Obligations shall be marked-to-market on a daily basis by the Portfolio Manager on the basis of their Market Value;

(xii) the Collateral will include the Issuer's rights under the related Securities Lending Agreement rather than the loaned Collateral Obligation;

(xiii) provide for early termination within 10 days at the option of the Issuer and the delivery of any lent Collateral Obligation with no penalty if the Securities Lending Counterparty is no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty and the noncompliance is not cured as provided in this Indenture; and

(xiv) contain appropriate limited recourse and non-petition provisions (to the extent the Issuer has contractual payment obligations to the Securities Lending Counterparty) equivalent (mutatis mutandis) to those in this Indenture.

(c) If either Moody's or S&P downgrades a Securities Lending Counterparty such that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party are no longer in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of the Securities Lending Counterparty, then the Portfolio Manager on behalf of the Issuer, within 10 days of the downgrade, shall

(i) terminate its Securities Lending Agreements with the Securities Lending Counterparty unless a guarantor for the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements has been obtained; or

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations lent to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty so that the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party, together with all other Securities Lending Agreements, are in compliance with the requirements relating to the credit ratings of Securities Lending Counterparties; or

(iii) take any other steps Moody's or S&P may require to cause the Securities Lending Counterparty's obligations under the Securities Lending Agreements to which the Securities Lending Counterparty is a party to be treated by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, as if the obligations were owed by a counterparty having a rating at least equivalent to the rating that was assigned by Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, to the downgraded Securities Lending Counterparty before its being downgraded.

(d) In connection with any such direction by the Portfolio Manager to enter into a Securities Lending Agreement, the Trustee may receive and rely on an Issuer Order to the effect that the Securities Lending Agreement, and its Securities Lending Counterparty, is each in compliance with the requirements of this Indenture (including the definition of "Securities Lending Counterparty"). The Issuer and the Trustee may enter into any Securities Lending Agreement (and any related account control agreement) at the instruction of the Portfolio Manager, and deliver and accept delivery and return of any Collateral Obligations pursuant to the Securities Lending Agreement, or pursuant to instructions from the Portfolio Manager in connection with the Securities Lending Agreement. The Trustee may take any actions and exercise any rights and remedies under any Securities Lending Agreement that the Portfolio Manager instructs. The Trustee need not enter into any Securities Lending Agreement (or any related account control agreement) that would in its judgment, subject it to any liability, whether financial or otherwise, or cause it to incur or subject it to risk of any cost or disbursement for which it is not, in its judgment, adequately indemnified, or that would impose on it any obligations or administrative burdens that are unacceptable to it. The Portfolio Manager shall instruct the Trustee in writing with respect to the administration of any Securities Lending Agreement (including with respect to any default and the exercise of rights under it). The Trustee shall not have any responsibility for evaluating the sufficiency, validity, or acceptability of any Securities Lending Agreement or for the qualifications or eligibility of any Securities Lending Counterparty. Nothing in this Indenture shall be construed to cause the Trustee to have any fiduciary duties to any Securities Lending Counterparty.

So long as any Collateral Obligation is on loan pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement,

(a) the Trustee shall have no liability for any failure or inability on its part to receive any information or take any action with respect to the Collateral Obligation because of its being on loan (including any failure to take action with respect to a notice of redemption, consent solicitation, exchange or tender offer, or similar corporate action), and

(b) the loaned Collateral Obligations shall not be disqualified for return to the Trustee as a Collateral Obligation by any change in circumstance or status during the time while on loan (including any change that would cause the Collateral Obligation to be ineligible for purchase by the Issuer under this Indenture if applied to a proposed purchase of it in the open market at the time of its return from loan).

Section 7.19. Purchase of Collateral Obligations; Ramp-Up Completion Date.

(a) The Issuer shall use its best efforts to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period or enter into commitments to purchase Collateral Obligations on any Business Day during the Ramp-Up Period for purchase on or as soon as practicable thereafter (not to exceed 60 days thereafter), in each case, for inclusion in the Collateral so that each of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations and the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least $663,000,000.

(b) No Collateral Obligations may be purchased prior to the Ramp-Up Completion Date unless immediately following the purchase of any Collateral Obligation (as certified by the Portfolio Manager in writing), the remaining funds in the Collection Account, after giving effect to such purchase, are sufficient as of the date of determination to purchase Collateral Obligations for inclusion in the Collateral so that each of the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations and the Overcollateralization Ratio Numerator is at least $663,000,000 (taking into account the Collateral Obligations already part of the Collateral (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date)).

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any other provision of this Indenture, if the Issuer has previously entered into a commitment to purchase a Collateral Obligation to be included in the Collateral, such commitment initially not to exceed 60 days, and at the time of the commitment the Collateral Obligation complied with the definition of "Collateral Obligation" and the requirements set forth in this Section 7.19, the Issuer may consummate the purchase of the Collateral Obligation notwithstanding that the Collateral Obligation fails to comply with the definition of "Collateral Obligation" and the requirements set out above on the date of settlement.

(d) The Issuer will use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase, or to enter into binding agreements to purchase, Collateral Obligations by the Ramp-Up Completion Date, that, together with the Collateral Obligations purchased on or before the Closing Date and then held by the Issuer, will satisfy, as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date (without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date), the Collateral Quality Tests, the Concentration Limitations, the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 of this Indenture and the Overcollateralization Tests.

(e) On or prior to July 1, 2005, so long as the Ramp-Up Completion Date has not already occurred, the Portfolio Manager shall certify by an order of the Portfolio Manager delivered to the Issuer, the Trustee and Moody's that, as of such date: (i)(A) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer equals at least $575,000,000, or (B) the Aggregate Principal Balance of the Collateral Obligations purchased (or committed to be purchased) by the Issuer with proceeds from the sale of the Securities (in each case in this clause (B), measured solely as of the date of purchase or commitment, as the case may be) equals at least $575,000,000 (for the avoidance of doubt, without giving effect to any reductions of that amount that may have resulted from scheduled principal payments, principal prepayments or dispositions made with respect to any Collateral Obligations on or before the Ramp-Up Completion Date, (ii) the Diversity Score is equal to at least 45, (iii) the Weighted Average Rating Factor Test is satisfied and (iv) each of the Coverage Tests is satisfied. If the Portfolio Manager is not able to certify each of the foregoing items, an Interim Ramp-Up Completion Date Failure shall occur.

(f) Within 5 Business Days after the Ramp-Up Completion Date, the Issuer or the Portfolio Manager (on behalf of the Issuer) shall request a Rating Confirmation on behalf of the Issuer and shall provide a report to the Rating Agencies identifying the Collateral Obligations then included in the Collateral and the Issuer shall obtain and deliver to the Trustee, the Insurer and the Rating Agencies, together with the delivery of a report (and an electronic file of the Collateral Obligations to S&P) substantially in the form of a Monthly Report as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date, an Accountants' Certificate:

(i) confirming the maturity date, rating, spread and recovery rate for each item of Original Collateral Obligations owned by the Issuer as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date and the information provided by the Issuer with respect to every other asset included in the Collateral, by reference to such sources as shall be specified therein;

(ii) confirming that as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date:

(1) each of the Coverage Tests are satisfied;

(2) the Aggregate Principal Balance of Collateral Obligations that the Issuer owned or committed to purchase as of the Ramp-Up Completion Date is at least equal to the Maximum Investment Amount; and

(3) the Collateral Obligations comply with all of the requirements of the Collateral Quality Tests and the Concentration Limitations and the criteria set forth in Section 12.2 of this Indenture; and

(iii) specifying the procedures undertaken by them to review data and computations relating to the foregoing statements.

(g) If a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, the Notes will be redeemed pursuant to, and to the extent provided in, Section 9.1(a).

Section 7.20. Posting of Reports on Repository.

If the Initial Purchaser has entered into a posting dealer agreement with The Bond Market Association relating to the transactions contemplated by this Indenture, each of the Issuer, the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager acknowledges and agrees that each Monthly Report and Valuation Report shall be posted to the Repository for use in the manner provided in the Repository. In connection therewith, the Trustee at the expense of the Issuer agrees to make available in accordance with Section 14.3(a)(viii) each Monthly Report or Valuation Report to the operator of the Repository for posting on the Repository.

Section 7.21. Secondary Risk Procedures.

The Portfolio Manager shall notify S&P and request that S&P modify the S&P CDO Monitor accordingly if on any date (as disclosed in the most recent Monthly Report):

(a) the Aggregate Principal Amount of all Collateral Obligations participated from or entered into with the same Secondary Risk Counterparty exceeds the percentage of the Maximum Investment Amount in the Secondary Risk Table opposite the long-term S&P credit rating of the Secondary Risk Counterparty under the caption "Individual Counterparty Limit," or

(b) the Aggregate Principal Amount of all Collateral Obligations participated from or entered into with Secondary Risk counterparties with the same long-term credit rating exceeds the percentage of the Maximum Investment Amount in the Secondary Risk Table opposite that rating under the caption "Aggregate Counterparty Limit" (excluding up to 5% by Aggregate Principal Amount of Synthetic Securities with respect to Collateral Obligations the Aggregate Counterparty Limit of which is 20% to the extent that (x) such exposure is fully

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES

Section 8.1. Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders.

(a) Without the consent of the Holders of any Securities or the Holders of any Preference Shares, when authorized by Board Resolutions, and subject to the requirement provided below in this Section 8.1 with respect to the ratings of any Class of Securities, the Co-Issuers and the Trustee may, and the Insurer shall, if it is not materially and adversely affected thereby (and will be bound by a standard of good faith and fair dealing in making such determination) execute one or more indentures supplemental to this Indenture, in form satisfactory to the Trustee, to:

(1) evidence the succession of another person to the Issuer or the Co-Issuer and the assumption by the successor person of the obligations of the Issuer or the Co-Issuer in this Indenture and in the Securities;

(2) add to the covenants of the Co-Issuers or the Trustee for the benefit of the Holders of the Securities or to surrender any right in this Indenture conferred on the Co-Issuers;

(3) convey, transfer, assign, mortgage, or pledge any property to the Trustee, or add to the conditions, limitations, or restrictions on the authorized amount, terms, and purposes of the issue, authentication, and delivery of the Securities;

(4) evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment under this Indenture by a successor Trustee and to add to or change any of the provisions of this Indenture necessary to facilitate the administration of the trusts under this Indenture by more than one Trustee, pursuant to the requirements of Sections 6.9, 6.10, and 6.12;

(5) correct or amplify the description of any property at any time subject to the lien of this Indenture, or to better assure, convey, and confirm to the Trustee any property subject or required to be subject to the lien of this Indenture (including all actions appropriate as a result of changes in law) or to subject to the lien of this Indenture any additional property;

(6) modify the restrictions on and procedures for resales and other transfers of the Securities to reflect any changes in applicable law (or its interpretation) or to enable the Co-Issuers to rely on any less restrictive exemption from registration under the Securities Act or the 1940 Act or to remove restrictions on resale and transfer to the extent not required under this Indenture;

(7) with the consent of the Portfolio Manager, to modify the restrictions on the sales of Collateral Obligations in Section 12.1 or the Eligibility Criteria in Section 12.2 (and the definitions related thereto) in a manner not materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of the Notes, the Composite Securities or the Preference Shares as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an officer of the Portfolio Manager to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of the Notes, the Composite Securities or the Preference Shares;

(8) make appropriate changes for any Class of Securities to be listed on an exchange other than the Irish Stock Exchange;

(9) otherwise to correct any inconsistency or cure any ambiguity or errors in this Indenture;

(10) accommodate the issuance of the Securities in book-entry form through the facilities of DTC or otherwise;

(11) to take any appropriate action to prevent the Issuer, the Insurer, the Holders of Securities or Preference Shares, or the Trustee from becoming subject to withholding or other taxes, fees, or assessments or to prevent the Issuer from being treated as being engaged in a U.S. trade or business or otherwise being subject to U.S. federal, state, or local income tax on a net income basis, so long as the action will not cause the Insurer or the Holders of any Securities or Preference Shares to be adversely affected to any material extent by any change to the timing, character, or source of the income from the Securities or Preference Shares, as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion);

(12) to authorize the appointment of any listing agent, Transfer Agent, Paying Agent, or additional registrar for any Class of Securities appropriate in connection with the listing of any Class of Securities on the Irish Stock Exchange or any other stock exchange, and otherwise to amend this Indenture to incorporate any changes required or requested by any governmental authority, stock exchange authority, listing agent, Transfer Agent, Paying Agent, or additional registrar for any Class of Securities in connection with its appointment, so long as the supplemental indenture would not materially and adversely affect any Holder of Securities, as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an Authorized Officer of the Portfolio Manager, to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Securities;

(13) to amend, modify, enter into, or accommodate the execution of any contract relating to a Synthetic Security (including posting collateral under a Synthetic Security Agreement);

(14) to modify Section 3.3 to be consistent with applicable laws or Rating Agency requirements;

(15) to evidence any waiver by any Rating Agency as to any requirement or condition, as applicable, of the Rating Agency set forth in this Indenture;

(16) to facilitate the issuance of participation notes, combination notes, composite securities, and other similar securities;

(17) to facilitate hedging transactions;

(18) to facilitate the ability of the Issuer to lend collateral pursuant to a Securities Lending Agreement;

(19) to modify any provision to facilitate an A/B Exchange, including to effect any serial designation relating to the exchange; or

(20) with the consent of the Portfolio Manager, to enter into any additional agreements not expressly prohibited by this Indenture as well as any amendment, modification, or waiver if the Issuer determines that the amendment, modification, or waiver would not, upon or after becoming effective, materially and adversely affect the rights or interest of the Holders of any Class of Securities or the Holders of Preference Shares as evidenced by an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) or a certificate of an officer of the Portfolio Manager to the effect that the modification would not be materially adverse to the Holders of any Class of Securities or the Holders of Preference Shares.

(b) Without the consent of the Portfolio Manager, no supplemental indenture may be entered into that would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to the Portfolio Manager under this Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Portfolio Manager.

(c) The Trustee is authorized to join in the execution of any such supplemental indenture and to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations that may be in the agreements, but the Trustee shall not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, liabilities, or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise, except to the extent required by law. Unless notified by a Majority of any Class of the Securities or a Majority of the Holders of Preference Shares that the Class of Securities or Holders of Preference Shares would be materially and adversely affected, the Trustee may rely on a certificate of the Portfolio Manager and an Opinion of Counsel (which may be supported as to factual (including financial and capital markets) matters by any relevant certificates and other documents necessary or advisable in the judgment of counsel delivering the opinion) as to whether the interests of any Holder of Securities or Holder of Preference Shares would be materially and adversely affected by any such supplemental indenture. The Trustee shall give notice of the proposed change to the Holders of Securities and to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) at least 15 Business Days before execution of any supplemental indenture by the Trustee (or 60 calendar days before execution, in the case of a supplemental indenture for the purpose described in paragraph (7) of Section 8.1(a), which shall be identified as such in a certificate of the Portfolio Manager delivered to the Trustee before the date on which such notice is required to be given).

(d) If any Outstanding Securities are rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee shall enter into a supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.1 only if either (1) the Rating Condition with respect to each Rating Agency is satisfied with respect to the supplemental indenture or (2) the Portfolio Manager and the Holders of 100% in Aggregate Outstanding

Amount of each Class of Securities the ratings on which would be reduced or withdrawn consent to the supplemental indenture. Prior to the entry into any supplemental Indenture with respect to which a Rating Confirmation for one or more Classes of Notes or Composite Securities is not expected to be delivered, the Trustee shall provide written notice to each Holder of each Outstanding Note and each Holder of each Outstanding Composite Security informing them of such fact.

(e) At the cost of the Co-Issuers, for so long as any Securities are Outstanding and rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee shall provide to the Rating Agency, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Hedge Counterparty a copy of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section at least 15 Business Days before its execution by the Trustee.

Section 8.2. Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders.

(a) If the Rating Condition is satisfied with respect to each Rating Agency, the Trustee, the Insurer and the Co-Issuers may execute one or more indentures supplemental to this Indenture to add any provisions to, or change in any manner, or eliminate any of the provisions of, this Indenture or modify in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Securities under this Indenture with the consent of:

- (1) the Portfolio Manager if the supplemental indenture would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to it under this Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Portfolio Manager;
- (2) a Majority of each Class of Notes adversely affected thereby, by Act of the Holders of each such Class of Notes;
- (3) a Majority of the Composite Securities adversely affected thereby, by Act of the Holders of the Composite Securities; and
- (4) a Majority of the Preference Shares adversely affected thereby.

Any proposed supplemental indenture that would also necessitate a change to the Memorandum and Articles of Association may only be made after a Special Resolution (as defined in the Memorandum and Articles of Association) has been passed to permit the Issuer's constitutional documents to be altered to conform them to the proposed change to this Indenture as certified to the Trustee by the Issuer.

Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note adversely affected thereby, the Holder of each Outstanding Composite Security adversely affected thereby and the Holder of each Preference Share adversely affected thereby, no supplemental indenture shall:

- (i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of or the due date of any installment of interest on any Note or the Class 1 Component or of any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares Interests, reduce its principal amount or the rate of interest on it, or the Default Interest Rate or the Redemption Price with respect to any Note, the Class 1 Component or Preference Share, or change the earliest date on which Notes of any Class or Preference Share may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer, change the provisions of this

Indenture relating to the application of proceeds of any Collateral to the payment of principal of or interest on Notes and the application of proceeds of any Class 1 Collateral or Preference Share Component corresponding to their related Components, or to payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for payment to the Holders of the Preference Shares, or change any place where, or the coin or currency in which, Notes or their principal or interest are paid or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after their Stated Maturity (or, in the case of redemption, on or after the applicable Redemption Date);

(ii) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class or Composite Securities or Holders of Preference Shares whose consent is required for the authorization of any such supplemental indenture or for any waiver of compliance with certain provisions of this Indenture or certain defaults under this Indenture or their consequences provided for in this Indenture;

(iii) permit the creation of any lien ranking prior to or on a parity with the lien of this Indenture with respect to any part of the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral or terminate the lien on any property at any time subject hereto or deprive the Holder of any Security of the security afforded by the lien of this Indenture;

(iv) reduce the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Notes of each Class whose consent is required to request the Trustee to preserve the Collateral or the percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Holders of Class 1 Composite Securities whose consent is required to request the Trustee to preserve the Class 1 Collateral or rescind the Trustee's election to preserve the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral, as the case may be, pursuant to Section 5.5 or to sell or liquidate the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral, as the case may be, pursuant to Section 5.4 or 5.5;

(v) modify any of the provisions of this Section, or to provide that certain other provisions of this Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note, Preference Share and Composite Security affected thereby;

(vi) modify the definition of "Outstanding," "Controlling Class," or "Majority," or the Priority of Payments in Section 11.1(a) or Section 13.1; or

(vii) modify any of the provisions of this Indenture in such a manner as to affect the calculation of the amount of any payment of Redemption Price or of interest or principal on any Note or the Class 1 Component or any payment to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for the payment of dividends or other payments on the Preference Shares on any Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, the Composite Securities Payment Date) or to affect the rights of the Holders of Notes or Preference Shares or the Holders of the Class 1 Composite Securities to the benefit of any provisions for the redemption of the Notes, the Class 1 Component or the Preference Shares contained in this Indenture.

Prior to the entry into any supplemental indenture with respect to which a Rating Confirmation for one or more Classes of Notes or Composite Securities is not expected to be delivered, the Trustee shall provide written notice to each Holder of each Outstanding Note, each Holder of each Outstanding Composite Security and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) informing them of such fact.

(b) At the cost of the Co-Issuers, for so long as any Securities are Outstanding and rated by a Rating Agency, the Trustee shall provide to the Rating Agency a copy of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section at least 15 Business Days before its execution by the Trustee.

(c) Not later than 15 Business Days prior to the execution of any proposed supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.2, the Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail to the Holders of the Securities, the Portfolio Manager, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency (so long as any rated Securities are Outstanding) a copy of such supplemental indenture and shall request any required consent from the applicable Holders of Securities or Preference Shares to be given within the Initial Consent Period. Any consent given to a proposed supplemental indenture by the Holder of any Securities or Preference Shares, as applicable, shall be irrevocable and binding on all future Holders or beneficial owners of that Security or Preference Share, irrespective of the execution date of the supplemental indenture. If the Holders of less than the required percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the relevant Securities or Preference Shares consent to a proposed supplemental indenture within the Initial Consent Period, on the first Business Day after the Initial Consent Period, the Trustee shall notify the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager which Holders of Securities or Preference Shares have consented to the proposed supplemental indenture and, which Holders (and, to the extent such information is reasonably available to the Trustee, which beneficial owners) have not consented to the proposed supplemental indenture. If it intends to exercise its Amendment Buy-Out Option pursuant to Section 9.6, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall so notify the Trustee (which notice shall designate a date for the Amendment Buy-Out to occur no earlier than 10 Business Days after the date of such notice) no later than five (5) Business Days after so being notified by the Trustee and the Trustee shall mail such notice to all Holders of Securities and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares). Any Non-Consenting Holder may give consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture until the 5th Business Day prior to the date of the Amendment Buy-Out designated by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, and in such case shall cease to be a Non-Consenting Holder for purposes of the Amendment Buy-Out. If the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser exercises its Amendment Buy-Out Option and purchases the applicable Securities pursuant to Section 9.6 below, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser, as Holder or beneficial owner of the applicable Securities or Preference Shares, may consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture within five (5) Business Days of the Amendment Buy-Out. In the event that the Insurer does not consent to the related proposed supplemental indenture but all of the Holders of the Notes whose consent is required have consented to such proposed supplemental indenture, the Holders of the Insured Notes may, pursuant to Section 16.8, terminate the Policy, upon which, the consent of the Insurer pursuant to this clause (c) shall no longer be required; provided, however, that no such amendment shall decrease the rights of the Insurer (including, but not limited to the right of the Insurer to be reimbursed for Accrued Insurance Liabilities) or increase the duties or obligations of the Insurer, in any case, that survive the termination of the Policy.

(d) It shall not be necessary for any Act of Holders of Securities under this Section 8.2 to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if the Act or consent approves its substance.

(e) The Trustee, at the expense of the Co-Issuers, shall mail to the Holders of the Securities, the Portfolio Manager, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares) and each Rating Agency a copy of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Section 8.2 promptly after its execution by the Co-Issuers and the Trustee. Any failure of the Trustee to mail a copy of any supplemental indenture as provided in this Indenture, or any defect in the mailing, shall not in any way affect the validity of the supplemental indenture.

Section 8.3. Execution of Supplemental Indentures.

In executing or accepting the additional trusts created by any supplemental indenture permitted by this Article 8 or the modifications thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture, the Trustee may receive, and (subject to Sections 6.1 and 6.3) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of the supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture and that all conditions precedent to the execution of such supplemental indenture have been satisfied. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise. The Portfolio Manager shall not be bound by any amendment or supplement to this Indenture that would reduce the rights, decrease the fees or other amounts payable to it under this Indenture or increase the duties or obligations of the Portfolio Manager unless the Portfolio Manager consents to it in writing, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The Portfolio Manager shall follow any amendment or supplement to this Indenture by which it is bound of which it has received written notice from the time it receives a copy of the amendment from the Issuer or the Trustee.

Section 8.4. Effect of Supplemental Indentures; Certain Required Consents.

Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture under this Article 8, this Indenture shall be modified in accordance therewith, and the supplemental indenture shall form a part of this Indenture for all purposes; and the Insurer and every Holder of Securities and Preference Shares theretofore and thereafter authenticated and delivered under this Indenture shall be bound thereby.

Without the approval of each Hedge Counterparty to a then existing Hedge Agreement (so long as the Hedge Counterparty is not in default under any Hedge Agreement to which it is party), no supplemental indenture will be effective, and the Co-Issuers will not consent to any supplemental indenture, that would have a material adverse effect on the Hedge Counterparty. For purposes of this paragraph, any supplemental indenture will be deemed not to have a material adverse effect on the Hedge Counterparty if it does not object within 10 days of delivery of such supplemental indenture by the Trustee.

Section 8.5. Reference in Securities to Supplemental Indentures.

Securities authenticated and delivered after the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article 8 may, and if required by the Trustee shall, bear a notice in form approved by the Trustee as to any matter provided for in the supplemental indenture. If the Applicable Issuers shall so determine, new Notes and new Composite Securities, so modified as to conform in the opinion of the Trustee and the Co-Issuers to any such supplemental indenture, may be prepared and executed by the Applicable Issuers and authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for Outstanding Securities.

Section 8.6. Composite Securities.

For purposes of this Article 8, the Composite Securities shall only be adversely affected or materially and adversely affected, as the context requires, by any proposed supplemental indenture if the Composite Securities would suffer an adverse effect or material adverse effect, as the context requires, that does not arise directly from an adverse effect or material adverse effect suffered by the Preference Shares.

ARTICLE 9

REDEMPTION OF NOTES

Section 9.1. Mandatory Redemption.

(a) If either (a) a Coverage Test is not met on any Determination Date or (b) a Rating Confirmation Failure occurs, principal payments on the Notes shall be made on the related Payment Date (without payment of any Redemption Price) in accordance with the Priority of Payments.

Upon receipt of notice of a Rating Confirmation Failure and if available Interest Proceeds and Principal Proceeds are insufficient to effect the redemption of the Notes, at par on any subsequent Payment Date in accordance with the Priority of Payments as and to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Securities, then at the direction and in accordance with the instructions of the Portfolio Manager the Trustee shall sell Collateral Obligations so that the proceeds from the sale and all other funds available for the purpose in the Collection Account will be used to redeem the Notes and the Preference Shares (but only to the extent necessary for each of Moody's and S&P to confirm in writing the Initial Ratings assigned by it on the Closing Date to the Securities) and to pay all administrative and other fees, expenses, and obligations payable under the Priority of Payments. Any sale under this Section shall be conducted in such a manner that:

(i) after giving effect to the sale each Overcollateralization Test is satisfied or, if any Overcollateralization Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Overcollateralization Test is not reduced,

(ii) if the sale occurs on or after the second Payment Date, after giving effect to the sale each Interest Coverage Test is satisfied or, if any Interest Coverage Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Interest Coverage Test is not reduced, and

(iii) after giving effect to the sale each Collateral Quality Test is satisfied or, if any Collateral Quality Test is not satisfied, the extent of compliance with the Collateral Quality Test is not reduced.

(b) The Preference Shares will be redeemed in whole in accordance with the Priority of Payments and the Preference Share Documents on any Payment Date (or, with respect to the Preference Share Components, the Composite Securities Payment Date) on which a mandatory redemption of the Notes pursuant to Section 9.1(a) results in the payment in full of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of each Class of Notes.

Section 9.2. Optional Redemption.

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Tax Event, or at any time after the Non-Call Period, the Notes shall be redeemed by the Applicable Issuers, in whole but not in part, on any Payment Date from Principal Proceeds and all other funds available for that purpose in the Collection Account, the Payment Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Revolving Reserve Account, and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account at the direction of the Holders of at least 63% of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of Preference Shares, which direction must be given to the Preference Shares Paying Agent, the Trustee, the Issuer, the Insurer and the Portfolio Manager not later than 45 days before the Payment Date on which the redemption is to be made, at the applicable Redemption Price (exclusive of installments of interest and principal maturing on or before that date, payment of which shall have been made or duly provided for, to the Holders of the Notes on relevant Record Dates or as otherwise provided in this Indenture). All Notes must be simultaneously redeemed, and any termination payments pursuant to Hedge Agreements must be paid.

Upon receipt of a notice of redemption pursuant to this Section 9.2(a), the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion will (subject to the standard of care specified in the Management Agreement), on behalf of the Issuer, direct the sale of the Collateral Obligations so that the proceeds from the sale and all other funds available for such purpose in the Collection Account, the Interest Reserve Account, the Closing Date Expense Account, the Revolving Reserve Account, and the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account will be at least sufficient to redeem all of the Notes and to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments without regard to any payment limitations. If, in the Portfolio Manager's reasonable discretion, the sale would not be sufficient to redeem the Notes, and to pay the fees, expenses, and obligations, the Notes shall not be redeemed.

Upon any redemption pursuant to this Section 9.2(a), the Issuer shall, at least 30 days before the Redemption Date (unless the Trustee shall agree to a shorter notice period), notify the Trustee, the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Insurer and each Rating Agency of the Redemption Date, the applicable Record Date, the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed on the Redemption Date, and the applicable Redemption Prices.

(b) On any Payment Date on or after payment in full of the Notes, all administrative and other fees (without regard to any payment limitations) payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), all amounts owing under this Indenture and the Insurance Documents to the Insurer, and all amounts owing under this Indenture and any Hedge Agreement to any Hedge Counterparty have been discharged,

(i) at the direction of a Majority of the Preference Shares, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all of the Preference Shares, in an aggregate amount equal to all of the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of all of the remaining Collateral less any fees and expenses owed by the Issuer (including the Redemption Price of any Notes being simultaneously redeemed), the aggregate amount to be distributed to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares pro rata in accordance with their respective holdings or

(ii) at the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares, voting as a single Class or group, the Issuer shall cause the Trustee to make payments in redemption of all or a directed portion (representing less than all) of the Preference Shares to the Preference Shares Paying Agent for distribution to the Holders of the Preference Shares based upon such direction.

Upon the occurrence of a redemption of the Preference Shares pursuant to this Section 9.2, in whole or in part, the Class 1 Components shall be redeemed by the Issuer, in whole but not in part, on the related Composite Securities Payment Date from the Class 1 Collateral available for that purpose in the Class 1 Component Account at the applicable Redemption Price. All Class 1 Components must be simultaneously redeemed. Upon any redemption of the Class 1 Components, the Holders of Class 1 Composite Securities shall receive the Redemption Price as a distribution in kind of a pro rata share (based on the Class 1 Composite Security Rated Balance) of each item of the Class 1 Collateral.

Upon a distribution pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(i), the Portfolio Manager will (subject to the standard of care specified in the Management Agreement), on behalf of the Issuer (and subject to Section 9.2(b)(ii)), direct the sale of all remaining Collateral Obligations. Upon a distribution pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii), the Portfolio Manager will effect the sale of Collateral Obligations in accordance with the unanimous direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares.

Section 9.3. Redemption Procedures.

(a) Upon any redemption pursuant to Section 9.2, a notice of redemption shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than 10 Business Days and not earlier than 30 days before the applicable Redemption Date, to the Insurer, each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of DTC, Euroclear, and Clearstream, as applicable, to the Holders of the Composite Securities and to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), and (in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a)) to each Rating Agency. In addition, for so long as any Securities are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, notice of redemption of Securities pursuant to Section 9.2 shall also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange.

(b) All notices of redemption delivered pursuant to Section 9.3(a) shall state:

- (i) the applicable Redemption Date;
- (ii) the Redemption Price of the Notes or the Class 1 Component to be redeemed (in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a));
- (iii) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a), that all of the Notes, are to be redeemed in full and that interest on the Notes to be redeemed shall cease to accrue on the Payment Date specified in the notice; and
- (iv) the places where Securities to be redeemed in whole are to be surrendered for payment of the Redemption Price, which shall be the office or agency of the Co-Issuers to be maintained as provided in Section 7.2 and, so long as any Securities to be redeemed are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange, the Irish Listing and Paying Agent.

Any such notice of redemption may be withdrawn by the Issuer up to the fourth Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date by written notice to the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to the Holders of Preference Shares), the Trustee, the Insurer and the Portfolio Manager only if:

(A) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a), the Portfolio Manager does not deliver the sale agreement or certifications (described in Section 9.3(c) and 12.1(f)), as the case may be, in form satisfactory to the Trustee,

(B) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(a) or Section 9.2(b)(i), the Issuer receives the written direction of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption delivered by a percentage of the Preference Shares requesting redemption under Section 9.2(a) or Section 9.2(b)(i), as applicable, and

(C) in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 9.2(b)(ii), the Issuer receives the unanimous written direction of the Holders of the Preference Shares to withdraw the notice of redemption (and the Issuer hereby agrees for the benefit of the directing person to withdraw the applicable notice of redemption if it receives the written direction referred to in the preceding clause (B) or this clause (C)).

Notice of any withdrawal shall be sent, not later than the third Business Day before the scheduled Redemption Date (assuming that the Trustee has received timely written notice from the Issuer as provided above), by the Trustee, to each Holder of Securities scheduled to be redeemed at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register by overnight courier guaranteeing next day delivery (or, to the extent the address contained in the Indenture Register is not sufficient for that purpose, by first class mail) and the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares). If the Issuer so withdraws any notice of redemption or is otherwise unable to complete any redemption of the Notes, the Sale Proceeds received from the sale of any Collateral Obligations sold pursuant to Sections 9.2 and 12.1(f) may, during the Reinvestment Period (and, in respect of Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations, after the Reinvestment Period) at the Portfolio Manager's discretion, be reinvested in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria.

Notice of redemption shall be given by the Co-Issuers or, upon an Issuer Order, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Co-Issuers. Failure to give notice of redemption, or any defect therein, to any Holder of any Security selected for redemption or the Preference Shares Paying Agent (for forwarding to each Holder of Preference Shares) shall not impair or affect the validity of the redemption of any other Securities or Preference Shares.

(c) The Notes may not be redeemed pursuant to Section 9.2(a) unless either of the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) At least ten Business Days before the Redemption Date, the Portfolio Manager shall have furnished to the Trustee evidence (in form reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee) that the Issuer has entered into a binding agreements (with a financial or other institution or entity whose short-term unsecured debt obligations (other than obligations whose rating is based on the credit of a person other than the institution) have a credit rating of at least "A-1" from S&P and of "P-1" (and not on credit watch for possible downgrade) from Moody's (or to any other institution or entity if the Rating Condition with respect to Moody's is satisfied with respect to the other entity)) to sell to the financial or other institutions, not later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date in immediately available funds, all or part of the Collateral (directly or by participation or other arrangement) at a Purchase Price at least equal to an amount sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments without regard to any payment limitations (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), all amounts owing under this Indenture and the Insurance Agreement to the Insurer, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties, and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices; or

(ii) Before entering into any binding agreement to sell all or a portion of the Collateral and selling or terminating any Hedge Agreement, the Portfolio Manager shall have certified that, in its commercially reasonable judgment, the settlement dates of the sales will be scheduled to occur on or before the Business Day before the Redemption Date and that the expected proceeds from the sales are to be delivered to the Trustee no later than the Business Day before the Redemption Date, in immediately available funds, in an amount (calculated as applicable in the manner provided below) sufficient (together with any Cash and other Eligible Investments not subject to the agreements and maturing on or before the Redemption Date and any payments to be received with respect to the Hedge Agreements on or before the Redemption Date) to pay all administrative and other fees and expenses payable under the Priority of Payments (including the Senior Management Fee and the Subordinated Management Fee), all amounts owing under this Indenture and the Insurance Documents to the Insurer, all amounts owing under the Hedge Agreements to the Hedge Counterparties, and to redeem the Notes on the Redemption Date at the applicable Redemption Prices. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount shall be calculated with respect to the classes of Collateral listed in the table below by multiplying the expected proceeds of sale of the Collateral by the indicated percentage in the table below.

Certification to the Trustee and Sale

Same Day 1 to 2 3 to 5 6 to 15

Any certification delivered pursuant to this Section 9.3(c) shall include (A) the prices of, and expected proceeds from, the sale of any Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments, or Hedge Agreements and (B) all calculations required by this Section 9.3(c).

Section 9.4. Notes Payable on Redemption Date.

(a) Notice of redemption pursuant to Section 9.3 having been given as aforesaid, the Notes to be redeemed shall, on the Redemption Date, become payable at the Redemption Price therein specified and from and after the Redemption Date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price and accrued interest) the Notes shall cease to bear interest on the Redemption Date. Upon final payment on a Note to be so redeemed, the Holder shall present and surrender the Note at the place specified in the notice of redemption on or before the Redemption Date unless the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and (in the case of the Class A-1g Notes) the Insurer, receive the security or indemnity required by them to save each of them harmless and an undertaking thereafter to surrender the Note, and in the absence of notice to the Co-Issuers, the Trustee and (in the case of the Class A-1g Notes) the Insurer, that the applicable Note has been acquired by a protected purchaser, the final payment shall be made without presentation or surrender. If a Component is to be redeemed, the related Composite Security does not need to be surrendered at the office of any paying agent under this Indenture to receive the applicable Redemption Price. Payments of interest on Notes so to be redeemed whose Stated Maturity is on or before the Redemption Date shall be payable to the Holders of the Notes, or one or more predecessor Notes, registered as such at the close of business on the relevant Record Date if the Record Date is a Business Day (or, if the Record Date is not a Business Day, the close of business on the Business Day before the Record Date) according to Section 2.8(e).

(b) If any Note called for redemption is not paid on its surrender for redemption, its principal shall bear interest from the Redemption Date at the Applicable Note Interest Rate for each successive Interest Period the Note remains Outstanding if the reason for the non-payment is not the fault of the Holder of the Note.

Section 9.5. Special Redemption.

Principal payments on the Notes shall be made in whole or in part, at par, in accordance with the Priority of Payments if, at any time during the Reinvestment Period, the Portfolio Manager elects (subject to the Management Agreement) to notify the Trustee and each Rating Agency that it has been unable, for 45 consecutive Business Days, to identify additional Collateral Obligations that are deemed appropriate by the Portfolio Manager in its sole discretion and meet the Eligibility Criteria in sufficient amounts to permit the investment or reinvestment of all or a portion of the funds then in the Collection Account available to be invested in additional Collateral Obligations (a "Special Redemption").

On the first Payment Date following the Due Period for which the notice is effective (a "Special Redemption Date"), the funds in the Collection Account or the Payment Account representing Principal Proceeds that, by operation of the preceding paragraph, are not reinvested in additional Collateral Obligations (the "Special Redemption Amount") will be available to be applied in accordance with the Priority of Payments under Section 11.1(a)(ii). Notice of payments pursuant to this Section 9.5 shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, mailed not later than three Business Days before the applicable Special Redemption Date, to the Insurer and each Holder of Notes to be redeemed, at the Holder's address in the Indenture Register or otherwise in accordance with the rules and procedures of DTC. In addition, for so long as any Securities are listed on the Irish Stock Exchange and so long as the rules of the exchange so require, notice of redemption of Securities pursuant to Section 9.2 shall also be given to the Company Announcements Office of the Irish Stock Exchange.

Section 9.6. Amendment Buy-Out.

(a) In the case of any supplemental indenture pursuant to Section 8.2 that requires the consent of one or more Holders of Securities or Preference Shares, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Non-Consenting Holders all Securities or Preference Shares held by such Holders of the Class of Securities or Preference Shares whose consent was solicited with respect to such supplemental indenture (the "Amendment Buy-Out Option") for the applicable Amendment Buy-Out Purchase Price. If such option is exercised, the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all such Securities or Preference Shares of Non-Consenting Holders, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Securities or Preference Shares the consent of whose Holders is required for such supplemental indenture (an "Amendment Buy-Out"). By its acceptance of its Securities or Preference Shares hereunder, each Holder of Securities or Preference Shares agrees that if the Amendment Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell its applicable Securities or Preference Shares to the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser; provided that, if the solicited consent to a supplemental indenture only applies to one Component of a Composite Security, the Non-Consenting Holder will be required to sell, at the Non-Consenting Holder's option, its Composite Security as a whole. Neither the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser nor any other Person shall have any liability to any Holder or beneficial owner of Securities or Preference Shares as a result of an election by the Amendment Buy-Out Purchaser not to exercise the Amendment Buy-Out Option.

(b) All purchases made pursuant to an Amendment Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the relevant Securities or Preference Shares set forth herein and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

Section 9.7. Removal Buy-Out.

(a) In the case of any proposed removal of the Portfolio Manager relating to the occurrence of an Event of Default described in Section 5.1(d), pursuant to the first paragraph of Section 14 of the Management Agreement, the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from the Holders of the Class A-1g Notes, all Class A-1g Notes (the "Removal Buy-Out Option") for the applicable Removal Buy-Out Purchase Price. If such option is exercised, the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser must purchase all such Class A-1g Notes, regardless of the applicable percentage of the Aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Controlling Class required to remove the Portfolio Manager under the first paragraph of Section 14 of the Management Agreement (a "Removal Buy-Out"). By its acceptance of the Class A-1g Notes hereunder, each Holder of Class A-1g Notes agrees that if the Removal Buy-Out Option is exercised, any Holder of Class A-1g Notes will be required to sell its applicable

Class A-1g Notes to the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser. Neither the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser nor any other Person shall have any liability to any Holder or beneficial owner of Class A-1g Notes as a result of an election by the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser not to exercise the Removal Buy-Out Option.

(b) All purchases made pursuant to a Removal Buy-Out Option individually and in the aggregate must comply with the applicable transfer restrictions for the Class A-1g Notes set forth herein and all applicable laws, rules and regulations (including, without limitation, any rules, regulations and procedures of any securities exchange, self-regulatory organization or clearing agency).

(c) Upon the effectiveness of the Removal Buy-Out, the Removal Buy-Out Purchaser shall be deemed to have exercised its right, without any further action or notice to any Person, to terminate the Policy pursuant to Section 16.8 hereof.

ACCOUNTS, ACCOUNTINGS, AND RELEASES

Section 10.1. Collection of Money.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Indenture, the Trustee may demand payment or delivery of, and shall receive and collect, directly and without intervention or assistance of any fiscal agent or other intermediary, all money and other property payable to or receivable by the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture, including all payments due on the Pledged Obligations, in accordance with the terms of the Pledged Obligations. The Trustee shall segregate and hold all money and property received by it in trust for the Secured Parties and shall apply it as provided in this Indenture. Any Account may contain any number of sub-accounts for the convenience of the Trustee or as required by the Portfolio Manager for convenience in administering the Accounts, the Collateral or the Class 1 Collateral.

Section 10.2. Collection Account.

(a) Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the Collection Account, that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal, and into which the Trustee shall from time to time deposit, in addition to the deposits required pursuant to Section 10.7(e), immediately upon the Trustee's receipt thereof:

(i) any funds transferred from (1) the Closing Date Expense Account pursuant to Section 10.3(g) or (2) the Interest Reserve Account pursuant to Section 10.3(i),

(ii) all Principal Proceeds (unless (1) simultaneously reinvested in Collateral Obligations in accordance with Article 12, (2) deposited into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or (3) posted by the Issuer as cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security or in Eligible Investments) received by the Trustee,

(iii) all Interest Proceeds received by the Trustee (unless simultaneously reinvested in accrued interest in respect of Collateral Obligations in accordance with Article 12 or in Eligible Investments), and

(iv) all other funds received by the Trustee and not excluded above.

In addition to the items described above, the Issuer may, but under no circumstances shall be required to, deposit from time to time any monies, securities and other instruments in the Collection Account it deems, in its sole discretion, to be advisable (and may designate any amounts deposited pursuant to this sentence as Principal Proceeds or Interest Proceeds in its discretion). Any Principal Proceeds received during the Reinvestment Period, and Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Improved Obligations and Unscheduled Principal Payments received after the Reinvestment Period, which have not been reinvested in additional Collateral Obligations on the Business Day of receipt shall be deposited in the Collection Account and shall at the direction of the Portfolio Manager be applied to the purchase of additional Collateral Obligations in accordance with the Eligibility Criteria and the other requirements set forth herein or the purchase of Eligible Investments pending such investment or used to enter into additional Hedge Agreements or used in connection with a Special Redemption. Principal Proceeds (other than Sale Proceeds from the sale of Credit Improved Obligations and Unscheduled Principal Payments) received after the Reinvestment Period shall be deposited into the Collection Account and applied to the purchase of Eligible Investments. All monies deposited from time to time in the Collection Account pursuant to this Indenture shall be held by the Trustee as part of the Collateral and shall be applied to the purposes provided in this Indenture. Amounts in the Collection Account shall be reinvested pursuant to Section 10.4(a).

(b) Within one Business Day after receipt of any distribution or other proceeds of the Collateral that are not Cash, the Trustee shall so notify the Issuer and the Portfolio Manager. Within five Business Days of receipt of the notice from the Trustee, the Portfolio Manager, on behalf of the Issuer, shall sell the distribution or other proceeds for Cash in an arm's length transaction to a person that is not the Portfolio Manager or an Affiliate of the Portfolio Manager and deposit its proceeds in the Collection Account. The Issuer need not sell the distributions or other proceeds if it delivers an Issuer Order or an Officer's certificate to the Trustee and the Portfolio Manager certifying that the distributions or other proceeds are Collateral Obligations, Eligible Investments, or Workout Assets.

(c) During the Reinvestment Period (or, in respect of Principal Proceeds constituting Unscheduled Principal Payments and Sale Proceeds from Credit Improved Obligations, after the Reinvestment Period), at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may by Issuer Order direct the Trustee to, and upon receipt of the Issuer Order the Trustee shall withdraw funds on deposit in the Collection Account representing Principal Proceeds (and, to the extent expressly provided in this Indenture, Interest Proceeds) and reinvest (or invest, in the case of funds referred to in Section 7.19) the funds in Collateral Obligations (including any related deposit into the Revolving Reserve Account or the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account or the posting by the Issuer of cash collateral with (or for the benefit of) a Synthetic Security Counterparty simultaneously with the Issuer's purchase of or entry into a Synthetic Security), in each case in accordance with the requirements of Article 12 and the Issuer Order.

(d) At any time during or after the Reinvestment Period, at the direction of the Portfolio Manager, the Issuer may by Issuer Order direct the Trustee to, and upon receipt of the Issuer Order the Trustee shall, pay from amounts on deposit in the Collection Account on any Business Day during any Interest Period from Interest Proceeds only, any Administrative Expenses that require payment before the next Payment Date to the extent that the amount of the payments does not exceed the aggregate amount that may be paid on the next Payment Date under, and at the level of priority specified by, Section 11.1(a)(i)(1).

(e) The Trustee shall transfer to the Payment Account from the Collection Account for application pursuant to Section 11.1(a) or 11.2, as applicable, on or not later than the Business Day preceding each Payment Date, the amount set forth to be so transferred in the Valuation Report for the Payment Date.

Section 10.3. Other Accounts.

(a) Custodial Account. Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish a single, segregated trust account that shall be designated as the Custodial Account, that shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties, over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal, and into which the Trustee shall deposit the Collateral Obligations and other Collateral not deposited elsewhere in accordance with this Indenture (other than Loans, Participations and general intangibles, which in the case of Loans and Participations, shall be held by the Trustee as provided in Section 3.2). All assets or securities at any time on deposit in, or otherwise to the credit of, the Custodial Account shall be held in trust by the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties. The only permitted withdrawals from the Custodial Account shall be in accordance with this Indenture. The Co-Issuers shall not have any legal, equitable, or beneficial interest in the Custodial Account other than in accordance with Section 3.2 and the Priority of Payments.

(b) Revolving Reserve Account and Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account. Before the Closing Date, the Trustee shall establish (i) a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account which shall be designated as the Revolving Reserve Account and (ii) a single, segregated non-interest bearing trust account that shall be designated as the Delayed Drawdown Reserve Account, each of which shall be held in trust in the name of the Trustee for the benefit of the Secured Parties, over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and the sole right of withdrawal.
